'No' Is The Key Word For Charlestown Youth

by Kathy Giordano

The nationwide "Just Say No" program has come to Charlestown. Based on over 20 years of research into the causes of and solutions to drug abuse, the program offers educational activities, alternatives to peer pressure, recreational outlets and community service projects to youngsters and teen-agers wishing to stay drug free.

Through a grant from the Boston Housing Authority, the "Just Say No" program has established a base at the Bunker Hill Tenants Task Force offices at 76 Monument St. and has already started a communitywide campaign to have school areas posted as "Drug-Free Zones."

Program Director Jack Marsden has hit the streets and entered local classrooms to bring the message to adolescents and teens that there are alternatives to drugs and alcohol. He has started a petition drive across Charlestown to have each school — Charlestown High, Edwards Middle, Warren-Prescott, Harvard-Kent, St. Catherine, St. Francis de Sales and Charlestown Headstart — included in the zoning for stiffer fines and sentences for drug pushers. "There are so many schools in this one square mile," Marsden stated, "that all of Charlestown could be considered a 'Drug-Free Zone' if we gather enough signatures on the petitions to force these areas to be posted."

The "Just Say No" program is tailored to the needs of children between the critical ages of 7 and 14, those already in the middle to upper elementary and junior high school years. "These kids are already experiencing a lot of peer pressure to experiment," Marsden said.

The program teaches kids to say NO by helping them to understand the forces in their lives that shape their feelings and attitudes about drugs and drug use. It focuses on the gateway drugs and is designed to reinforce the non-use norm that exists among children in the grade-school years.

Marsden's "Just Say No Club" will provide struc-

Bunker Hill Day Parade Committee Seeks Community Support

Charlestown will be decorated in a sea of yellow ribbons for Bunker Hill Day as the town welcomes home her men and women who have served in Operation Desert Shield and Operation Desert Storm. The Charlestown Veterans/Bunker Hill Day Commemorative Committee has voted to dedicate this year's parade to these modern-day patriots who served our country in the Persian Gulf, as well as to our patriot forefathers who fought for freedom 216 years ago on the hills of Charlestown during the Battle of Bunker Hill.

The committee is seeking the support of the residents, merchants and organizations for the 1991 Bunker Hill Day celebration in order that the events will serve as a significant and meaningful tribute to all those who served in the Persian Gulf, particularly those who call Charlestown home.

The Bunker Hill Day Parade, the highlight of the celebration, will be held on Sunday, June 16, commencing at 12:30 p.m. from the Hayes Square area of town. This should be one of the largest and most outstanding parades in the Greater Boston area.

As you are most likely aware, due to the fiscal constraints imposed on the city of Boston, the funds available from the city to underwrite parades are extremely limited. Thus, financial assistance must once again be sought from the community — from you, the residents, local

In Days When The Skate Key Lived

by Charlie McGonagle

Remember the rag man and his dappled grey nag,
And Purity sugar cones at five cents a bag?
Remember the White Tower and the old Sports Grille, Remember the "roundies" and Nanny Goat Hill?

Remember the Glendale's high red wall,
Which shadowed the "Oily" where we would play ball?
Remember Culkeen's where they sold feed and grain,
And the "Hippie" theater located on Main?

Remember the "Firsty," there were three of them here
On Bunker, on Main, and down at Hayes Square?
Remember St. Francis when its steeple was green,
And the street cars on Bunker, a magnificent scene?

And what of the "Loopers" and their dangerous ride,
From Hayes Square up over, to the hill's other side?
Remember the Alibi, and all of the others,
Declared as "off limits" by most of our mothers?

Remember the "El," as it stretched 'tween the Squares,
And one day demolished to answer our prayers?
Remember when Cummins' made sodas and frappes,
And Flaherty's station provided road maps?

Remember the clock atop old Bond Bread,
Remember the tribute to the World War II dead?
'Twas a memorial constructed down in the Square,
Thompson, that is, brave names listed there.

And remember how once, they flooded each park,
So on a clear winter night, you could skate after dark?
Remember the tricks the Cheerio Champ would display,
Just before noon on a pleasant spring day?

And remember the skate key, and the cracked baseball bat,
Remember the propeller on an old beanie hat?
Remember the "zoot suits" with shoulders so wide,
And a car's running board on which one could ride?

Remember the games which kept our attention?
Blacksmith and Moonshine are worthy of mention.
And Pomade was purchased to grease down the hair,
And "jumping the arm" was done on a dare.

This was a time when few families had cars,
And entertainment was found in the radio stars.
For sure, it's agreed, things are better today,
But these are our memories, they shan't pass away.

ficer Joe McNulty informed residents attending the April 9 Charlestown Neighborhood Council Public Safety Committee/Police Community Relations meeting that officers will be assigned to storefront locations in Charlestown within the next month.

This newly initiated program will allow residents to talk to police officers about their concerns or problem areas in the community in a face-to-face, relaxed atmosphere. Locations and dates are still being established, but McNulty stated that storefronts will be located in various sections of the community to make the program accessible to more residents.

McNulty also told the gathering that the Walk and Talk program, one that sees officers get out of their cruisers and walk the streets and talk to residents, has been expanded. Officers will now visit area businesses and drop-in centers to better acquaint themselves with the community and have the community become more familiar with them. He requested that business people interested in taking part in this program should contact him at the Area A Police Station at 247-4627.

Public Safety Committee Chairman Mel Stillman opened the meeting to the public, allowing them to express their concerns to the police officer. The primary concern was the possibility of cutbacks in the Police Department budget that would see a reduction in the number of officers in Charlestown. Others expressed opinions that fiscal problems will have a tremendous impact on the community with the elimination of summer jobs for teen-agers and the reduction in the number of recreation programs to keep them busy. Residents felt that this would result in an increase in the incidents of crime by this previously occupied portion of the community.

Council member Peter Looney stated: "The best thing that we can do as a community is to start thinking about creating programs for the summer to keep the kids busy. We have to put pressure on the city to get everything we can for Charlestown and then make the community aware of the problem and ask them to pitch in. The key word this summer will be 'volunteers.' This may be the only route we'll have open to us."

Stillman requested an update on criminal activities in Charlestown from McNulty. The officer stated that eight automobiles reported stolen had been recovered in the community over the past few weeks. "There is no set pattern as to where the cars came from, but each incident is being investigated," he stated.

He also said that an arrest had been made on the recurring incidents of auto

PRICING PITFALLS

You've just found the perfect new home for your growing family, but it's a little out of your price range — unless, that is, you can get an extra $20,000 for your current home. It may be worth $_____, but what the heck! Maybe you can find a Realtor to list it at a higher price, and you could get lucky. After all, it just takes one buyer, doesn't it?

Not really. To sell your home at top dollar within a reasonable time frame, the prime consideration is not what you'd like to get out of it, but what it is worth in today's market. If you set your price within 5 percent of that amount, you greatly increase your chances of getting good offers that will result in a relatively fast sale. Remember that there may be other ways to increase your buying power that will get you into that new home, including adjustable rate mortgages or owner financing. When you're selling one home and buying another, you'll need more than luck and the hope of finding that just one person who may be willing to pay more than your home is worth. You'll need a highly professional Realtor who can give you solid advice on how to make the transaction work for you.

For professional advice on all aspects of buying or selling a home, talk to the professionals at Monument Properties. Come by our office at 85 Warren St. in Charlestown or call us at 241-5900.

SCHOOL SPOTLIGHT

News Notes From St. Catherine School

13 Tufts St., Charlestown

Where "Attention to the finer points makes our students"

• On The Way Up . . . The class of 2000, St. Catherine Kindergarten, is the recipient of a $100 donation through the generosity of Rep. Richard Voke at his "Thank You, Charlestown" party. We extend our sincere thanks to Rep. Voke as we work through these economic times, making a difference, with our goals set on our latest future endeavor — KINDERGARTEN!

• It's The Law . . . Three fifth grade students have been participating in a new program, "Law Academy," sponsored by the Charlestown District Court. Chairperson, clerk and juvenile detention are just some of the terms that Janelle Ortiz, Kevin Golden and Erin Brennan are becoming familiar with. As Erin states: I'm sure before this course is over, I'll learn more interesting facts about the court and laws." The students were both surprised and proud to learn that the Charlestown Courthouse was the first court in the Western Hemisphere.

• Welcome . . . Fifth grade students from St. Joseph School in Wakefield, along with their principal Sister Donna and their teacher Mrs. Beaver, spent a day here at SCS. The visiting pen pals were greeted with a cheer written especially for the occasion. Since both classes are currently studying baptism, an original television report was acted out. Poetry, paper sculpture, pizza, tonic and games rounded out a very enjoyable time for both classes. Hopefully, the paths of these students will cross again during the course of the school year.

• A Pro Tells How . . . Here at St. Catherine, we recently sponsored an assembly for grades six, seven and eight with a representative of the Sports World Ministry. Harry Flaherty, a retired football player, spoke to the students. This linebacker graduated from Holy Cross College where he was All American in 1982 and 1983. During his professional career, he was with the Eagles, the Bandits, the Suns and the Cowboys. His talk centered on the importance of morals, values and faith. The importance of academics and encouraging students to do their best was also stressed. Boston-area business people deserve our sincere gratitude for providing financial sponsorship for this event.

• Seasonal Message . . . In this Easter Season in which new life is so apparent in the world around us, a true spirit of joy seems to evolve here at SCS. It is a "spirit of joy with an orientation toward excellence."

Registration for all other grades is also in progress.

DeRoeve Visits Washington With Youth Leadership Corps

A Charlestown youth was one of 30 members of the Mayor's Youth Leadership Corps who returned recently from a four-day visit to Washington, D.C., where they toured the nation's capital and met with Congressional leaders and young people from the District of Columbia.

Joseph DeRoeve of Charlestown, a student at Malden Catholic High School, was among the group of young people who toured the Capitol, the Supreme Court, F.B.I. headquarters and various monuments and museums. The corp members also met with U.S. Representatives Joseph Moakley and Barney Frank and attended a hearing chaired by U.S. Senator John Kerry.

Other highlights were get-togethers with local teen-agers at D.C. Boys and Girls Clubs. One turned in to a talent show with members of both groups performing for one another. The other began as a dance class and evolved into young people from Boston and Washington teaching each other dance steps in styles ranging from jazz, to modern, to African, to Irish step dancing.

Corps members returned to Boston with a deeper understanding of how the federal government operates and with new friends among Washington's youth.

The Mayor's Youth Leadership Corps is an outgrowth of the Boston Safe Neighborhoods Plan. It is a year-long, after-school program for high-school juniors in public, parochial or private schools made up of discussions, workshops, field trips and community service projects. Included in the program are scholarships and paid summer internships. Headquarters of the program is the James Michael Curley House in Jamaica Plain.

The program will begin accepting applications from current sophomores soon. For further information, write to: Mayor's Youth Leadership Corps, 350 The Jamaica Way, Boston, Mass. 02130 or call 725-4307.

Attends Junior Leadership Retreat

Francis J. Coleman of 10 Lawrence St., Charlestown, was one of six juniors at Don Bosco Technical High School in Boston who recently attended a Junior Leadership Retreat at West Haverstraw, N.Y.

They were a part of a group of 90 students from 11 Salesian schools from the East Coast and Canada. The purpose of the retreat was to work on leadership activities.

Financial Aid Booklet Available

Rep. Richard Voke is currently offering the 1991-92 edition of "Sources of Financial Aid for Massachusetts Students" to those students and their parents seeking an introduction or information about the many sources of financial aid available to them.

"More than $20 billion in public and private money was awarded to students needing financial aid to help meet college costs," said Voke. "This goes to show the resources are there to make the dream of a college education become a reality. Knowing where to find this money and how to access it is the key," he stressed.

Aside from reviewing the brochure, Voke says the most important step to securing aid is by completing and filing a Massachusetts Financial Aid Form (MF-AF), which is available from high school guidance counselors. Voke also noted a toll-free information line staffed by trained counselors from the Higher Education Information Center can be called at 1-800-442-1171 to answer any questions about a variety of financial aid programs.

To obtain a copy of "Sources of Financial Aid for Massachusetts Students," prospective students or their parents should write to Rep. Richard Voke, Room 343, State House, Boston, Mass. 02133.

tured activities for members, including teaching the harmful effect of drugs, and it will expose kids to positive adult and teen-age role models. Parents will be asked to participate in homework assignments, recreational and social activities and provide the ultimate role model for their child.

The Charlestown "club" will open new doors for community kids by providing them new friendships and a sense of belonging. It will teach them the importance of taking on responsibility for themselves and those around them. It will also serve as a healthy, constructive outlet for youthful energy and enthusiasm by providing endless opportunities for members to learn new skills and explore new personal horizons, thus building self-esteem and personal character.

An added advantage to being a club member will be learning knowledge on problem-solving, decision-making and communication skills that will help in the fight against becoming a drug user.

The program does not shy away from taking a strong moral stance on drug use. Its message is clear: "Using drugs is wrong; every drug is potentially harmful; and there is no 'responsible' use of illicit drugs and no 'responsible' use of alcohol or tobacco by minors." The program approach steers clear of discussing values, but at the same time promotes the values of friendship, helpfulness, responsibility and mutual respect.

The goal of the "Just Say No" program is to create a drug-free generation by the practical attainment of reaching one child at a time.

Marsden can be seen where the kids hang out, trying to let them know that he cares and is available. His message on the effects of abusing drugs and alcohol was first heard by seventh and eighth graders at St. Catherine School who experienced a "no-holds barred" talk on his personal experiences as a drug user and those of a 17-year-old former graduate of the grammar school, both now in recovery programs.

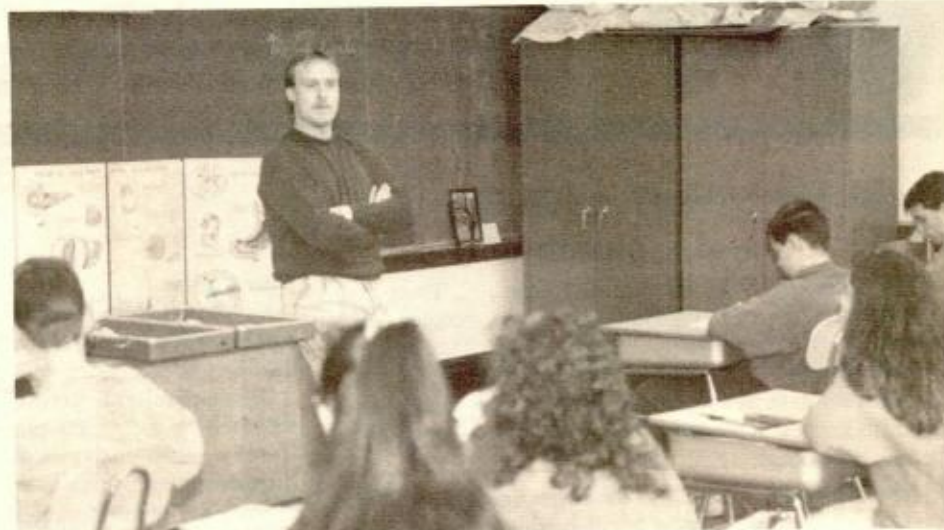

"I've been there and I'm one of the lucky ones who is still here to talk about it," he said admitting that he tried it all and hurt not only himself but those who loved him in the process. "There were no programs like this for me or people I knew. No one ever told me the effects these drugs would have on my body," he stated, "I had to learn it the hard way and I will pay for it the rest of my life."

At the present time, Marsden is setting up a communitywide support system that the kids will be comfortable living with.

"I'm trying to establish a network for the kids that will reinforce what the program is teaching them — there are people out there that care about them and want to help. This network will consist of volunteers from every age level, background and life experience. We need teen peer leaders, adult guest speakers and opportunities to get the message to as many kids as we can reach," he stated. "My personal goal is to get so much information out in the open that eventually kids will have enough positive images that drugs will no longer be an issue."

Marsden admitted that when he talks to Charlestown kids he talks from the heart. "I don't use shock treatment, only the truth. I will accept each and everyone who I can reach unconditionally. I am available 24-hours a day," he said. The program is located within the Bunker Hill Housing Development but is not limited to residents of the development. "Any Charlestown kid is welcome," he said, adding that he can be reached at the KidsForce office at 242-3363 or at his home at 242-8845.

He concluded by saying: "When I was pressured repeatedly by friends I was too young to stop. I was also too young to die. The reality of drug and alcohol abuse is either jail, institutions or — death."

A "Make Your Own Sundae" party is planned for tomorrow, Friday, April 12, between 3 and 5 p.m. at the KidsForce Center, 76 Monument St. All ages are welcome. The cost is only $2 per youngster, and the object is for youngsters to just show up and have fun. The event is co-sponsored by KidsForce and the Just Say No Club.

For more information on either program, or to volunteer, call Marsden at 242-8845.

★ Operation Welcome Home . . . will be the best that Charlestown can offer. Like any other event, it will cost money. To help defray some of the cost, Fran Morris has donated hand-crocheted baby sets and afghans to be raffled off. Chances are $1 each and are available at the Patriot office. The drawing will be held on Tuesday, June 4. Drop by and view the beautiful items, take a chance and support a great cause.

It Was Hard Holding Back The Tears

30 Mar 91

Dear Gloria,

I'd like to thank all who were involved in the recent package and that whopper-card. The support of you folks toward all of us is staggering to the imagination.

Please permit me to continue my story from my last letter. As a physician, my prayers were answered. The allied losses were so small that we, as a hospital, saw no patients directly after any action. We were prepared to handle hundreds of patients at a time, but thankfully it was not necessary. Let me personally assure you that the weapons were not the only high tech pieces of equipment in use. Our operating room, lab and X-ray equipment was top notch.

I arrived home a few days ago. The trip was pleasant in many ways. The pilot and stewardesses were outstanding. We were allowed in the cockpit and were given a pilot's-eye view of the world at 31,000 feet. The pilot also gave us updates along the way. "We're now out of Saudi territory; we're over Cairo — you can see two pyramids and the Sphinx; we're out of Arab territory . . ."

My father had told me of the welcoming reception in Bangor, Maine. The stewardesses also mentioned the reception. I was anticipating a crowd of 40 to 50 people. I was duly impressed when I saw approximately 150 people through the windows. When I saw that the 150 people were only the prelude to the 2,000, I nearly lost all sense of decorum both as a physician and as a soldier. It was hard holding back the tears. It still is, in fact. That was my first time shaking hundreds of hands and autographing countless T-shirts, sheets, books, etc.

The last leg of the journey was started after a few snowball fights on board the aircraft. The Vietnam vets were given the honor of deplaning before the rest of us. Arrival at Fort Sill was preceded by a bus ride from Altus Air Force Base. During the last 30 miles of the trip we were greeted by people bearing welcome signs and flags, honking horns and ringing bells. The police motorcade was a sight, too: 10 cars with sirens and lights plus numerous others running interference. The reception speeches (two) were short and we got to get together with our families right away.

Currently I am on leave and will be in Charlestown next week. Your support has been wonderful and a great morale booster. Thank you one and all.

Sincerely,

Cpt. Charles "Chuck" Ryan

Get The 17th Of June Parade Ready, We're Coming Home

15 March 91

Dear Gloria,

Just one final note to the people of Charlestown before I leave the sands of Saudi Arabia. Thank you for all your support. The liberation of Kuwait was a great victory for all of us. Your Marines, Sailors, Army Soldiers and Air Force Airmen didn't let you down.

The people of Charlestown should feel proud of their servicemen and the overwhelming support you gave. Our victory was in no small part won in the churches of Charlestown. For those of us who participated in Desert Storm, we know of the miracles your prayers have brought.

Being a "Townie," the last thing we would ever want to do would be to let our town down. We didn't, and each family can be proud of their sons and daughters in uniform. As the ad says: "This one was for you."

To all of you, we thank you from the bottom of our hearts. I will never forget what you did for us. Get the 17th of June Parade ready . . . We're coming home!

We Still Have A 'Real World Mission'

27 March 91

Hey Guys,

Thanks for all the teeth rotting-junk food you gave me, it was most excellent! I've been meaning to break up this Army diet and you guys helped a lot.

On the serious side, thank you for all you've done for us "Townies!" You guys lead the way, all the way! I brought your prayers and best wishes when I went into Iraq and I stayed alive. What that means is The American Legion and Charlestown are a definite motivation factor for us guys (Townies) over here!

I'm still in Kuwait, we can see all the fighting from Bosrah in Iraq, and sometimes the Iraq military thinks it's us and comes over the border and surrenders. All we can do is disarm them and turn them around and force them back into Iraq!

We still have a "real world mission" over here because they haven't signed the treaty yet. When they do, my division will be relieved in place by coalition forces comprised of Egyptian, Kuwaiti, Syrian and other United Emirate Kingdom forces. In the mean time, we sit and watch the helpless massacre of people in Iraq!

I'm only 18, but I've seen and done enough to last me a lifetime! I didn't know what to expect when we moved into Iraq, but I knew it would change me for the rest of my life. I only pray God will forgive me for what I've done for my country.

You guys are the best, I'll see you soon, and with any luck I'll be home for July 4th ceremonies.

Thanks again, you people are great! I couldn't remain sane without your support!

Sincerely,

David G. Krasner

New Flag Will Fly Proudly . . .

NEW RED, WHITE AND BLUE will replace the tattered American flag that has been flying over the Morris home on Russell Street, compliments of Congressman Joseph P. Kennedy II. Fran Morris, mother of Sgt. Samuel Morris who is stationed in the Persian Gulf, was presented the flag by Kennedy's aide Jim Walsh of Charlestown in recognition of her many contributions in raising funds for gift packages sent to Charlestown service men and women serving in the Gulf. The flag flew over the U.S. Capitol Building in Washington, D.C. on March 21 in honor of all Operation Desert Storm service men and women and their families.

Please Thank Everyone

To the Members of Bunker Hill Post 26,
Dear Commander,

Please extend my thanks to the people involved in sending me all the great stuff in your package.

We are all still pretty busy in my unit. We provide a majority of medical treatment to the U.S. forces here and also to the Iraqi POWs.

It makes me proud to be a Townie. We serve each time we're called and even though I now live in Watertown, I will always be a Townie. I hope to be back for the 17th of June, but we may be deployed longer. We don't know and we're anxious to get home. I am a reservist and our unit was activated in November before Thanksgiving.

It's hard to leave the family for six months to a year. I never thought I'd serve in two wars. I am a Vietnam veteran with two years in that country back in 1967-70. This call-up was a shock to many and the older soldiers will have to recover both monetarily and family-wise. The kids here could use a G.I. bill because a lot of the Reserve and National Guard assignments pulled them right out of school and caused them to lose the whole school year.

I believe in the Reserves and the U.S.A. and have just re-enlisted for six more years. I hope we can keep the excellent service people after this call-up. Your support certainly made a great difference.

Thanks for caring.

Bunker Hill Day Parade Committee Seeks Community Support

The fund raising for the parade and commemorative celebration is being carried out by a small but dedicated group of residents. These people are giving many hours of their time to make this a truly memorable celebration for the community and they need the support of every resident, whether he or she be a lifelong Townie or a newer resident of the town.

Monies must be raised in order to pay the fee or expense of each band, drum corps, color guard or other unit that takes part in the parade. Musical units charge from $800 to over $2,000 for their participation in the parade if they are from Massachusetts, and much more for those units that are being brought in from distant states — none of them come for free.

There are several ways that you, the resident, local business person or community organization can help:

- Send in a donation to the Parade Committee using the coupon on this page. Once again this year, the Monument will be featured weekly in the Patriot so the community can see the results of the fund-raising efforts. Contributions of $25 or more will be acknowledged under the Monument.

- Obtain a booster sticker for $1 or more donation. The boosters will be available shortly from members of the Parade and Welcome Home Committees.

- Buy a raffle ticket at $1 per chance ($10 per book) on numerous prizes to be drawn prior to the parade (date, time and place to be announced).

Information on when and where the boosters and raffle tickets will be sold will be announced in upcoming editions of the Patriot.

Organizations, businesses and elected officials who are interested in sponsoring a unit for the parade should contact the Parade General Chairman, James W. Conway, at 242-6187 or 241-9511.

The Chief Marshal of this year's Bunker Hill Day Parade is Patricia Quinn Farris, a lifelong resident of Charlestown. Farris was born on Putnam Street and attended St. Mary's, the

C.R. Edwards and Charlestown High School. She joined the U.S. Navy and served with the WAVES during World War II.

Farris is a Past Commander of Bunker Hill Post No. 26, The American Legion and presently serves as its Graves Registration Officer. She is also a member of the Honor Society of Women Legionnaires.

She is a charter member and a past president of the Bunker Hill Irish Heritage Society and is currently serving as its first vice president.

Farris is the mother of Edward, Daniel, Jay, Michael and James. She has 11 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Both Chief Marshal Farris and the Parade Committee welcome the assistance of anyone interested in helping to make this Bunker Hill Day Parade, dedicated in honor of our troops serving in the Persian Gulf in Operations Desert Shield and Desert Storm, an outstanding success. Help is needed on the various fund-raising committees as well in the organization of the parade and the commemorative exercises.

IT WAS NAVY ALL THE WAY at a fund-raising dance honoring Patricia Quinn Farris, chief marshal of the 1991 Bunker Hill Day Parade, on April 5 at the K. of C. Hall. The festivities opened with a rousing "Anchors Aways" and the posting of the colors by the USS CONSTITUTION Honor Guard. Ryan Farris, 4, escorted his grandmother Patricia to the podium for several presentations. Music was provided by D.J. Eric Johnson.

TOP ROW: At the left, Jay Farris, Ryan Farris, Patricia Farris and Father Ron Coyne stand as the ceremony begins and Patricia joins in singing "Anchors Away." At the right, Farris admires a decorated balloon containing suspended American, POW and state flags that was presented to her by her son Jay in honor of her April 10 birthday along with an enormous birthday card signed by all in attendance.

BOTTOM ROW: At the left, Congressional Aide Jim Walsh presents a citation to Farris from U.S. Congressman Joseph P. Kennedy II. In the second photograph, House Majority Leader, Rep. Richard A. Voke, presents a citation from the House of Representatives to Farris. Eugene "Bud" Whelan acted as master of ceremonies for the festivities. He read a letter to Farris from U.S. Senator John Kerry and presented citations on behalf of Sen. Tom Birmingham and Boston City Councillor Michael McCormack. At the right, Chief Marshal Farris thanks SA Lance Arnold (left) and SN Lucian Smith (right) of the USS CONSTITUTION Honor Guard for their participation. Also present for the event were Suffolk County Sheriff Robert Rufo and Boston School Committee member Peggy Davis-Mullen, at-large candidate for the Boston City Council.

Tom Hickey Celebrates 80th Birthday

by Sheila Sweeney
On March 9 at The Happy Haddock Restuarant in Medford, Tom Hickey of Belmont Street in Charlestown was amazed to discover about 90 people waiting to surprise him with a birthday party. Tom and Veronica Hickey's three children, MaryEllen, Thomas and Brian, had gathered their family and friends together to pay tribute to their father and celebrate his 80th birthday.

Among the guests were Boston City Councillor Robert Travaglini, who presented Hickey with a resolution from the Boston City Council, and Medford Mayor Michael McGlynn, who presented Hickey an engraved plaque from the city of Medford and a commemorative declaration from Rep. Richard Voke. St. Francis de Sales Church was represented by Father Emile Lobo and Father

Daniel Mahoney, as well as many friends from the parish.

The master of ceremonies for the celebration was Mike Callahan. Perhaps the most celebrated guests were Tom and Veronica's five grandchildren: Donna, C.J., Ryan, Kaleigh and Tommy John.

Hickey was born on March 12, 1911 and has been a lifelong resident of Charlestown. Music has always been an essential part of his life. While he was recording Christmas Midnight Mass at St. Francis de Sales Church many years ago, he met his future bride, Bridget Veronica Doherty. They proceeded to build their life around their three children, MaryEllen, Thomas and Brian, and the Charlestown community. An active participant in the St. Francis de Sales singing community and an accomplished Barbershop Quartet member, Hickey has performed and sung throughout Boston for many years. Hickey has that rare gift of a truly generous spirit and loving nature. The sound of his familiar voice echoing in the rafters of a church has often brought a smile and a great deal of comfort to those seated in the pews below — myself included. This surprise party was a chance for his family and friends to celebrate a man who has touched each one of us in his own special way. We are all blessed to have Tom Hickey in our midst.

TOWNIE SPORTS LINE

The final week of the Nate Hurwitz Basketball Tournament is upon us and the action will be intense. The finals will be held next Saturday, April 20, but before then, there will be plenty of action provided by some of the best players in the state. There are still plenty of quarter-final and semi-final games to be played, so come on up to the Boys & Girls Club and catch the action.

Last week's results are as follows:

11-and-Under Division

- St. Francis 29 — Milton 24 . . . St. Francis of Medford was able to hold off a late Milton rally and advance to the finals next Saturday. St. Francis will meet the South End Boys & Girls Club for the title.
- So. End Boys & Girls Club 46 — Condon 18 . . . Top-seeded South End ran away from the Condon School to advance to Saturday's final versus St. Francis of Medford. The South End's great fast break makes them an early 10-point favorite in next week's final. For up to the minute lines on Hurwitz games, dial 1-800-STEIMEL.

13-and-Under Division

- Sharon 31 — Charlestown 28 . . . In overtime . . . The

Charlestown Youth Hockey Calendar

- Saturday, April 20, noon . . . Annual Players Pizza Party at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 75 West School St.
- Friday, May 3, 6 p.m. . . . Deadline for nominations for those running for the Board of Directors. Anyone who wishes to run must contact Bill Burke at 242-0578.
- Friday, May 3, 6 to 8 p.m. . . . CYHA registration.
- Wednesday, May 8, 5 to 8 p.m. . . . Election of the Board at the Knights of Columbus Hall, followed by the annual meeting at 8 p.m. One vote per family, and the election is open to all paid up members, former members in good standing, and past board members.
- Friday, May 10 . . . $25 registration fee is due.
- ★ All 1990/91 dues must be paid in full.
- ★ 1991/92 team assignments are valid after registration.
- The registration location will be announced in the Patriot.

1991 Nate Hurwitz Tournament

top-seeded Sharon Eagles had all they could handle when they tapped off against the underdog Charlestown Club. Led by Danny Gibbons' 10 points and 21 rebounds, Charlestown stormed back in the second half and tied Sharon on two clutch free throws by Nick Smith with only four seconds left. In overtime, Sharon made the free throws, grabbed the key rebounds and barely escaped to advance. Congratulations to Bobby Smith's team that advanced further than any Charlestown team in the boys division.

- South End Boys & Girls Club 59 — Carlos Pizza 27 . . . The boys from Allston were no match for the running and gunning South End Club. South End now advances to meet Sharon. This promises to be a great matchup.

- Braintree 28 — Roxbury 25 . . . Roxbury's stall game backfired on them and Braintree capitalized and advanced to the semi-finals. Roxbury had leads up to 12 points, but failed when they tried to sit on the ball.

16-and-Under Division

- Derry 51 — E.S. 48 . . . In one of the biggest upsets of the tournament, Derry stunned a talented New Bedford area team that may have been looking past this matchup. Derry jumped on them early and controlled the ball late to advance.

- Buddies 75 — South Boston 31 . . . The Buddies from New Bedford jumped out of the blocks early and never looked back as they thrashed a sound South Boston club.

On April 6 over 35 color guards competed in the finals of the Eastern Massachusetts Color Guard Circuit at Salem State College. St. Catherine's "Little Townies" ended its first season in the cadet division, having competed on 11 week-ends between January and April 6. During that time we became convinced of our ability. The "Little Townies" had a wonderful, fun-filled year and look forward to next season.

The scores for the Eastern Mass. Finals in the Cadet Division were as follows:

1. Sacred Heart, Roslindale 78.5

- Peabody 69 — Patriots 43 . . . All-Scholastic Casey Arena led a powerful Peabody team past the Patriots of Revere to advance to the quarter-finals.

- MASS AAU 87 — Lynn Tech 72 . . . MASS AAU outlasted Lynn Tech in this track meet.

- Wildcat AAU 60 — Tarheels 44 . . . This isn't the year of the Tarheels.

- G.B. AAU 68 — Condon 30 . . . Condon couldn't keep up with Greater Boston.

- Col. Dan Marr Club 70 — Newton South 47 . . . Despite missing some key players, Dan Marr came up with a giant effort and put Newton away.

19-and-Under Division

- South West Boston 91 — Cape Codders 50 . . . The heat was turned up on the Cape this week, courtesy of a great S.W. Boston team.

- Shelburne Center 69 — Buddies 66 . . . The Buddies comeback, fell short and Shelburne advances.

Men's Open Division

- Boston Fire Department 66 — Filene's 51 . . . Flash: Hunzie didn't foul out.

Corporate Division

- Pepsi 62 — Globe 51
- Dean Whitter 74 — Edison 29

GIRLS FOOTBALL UPDATE

The girls began the second half of the football season last Wednesday night. The standings seem to be opening up, but some edge-of-your-seat action last week makes you think anything can happen from this point.

The Clovers beat the Parkies in their first encounter this season, and it looked as if they might do the same when Erin McDonough found Nicole Matson in the end zone to open a 1-0 lead. The Parkies got it together though and scored the next five touchdowns. Mary Kay Tkachuck threw four, finding Kolleen Hayes three times and Maureen Wedge the other. The remaining score came from a Jodi Neff interception return in the closing seconds of the first half. McDonough and Matson combined once again and Matson threw one to Laureen Jones to cut the Parkies lead to two. But, it wouldn't be enough as the Parkies tied the season series at one each and held on for the victory.

Early in the season the Silver Box defeated Newtowne in one of the most intense games in league history. The rematch was no ho-hum affair either. The Silver Box took a 3-1 halftime lead with balanced offense from everybody. Corey Gallagher threw a touchdown to Jen Swales and caught one from Cheryl Collins. Swales also caught a score from April Brennan in the half. Newtowne would come within one score three times in the second half but Silver Box kept responding with scores of its own. Gallagher had three long receptions for touchdowns and Kim Campbell had another to keep their team ahead. The Newtowne surge was lead by "the one-armed bandit" Michelle Macomber who weaved through the defense for four scores. Shannon McLaughlin also contributed one to finish out the scoring and keep the outcome uncertain. The Silver Box held on to take the victory and remain undefeated.

BOYS BALL HOCKEY UPDATE

The boys have come to the midpoint of their season and so far it's been a great one. We had another interesting week of action.

The Flames continue to be Charlestown's comeback kids as they pulled off their third come-from-behind victory in as many weeks. S.W.A.'s Oatmeal took a 5-3 halftime lead with two Mark Collins goals and one each from Mark Mansfield and Paul Meyers. Jon Lent would continue the S.W.A.'s attack by scoring in the opening minutes of the second half. Anthony Matson cut the margin to one with two of his four goals. Paul Allen later tied the game at six. S.W.A.'s Oatmeal took the lead, but couldn't hold back the persistent Flames as Matson put them on top and Joey Fitz iced it moments later with his third of the evening.

The Butt Pirates rang up four unanswered goals in the first half of the second game and never looked back. Although Bunker Hill eventually got within three at 7-4, the Butt Pirates pulled away toward the end with a scoring attack from five different sources. Tommy O'Leary, Kenny Giordano, Jimmy Gillen and Jamie "Shoulders" McLaughlin each had a pair of goals and Joe DeRoeve had a hat-trick. As for Bunker Hill, they got a pair from Ming Ngan and one each from Donnie Kelsey and Kevin McMasters. Another superb game by Brendan Brennan in the net also kept Bunker Hill in the contest.

Thursday night had a battle for fourth place on hand and it was a dandy. The Ram Men scored the first three before Mike Walsh put the Wet Bandits on the board with two quick ones. Chris Brennan would put the Ram Men back up by two with the first goal of his hat trick, Walsh would answer again and complete his own. The two rivals would continue to trade goals until Chris Rizzo put matters to rest by scoring the Ram Men's last four goals. The Bandits kept it interesting to the end with scoring from Pat Owens, who contributed two; and Dickie Centola, Mark Dollosa and Jason Ezekiel.

In the night's second encounter, J.A.F.T. scored eight quick goals before Frank Butler could net one for Mishawum. But Mishawum could not get back on track despite some late scoring from Mike Carroll with two and Timmy O'Brien. Butler would also net another. J.A.F.T. received offensive power from six players. Danny Hooley, Steve Mahan, Billy Kempton, Tommy "Tortoise" McGrath, Ronnie Poole and Todd Fisher all contributed scores.

The league is becoming very competitive as it winds down to the playoffs. Here are some stats as of April 4.

■ Andy Puopolo-Charlestown Pride Basketball Camp A Great Success . . . Forty-three boys and girls took part in this year's Andy Puopolo-Charlestown Pride Basketball Camp held at the Kent Community School and the Boys & Girls Club. This is a 101 percent increase in participation over last year. Approximately 30 percent of those who took part were girls.

A typical camp day, including a full court game, was comprised of exercises, running, lay up, passing, shooting, dribbling drills and more running.

Emphasis was placed on fundamentals and hard work. Each player was placed on one of four teams — Jay Hawks, Tar Heels, Running Rebels or Wildcats — that he or she played on throughout the week.

The camp was staffed by members of the Charlestown Pride Basketball Team which is the team's way of giving something to the younger kids, and this is an important lesson in itself. Giving something is an important part of Charlestown Pride.

No one gets paid to work the camp, and it is free of charge.

The work of Pat Woods, Stephen Fabiano, Pat Owens, Jonathan Owens, Mike Erardi, Rori Doherty, Nicholas Smith, and the help and support of Jeff McGann and Michele Gorman at the Community Schools and John Killoran and Derek Gallagher at the Boys & Girls Club is greatly appreciated. Your efforts made the week a great success.

Participants in the '91 Camp were:

• Running Rebels — Jim Yandle, Chris Tamburello, John Polisky, Angel Mondalano, Kathy O'Leary, Dom Tamburello, Ryan Evers, Jim Saccardo, Dan McMasters, Paul Gould and John Fabiano.

• Jay Hawks — Dan Evers, Jeff Fidler, Gigi Peterson, Greg Masse, Meghan Murray, Kyle Egleston, Angelique Kane, Shannon Anzalone, Bonnie O'Leary and Jennifer Evers.

• Tar Heels — Greg Staples, Walter Egleston, Jim Considine, Santos Figerosa, Aileen Gorman, Clinton MacDougall, Kevin Golden, Brian Wadman, Mike Rushing, Schannel Auch and Trong Ngo.

■ Beach Party . . . If you didn't go to the Beach Party, you missed a great time — ask any of the 50 teens who attended.

The teen dance was hosted by the Bunker Hill Teen Council. The council would like to thank Father Ron Coyne for the use of St. Catherine's Hall; Steve Considine for chaperoning; and Rep. Richard Voke, whose donation to the council helped to sponsor the event.

We extend special thanks also to The Charlestown Patriot for their help in publicizing the event.

Teen Council members Ming Ngan, Dan Dollosa, T.J. Gould, and new member Nano Arroyo, did an outstanding job organizing the Beach Party.

Because of each of you, 50 young people had a fun and safe Saturday night activity to attend.

The Most Creative Beach Party Attire Award goes to David Burns! Definitely a unanimous choice.

■ Marc Dollosa, Opening Day Star . . . Charlestown High School baseball is underway, and they certainly got off to a great start.

In a 13-2 opening day win versus Brighton, junior Marc Dollosa pitched a three-hitter, striking out 13 batters. He also had a fine day at the plate, batting two for three.

■ Spring Ball Hockey Reminder . . . Rosters have been given out for the spring 15-and-under Ball Hockey League to begin May 1 at the Boys & Girls Club.

Completed rosters should be returned as soon as possible. This league is limited to six teams, and one spot has already been filled.

The league is a joint effort between the Bunker Hill Teen Council and the Boys & Girls Club.

Jimmy Yandle says watch out for the Smurfs!

■ Opening Day Jitters?? . . . Weather permitting, the Red Sox begin another Home Season today. Today begins my 24th year working at Fenway Park!

A LITTLE BIT OF BACK TALK

Did you know that to become a certified chiropractor takes a minimum of six years of college training? In most states chiropractors are required to attend and pass annual seminars to have their licenses renewed.

The government has endorsed the use of chiropractors by including their treatment in Workmen's Compensation.

If you've been hesitant about seeing a chiropractor and this hasn't answered your questions, feel free to ask us directly. Call today.

• Herb Reed And The Platters To Perform For St. Catherine's . . . On Saturday, June 22, Herb Reed and The Platters will be performing at the K. of C. Hall to benefit St. Catherine's Color Guard.

The Platters will perform at 9 and 11 p.m. and each show is entirely different. Your ticket entitles you to stay for both shows. The doors open at 8 p.m. The cost is $25 per person, and tables of 10 may be reserved. Tickets are available from the color guard managers or at the rectory. No tickets will be available without payment.

• Sex, Lies And Gettin' High . . . CHarlestown Against Drugs (CHAD), in conjunction with St. Catherine CYO, the Boys & Girls Club and Community Schools, will sponsor a day for teen-agers on Sunday, May 5 at St. Catherine's School Hall from 1 to 6 p.m. There will be outstanding speakers on self-esteem, drug and alcohol use and abuse, teen-age sexuality, racism and prejudice, and sexually transmitted diseases. The day will end with a supper of pizza/subs and sundaes. We invite all teen-agers from 13 years of age through high school to join us.

• Altar Boy Trip . . . We would like to take the altar boys on a 3 or 4 day trip this summer. In order to make this a reality we will have to raise some funds. Parents are asked to meet at the rectory on Monday, April 15 at 7 p.m. to discuss the possibility of a trip.

• 8th Grade Girl Olympics . . . St. Catherine's will take an 8th grade girls teams to compete in the Annual Olympics held at West Roxbury High School on Tuesday, April 16. The bus will leave St. Catherine Church at 8:30 a.m. and return around 6:30 p.m. The girls will compete against 11 other parishes in basketball, volleyball, gym hockey, water basketball and relays. Since St. Catherine's organizes the entire event, we also need high school students to volunteer to referee, keep score, etc. Please call Father Coyne if interested.

• Confirmation . . . On Sunday, April 21 at the 11 a.m. Mass, Bishop Roberto Gonzalez will confirm 66 of our parishioners. These 40 teen-agers and 26 adults will be confirming publicly what their parents said for them at baptism. We are very proud of the Confirmation class and thankful to those who have taught them.

We believe that one of the great discoveries they have made is that the church wants them to continue to be involved in its life and to center their lives around their parish. Many of these 66 candidates have already given much of their time to the church through CYO, altar boys, sports, olympics, coaching, color guard, etc.

• Volunteers In Parish Ministry . . . We will be taking 15 of our CCD teachers, lectors and eucharistic ministers to a Day of Renewal at B.C. High on Saturday, April 20 from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. We will leave from the church promptly at 8:30 a.m.

• Religious Education (CCD) Teachers Needed . . . On Thursday, April 25 at 7 p.m. there will be a meeting in the rectory, for all those presently teaching in our religious education program and for any adult who is interested in teaching next year in grades 1 through 8 and special needs.

• Adult Mystery Ride . . . A mystery ride for adults will be held on Wednesday, May 8. The bus will leave the church at 6 p.m. and return at 11:30 p.m. The $25 cost will include transportation, dinner and a surprise. Please call Mary Walsh at 242-4096 for reservations.

Navy Yard Patrol Craft To Visit USS Constitution

If you want to learn to "drive" a U.S. Navy ship, you must start small. To see how small, visit the USS Constitution on April 16 for a close look at some training vessels.

Two yard-patrol craft (YPs) from the Naval Education and Training Center, Newport, R.I., will visit Boston April 16 and 17. They will tie up next to "Old Ironsides" at the Boston National Historical Park, Charlestown. One of the craft will be open for public visiting from 1 to 4 p.m. on Tuesday, April 16. There is no charge for visiting.

YPs are used for training in navigation and seamanship. The 108-foot-long vessels are not commissioned ships. Capable of sleeping 30 people each, the YPs provide an opportunity for officer candidates to apply skills taught in their classrooms to real-life situations.

About 400 officer candidates a year practice navigation, shiphandling, tactical maneuvering, seamanship and communications aboard the YPs. An experienced crew — one officer-in-charge, one master, two engineers and two deck hands — supervises the training.

by Kathy Callahan
(This is the second of a two-part series on recycling.)

Landfills are quickly becoming obsolete. Land is not only scarce but it is also too valuable to be used as a disposal for materials that can be recycled. It is time to rethink how we dispose of our solid waste. We all must be willing to adjust our life styles in order to effectively make a difference.

New regulations banning the disposal of recyclable wastes will help develop opportunities for reprocessing

these materials into new products, thereby completing the recycling "loop."

Under the Department of Environmental Protection's Solid Waste Master Plan which outlines a progressive statewide recycling program, the following materials will be prohibited from entering landfills or from being incinerated also cited will be phased-in by the year indicated:

- 1990 — auto batteries
- 1991 — leaves, unshredded tires and white goods
- 1992 — yard wastes (grass clippings, brush), aluminum materials, metal and glass containers
- 1994 — all grades of recyclable paper and single polymer plastics
- 1996 — two-thirds of state landfills will be closed
- 2000 — landfills will accept less than half as much municipal solid waste as they do currently.

The Charlestown Recycling Committee meets from 7 to 8:30 p.m. on the first Monday of each month at the Mary Colbert Apartments, 20 Devens St. The next meeting will be on May 6. All residents are welcome. Look for upcoming CRC news in next week's Patriot.

Firefighting Exhibit

An exhibit illustrating the history of Boston firefighting is now on display at 125 Summer Street in the first floor gallery. The exhibition chronicles the city's firefighting efforts starting in 1631 when Boston established the first fire company in North America. Open to the public weekdays from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m., and Saturdays from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m., the exhibit is free of charge.

The exhibit is located at the site of Boston's famous Box 52 — from which the alarm was struck announcing the Great Boston Fire in 1872. Photographs included in the exhibit, taken at the site before and after the Great Fire, create a chilling perspective.

My Kid Is Driving Me Crazy

Police Visibility

break-ins in and around the Monument Square area. A 16-year-old Charlestown male was arrested after residents spotted someone in a car and chased him to Bunker Hill Street where he was caught. Another juvenile has been identified and warrants are being issued for his arrest, McNulty added.

McNulty stated that Deputy Superintendent Robert Hayden has assigned patrol cars to local parks to help alleviate problems that start happening once the warm weather brings more activity to these areas.

Residents are urged to call police at 911 when they see suspicious activity in their neighborhood, McNulty stated. He also suggested that residents could greatly help in decreasing the number of auto break-ins by simply not leaving items visible in their cars. "Anything from a pair of sunglasses to a radar detector is cause to have your car burglarized," he said.

The next scheduled meeting of the Public Safety/Police Community Relations Committee will be on Tuesday, May 14 at the Kent Community School, 50 Bunker Hill St.

"The Invisible Line" will be featured as a second parents-of-teen-agers film, tonight, Thursday, April 11 at 6:30 p.m. as the Kennedy Center's My Kid is Driving Me Crazy video-discussion series continues.

This video focuses on one family as the parents deal with the loss of their son to drug abuse and a younger brother tries to make sense of the seriousness of his brother's addiction. "The Invisible Line" offers straightforward information in a way that is easy to understand, and all the videos offer information on hard to identify drug and alcohol problems in your child and how to help as a parent.

"Drug-Free Kids," parts

1 and 2, will follow in the next two weeks of the series. The videos are shown at the Kennedy Center, 27 Winthrop St., second floor, starting at 6:30 p.m. and are followed by a discussion period until 8 p.m.

For more information about this video series, call Sue-Ellen Muse or Lynn Peters at 241-8866.

PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

Holy Spirit, You who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal. You who give me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and in all instances of my life. You are with me. I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things as You confirm once again that I never want to be separated from You even in spite of all material illusions. I wish to be with You in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. (Say for three consecutive days - favor will be granted.) Prayer must be published.
