ID's Provisory Parliament Act of Democracy

Wednesday, July 26, 2017

By the expression and the name of the King, the Provisional Parliament of the Federation is established;

1. The Federation Parliament is legally established only for performance in the territory owned by the Federations, and in International communicative connex.
2. The Parliament is a function of the full status of the State Democracy of all citizens and dual citizens of the entire Federation, thereby autonomously respecting each individual with the right to cooperate on behalf of Parliament.
3. Parliament is an act of joint democracy among all individuals. Everyone has only one voice.
4. Provisional Parliament is not legislative and authorized to issue decisions on behalf of the government. The Parliament serves only to establish normative and amendment proposals before the Upper Chamber of the Government as active as the law of the amendment and the legal representation of the government.
5. Parliament sums up all the opinions of the individuals, the first round of voting, with the number of counted ideas. Most views are presented as the main topic of Parliament for second ballot.
6. Parliament adds all the votes to each proposal in the second ballot.
7. The proposal, which will be counted with a vote of at least 10%, will be forwarded to the Upper House of the Federal Government for the purpose of their strategic discussion and decision to amend.
8. Each member of the Parliament has the right to apply for the Federal Office for the purpose of federal stabilization and logistical functions, as well as for organized co-operation.
9. The Provisional Parliament is extinguished, in the period of full stabilization of the federal government as a function of the authorities and basic forms of government, if so appointed by the Federal Government.
10. Members of the Prison facilities or any person responsible for legal crime automatically loses all Parliamentary rights.
11. Participation in the Provisional Parliament is a voluntary civil activity that does not imply any political immunity of individual members. The Member of the Parliament will receive civilian benefits.
12. The act of parliament is an act responsible Political immunity, the nature of such an exercise.
13. Each one is respectable between us.
