So this is a repost of a video I made a good while back, I've had motivation this past week or so to decide to share this again...the companies, websites and magazines seem to be coming out of the woodwork again recently with the "best natural test boosters 2020" load of crap to scam you out of your money! So here's my video with everything you need to know about testosterone....it's a long one but should answer the majority of your questions! If there's any other questions feel free to drop me a message!

Too much sugar can lead to a spike in insulin levels and cause an imbalance in oestrogen, testosterone, and progesterone.
