Minecraft Realms Opens up To Bring Mojang Servers Worldwide

Mojang's new subscription service that hosts and creates multiplayer servers for Minecraft is available now worldwide. Minecraft Realms was launched in North America last month on Mac and PC, and Mojang has expanded it internationally this week - there are no forgotten realms. Minecraft Server List In the UK for instance the cost of a month's subscription puts you back eight Her Majesty's pounds sterling.

In North America the asking price is $13 per month, although there are discounts for three - and six-month contracts. The service has an automatic backup feature if you want to rip up the creations to start again and Mojang also promises minigames and exclusive events. You can invite friends to your Minecraft Realms world to play with you. [Image: Mojang]