Hololive Idol Project - 1st Live "Bloom"

After Holofest ended, Cover didn't waste time announcing its next biggest project: Bloom taking place on 17/02/2021! It will happen in Tokyo Garden Theater but will also be available on the digital platforms SPWN and Nico Nico. Tickets and goods are already available on the official website.

According to the official site it will be part of the Hololive Idol Project announced back in 09/2019, and with "Nonstop Story" and "Beyond The Stage" being the first two festivals, this will be the first Live, and it'll be possible thanks to the wishes of the members to be able to do more and to grow as idols!

According to them, the idea behind it was "...to create music and performing units based on the diverse range of Hololive talents. These songs will be distinct from their solo and all-member performances. We call this project `Hololive IDOL PROJECT Season 0 ~CORE!~`".

While the songs featured in the live show already include some very known ones such as “Shiny Smiley Story”, “ Yumemiru Sora e”, “Kirameki Rider” and “Halloween Night, Tonight!”, it was also announced that 9 news songs would be released in the following weeks until the date of the event!

The very first new song was already announced together with Bloom, being called “Blue Clapper” and being performed by all of Hololive Gen 5, and officially released on Hololive Official Youtube channel on 22/12/2020.

The second song was also already announced, being performed by Shirakami Fubuki, Nakiri Ayame and Ookami Mio and it’s named “Hyakkaryouran Hanafubuki”. Its short version was released on Hololive Official Youtube channel on 29/12/2020.

Kaichou's 1st Anniversary 3D Dance Show

Starting the anniversary streams for the 4th Gen of Hololive JP, Kiryu Coco on the 28/12/2020 hosted a dance show to celebrate with all the viewers her first year in Hololive!

Her stream started with a great performance act from Kaichou with her Yakuza henchman on stage, featuring the well known Kiryukai Yakuza dancing together with their boss. The act itself displayed how strong are Cocos dancing skills and the power of the Dragon hips.

The show proceeded then to its next phase, while viewers were led to it by Kaichou doing her “Oi Oi Oi” scene transitions.

“ARK Association Representative” Stegoro's Mukirose
Aki Rosenthal

Starting with the first guest of the night, we are introduced to Aki Rosenthal. Aki began by showing her the ways of the belly dance, as Coco proceeded to get the gist of it pretty fast from what we could tell, especially with the Hips Attack! All the practices during lead to a belly dance demonstration by the two of them, and while Aki still guided Coco during it, they both delivered a great performance!

This time both Coco and Aki led the viewers through the scene transitions in a very funny way to... A SPECIAL ASACOCO LIVE! During this special edition of Asacoco, Coco featured herself congratulate herself for reaching 1 year as well reminding us a bit from her debut way back into 28/12/2019.

Amongst other news she reminded us that Kanata stream was delayed to 02/01/2021 due to technical issues, and while it happened she transformed the living room to practice even more for the show and was basically powering up for it!

This Asacoco edition also featured a ranking of all the Asacoco products already released, with the number one being PLUG IN TYPE ASACOCO! And so it was going to be released together with her anniversary merch as a daki sized plushie!

Hololive direct descent, Gorilla gan's first chairman

Amane Kanata

As the Asacoco Live ended, we were greeted by the second guest of this livestream Amane Kanata in a very distinct way! She proceeded to give a whole class of the Japanese dance style Soran Bushi to Kaichou, while eventually leading to a practice performance with the two guests with Coco!

Congratulations on one year and thank you for everything so far Kaichou!

Watame 1 Year Birthday Night Fever!

Following the anniversary week of the JP 4th Gen, on 29/12/20 Tsunomaki Watame celebrated her first year in Hololive!

Her 3D stream started with the “Tsunomaki System” being activated leading us to the opening of the show, showing Watame joining Hololive back on 29/12/2019 and many of the streams and collaborations she participated in, such as her 3D debut, the Watame Rap, The Bakatara 3D stream, the release of her song and covers, 2nd Fes before finally leading us to her final event of 2020!

Afterwards the event continued now on the 3D, starting the night fever with her original song “Aimai Chocolate”, being followed by 7 more songs including “Bubble Love” which she did a cover of earlier this year.

As the song ended she showed us a special message from HoloEN member Calliope Mori! The message said she was really glad to work together with her senpai on a song, and hopes for a chance to do it again in the future as she really loves Watame’s voice and keeps falling in love with it, ending the message with a big congratulations for one year in Hololive!

This came up as a big surprise to everyone as there was no announcement of the song yet, but as the stream followed Watame announced the release of her new original song ft. Calliope Mori named “Cloudy Sheep”, and it was released right after the stream!

Alongside this big announcement, she also announced the release of her first year anniversary merchandise package containing a rubber mat drawn by fuumii-sensei, a “Watame Night Fever” stone coaster, a signed postcard with Watame's signature also illustrated by fumi-sensei, a special voice pack, and the CD version of her new and very first album, “Watame no uta Vol.1” which also contains a secret track! She also left the comment that for 2021 she wants to be able to release Vol. 2!

The stream ended with a live performance of the new song “Cloudy Sheep” even before the song was released, and a final message from our lovely sheep for her fans. Congratulations on 1 year of Hololive and thank you for everything so far Watame!

Amane Kanata 1st Anniversary 3D Live

On the 02/01/2021 Kanata hosted her 3D Live to celebrate 1 year in Hololive! The original stream was supposed to happen back on the 27/12/20 but due to technical issues it was postponed to a later date. Luckily Coco reported that she used the time to power up and practice even more!

The stream started with a beautifully made opening showing us the timeline of the year and giving many highlights of events in the last year for Kanata! As soon as the opening ended, we show the Angel directly on the stage singing the first song of the live “Ghost Rule” by DECO*27 with an epic performance and animation on stage, with it being directly followed with the second song “Yoru ni Kakeru” by YOASOBI!

The third song transitioned to a different scenario in what could be described as an old church, showing us both Kanata and her first guest of the live Tokoyami Towa, with both singing “Byoushin o Kamu” by Zutamayo.

Back to stage the fourth song counted with the presence of both Towa and the second guest of the night Kiryu Coco! The trio sang “King” by Kanaria together! Afterwards there was a small chatting session where Kanata thanked both of them for their presence in the live.

As we changed stage again, Kanata performed the song she was also releasing a Cover of in the same day, “Outsider” by Eve featuring the illustration for the cover as part of the stage animation! The show followed without pause with the songs “fixer” by nulut and “Additional Memory” by Jin.

The eighth song of the live show was “Kanden” by Kenshi Yonezu featuring her third guest, Hoshimachi Suisei! Afterwards we were also graced by the presence of both Marine and Rushia, and the four of them sang “Hametsu no Junjou” by Walküre and “Kirameki Rider” together!

Afterwards an intermission happened where Kanata said goodbye to the other members and announced her 1st anniversary merchandise package. The show then headed for its last phase, where Kanata sang both “Homura” and “Gurenge” by LiSa with an amazing stage animation together with her voice and performance!

Congratulations on your 1st year in Hololive and thank you for everything so far Kanata!

4th and 5th Gen's New Year's Outfits

It was announced that both the 4th and 5th Hololive Japan generations are getting new outfits for the new year on the 01/01/2021 on a big relay of 30 minute streams. Together with it came the explanation that Momosuzu Nene was getting a whole new design later in January, and would not be getting the outfit until then.

We shall be going over a bit of how the reveals went, but make sure to check the streams for the full designs!

Nenechi New Year's Outfit?!

Starting the relay, Nenechi scheduled a stream where she showed us her own design for a new year's outfit! During it she also commented that she felt a bit sad for not being able to get one, but commented that Kiara reminded her she could pretty much go and make it herself, and so she did!

She showcased herself using the outfit, showing it off as full body and a closer look explaining the details of the design to her fans.

While it's not an official new year outfit, we still appreciate the outfit she made a lot! We are also looking forward to her new outfit design later in January!

Kiryu Coco's Outfit

Starting her stream with a new year's greeting, Coco showed off some fanart trying to predict the actual outfit, before a big reveal commenting on how all of them resemble the silhouette shown back in the preview.

The outfit was revealed shortly after! She showed all the details of it, being extra proud of how THICC she was, the Ryu ga Gotoku theme, and thanking her mama for making it so well done! Later she tweeted about forgetting that the costume also included GLASSES!

Tokoyami Towa's Outfit

Towa's stream had comments teasing her outfit before revealing it and comments on Coco's outfit, specially stating she wants to fondle Coco in her new outfit.

As she revealed her extremely cute outfit, viewers even teased her showering the chat with TMT. She also showed that her outfit actually comes with 2 hairstyles, a braided one and a short one, being able to mix them!

Amane Kanata's Outfit

Kanata's stream featured her L2D animation update, as well as her new costume also using the L2D 2.0! She also featured some fan ideas of what her new outfit would be, causing a big uproar of viewers joining membership.

Her outfit came out together with the long awaited NECK REVEAL. It featured two styles, one with a beautiful hair garment and the other adding her wings and hamsters ears to it!

Hinemori Luna's Outfit

Luna had some issues with her throat after all the screaming and fun she had during the last day's events, but she swore she was okay and ready to show us her new outfit!

Her outfit featured her hair now in braids, and the Japanese theme for Luna gave her a fresh new look! She also showed us that it comes with a really nice hat, and that she could remove the fluffy part from it!

Tsunomaki Watame's Outfit

Watame being the last of the 4th Gen started her reveal by greeting us with a happy new year, and giving us the very first Tsunomaki Janken of the year!

As she started showing her outfit, it had really good movements! She had mentioned before having 3 forms of hair for this new costume: Long, Braids and Bun!

With not being enough, her costume also came with many secret weapons, such as the Night Fever Glasses, and a funny evolving hat being made from her wool!

Omaru Polka's Outfit!

Starting the 5th Gen with Polka, we already had a great starting segment asking us to choose between two silhouettes to find out which one is the real costume, and which door would lead us to it!

With her costume having a unique design fitting for the Ringmaster's new year, Polka teased us a lot while presenting her new costume! It also came with the beautiful option of no makeup Polka, and another one to add even more details to it!

To add a bit more to the Ringmaster's power, Polka talked to a clone of herself during the stream while commenting on her own costume!

Yukihana Lamy's Outfit

As Polka baton passed the torch to Great Mama Lamy, the latter presented us with a heartfelt greeting, and teased us a bit for her costume as well as telling us to not forget that her mascot Daifuku would also get a new costume!

Her costume comes with a beautiful flower design, and creates a great combination with the snow elf's hair colour! Her costume features also the possibility to take the hair hairpin off, and to activate the powerful... Nekomimi mode!

Shishiro Botan's Outfit!

Finally, it's La Lion~ time with Botan being the last costume reveal of the 5th Gen and from the relay!

Her outfit has quite a detailed flower pattern on its cloth, together with very long sleeves and fluffy parts, and featuring a simple but important change of adding blushing to her costume!

She ended her stream drawing O-mikuji (fortunes) with the viewers, and with a great image of all the members that participated together!

Holostars New Year's Outfits

On 03/01/21 the Holostars had their stream relay to receive new year's costumes, so it's time for the boys! We shall go over a bit of how the costumes looked but be sure to check all the stream for more details on it's design, gestures and garments!

Kageyama Shien's Outfit

The Holostars relay started with Shien who greeted viewers and prepared to be the first to show his costume on stream without delay!

His new costume gives off a feudal lord style containing his classic colors, and as well featuring Nekoyama,

Nakayama and Koyama on his shoulder matching his style. His mama also pampered him while making the costume giving him new year's pocket money, and also preparing him a special Kageyama sword which can even shine and produce sounds when a button is pressed, and of course the costume includes glasses and the possibility to take off his coat.

Kanade Izuru's Outfit

Being the second in the relay, Izuru is already an expert in showing off new costumes as he also featured his past two costumes from white day and summer, also commenting he was really happy for his Kouhais to be getting costumes too!

His costume takes an old school style but beautifully done as the colours of it fit Izuru perfectly, coming with details such as his flower, a Fritillaria being put as a detail in the clothing as his mama remembered it. The costume also includes a hat he can put on so make it even better!

Astel Leda's Outfit

As we arrived at Astel's stream he commented a bit on how he wanted a costume to go visit the shrine during new year's, and after that proceeded to clear the graffiti he had set up over the silhouette of his costume.

His new costume has a great combination between the stars and eastern styles in a very detailed way, coming together with a new year style for Poruneu, his mascot. He is able to remove the coat from his costume as well giving a whole different feeling to it, making a great alternate option!

Aragami Oga's Outfit

As 4th in the relay Oga gave comments on his impressions for the others costumes so far, and giving us a bit of a spoiler saying his costume isn't that celebrative of new year's because instead it's a bit bloody!

The reveal started with a video featuring an Oni mask burning up, followed by the reveal after some teasing. This really cool costume gives a feeling of a combat style for Oga, and he can also remove the mask from his face. As he said himself since the viewers are perverts he also showed that he can remove the chest wrapping revealing the full force of his abs!

Yukoku Roberu's Outfit

As we moved to the next stream, Roberu started with giving us a look on how the costume he had for summer was, and then proceeding to ask viewers what are their thoughts on the costume from what they can tell by the silhouette.

His costume came with a great set of colors and also gave a great look to our winning son who now has a ponytail. It came filled with many features like being able to move his fan around, flap it, and many types of fans too including one with the word 'VICTORY' On it. He is also able to remove the hood and the hakama entirely!

Hanasaki Miyabi's Outfit

The next member was Miyabi, after a brief comment about the costumes, he said that his costume might be a bit different from what viewers usually expect, as people expect the boy's costume to be cool, but he wanted his to be cute instead.

His costume went with a red and pink color combination, a really cute muffer and even containing an enma with good luck for his gacha rolls, and beautiful garments for his hair! His muffer can be removed to reveal a semi-long hair style, and his hair ribbon is also removable.

Rikka's Outfit

Opening his stream with an acoustic song played with a shamisen, Rikka rocked during it in a great segment which quickly ended with credits showing up. After it we got back into schedule as usual!

His costumes feature a mix of eastern with western, and at first we can notice the big coat covering clothing as well the pair of swords on his waist, and the cogs on his clothing and earrings. He can also replace the swords with a shamisen, add a lovely hat with cogs on it, and even remove his coat... but most importantly, the costume also comes with GLASSES!

Kishido Tenma's Outfit

As for the next stream, we had Tenma and as soon as he started we were greeted with the comment that he would make sure to show us what it meant to be a dark knight!

His new costume was in an eastern style, painted in black with golden details all over it with his sword on his back. Hiyamaru, his mascot also got a version for this costume! His costume was able to put up a hood to cover his face, also being able to hide his sword, with Hiyamaru being able to climb on his head, so cute!

Arurandeisu's Outfit

With Aruran Pizza papa being the last on the relay, everyone was really hyped for it as his silhouette is the one that raised the biggest questions among all of the boys for its really unique form, and so... now we see the rise of SHISHIRANDIS!

First we were greeted by his new shishimai costume, featuring the big red lion head as well as a pizza design on his clothing. Later we were shown that the costume also has a stylish side based on a classic eastern style with a comfy muffler and hat. Aruran can change between costume forms, as well as remove the hat, muffler and his glasses.

Congratulations on all the new costumes!

New merch was also featured for the group by the end of the relay!

Tentacult Discord Christmas Art Contest

On 12/12/2020 it was announced on the Tentacult discord that an art contest would be held by its members, where the winner would be rewarded with a month of nitro and their own custom role! The rules of the contest were simple, many kinds of art would be allowed including digital art, traditional art, poetry, music and prose, and it wouldn't need to be Ina themed and of course it still needed to abide to standard Discord server rules, such as no NSFW and no plagiarism.

The deciding factor for the winner would be the number of votes from the community to their favourite arts, with the deadline for entries being at 25/12/20. On the first day of 2021 the winner was announced, being the discord member Kaat#9637!

We will be featuring the 5 most voted entries, but be sure to check all of them including the other entries in high quality at the Tentacult Discord on the #christmas-contest channel!

On the left is the 5th most voted entry, from Cereal Bawks#8599! He also sent us a colored version of his entry! Below is the 4th most voted entry, from Retayu#5804!

3rd most voted entry, from Braix#9999!

2nd most voted entry, from Flushienime#9042!

1st most voted entry, from Kaat#9637!

TylerNotTaylor

Memes are another way to express oneself as a fan of Hololive and here TylerNotTaylor has done so with this meme that shows the growth of Hololive from the beginning.

“Hey, I’m TylerNotTaylor, or Tyler_462 on other platforms! I’m a serial meme poster in the Hololive community, with a specialty in speed posting HoloEN streams. I also create a variety of different content all related to Hololive, with cursed/blessed music production, Yagoo deepfakes, and more! For those who can’t watch the stream or archive, I try to summarize the best part of the streams via 4+ memes that encapsulate the events that occur, and also exists as a form of “live commentary” in the forms of memes.

I joined Hololive during the height of the C -Virus breakout, as I had almost nothing to do. One of my friends asked me to join Aki Rosenthal’s 110K sub celebration stream, and after experiencing the raw emotions she put out, I knew I wanted to be part of the community. I never created memes before, with me just being a lurker on the Hololive subreddit. With the dawn of HoloEN, I realized that I would be able to make memes without the JP language barrier there to delay my understanding of the stream. My favorite streamers will always be the crazy rabbit Pekora and Okayu, with Aki having a special place in my heart for chucking me down this rabbit hole.”
