A BUYER'S MARKET FOR CONDOS?

Until recently, condominium units were considered to be an excellent way for high income investors to shelter income. They purchased units with little money down, and even though the rents they charged did not cover their monthly carrying costs, they did well when tax deductions were added into the equation.

With tax reform, however, limits were placed on tax savings for high income investors, and some of them are placing their condos up for sale. In some areas this has created a buyers' market, making them attractive to owner/occupants and moderate income investors. If you're looking for a condo to live in, there are tremendous values in the marketplace. If you are considering a real estate investment, your tax planner can help you determine whether buying an investment unit is a good move for you.

For professional advice on all aspects of buying or selling a home, talk to the professionals at Century 21, Silva Realty Associates. Come by our office at 142 Main Street, Charlestown or call us at 242-7470.

Life Behind The Wall

by Ronan FitzPatrick

With the aid of a weights and measures chart, it can be determined that a nautical mile is 6,080.2 feet. On Sixth Street, the Ironside Nautilus is entering its second month of continued measuring the success of their membership drive. Having relocated from downtown, this extensive fitness center will continue a promotional program through the beginning of the new year. Many local residents have registered and among them is Shipway resident Lynne Lamotte. Echoing the positive benefits of the center, Lynne was immensely pleased with the slower pace and lack of rapid regimentation. As a member of the Boston Athletic Club, Lynne enjoys that institution, but the smaller number of participants agrees with her as does the proximity to her residence. With less than a land mile to her exercise haven, Lynne has sufficient time to achieve her training objectives. It will be interesting to see what Lynne's 1989 resolutions in the fitness field will be — crew, maybe, with our ample water venues.

All agencies that made a detailed and delightful winter wonderland throughout the Yard are to be congratulated. Our nautical treasure, the USS Constitution, with its strategically positioned Yule tree on top deck, extends greetings upon entering Gate One. Within yards, the Commandant's house is decorated with lights that enhance the adjoining structure, the former Marine Barracks. Adorned with lighted trees on each wing, this National Park Service section generates a most festive feeling. Looking skyward, a handsome wreath looks spectacular atop the Ironsides Building. South of this display, The Raymond Group has a brightly lighted tree on the pinnacle of its Constellation Wharf condominium development. Finally, the Building 197 project is forging forward with below surface parking construction. When this ambitious and complicated engineering facet is completed, the living units will follow. This is a project that will light up the lucky owners' view of the inner harbor. Merriment has been provided by developers, owners and several organizations to the great satisfaction of visitors and residents. Next season we can anticipate the glow to intensify as the Bricklayers and Laborers units will be occupied, supplementing our Christmas and holiday themes.

Between snow drops on a late afternoon, the Massachusetts cruise ship passed the Moran Terminal and the Panama-registered Michele. While the Massachusetts was without its passenger cargo, the Michele was laden with containers to be distributed. For the ocean mariners and dock workers, they are always in season and to them a salute is due.

The visit of "Townie" Jack "Sugar" Whelan and his wife Ellen on a typical New England winter's day was both informative and relaxing. Their harbor walk from Pier Eight brought them to Thirteenth Street, the site of the affordable housing complex. Taking time to view the brick exterior and abutting facilities was well within their time frame. Into his second year of retirement from a career in the insurance field, Jack is enjoying his well-earned senior years. Bedecked in her Christmas colors, Ellen also is fond of her free time, having retired from the Boston Public Schools as an elementary teacher at the Warren Prescott School. A daily brisk walk will continue to be part of their schedule, although Ellen will have to coordinate with Associate Commissioner Jack's Metropolitan District Commission staff to make sure no meetings are planned. His appointment to the MDC was hailed by workers and beneficiaries of the program. We wish many happy walks to Jack and Ellen. By the way, Jack, how does the parking situation compare to Monument Avenue? Your comments would be welcome.

No wonder Ed Marcella has such a great golf handicap — his energy is boundless. On a late Christmas purchase jaunt, Ed found time to unload a parked vehicle in front of the Anchorage Apartments for an appreciative female. The cases were effortlessly placed in the foyer to the deliverer's pleasure with time saved and no strain to Ed. Ed's swing on and off the links is always in style.

Charlestown Taxpayers On DOR "Christmas List" Of Unclaimed Refunds

The Massachusetts Department of Revenue (DOR) has $539,820.63 in refund checks waiting for 3,077 taxpayers, Commissioner of Revenue Stephen W. Kidder has announced. "All these people had their refund checks returned to us by the Post Office as undeliverable. With the holidays, this is probably the most expensive time of the year for most people and we certainly want to do everything we can to make sure that these taxpayers get every dollar they deserve," Kidder said.

Taxpayers who see their name can then call their nearest DOR office to claim their money. The Boston headquarters is at 100 Cambridge Street, Boston, telephone 727-4545.

"These refunds range from $1 all the way up to $40,000, with the average amount coming in at $175," Kidder pointed out, adding that, taxpayer confidentiality prohibits DOR releasing the amount of an individual refund to anyone other than the taxpayer. "It is hard to believe that someone owed $40,000 would not call us wondering where it was," Kidder commented.

Charlestown residents on the "Christmas List" include:

- E. M. Burke, 16 Summer Street;
- Terri A. Converso, 2 Pearl Street, A11;
- Bernard S. Costello, 25 Essex Street;
- Robin E. Donahue, 8 Cordis Street, A3;

Navy Assists In "Toys For Tots" Effort

Volunteers from the Navy Recruiting District Boston, the crew of the USS Constitution, the Coast Guard and the Marine Corps joined forces with the City of Boston to help make Christmas merrier for needy area children as Boston City Hospital hosted its annual "Toys For Tots" Christmas party on December 14.

"This is either the seventh or eighth year we've done this," said Coleen Manning, head of the hospital dietary department and coordinator for the event. "All children from the greater Boston area are welcome, and for many of them the presents we distribute here are the only Christmas presents they'll get."

An estimated 300 children attended the party, which also had a visit from Boston Mayor Raymond Flynn and, of course, Santa Claus.

Military volunteers helped with setting up, directing guests to the proper areas and the distribution of balloons and gifts.

Nursing programs recruiter Lieutenant Nancy Swanson and Quartermaster 1st Class Andrew Delbuono made rounds of pediatric wards with Dawn Barrett, assistant director of nursing for ambulatory care, distributing gifts to those children unable to attend the party. Swanson was recently named 1988 Medical Recruiter of the Year by Rear Admiral Henry C. McKinney, Commander, Navy Recruiting Command.

Other Navy Recruiting District Boston volunteers included Storekeeper 1st Class Patrick Raggiani, Interior Communications Electrician 1st Class Raphael Gatlin of Navy Recruiting Station Boston, Yeoman 2nd Class Primitivo Camacho, who assisted with Spanish speaking children, and Yeoman Seaman Recruit Yvette Day, in Boston on temporary duty under the Navy's hometown area recruiting program.

Representing the crew of USS Constitution were Commander David Cashman, commanding officer; Lieutenant Thomas Doherty, executive officer; Gunner's Mate (Guns) 3rd Class Marvin Wesby; Seaman James Smith; Seaman Christopher King and Airman Leo Caplette.

Representing the Navy League were Captain Sandy Carlisle, USNR and Norm Dobson of the Marine Corps Family Council.

"Kids Building Boston" Students Learn About Urban Planning

The "Kids Building Boston" students, sixth graders from the McKay School in East Boston, learned about urban planning during a class taught by Mayor Raymond Flynn and Boston Redevelopment Authority (BRA) Director Stephen Coyle at the BRA offices at City Hall on December 19.

The urban planning class began with a discussion by William Whitney, director of development, and Homer Russell, director of design, of why Boston needs both large and small buildings. The children shared their opinions about their favorite buildings including the State House, City Hall, John Hancock Tower and The Prudential Center.

They studied the BRA's scale model of downtown and the waterfront while receiving an overview of Boston's masterplan from Coyle. Coyle asked the children what professions they wanted to have when they grew up and how many of them wanted to work in Boston's buildings. Mayor Flynn also visited the class and talked to the children about his role in planning Boston's future.

This urban planning class laid the foundation for future Kids Building Boston classes, a program developed around the three-year construction of the One Twenty Five High Street project in Boston. This month's class was designed to teach children about the first phase of any development in Boston: City approval through the BRA.

The children came prepared with questions, and shared their ideas with Coyle about how "linkage" money should be spent. The term "linkage" refers to the linking of Downtown Boston's prosperity to Boston's neighborhoods by way of contributions by Boston developers which are used to create housing and jobs for the people of the City. The children also discussed their ideas of how Boston could be made better for kids. The goal of the class was to make students aware of the important role the BRA plays in shaping the future of the City.

Prior to the urban planning class, the students received classes in Boston's topography, the history of its development, and a construction/engineering class in which they were able to tour the construction site to examine firsthand the excavation equipment and earth retention systems.

"Kids Building Boston" brings 50 inner city youngsters from all of the city's neighborhoods into direct contact with architects, developers, engineers, artists, public officials, construction workers and company presidents. This unprecedented initiative by the partnership team developing One Twenty Five High Street — The Prospect Company, New England Telephone, and Spaulding & Slye — turns a major downtown development into a valuable teaching tool and provides hands-on learning experiences. The program is receiving widespread support from educators who believe it could become a prototype for similar programs in cities across the country.

BRA Issues Default Notice To Developer Of 44 Warren Street

The Boston Redevelopment Authority (BRA) Board of Directors has authorized the issuance of a project default notification to Tontine Crescent Associates, Inc. President James R. Adams.

This vote by the Board was taken at their December 22 meeting for the developer's failure to commence construction of a single-family residence on the "Hearth House" site at 44 Warren Street, as was required under the terms of the project's Land Disposition Agreement (LDA) executed June 28, 1985. Under the LDA, the developer was required to begin construction of the site by August 27, 1985 and complete construction of the project by August 27, 1987.

The Authority stated that they made repeated requests, both oral and written, to the developer regarding 44 Warren Street, but that the developer has failed to either begin construction of the single-family residence on the site or offer a suitable explanation why such construction has failed to commence. The BRA also stated that as of December 22, the developer is 40 months in default of his obligation to begin construction on the site.

The Board of Directors voted to authorize BRA Director Stephen Coyle to execute and issue a formal notice of project default, notifying the developer of such default and requesting that such default be cured within the time period provided within the agreement, allowing the developer 90 days to "cure such violation or failure." In accordance with Section 802 (3) (a), if the developer does not exercise his right to cure the default with the 90 day period, the developer must "convey" the unimproved property to the Authority.

Further, under Section 802 (3) (a) if the developer fails to reconvey the property, the BRA (under Section 802 [3] [a] of the Agreement) may "Compel specific performance and the payment of damages, expenses and costs by the redeveloper," which, under Section 802 (3) (c) of the Agreement, can include and revert such title and all rights and interests to the property back to the Authority.

Of What Will Be

by Charlie McGonagle

Another year, like the brittle browned leaf of an autumn oak,
Floats quietly into yesterday.

Drifting lazily, noticed not by most,
but the tree watches,
For once it was its very part.

A gentle flight is undertaken, and in its near naked grandeur the giant oak is draped in deep remembrance
Of what once was.

A soft breeze provides the music upon which the leaf now dances, floating to another place
To join with leaves of autumns past.

Their legions grow now, one atop the other,
the new blanketing the old
Of earlier, not forgotten, yesterdays.

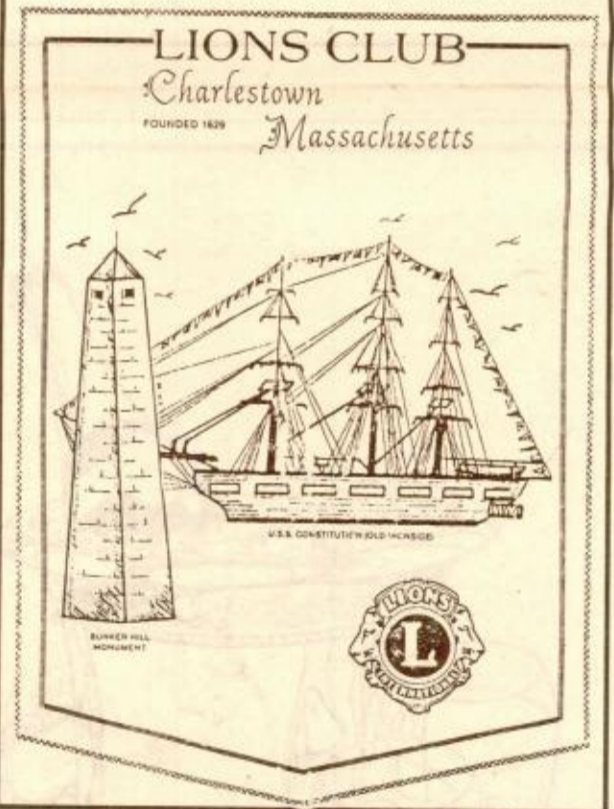

Though covered, each leaf lays waiting,
only waiting to one day be shuffled by the wind
To find its place again above the others.

'Til needed, though, they rest while others find a limb upon
The outstretched arms of giant oaks.

The new, some bigger, some brighter, some more brilliant,
but all very much a part of What will be.

McGonagle Wins First Varsity Letter In Football

a 27-0 victory at homecoming.

Falling upon harder times over the latter part of the year, Wesleyan dropped its final three contests to finish with a 3-5 mark. Three of the team's five defeats came by less than a touchdown. Facing its usual stiff schedule, Wesleyan met only one team that closed out its season under .500 as the Kevin McGonagle, a freshman at Wesleyan University in Middletown, Connecticut, and a resident of Charlestown, earned his first varsity letter in football at the college, head coach Kevin Spencer announced recently.

Seeing action in a majority of the Cardinals' games in 1988, McGonagle was a reserve halfback. Carrying the ball 16 times, McGonagle gained 52 yards for a 3.3-yard average. His long run from scrimmage was 11 yards.

Wesleyan got off to a promising start in 1988, holding a 3-2 mark through its opening five games. That third win was the most satisfying of the season as the Cardinals snapped an eight-year losing streak to Little Three rival Amherst College in strong fashion with collective record of the remaining seven squads was 37-18-3.

The son of John and Virginia McGonagle of Monument Street in Charlestown, McGonagle is a 1988 graduate of Boston Latin School where he was a league MVP and Shriner's Game offensive MVP in football while also being named to the Boston Globe all-scholastic team as a linebacker. An outstanding ice hockey and baseball performer at Boston Latin as well, McGonagle was a league all-star and top scorer on the ice and a team MVP and all-star on the diamond.

At Wesleyan, McGonagle is a member of the ice hockey team this winter, helping the team to a 4-4 start with one assist in seven games. He plans to play baseball for the Cardinals this spring.

Rebels Defeat Bullies — Tie For First Colonial Boys Thrash Black & Tans

by Bernie "Tel-A-Scoop" Kelly

Ho, Ho, Ho — Xmas is over. Wake up and smell the coffee. You pooped out, stayed out late, you weary, no-action hockey buffs. Shame on you. You missed another great Senior League Hockey double-header this past Monday night down at the rink as the Baron's Bullies took it on the chin, the belly, the Achilles' heel and the pompous rump.

For the first time this season, the Rebels were without their starting goalie Mike "Gumper" Giordano. Captains Ed "Mugsy" Kelly and Mike "Yank" Anthony pondered why the "Gumper" chose that night to return some of his Xmas gifts to K-Mart (X-Large, too tight) instead of waiting until the next day. Rumors spread like wildfire that maybe the Bullies would be too "bullish" on him in the nets. So the Captains had to go with the Skate 3 Bush League Burn-out Robby "Knobby" McIntosh who was there minus his father "Nabby" McIntosh (0-2). This may have been a blessing in disguise as "Knobby" was still hot after coming off a victory earlier in the evening, beating the Black & Tans by the score of 7-5.

COLONIAL BOYS PARADE BY BLACK & TANS 7-5

"Hallelujah, hallelujah" could be heard from the hockey buffs in the stands to describe the performance of the burly Pat "Hawkeye" Considine as they watched the Colonial Boys versus Black & Tans game. Considine single-handedly faked, fooled and ducked, and then stuffed the puck into "Knobby's Nuggets" to register two goals and three assists for the Tanners in a losing cause. However, he kept the team within striking distance of an upset victory. Great show, "Hawkeye!"

Also putting on a show for the "Tanners" was Johnny "Doughboy" Dowd who was alternating goal for goal with "Hawkeye." Suddenly, breaking for a loose puck in the corner, his right knee gave out and down went the "Doughboy" through for the night, dampening the Black & Tans' chance for victory.

Vic "Mercury" Merullo lit the light at 4:38 of the second period to end the scoring for the surly Black & Tans.

Robby "Rib" Cahill and Peter "Easy" Enos, along with the "Donegal Danny's" Richie and Mike Doherty, were the heavy hitters for the Colonial Boys. John "Cally" Flowers, the corner man and playmaker, took control of the game, keeping the Black & Tans honest with his knowledge of the game and his unique puck-stealing poke checks, saving several breakaways that could have turned the game around. Great work, "Cally!"

Paul "Rickshaw" Wrenn soloed through "Bubba's" chin-strap at 2:38 of the first period and tried desperately to strike paydirt again. He was showing off in front of his aunt, Mary Ellen (Wrenn) Howell, who braved the chilly evening to support her hero "Rickshaw," who didn't disappoint her with his hustle. Right, Mary Ellen?

Joe "Sparky" Upton, starting to find the mark, put the Colonial Boys up 4-3 just before the first period ended while the hustling Peter "Easy" Enos had two goals and one assist.

IRISH REBELS BULLISH ON BARON'S BULLIES 9-6

NOTE: An emergency game protest was filed with the Commissioner at the completion of the game by a "Wimpy Bully."

Charges and counter-charges were being tossed around the rink area that carried into the Commissioner's office. Eddie "Baron" Johnson met behind closed doors with some known "wimps" who claimed they heard a certain director of the Senior League shouting "bias" encouragement to the leaders of the Irish Rebels to beat the Baron's Bullies and "take no prisoners." This got the Rebels flying so fast that they put the wood to the league leaders and beat them 9-6.

It seems strange that "Hall of Flamer" Tom "Bruiser/Rumpy" Bryson was frothing at the mouth, screaming foul and yelling at the top of his vocal chords that two of the goals that went into his net were tossed in by his opponents after the whistle. They went into his net alright, not tossed in but they went in like "rockets" while "Rumpy" Bryson was trying to get his "new weapon" in place where he turns his back to the game while facing his own net. I suppose he is hoping that everything will bounce off his "rump" or "new weapon." Boy, oh boy, what gall! Old Skate 3 in Saugus must still be in his blood. Could the "Hall of Flame" be that far away? Poor "Rumpy!"

While Mark "Ace" Lally was making eyes at his girl "Sweet Thing" all through the game, Preacher "Amos" Anthony was gaining ground on him on the top ten scorers' chart. "Ace" wanted to "show her off" to the boys, bragging how she inspires him and that it's "Sweet Thing" who is special and that he can get goals anytime.

Don't look now, Preacher, but Mike "The Yank," your older brother, is about to overtake you should you stop to preach a sermon. So beware of a "Connecticut Yankee" who will be hard to catch when he passes you. Remember, he's your older brother and older brothers are never, ever, seldom overtaken.

Matt "Flash" Mahoney is still in the pack and has yet to fly. When he does, make room, or he'll run you down. Right, "Flash?"

Billy "Rough House" Vraibel is starting to get all goalies' attention with his blasts from the point that have lifted the net strings to the max. Nice shooting, "Rough House!"

Captain Eddie "Mugsy" Kelly, trying to get onto the top ten scorers' list, should be getting his slapshot on target soon. He's been making the Mite practices with "Wee Mugs," allowing "Big Mugsy" a chance to practice his slapshots on the young Mite goalies. Boy, some guys will do anything to improve their image!

Chris "G.G." Connolly, running hot and cold lately, is just a step or two away from his old game. Don't count him out — he's "Galway" stock!

Jackie "Joeko" Martin hasn't read the Patriot Sports Line in weeks — Thanks, Mom — and he's a constant threat on the ice. Such discipline! Oh, that's right, he's a grad of Norwich University and his military really shows!

Jay "Walla" Wallis, hit for a solo goal at 7:15 of the third period to give the Rebels the edge they needed as the Bullies were starting to weaken near game's end. Jay has been getting the job done in the corners where the battles have been fought. Plus his hustle improves the second line. Well done, Jay!

When a sailor's ship came to port, it usually meant fun and games. Well, Paul "Brig-Rat" Chaisson's ship must have beached itself the way he's been playing. I swear he's got "Brig Mildew" all through his hockey gear because when he's up wind, or up ice, your eyes water so much you can always tell where he is without looking. There should be a rule against crusty, mildew "Brig-Rats" beaching themselves like whales. Boy, are they ripe! Where is the Shore Patrol when you need them?

LAST WEEK'S RESULTS (12-22-88)

Game 1: Silver Box 6, Barbies 2

Silver Box won its seventh straight and dropped the Barbies to 4-4 with a 6-2 victory.

The first half ended with Silver Box leading 2-1, thanks to goals by Shannon Lawler and Cheryl Collins and fine goaltending by Elaine Hardy. The Barbies' Joanne Wallace was robbed a couple of times and hit the post once, and only Ann Hanson was able to answer the Silver Box goals with one of her own. In the second half, Kim Campbell and Colleen Hanlon had two goals each, and Hardy allowed only one goal (Hanson's second of the night) to give the Silver Box a 6-2 victory.

Game 2: Charlestown Chiefs 6, Parkies 0

The Chiefs took a 2-0 lead into halftime on goals by Shannon McLaughlin and Melissa Doherty. But they exploded in the second half on a hat trick by Patty Riley and Doherty's second of the night for a 6-0 victory. The win lifted the Chiefs to 5-3 and gave the Parkies their fourth straight loss, dropping them to 1-7.

Game 3: Main Street 8, N.B.B. 1

Main Street overpowered winless N.B.B. to remain tied for first place. Kathy Kavinsky led Main Street with four goals, while Tina Lyons and the league's newest scoring machine, April Brennan, added two each. Ronnie Sue Dear-don had the lone goal for N.B.B.

Happy New Year!

Cirame On Suffolk Hoop Squad

After a brief holiday break, it will be back to practice as usual for the Suffolk University men's and women's basketball teams as they prepare to resume action in early January.

Both SU men's mentor Jim Melson and women's co-coaches Joe Walsh and Doreen Matta plan to resume daily workouts right after Christmas in hopes of improving the records of the SU squads.

The men's team, which will resume action on January 7 with a 2 p.m. game at WPI, ended the first term at 3-5, including a semester-ending third place finish in the Anna Maria Tournament via a 73-59 victory over Thomas College of Waterville, Maine.

Junior 6-foot 1-inch guard Ed Cirame of Charlestown leads the team in scoring at the break with a 17 points-per-game average. He canned 24 in Suffolk's 85-73 win over Framingham State and poured in another 24 in an 89-66 loss to Southeastern Massachusetts University.

Not For Nothin' . . . But Have You Heard . . .

• Winner of the Gingerbread House at Sorelle's . . . was Kathy Meade of Quincy. Kathy's sister, Ann McCarthy, resides in Charlestown. Over $500 was raised through the raffle to benefit Saint Catherine's Food Pantry. Congrats, Sorelle, on such a successful fund raiser!

• Happy 50th . . . Word has it that Kenny DeCarlo will turn 50 years old this week. Fifty IS Nifty, Ken! Have a great year.

• Even While On Vacation, He Helped Us Out . . . Our thanks to Tommy Donahue for coming to the rescue when all else failed. One call to Tommy at his favorite hangout and the trash was picked up on Prescott Street within an hour. The trash was left after the "Townie Santa" deliveries and the garbage truck wouldn't pick it up, thinking it was commercial debris. Neighbors were concerned that it would be left there over the Christmas weekend. Not to worry, Tom took care of it. Thanks, Tom — to you and the ever-present Public Works crew that does such a great job trying to keep our streets clean. It's appreciated.

• Closed . . . will be the Charlestown Post Office on both Saturday, December 31 and Monday, January 2. Make note! Guess the end of the year bills will have to wait until Tuesday to arrive.

• 200 Years Ago . . . In 1789 George Washington visited his dear friend Major Frothingham on Eden Street while making a tour of Massachusetts. So, George slept here, too! Local historian Ken Stone shared this tidbit with us. Thanks, Ken!

• Congratulations . . . to David and Linda Flanagan on the birth of their son, David Ryan. Young David arrived a little early — Christmas Eve — to the delight of his parents. He weighed 6 pounds, 4 ounces. Our best wishes to the Flanagans . . . late word has it that the birth was announced over WBBF-FM by Officer Bill Connell during his Wednesday traffic report.

• Golden Apple Award . . . given by the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce to 15 outstanding teachers in Boston included as a recipient Charlestown High School computer teacher Kia-Ling Chang. Congrats Kai-Ling!

• First Night Is Coming . . . Don't forget to trot into Boston for the annual New Year's Eve celebration at over 50 indoor and outdoor locations throughout the city. First Night begins with the Children's Festival at 1 p.m. and ends with a grand finale of fireworks over Boston Harbor at midnight. The Custom House Tower will be timed so that the entire 500 foot landmark will be illuminated at the stroke of midnight. Lots to see and do. Don't miss it!

• Remember . . . If you drink, don't drive. We want you to be around to read next week's Patriot . . . and from all of us to all of you . . .

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

tions and gather data for scientific programs. Also available are maintenance-related jobs such as grounds keepers, carpenters and mechanics. There are openings for clerical and secretarial employment.

Boston, telephone 565-8855.

Baptist / Ecumenical?

I am not a member, a past member, nor a prospective member of the First Baptist Church of 5 Monument Square, now referred to as Monument Square Community Church.

The church is now offering a "New Faith Experience" (Patriot, December 22, 1988). It also stated, "the church will be affiliated with the American Baptist Churches, U.S.A."

Doesn't that mean that the parishioners will be Baptists? But . . . Monument Square Community Church invites "Christians of all denominations to participate in custom-designing the church . . . to participate in shaping the future direction of this Ecumenical undertaking."

How may "custom designing" and "ecumenical undertaking" coexist with Baptist guidelines?

The First Baptist Church has had a proud history in Charlestown.

Reverend Isaiah Sears, and his late wife, Ruth, have been the most recent exemplary emissaries for the Baptist message. Yes, membership declined, as it has in every denomination nationwide. The desirability of attracting new members is understandable.

However, it seems to an "outsider" that the traditional Baptist Church is being Yuppified to attract the trendy element, hence the name change, for starters.

You are affiliated with the American Baptist Churches, U.S.A. Why aren't you proud to be called Baptist?

Traditional

Action Sought To Remove Billboard

(NOTE: Dan Kovacevic, president, The Charlestown Preservation Society, reports that Skip Green of the Boston Globe contacted him upon receipt of this letter and stated that their advertising contract for the billboard on Roughan's Hall concludes as of January 1.)

Skip Griffin
Director of Community Affairs
Boston Globe
135 Morrissey Boulevard
Boston, MA 02107

RE: Roughan Hall Billboard
City Square, Charlestown, MA

Dear Mr. Griffin:

We are writing to you in your capacity as Director of Community Affairs for the Globe to bring to your attention the situation concerning the above named billboard which has been regularly rented by the Globe for several years.

The owner of the building to which this billboard is attached, H.J. Davis Development Company (Davis), made representations and promises to the Charlestown community and the National Park Service when the building was renovated concerning the removal of this billboard. Davis received tax credits for this renovation as a result of these representations.

Davis has not removed the billboard and continues to ignore requests for its removal from the community and city and state agencies. The Globe advertisements continue to appear on said billboard.

We have enclosed a series of correspondence from Mr. James Bradley, a concerned resident and member of our organization, and the Massachusetts Historical Commission to give you a clear perspective on the matter.

Our organizations and many members of the Charlestown community are concerned that Davis so blatantly refuses to take action and remove the offending billboard. This concern is particularly acute because of the substantial financial benefit it (the building) received for its renovation based upon its promises to remove same.

We strongly urge you to remove Globe advertising from this billboard immediately and to refrain from using it again. We ask that you take this action to show your concern about Davis' unjust financial benefit and your responsiveness to the Charlestown community.

Our organization's President, Dan Kovacevic, is available to discuss the matter if you have any questions. Thank you

Monday, December 19

At approximately 12:50 a.m., a 1982 Nissan and a 1974 Chevrolet were damaged by a hit and run driver while they were parked at 34 Austin Street.

Sometime between the hours of 8:20 a.m. and 6:20 p.m., an apartment at 204 Bunker Hill Street was broken into through the rear window. A checkbook in the victim's name was taken. Later in the evening, it was discovered that another apartment at the same address had also been broken into and a Pelonis Disc furnace, valued at $180, was taken.

At approximately 9:15 p.m., officers responded to a radio call on the report of motor vehicles drag racing in the ball field on Terminal Street. When the police arrived, they observed a 1988 AMC Cherokee engulfed in flames. The car had been reported stolen on December 19.

A 1987 VW GTI was broken into on First Avenue. The right front door window had been broken and the car stereo was stolen.

Tuesday, December 20

A 1982 Chevrolet Cavalier was damaged while it was parked at City Square when some unknown person(s) attempted to steal it.

The left front window of a 1988 Chevrolet Celebrity was broken while it was parked unattended at City Square. Extensive damage was also done to the steering column.

Person(s) unknown broke the left front vent window of a 1987 Jeep Cherokee while it was parked at 28 Constitution Road. Damage was also done to the steering column and camera equipment, valued at over $1,500, was smashed.

Thursday, December 22

Between 12:15 and 2:30 p.m., a 1986 Mercedes was vandalized while it was parked at 50 Brighton Street. The hood of the vehicle was scratched with a sharp object.

At approximately 6:15 p.m., a beige car struck a Chrysler automobile which was parked in front of the victim's house at 521 Medford Street, causing damage to the rear of the car. A witness to the incident gave a license plate number and it is being investigated by the auto investigator.

Sometime during the night, an architectural business at One Thirteenth Street was entered. An IBM computer, Merlin lettering machine, a Pentax camera and a Polaroid camera were taken. The total value of the equipment was approximately $5,000.

Saturday, December 24

At approximately 1:35 a.m., an 18-year-old East Boston man was standing on Tufts Street when he was approached by two men. The first suspect was described as a white male, 18 years of age, 6-feet tall, 140 pounds, with brown hair and blue eyes, a scar under his left eye and wearing a grey jacket.
