Facebook has become the top social media site of today ever since its conception in 2004. It wiped out its major competitors, Friendster and mySpace, and though other social media sites have sprouted over the years, no one has ever surpassed Facebook. Now, a lot of people want to hack Facebook accounts for a number of different reasons. It may be personal in nature, where a suspicious or paranoid boyfriend or girlfriend wants to find out if their partners are cheating on them, or it may be Source:Your Trusted Hacks
