

Microsoft 365 Security Administrator Training - MS-500

If you're interested in becoming an Microsoft 365 Security Administrator, you can become certified through a training course in security administration. The course includes SharePoint 2019, Office 365, and Azure Workloads. Learn how to set up security controls to block access by unauthorized users. The course also provides food and accommodation. If you're looking for an accredited training course, CloudThat offers a MS-500 course. Alongside its training course CloudThat also provides Microsoft 365 Certified Security Administrator training courses.

This MS-500 certification exam is designed to test your understanding of Microsoft Security solutions. It covers subjects such as the identification of threats, implementing security measures, and managing accounts for users. It examines critical thinking and decision-making abilities. This is a great course for those with previous expertise in security administration. It will also help you prepare to take the Microsoft 365 Security Administrator exam. You will be awarded a certificate which demonstrates your knowledge.

In this course, you will be able to set up and manage security solutions across different environments. You will gain a better knowledge of managing Microsoft identity passwords, identity synchronization. Additionally, you will learn about security of information and mobile devices. Training also prepares you for the MS-500 test that will award you the Microsoft 365 Certified: Security Administrator Associate certification. Along with improving your professional standing, Microsoft 365 certification will increase your earnings.

Training covers range of subjects, including sec

Access to users for ure, Azure AD Connect, and Conditional Access for Microsoft 365. The course covers other topics like access control based on role and the best way to protect external access. The course also includes Azure RBAC as well as administrative role that are different in comparison to Microsoft 365 administrative roles. Other subjects covered include cloud licensing, licensing guidelines, security as well as Microsoft Secure Score. The course also covers cyber-attack threats , and ways to safeguard sensitive information in the enterprise. microsoft 365 security administrator course uk