Re: Success found ! QUOTE THANKS

Hello "Spooky" Nation.

I want to share something amazing. About 3 weeks ago a bio-feed-back machine (not the Spooky pulse) found cancer in me. The cancer is Oris (mouth nose, head) . The machine pointed out that the cancer was very high, life threatening. Also gave me the exact cancer frequency. I punch the frequency on the Spooky2 M5 with booster cables. At the time I used one generator. I run the setting suggested by David Bourke.

Repeat Each Set: 4
Repeat Program: 4
Dwell Multiplier: .25

Anyway, after few a weeks I run the bio-feed-back again. The cancer was considerably low. No life threatening anymore. My point is that knowing the exact personal cancer frequency the time to fight will be so much shorter and more efficient. So I invite everyone to get a Spooky pulse, or to get hand on bio-feed-back machine. The Spooky pulse is great for the price compared to some over 10k euro.

God Bless you. Keep hope alive.

My update: The cancer is gone!!! Chronic Lyme Disease is gone!!! Floaters in my eyes are dissolving away...my retinologist said that would probably never happen!!! So thrilled and continuing to use this technology to undue the other 7 diseases and issues that caused the cancer in the beginning!!! 😊 I will up date as the issues are resolved and undone!!! 😊

+ [redacted] :Hi Echo! I got off of FB. I got my Spooky 2 a few weeks ago and I am really impressed so far. Along with better health, I'm having some phenomenal spiritual experiences with it. I ran the awakening set and had an OBE almost immediately! My cancer seems to be better too! You guys rock!

Stomach and Throat Tumors Have Shrunk - No More Treatment Re

This topic began here on this discussion. For the complete story you can read it here:

viewtopic.php?f=14&t=62&p=6053#p6053

We have heard from the Dr about the scan for my family members cancer in the stomach and throat. It is really great news!!

The tumors in the stomach and the throat have both shrunk and the Dr is not recommending any further treatment!! Furthermore, it has not spread, which they were very concerned about since it is already in two places.

Before starting the Spooky frequencies he had been having headaches every day for over a year with intense pain in the stomach, throat and low back. He also was unable to keep food down and had great difficulty swallowing.

His wife was remembering that he stopped having difficulty swallowing with in a couple days of starting Spooky! Now he is able to work again as a contractor/builder which is very physical work!!

All of his pain is gone and he feels really great!

Thank you to Johann for helping us know what frequencies to run and for all of his extra guidance. Also, thank you to John White, David Bourke and the rest of the Spooky Team!!

Thank you also to everyone on the forum that has contributed in the super great group effort!!

I might be missing the location, but do we have a page to spout our successful treatments. I have stage 4 renal cell cancer and was sent home to get things in order. I have using Spooky and Spooky 2 for awhile and just had pet scan and cat scan and my oncologist was amazed. Most of mets to lung have disappeared and the major tumor in my adrenal gland has not grown in 6 months and is considered stable. I use Budwig protocol as my diet and Spooky 2 remote continuously. I did a scan and run the 3 different scans along with Fibrosis of the lung and Kidney Papillon as suggests by Johann Stegmann. Also alternate with BX virus listings in Spooky2. Excuse the spelling but not common words I use daily. So we need a spot to give hope to all here.

Very Fast response ( 48 hours)

THANKS

□ by [REDACTED] » Wed May 21, 2014 7:22 pm

Hi Friends,

My wife and I went to the dentist 5/7/2014. when the Dentist noticed what he called a papilloma near the back of my wife's mouth. A visible bump with plain eye sight. At that moment my wife looked at me and asked if I could fix her. She was very worried because cancer runs in her family and her sister had a similar thing.

Soon as I got home I ran the sweeps, Throat BX sets and HPV ( all 6) and Human T ( all 6) . Then a couple days later we went to our DR and she couldn't see it, but from the pics she called it a muco cyst and wrote us an apt for a throat specialist.

Long story short is my wife could feel something in her throat for the past couple months, just something annoying.. Now it's gone! I can't see it anymore but if I enlarge a pic a bit I can tell where it used to be.

Here is the before shot

Now the first shot is with a professional dentist camera , but believe me yo could see it plain as day with your eyes. The after , well it's pretty much gone. I can't see it with my eyes and if I didn't know where to look for it I wouldn't even see the spot.

The DR, was saying anesthesia and surgery to cut it out. Hopefully getting the whole thing and it not returning.

Eh, screw all that, I'll just get Spooky on the job.

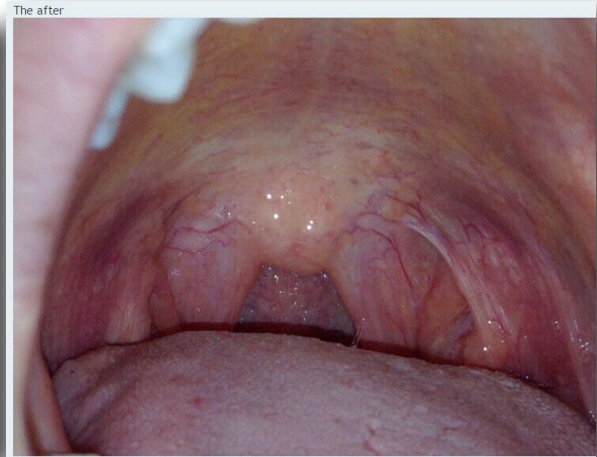

I seriously had results as early as 48 hours, when my wife said... " It really hurts now". When she said that I knew I was on the right track...

The key.. Is the break period. run the main programs 4-6 hours and let it rest while you run support and clean up sets. Although I do have a Spooky Farm of 13, so I was able to get in , hit hard and sharp and get out.

I used 4 gen. one for HPV/ one for Human T/ one for the sweeps ( Convergence and Throat Cancer) the 4th was the support sets, that I usually keep on throughout. Also alternating wave forms.. This one was achieved from dampened Square..

I am so sold on dampened wave forms. I don't use anything else. The Dampened waveforms don't let anything get used to it. After the first run, I would change the wave multiplier from 11 to 22. then I would use 18. Just keep mixing it up and keeping things new.

Thank you Spooky. Now I will post another success story for my self. 😊

Male Mammary Tumor shrinking.....

REMOVE THANKS

Hi,

Wanted to post some positive results that we are getting. We have a male friend that has a benign mammary tumor and we have been alternating kill and detox programs for the last 2 weeks. We are running the Benign Mammary Tumor set on the MN remote for 24-48 hrs then switching to the BN remote and using Detox #4, Detox Kidney, Liver, Lymph, Intestine. After a week he said he was blown away that the tumor was half the size it was....after another 5 days he said it was 60-70% smaller!! He was so impressed and amazed that he asked us to order him his own Spooky2!! So we set him up on it to continue his programs.

As we are seeing, some conditions work faster than others...have patience and if something isnt showing any results or changes in 4-5 days on a certain frequency, try another one. I will post again to give final results once the tumor is completely gone.

Thanks to the Spooky Team and all those that contribute on this forum 😊 .....this is me, very happy!

Thank you!

Success with Lymph Drain Sets

by [redacted] » Tue Apr 14, 2015 4:30 pm

Several years ago I developed a patch of scalp psoriasis in the right parietal area. An expensive dermatological medication failed to relive it, but I finally had success with a Borion homeopathic remedy. The patch cleared up, but that area of my scalp remained very sensitive. Since that time I have had intermittent pain around the area of my right ear as if there were a severe inflammation. It was interesting that if I massaged the area the pain would leave. A Dr. suggested it might be a problem with lymph drainage. That made sense to me.

A couple of weeks ago, I also developed a swollen and painful submaxillary lymph gland directly beneath that area. I decided to see what Spooky had to offer. I ran the XTRA Lymph Drain Circulation Set with Lymph Nodes in Neck Swollen. I'm sorry I cannot remember the setting I used, but most probably it was John White's Healing Program. About 2 days into the treatment as I was out and about on errands, I felt a distinct pressure-like discomfort in a vertical line down the right side of my face in front of the ear. It lasted less than a minute. Within a few hours the node swelling was totally gone as well as the pain. Thank you Spooky!

I have been running the same program on my grandson who is dealing with Infectious Mononucleosis. He was on a fairly strong pain medication for lymph node pain radiating up to the ears taking it as often as possible to keep the pain under control. Unfortunately he ran out of medication, only to discover that he had no more pain to treat. 😊

Thanking all who make this possible,

It was for myself. Big improvements in energy (I have Lyme disease and experienced great improvements from herbal protocols but after 1 1/2 years, the improvements plateaued). Hard to use though, when you have the brain fog of Lyme! My energy and brain function (the 2 last remaining problems prior to using spooky) have improved a LOT. Haven't used on patients yet. Feel free to use me as a testimonial if you like.

Thank you for your inquiry. I have been using the Spooky Remote, mostly, for the last 9 months. Especially in the winter months when I am at home & indoors, when I am not at work. My busy schedule doesn't allow for much more. I use the pads mostly in the summer months when I can use lose or less clothing, and after I've worked in the garden and then I hook up to Spooky for a couple of hours. I have been using Spooky for a viral infection, Lyme's, Prostate and some other minor things.

With the viral infection, which is the main purpose for buying and using Spooky, I have noticed little change. The Lyme's is getting better,

Common Cold

by  » Sat Mar 29, 2014 12:45 pm

Hi I'm new here and reporting an anecdotal report about my experience using the common cold frequency set in Spooky2. On my first use of this frequency set my nostril blockage cleared within 5 minutes and about 4 hours later the nose stop dripping and I also noticed that that the other nostril didn't become blocked. A few days later the same symptoms returned and I rerun the same frequency set and presto the breathing became easier and a few hours later the nose stopped dripping. A few more days later the symptoms returned and I rerun the the same frequency set again and similarly the breathing became easier within 5 minutes and a while later the nose stopped dripping again. What I also noticed is that I discharged a somewhat darker sputum into the toilet on several occasions. I suspect this is crap being ejected by my system as a result of this therapy treatment. I haven't seen this before using vitamin supplements or other medications.

Fast response with Flu Programs

QUOTETHANKS

□ by [REDACTED] » Thu Jun 26, 2014 10:54 pm

Last night, I started to have a runny nose, dull headache, slight soreness in throat with swollen glands that became worse within a couple of hours, aches and general rundown feeling all over my body. I suspected I was coming down with something. My wife had only just come off a nasty flu virus. I immediately used the following broad spectrum programs on Spooky2 across 4 machines on continuous loop till the morning:

Repeat Each Frequency: 1

Repeat Each Set: 1

Repeat Program: 0

Dwell: 1

Cold and Flu - CAFL

Cold and Flu - PROV

Cold and Flu - EXTRA

Flu Virus B - CAFL

Flu Virus - PROV

Influenza Virus A - PROV

Influenza Virus B 1 - PROV

Influenza Virus B 2 - PROV

Influenza - RIFE

Immune System Improve - XTRA

Immune System Stimulation - PROV

Within 10 Minutes of running these programs, my nose cleared and felt drier. Within 20 minutes my headache eased. Within one hour my aches all over my body ceased and my throat was not as sore as it was before.

By morning nearly all my symptoms were gone. I felt I had a lot more energy and alertness than in previous weeks. I usually suffer from Sinusitis but today my nose was completely clear and dry.

I stopped the Flu programs in the morning but continued with the 'Immune System' frequencies till mid afternoon.

Unknown bug eradicated with Spooky Local Sweep

Hello everyone 😊

Last Saturday my son woke up and said "I am going to be sick,I can feel it in my bones". So I started running Flu sets and administer Liposomal Vit C. The next day there wasn't much of a difference,in fact in the evening temperature started to rise. On Monday we went to our naturopath and he said that it looks like a stomach flu and his liver was inflamed. The temperature was getting higher( 40,1C or 104F )and no Ibuprofen nor Acetaminophen worked,he even soaked in cool water in bathtub to bring it down.I run Fever CAFL on contact for 27 min (repeat program 1) and within 10 min temp dropped significantly.Than I run RNA Virus Infections KHZ + Fever CAFL remotely all night. Next morning temp stayed little over 37C -98.6F but as soon as I turned off Spooky off it started to go up again.Clearly the program wasn't responding and his body was fighting off this unknown "thing".Than I decided to run the new Spooky Local Sweep Custom on contact for one hour (repeat program 1) and Detox Liver Kidneys Lymph XTRA remotely all night. Next day- SUCCESS!!! Temp dropped,overall feeling much better but still weak. Now the question was :is the good gut flora killed as well? And I think I can say- YES. Since the treatment every time my son goes to the bathroom as he describes- "Niagara Falls". Right now he drinks kefir and kombucha and is on a way to full recovery.

Thank you Spooky Local Sweep 😊

Hey Everyone,

All of my stuff seems minor but I will share this anyway. I definitely felt a cold coming on last night, sinuses were stuffed and throat slightly sore. I thought I'll give spooky a try. I didn't want to screw around and I would go with PROV. At 2am I set the "Cold and Flu" PROV program, 13916.02. I just ran it on continuous remote. It is normally a 30 minute program so I ran it 5 hours in total till 7am. I awoke to completely clear sinuses. Yes I am extremely impressed. I know that was 5 hours but maybe the remote works better than we might think. I won't forget this program!

Respectfully,

I had a bad case of the Flu a few days ago. I asked for help and Echo Lee and Chaffee Cline really helped me out! Chaffee helped me link up with Team Viewer and assisted me in programming and choosing appropriate frequencies for my Flu Virus. Chaffee Cline spent well over an hour helping me, waiting for me, and talking through details. He gave me details on frequencies to use with the healing and killing remotes. 2 days later I felt much better and 3 days later I felt completely healed!!! Thank both again for helping me!!!!!!!

Spooky for the Flu

QUOTE

THANKS

by [REDACTED] » Mon Jan 20, 2014 10:43 pm

I am stealing some of my posts from the Rife Forum. This was my first trial with Spooky;

NOVEMBER 2013

I believe I have had success twice using Spooky for the Flu (SV40 Virus).

The first case was a couple of weeks ago. My husband had been out gator hunting on a Fri. night and didn't get to bed until 3 a.m. Sat morning. I sleep like the dead so not knowing what time he got home, I wanted to be quiet so he could sleep in. I decided to do some testing on him via my radionics device. One of the things that came up in this testing was "Flu Virus". I didn't think much of it as my husband RARELY gets sick and figured maybe I was picking up a not yet manifested condition. Later in the morning I went to the bedroom to check on my husband since I had expected him to at least be awake if not fully functional by this time. He was semi-awake and not feeling well. He said he'd felt nauseous since 3:30 a.m. I told him I'd fix it and to go back to sleep.

I then dowsed the CAFL and found SV40 (simian virus) to be a 'match'. I ran just that frequency set for the next 24 hours. Within 2 hours his nausea had gone away and he slept for most of the day. When he awoke, he felt much better...just tired. He stayed in bed, watched TV and then slept all of Sat night. Sunday morning he was well.

Last evening my husband and I stopped by to see his best friend (and fellow gator hunter) who is paralyzed from the chest down. His friend said that he had not been feeling well for 2 days and nausea was one of his symptoms. I told him to clip his fingernails and I would see if I could do something. As he is on quite a few medications and his disability affects his body functions in many ways, I didn't know if I could do anything successful overnight. I dowsed him against a few things in the CAFL and he matched both the SV40 freqs and "winter flu and cold"(?) plus something else I may run later. Since the SV40 set runs for over 60 minutes, I just ran that set. I phoned him a few minutes ago and he says he feels much better. I will re-dowse him later today to see if he 'cleared' the condition and if he still matches the other flu freq. set.

NEXT DAY:

Follow up on my husband's friend and the SV40 freq set.

Last evening (which would have been a few hours shy of running the set for 24 hours), I dowsed to see if my husband's friend had 'cleared' the virus. I got a response on the pendulum that I interpret as being 'on the line'. In other words he had basically killed off the virus but it wasn't completely out of his system yet so I planned on running the set another 12 hours (overnight). I anticipated that he would be feeling fine.

I had my husband call his friend for an update. His friend said he felt fine.....and "thanks" (this is funny because neither my husband or his friend have any interest or faith in my electromedicine endeavors. *I* consider it a success story because I am familiar with his friend's history of difficult to treat infections due to his paralysis.)

I have had some anecdotal success with cold and flu remote rifting...I muscle tested to find the best programs, and muscle tested to make sure my order and settings were right (I also consulted the manual)...and I set it to run overnight for my son and I (two sets of DNA). The screen saver stopped the program after one and half times...but my son already felt great by morning(he's 16)..I felt 1/2 as miserable as the two previous mornings. I ran the program remote during the day...and I slowly got better during the day.. I came home and paused the program thinking I might adjust it, and forgot that I paused it. It was paused for 2 hours or so...I suddenly started to run...water!!...out of my nose..(so strange)...I realized that the spooky2 wasn't making a sound and unpaused it...and my nose has not continued to do that nor did it do that all day..just when the Spooky was paused...I feel like I am getting better. I am usually slow at getting over these types of things. I have been doing some herbal support...but it hasn't been touching the symptoms...so...I am new at this but I thought I would share. I am going to run the program one more night and see if the cold/flu is licked by tomorrow..

I get an error message "Page Not Found" when I click on that link.

I am a chronic insomniac, and have a friend who is, too. So I got some pieces of fingernail from her last night, and put them under the remote, and we both slept like babies, as I did the night before. So, in the daytime, I have put that remote on shoulder and inflammation frequencies for both of us. I also put a piece of her fingernail in with mine on the generator that is programmed for the brain. She is so excited, as am I.

I have been running the program for scoliosis/distortion with JW healing by remote for my mother who had become very distorted from scoliosis. Her first night she told me she could not sleep that night. But finally she fell a sleep around 5 am. the next morning. Since that first night she has not had that problem.

Maybe is a placebo effect. After my heartburn disappearing after 4 hours on Spooky2 I was impressed, so I thought I'd try the Abundance/Prosperity frequencies while I'm looking for a job, I sent out resumes and within 2 days I had 11 interviews set up and they have been going well. Also, I have been going to sleep late and not sleeping well, but today I had a 10:00 am interview and I was not remotely tired by 11:30 pm. It normally takes me a really long time to get to sleep. So I put on 4 sleep frequencies and it was not long until I was asleep. I awoke before my alarm clock feeling very well rested and ready to go. Maybe its placebo, but Spooky2 is beginning to make a believer out of me.

I would like to share some success stories with all interested.
My first success was with a friend in his late 50s suffering with macular degeneration the programs I ran were macular degeneration (kHz) visual acuity (CAFL) and cataract (CAFL) After running for 22hrs he reported his floaters had gone completely
My second success was with a lady friend 60 year old suffering with Cataracts Her words were " It is like looking through a lace curtain " after running the cataracts (CAFL) for 24hrs she reported her eyes started watering a lot and then her vision cleared. She was so impressed that she asked me to order a spooky 2 setup for her which I did.
My third success was Last week when a male friend of mine 73 year old was complaining of pain with arthritis and swelling of his legs. I ran Arthritis General (CAFL), Burtis (KHZ), Blood Circulation Sluggish (XTRA) Circulatory Statis (CAFL), Amplitude 20, Sawtooth, Duty Cycle 50.
He reported after 48hrs that he was completely pain free and the swelling had gone down. He is very impressed with it as he didn't really believe it would work . I have left him on the machine over the holidays . All programs with my friends were run with the remotes with fingernails.
Hope this is of some help to others.

Eye Irritation

QUOTETHANKS

□ by [REDACTED] » Tue Feb 11, 2014 1:12 am

Hello Friends,

I am fortunate enough to not have any serious ailments. However, I've had an eye irritation that I have learned to live with for as long as I can remember. Simple enough but nothing any eye Dr could treat.

The floaters you get in your eyes, well I had a severe case of them and very persistent. My quick fix was to put my head under the faucet and rinse my eye out. That was a good 30-hour fix. As I was familiarizing my self with spooky's frequency list, I noticed " Eye Floaters". I said "yee haw"!!

Anyways this program didn't take long at all. I noticed relief probably in a couple hours. I didn't time it and all of the sudden realized there were no floaters. Anyways it's been a few days and it's the longest time ever that I haven't had to put my eye under the faucet to rinse it out. Sometimes I'd take the cup of water I was drinking and just hold it to my eye(s) to flush them out. I only ran the program for maybe 3 hours total time since the first time and no sign of them.

#2 Positive outcome. Similar situation, an eye problem with my wife. 2 days ago she had what she described as "sand" in the eye. I ran the eye infection program and that day it was gone. Today at breakfast she said it was bothering her again. So I put the program back on and it's now gone again... BEFORE THE PROGRAM WAS FINISHED.

I'm really not surprised in the least. I ran several other programs, mainly the minerals, oils, and detoxes. I feel like I had a major tune up. Spooky is powerful.

Conjunctivitis

Thanks to my staying up multiple nights till unGodly hours and drinking coffee I seem to have brought on conjunctivitis, so I cranked up my remote devices and it is almost gone now.

Yesterday I ran freqs via my Rife Medic 5 with S.Remote and then overnight I used Spooky2/Remote.

As far as freqs on the RM I used what is preprogrammed there and on Spooky2 I used freqs I got from the TCM and Electroherbalism book sets.

No -- did everything with the white healing remote.. figured there wasn't any harm I could do even though that was the first time using it..just put little fingernail clippings in it and turn it on.. Will build up to the contacts and the pathogen killing sessions as I learn more of what I'm doing.. Really impressed so far though.. Have had a Hulda Clark zapper that we have used over the years -- and it was kinda hit or miss on what we were trying to cure -- nothing like the results we have gotten so far with the Spooky2..

Hi friends,

The Morgellons Protocol contains two Programs which eliminated my own long-standing frozen shoulder very quickly. I don't know whether it will work for you guys, but here it is anyway:

Streptococcus Pyogenes (CAFL)

Streptococcus Infection General (CAFL)

S. Pyogenes is the one I suspect may have done most, if not all, all of the work, but I'm providing both in case you wish to experiment.

The original experimental Program was:

Erysipelas - CAFL

Streptococcus Enterococinum - CAFL

Streptococcus Infection General - CAFL

Streptococcus Mitis abscesses; stiff knees (HC)

Streptococcus Pyogenes - CAFL

Streptococcus Viridans - CAFL

So you may wish to try these as well.

Namaste, and much love and light to you.

David.

I ran the top two you suggested last night from 9 PM and running non-stop. Streptococcus Pyogenes (CAFL)

Streptococcus Infection General (CAFL). This morning I had a good 50 % improvement in range with little pain. I've put my coat on ten times just to do it. Totally amazing how you put strep with the shoulder but for me it appears it was dead on. I'm adding Streptococcus Mitis abscesses; stiff knees (HC) for my left knee today and set repeat each frequency set to 1. Thanks so much. I'm now able to wash my back without problem. My range of motion is back to normal.

Thank you for responding. I purchased the Spooky2 device last year to help me with a lower back challenge I was having. The device helped me recover in a shorter period than was previously experienced. Combining the use of the device and the correct dietary supplementation, recovery time was amazing. I had previously damaged a disc in my lower back and the recovery time was almost 6 months. This time was 5 weeks.

Got the Spooky 2 generator a couple weeks ago -- downloaded and read the manual.. Wife had a terrible headache all day. That evening thought about the Spooky 2.. Plugged in the healing frequencies for headaches and in 15 minutes the headache was completely gone.. A few days later she woke up with a sore throat -- did the same thing -- and in a few minutes of the healing frequencies it was totally gone.. Needless to say -- completely sold on Spooky 2.. Haven't tried any thing but the healing frequencies and the healing remote yet. Want to get more familiar with everything.. but ordered 3 more generators and remotes to have enough equipment to meet the demands from my family for healings.. Definitely convinced us that this really works.. As I become more familiar with everything -- will gradually start killing off pathogens and detox -- but results from the healing portion so far is unbelievable... Shipping is unbelievable too -- made order last Friday -- and should get it all today.

Hi TT,

Thanks for contacting me. So far I am very pleased with Spooky2 for the most part. It has helped in some areas like tinnitus and bruises. I find other conditions a bit more difficult to work on such as eczema on my hands, lipoma and weight loss. I have only used the remote since it is easiest for me but would be interested in learning whatever I can to improve my experience. There is a lot to read and I'm not sure I understand it all but the forums and facebook page do help. Are there other locations where I might find specific settings for specific conditions?

Thank you

Thank you for the inquiry. I am doing fairly well with the Spooky2. One friend has experienced a lot of relief from fibromyalgia pain, she is walking more and less fatigue through the day. Also my sister has experienced relief from knee pain from arthritis. She can now walk her dog for a longer time and that is helping her loose a little weight. I don't have a dedicated computer, so I don't run Spooky as often as I would like. My computer is first for work. I have not had any problems with the function of the machine, I just don't understand how it works so sometimes I wonder if it is really doing anything, but according to those who I have run programs for it is working. I am a happy customer.

Hi friends,

I'm posting this on behalf of a correspondent:

The subject is an elderly man with intense dental pain that has prevented his eating properly – or even at all – for some time. His cardiologist forbade dental treatment because of possible adverse events.

My correspondent set up Remote Mode, and used Dental Foci 1/2 CAFL and Dental Foci 2/2 CAFL as one Program with the JW-Killing settings. Treatment was started early in the morning, and it had immediate positive results – the subject was able to eat a full breakfast without any pain or discomfort.

My correspondent commented: "He had a big smile on his face...I had no doubt but to see it actually happening is...a miracle!"

Pain relief from Fibromyalgia!

I am a very new spooky2 user and have been reading and watching as many videos as I can. I have suffered from fibromyalgia for about 17 years. I have found that these last couple of years has been just horrible. I am a photographer and all I could handle was 2 sessions a week and spaced out because of the day needed to recover from the sessions. I only received the equipment within the last couple of weeks and I was running, the puffy eye just to see if it would work and of course it did! I have been running all the fibromyalgia frequencies and the other night I was going upstairs and I was really surprised I had NO PAIN!!!!!!! I was so excited! The pain hasn't come back and I have been experimenting with the mercury detox. I am happy! 😊 So glad I found this technology.

Hi,

Linda asked me to post about my success with fibromyalgia. I am very new to spooky2, actually less than a month, and definitely do not know the ins and outs or techniques, so I am definitely a work in progress.

All I can tell you is what I did to get rid of the symptoms for about a week. My first try with Spooky2 was of course fibromyalgia, since I have probably had it since my 20s. I was a flight attendant for 11 years and have had some experiences that most people (thank God) have not had. One of them left me wearing a cervical collar when we unexpectedly dropped 3,000 feet and I landed on the floor with one of the passengers, not a fun experience...

anyway, some of my research on this disease uncovered that if you have had any trauma to the neck it is most likely to lead to fibromyalgia as you advance in age. I must tell you that I'm advanced...lol!

Have had what I tell my boyfriend to be "a movable pain" for a few years now. It is very discouraging that you deal with a part of the body that hurts you and when you think you got it licked another pain surfaces, also very depressing!

It seems that the nerve impulses instead of going up to the brain, when you have neck trauma, they go directly to the muscles and in some individuals is the beginning of this disease... not fun!

In my limited experience with Spooky2 I, of course, didn't know what frequencies to run so I ran them all at the same time and hoped for the best, and the best happened a few days later. I ran them continuously for over 48 hours.

At fist I didn't notice much, then suddenly realized that I was going down the stairs without hanging on for dear life (I had fallen 3 or 4 times in the past). I actually felt not just relief but NO PAIN!!!! YEE!! for about a week.

I am now in the process of running it again after some stomach and knee upset. Today again I woke up with a little pain in my knee and stayed in bed for a little while and it abated.

I would like to know if others have the same pattern. I don't mind running it 24/7, and that's why I just bought my 2nd unit which I will probably get next week...I have other autoimmune difficulties including mycoplasma and Hashimotos, goiter etc. that will need to be addressed. Will post if I find more results in these areas. I have been using a Sine wave and inverted sawtooth wave alternately.

Many blessings to you all, and thank you for this forum,

Hi everyone!

I posted my success with fibromyalgia about 3 wks. ago, and have been doing other immune diseases since then. I just wanted to give you an update on what is happening, which is....nothing!!! Still no pain!!! I figured that it's good to post when you are successful, but also updates on how you are feeling now, so that's it! I have to admit that the first week I had no pain, the second it came back a little bit, so I pretty much just did fibro the rest of the week non-stop and then went on to my other concerns. I have even forgotten all about it until my boyfriend asked about the pain. It's a wonderful feeling that I wish for you all!

Success with Johann's Toothache Frequencies

by [redacted] » Thu Jul 03, 2014 4:05 pm

I went to the dentist last Thursday for routine cleaning. The hygienist and the dentist could not believe that my badly receding gums do not show gingivitis, would not bleed. The hygienist used dental floss with all her strength cutting my gums. She also poked around the teeth, and i could feel her instruments piercing my gums and i tasted blood. When i got home, my gums were so red at night time, couldn't even brush my teeth properly from pain. I gargled with colloidal silver and soaked the teeth and gums for around 5 minutes. Did this many times the following days.

Yesterday, the wounds started pulsating in pain. I was afraid the candida yeast i am trying to treat might enter those wounds. I used Johann's dental infection frequency alone. Used contact on both cheeks along line of teeth, waveform: damped square wave, amplitude 5, holland harmonic -  $F2=F1 \times 11$ , 0 degrees, Modulate F2 using F (AM DSB), Amplitude Wobble - Sawtooth 5%; Frequency Wobble - Sawtooth 1%; Steps: "Apply": Octal 12 Step Wobble; Follow Out 1 and Output control: Out 2= Out1 x 1 + 0 Hz and same for the voltage and 1,1,1,0,1. This ran for 3 + hours.

At the first frequency, just halfway through it, the pain and swelling on the left molar disappeared completely. On the third frequency the pain and swelling on my two bugs bunny upper teeth were gone too. My entire gum up and down became nice pink instead of angry red. I was tempted to stop the protocol at this stage, but decided not to do it. I will treat again tonight.

Thanks Spooky 2 Team specially Johann for unselfishly sharing this protocol.

Any one is free to comment if they find something wrong with my settings.

Take care,

  I must be honest, I still can't see how a bit of toenail left overnight in two remotes can perform such a staggering result, I don't understand quantum entanglement either, but if something works, who cares. It's all strange but wonderful. I'm one of the biggest sceptics you could ever meet, but I,m flabbergasted. I also realise that sciatica is nothing compared to some diseases and illnesses I have seen discussed on FB and the forum, but I'm writing my own results as they happen, good or bad. I hope it gives you guys some help in deciding if spooky is for you or not.

 Echo Lee To be honest, I was also sceptical at the very beginning, until my like 10-15 years of acnes disappeared over one night, and it was because John White put my nail on remote treatment in New Zealand while I was in China. It was like a magic. And since then, I became a believer, as it solved my biggest problem at that time.

Sinus Problem Gone in 1 day!!

QUOTE

by [redacted] » Fri Apr 11, 2014 6:08 pm

Happily I used these frequencies for my sinus problem that had just started and it went away in one day!!

Sinus programs

This works when your nose is running and you have a blocked nose. When you feel it in your head. This one is difficult as it could be one of several.

"I first try: Sinusitis Frontals 952,320,682 and Sinus Bacteria - 548

If this does not work I try: Sinusitis 3 -
60,95,128,225,414,427,432,456,610,614,618,1234,2600,5500,304,"

You can find the rest of the frequencies for cold and flu here:

viewtopic.php?f=18&t=412

Thank you Johann - it worked like a charm!!

Hi [redacted],

My Daughter's and my wife have had sinus issues while sleeping. I use the proven sinus frequency and the remote DNA holders. It does work. Haven't had much success with hypertension. The eyesight program seems to help though. I bought some Tens pads and maybe sometime I will do a frequency spectrum sweep.

Filiform and Planar Warts

□ by [redacted] » Fri Feb 14, 2014 7:27 pm

In 2013 when I received the Spooky UDB generators the first thing that I think was that I needed to try to run the frequency sets in some disease where I can see some physical change so that I can be sure that it is not a placebo effect.

I suffered for years of many filiform and planar warts in my upper and lower back and I decided to test Spooky with them. I was aware that the process to see any change in the skin will be very slow. For this test I used the Char Boehme DNA frequencies for these types of warts and run the sets in two UDB generators:

Human papillomavirus types 1,2,4,27,29 (These values are not frequencies)
(Thread-like wart, variant of common wart)

Human papillomavirus types 3,10,28,38,41,49 (These values are not frequencies)

Square wave, 2V, Duty Cycle 50%, Direct frequencies, the frequencies were run 24/7 using the old Spooky software, UDB and sensor

Very slowly the frequencies begin to work. I include photos of two warts at the beginning May 19, May 28, June 3 and June 11. After that I stopped because I need to use the UDB's in something else. They proved that they work and I can come later to continue running the frequencies.

I showed the photos to one of my brothers and the same day he ordered two UDB's.

I'm still pending of continue running frequencies for the warts but I always found something more important.

Blood Pressure and Remote Success!!!!

by [REDACTED] » Sun Apr 20, 2014 5:35 pm

Hi Peeps!

I have to chime in real quick and tell everyone the success lately.

I was very sceptical, but Spooky is holding his ground! 😊

My wife has been on Blood Pressure meds for 5 years, and if she forgets to take it daily, it soars! around 145 - 165, The best she has EVER seen is 125 and will not drop for nothing!

We ran 1 BP set and no change. Next day 6:30am we ran "Convergence Sweep" for the first time and 1 hour into it she felt funny around the heart area. After the sweep completed we checked her BP and it was 113/76! NO WAY. We checked it every 2 hours and 121/84 was the highest. Soooooo,

She did not take the BP meds before bed and this morning it is still 118/74 . WHAT IS GOING ON?????? 😲😲

I am speechless and thank God for this, we are monitoring her pressure and will daily. IF it flares up we will re-run "Convergence Sweep" again and monitor.

I am at a loss for word. THANK YOU SPOOKY TEAM!!! 😊

Oh ya, knocked out kids sore throats and mine in 1 day. My neighbor hasn't felt better and quit taking her Fibormyalgia meds (Closely monitoring her). Absolutly AMAZING.

The list goes on people, but i am a one finger typer. 😊

A recent post on this forum got me to investigate the Spooky2 rife like software, signal generator, remote, pulse, and electrodes. The setup is very inexpensive, for me under $300 USD including the shipping for a XM 10 Mhz generator and the items listed above. I have a friend with a bad case of tapeworms, and I tried the Tapeworm programs with the electrodes and my friend could feel a Tapeworm die off. That night I used the Spooky Remote to run programs all night, and my friend reported a great nights sleep that night. I've been running programs from the spooky2 database to handle the worm and the eggs with great results.

I also tried this on another friend who has cerebral palsy, using the electrodes, and he reported a greater degree of movement and freedom in his affected arm. I used Spooky2 with a friend who is trying to cut quit cigarettes, using the Remote device and the included nicotine detox/craving/withdrawal program, and this friend is reporting no cravings.

It's nearly 2 weeks since my spooky 2 arrived, and being a bit of a technophobe, I've been taking my time getting to grips with it. Lol! I still have a long way to go! But even with my atm limited capability, am feeling quit amazed at the changes. This week I have had the spooky remote on overnight and during the day sometimes. I haven't worked out how to change the frequencies from the first set I put in. I have tried, but it just defaulted back to the original set. Nevertheless, I seem to be having some success! And not just in the stuff I intended to tackle with that first set of frequencies, but with seemingly unrelated stuff too! The frequencies that I put in were for candida, giardia, intestinal parasites and general detox. The stubborn cough Ive been trying to get rid of is on its way out. The burning sensation in my diaphragm is gone. Under my tongue was feeling weird, now feels normal and healthy. Also, had some vague sensation in a dead tooth (not root canalled) that something was going on in there and being neutralised. I know this is early days for me and spooky2, but so far very promising 😊 . Imagine how effective it is and could be once I learn to use it properly!

chronic cough success

by [redacted] » Mon Jun 16, 2014 10:31 pm

Hi everyone,

I would like to report my very fast response for chronic cough (lasting over a month) with Spooky 2.

The cough started after my bronchitis more than a month ago and it got very uncomfortable, with a crashing chest pain and breathlessness.

I started to panic and asked David Bourke for an advice about the spooky 2 setup for this condition.

He advised: Frequency multiplier 1

Repeat every Freq. 1

Repeat each set 1

Repeat program 0

Dwell Multiplier 1

Scalar Subharmonics

Amplitude wobble: Inverted sawtooth 25% 16 steps

Frequency wobble: Triangle 25% 16 steps

Duty Cycle 66.6

Amplitude 5

Offset 0

Phase angle 0

0.02% Feathering

Do not sort frequencies

Check the "4 HZ" and "randomized" checkboxes

F2=F1 X11Hz 0

Add F2 to F1

Follow Out 1

I was selecting:

1: Lung infection XTRA

2: Lung abscess XTRA

3: Pneumonia bronchial CAFL

4: Lung sinus bacteria CAFL

I selected these parameters and the next morning I felt totally cured with only a very little cough left.

The chest pain and breathlessness was totally gone and I continue to improve since then.

I am not a technically advanced person so I can imagine the results other, more technically advanced people can have with Spooky.

Big thanks to David Bourke, the kind way he helped me and guided me will stay with me forever.

Many thanks to John White and all the Spooky team.

I believe Spooky has an amazing healing power and I feel very blessed and privileged to be a member of this group.

Wishing everybody a similar and very fast success

Namaste

Hello my fellow long distance acquaintances with soul!

Ever since I got introduced to Spooky2, I am very comfortable being part of this brave, sparkling, passionate, health centered subculture.

I think subconsciously I was looking for this – something without answers right around the corner. The posts I read are truly stimulating in my little world, and there are so many here who truly care!!!

I feel so blessed to know a few of you by picture, by name, by writing style, by humor, by encouragement, bravery, and hard experiences.

I wish to continue being a part of this forum, and sharing what I know with you all. If not what I personally know, then topics I found fascinating.

I am a quadriplegic, but I should not identify this way, except this is how most do. I hav had the opportunity of experiencing quadriplegia, and a stroke during a brain surgery with intent of removing an aneurysm. I am ever happy I learned how to love differently, I learned the beauty of silence, and the magic of being captured by books I don't understand. Tons of paths have opened my way, incredible ones, along with radiesthesia, dowsing, healthier living, the blessing of an u polluted earth, and the magic that is part of our every day lives.

Please feel free to unload anything in your heart here... Let us be open to loose control with or without canabinoids...

It's now about 8 am, I woke up at 4 am being short of breath... I have at least two papers to catch up to today for school, and I'm innEr state stressed. I would try to do why synergy did to run an energizing program on my nail, lol and see it start dancing like crazy inside the remote, but after my biofeedback experience I will wait for John's words of wisdoms.

I believe I can walk, sometimes I dream of it, and how my legs feel to move again...strange but great. I know I can fly, but am not sure what it will take to fly in this dimension. I know everything that is now is perfect, although I don't feel just great in my body, and I love the constant whol body fight to learn and try to improve my current state of being.

Cheers to the light! Cheers the creative and resourceful as well as deeply organized mothers and fathers of Spooky2, and may everyone here have a great day and a great night!

Hi T

I have been using and experimenting with the Spooky2 almost daily. I use it mainly for Healing. When I first got it, I tried using it to kill pathogens and detoxing. I think I may have overdone it because I got really sick with flu-like symptoms. I'm not sure if I stirred up some pathogens or weakened my immune system enough to catch the flu that was going around back in December. Whatever it was, the chronic cough I had since that summer got much worse, but then after I recovered, the cough was gone.

As I said I use it mainly for Healing. I run a Spine Healing Frequency set using Chris Aguirre Settings. Another set I run frequently is the Healing Six Solfeggio Frequencies. I run some other misc other frequency sets from the database but will stay away from the Killing sets until I know more about using the software.

Using the Spooky2 does actually seem to help either completely or partially when I use it to treat certain conditions. For example, my lower back and neck were really hurting making it hard to move around or do any kind of physical work. I started to run the Spine Healing frequency set using the frequencies of the twelve-tone music scale based on Dr. June Leslie Wieder's work. outlined in her book Song of the Spine. It was suggested on the forum by Chris Aguirre along with his suggested software settings. I started to feel relief that same day and in a few days I forgot I had any pain. I now have to remember to run the program every other day or so or the symptoms start to creep back up again.

When I run the Six Solfeggio Frequency set for both my wife and myself, we both notice a rapid growth of our fingernails that have sort of a milky white color to the tips. We are taking that as a good sign and have found no reason to think it isn't.

I am trying how to understand and learn how to use Spooky2 better but realize I have to finish reading the instruction manual that David Bourke has put together so well. I also use the forum to search for suggestions and helpful tips on what frequency sets to try for certain conditions. The forum has proven to be very helpful for tips on using the Spooky2 and also with other healthcare ideas and suggestions. For instance, thanks to one forum discussion, I began taking Colloidal Silver to knock out another bacterial or virus infection before it got too bad.

I decided I'll shoot a video to cover my experience with spooky so far.

I have some fine insights for a beginner on this setup...

Some instruction that I believe can make it much easier for folks who are just starting to use the generator with some simple healing and energizing programs.

Another interesting thing I noticed is when I place an orogon energy devices near the generator it has a more positive stronger effect.

Here's my setup, I'm really happy with it, I wanna start running multiple programs already..

Team - I am a huge fan of Spooky2, and run protocols daily since acquiring my unit. I am a remote user predominantly (Mag North black) for pathogens and will be ordering the bio-mag north model this week. I am excited about the plasma unit and will buy as soon as it becomes available. There have been ZERO issues with my Spooky2 hardware - I haven't given it much rest since I received it months ago. The software is excellent and intuitive, even for this IT guy :) Personally, I feel fantastic with the essential oils, minerals, and healing protocols, despite having the black remote. excited to try the healing remote and plasma transmission. God Bless the Spooky2 Team !

I have been using Spooky for about 3 weeks and I already am feeling so much better. The healing mode is awesome. I have been running healing and regeneration sets and sleeping sets at night. I am sleeping deeply and feeling energetic and BALANCED. This is such an early report but I wanted to share it. :) I am going to get two more generators so that I can treat my family. :)

Injury & inflammation:

Quint Evans 1 day ago

Thanks again for another great video Syy. I have a couple of Spooky2's that I have been using for a while and I believe in them but looking for something to prove to myself that this works. I did a lot of tree trimming and yard work for about 6 hours and I was sore that evening. I took no anti-inflammatory anything. I used the Spooky2 frequency set for MUSCLE TONIC, bio north positive offset remote, and let it run all night, I slept as usual that night and the next morning I felt fine. So I turned it off and again took no anti-inflammatory but by noon I was sore and hunched over like a crab. Turned it on again and let it run till the next morning and again felt great. This shit works! Live free, ride free, fight the powers!

Success with injury to toe

by  » Thu Jul 03, 2014 1:16 pm

This morning whilst I was shopping, I dropped a 1.5 litre glass bottle of water, out of my bag and straight onto my bare big toe, ouch!

It then fell to the pavement and smashed.

The toe is bruised and started to swell so when I got home, I attached 2 TENS pads on the front and back of the toe area and ran:

Accelerated Injury Healing (XTRA)
Fractures Bone (CUST)
Muscular Pain and Injury (CAFL)

10kHz 4Hz Gate Square wave +.02% Feathering 100 offset

After one hour the swelling has gone down by half and the pain has reduced by half and is improving all the time. I can even walk on the side of the foot now so was able to prepare a meal.

Hi all 😊

A few days ago i got the spooky2 and as a test ran the epicondilitis and epicondilalgia progs. I have had this problem for over 3 years and finally after 3 sessions it was gone. No more pain in my elbow all the movement is back and I am feeling great.

Thanks for the gift of a wonderful machine!!

I used the epicondilitis and epicondilalgia sets in the spooky prog. No modifications. Square wave and setting of inverse+sync. Used contact with the two tubes. That's it. Ran the prog on 3 days. Each day the set once.

Hope this helps all.

Namaste and a lot of ligh to you all 😊

Spinal injury

by [redacted] » Thu Mar 12, 2015 1:02 am

About two weeks ago I managed to refresh an old lower back injury while digging my 100yrd lane from snow and dragging firewood. Sore back turned into a nightmare, where every muscle spasm felt like being stabbed in a back. Next morning, after sleepless night I wasn't able to move except, careful rolling from back to side but I was able to pull Spooky and laptop close enough to connect everything together. I decided in favor of a few available programs related to the disc and set the wave for sawtooth, 20V amplitude. I kept running steady for 5 days and nights but improvement wasn't satisfactory as I still couldn't get up. I decided to change wave into damped sine while keeping all other settings the same. Next morning I discovered that I can get up and walk with assistance of chair without any discomfort. On following day I was able to walk without chair and even take a shower. That was 5 days ago. Two days ago I started using nutmeg essential oil with coconut oil as a carrier (1:4 ratio) by rubbing on the affected area. Healing progress is no longer subtle but very visible, day after day.

I thought to share my ordeal together with screen shot, just in case someone suffers from similar condition. I use one channel, one remote and couple days ago added magnet in BN mode, as suggested by Linda 😊. My remote is 1.0 and modified so I can flip magnet at will.

I don't dispute application of sawtooth wave for healing in general but somehow thought of spinal column as being more sophisticated and complex system thus, decided to use waveform which is natural, like a ringing bell.

Regards

Kidney stones:

 Hello Echo Lee Amazing how this works...My husband had a sudden kidney stone attack recently...his first one and the pain was severe. While I was trying to google his symptoms and get ready to take him to the emergency room...I put his DNA in the white remote and put in kidney stone 1...and started the remote as we headed out the door.

his pain was a "13 on a scale of 1-10".. during the drive...30 minutes later while we were checking in...his pain dropped suddenly to a 2 and then to 1/2 he only had acheyness of the ureter. His urine showed traces of blood and the doc said that it was classic kidney stone symptoms..He sent us home with pain meds (which we do NOT use)...

I thought this could have been the Spooky2 or the stone could have turned sideways to a better position...but after a few days I began to think it was the Spooky...when no stone...came out..only sand..

Then I ran this kidney stone set... remotely for 24 hours..I should have gone longer..but ...because at the time we had only one generator and I was using it for remote joint pain relief...I was tempted to turn the remote back to my condition....

Then my husband... a few days later...had another painful stone. I put him on contact with tens pads and used "acute pain"..and "pain acute " and his pain dropped from a 9 to a 6 immediately...then drifted down to a 2 over 15 minutes, when I switched the program to kidney stone..and used biofeedback to find the best frequencies and ran those on contact for several hours.

I use a square wave x3 with a 4 spike, 11th harmonic +plus inverse sync..reduced amp (for contact only)...

Again...he only passed sand...never any stones...which to me is indication that Spooky is actually crushing stones...I hope to keep a white remote on this condition for many days..while he is also drinking braggs APV and increasing magnesium oil absorption by skin.

Salmonella!!!!

THANKS

Hello friends,

This is the 2nd success story I am so happy to talk about in the past week.. Ate at a local breakfast place and didn't think twice.. The next day I started feeling it, now usually food poison gets to me right away, within hours..

Because of that I was thrown off and was looking for a different answer. We were in the middle of a heat wave ( 100F ++ ) and my A/C took a dive at 8PM. When I noticed the temp rising. So I did what I always do, I fixed it.

2 hours into a dirty 5 tonne A/C machine that had leaves rotting in it and was wet from the condensation.... Now I was sure I had some kind of mold poisoning from that... So I ran everything I could for what I thought was happening. The next day ( Monday ) I was sicker then ever, until I did my thing and it turned up with food poison.

Now doing my thing this sick is very hard and took me a long time, but I was able to get that out of it.. Then thinking about what I ate brought me to the egg plate that I order over medium, but it wasn't, and even with the runny yolk I ate it.

After looking up salmonella I saw a 12-48 hr incubation period and then I knew along with the spot on symptoms... Pulled up the CAFL Salmonella sets attached tens pads to my belly set dwell at .09( explain later ) at 15V square and GO!

In 10 min I had relief, It took the rest of the day and that night to return to normal, but after just 10 min of that therapy I was doing things again, not normal but back into life.

About the short dwell. When you need relief right away set the dwell short and run the sets 20 times in 30 min. That will provide instant relief, then after your not suffering set dwell back to .4 or .5 and let the sets run via remote.

I am sure that 180 dwell is way to long for the power of Spooky. I think using a shorter dwell and more repetitions is more effective than the reverse. At first...

Thank you Spooky Again. I am well and according to what I read , I was supposed to be sick for 4-7 days. I was better in day 3.

It is the third time I have caught it from chicken, through my brain function preventing me from remembering to take great care, and chicken being my main source of protein due to intolerances and imbalances of biochemistry.

So I started twelve hours later at midnight with the diarrhoea so managed to get my gen set up and some frequencies ran. But I had to go to bed. Later on, I found John Whites settings for killing and hunted out my boost.

In the meantime I was drinking an electrolyte mix. I ran freqs for two hours with contact and pads on my belly and the diarrhoea seemed to have stopped but my kidney area was sore due to the lack of fluids I think. Had I not been taking electrolytes I would have had to go into hospital at that point I think to avoid kidney shutdown on iv saline.

I took my hot water bottle to bed to let my body do its clear up and the salmonella has definitely gone after that two hour session. Thanks spooky.

Success at last!

As a person who has had zero success with Spooky Remote and someone who has now a nice collection of friends finger nails (plus ant DNA) I would like trumpet my first success..... on myself. For a few days I have been suffering from stomach trouble. In fact all over 'the region' there has been various rumblings and pains and general feeling of 'unwellness'. (is that a word?). Also I have been very grumpy.

So pressing the "Reset Button" I did the following:-

Remote One

Colic Stomach and Colon Pain (XTRA)

Distended Stomach (XTRA)

Gastric Stomach and Colon (XTRA)

Gastric and Flatus (CAFL)

Stomach Disorders (CAFL)

XM20

1,1,1,0,1

Amplitude 5 ( I like to see the LEDs flashing)

Square Wave

Remove Duplicate Freq:- ticked.

Time for run:- 1 hour 7 mins.

As you can see I'm an 'all in' including the kitchen sink person.

Within the first run everything was gone! Bingo!

Gastroenteritis

QUOTE

□ by [REDACTED] » Fri Feb 14, 2014 12:28 pm

There is a particularly virulent strain of Gastroenteritis going around Australia that is putting people in hospitals, with diarrhea for up to two weeks. Someone I know ended up in hospital with severe dehydration after 3 days of diarrhea. After being rehydrated via drip they were sent home and told it could take up to two weeks before it got better. This person was going to the toilet every 30 minutes and every couple of hours at night, this continued on the fourth day. By the evening of the fifth day this person had enough and upon my suggestion accepted rife treatment. This is what was run from the Spooky DB using handhelds with default settings...

Diarrhea CAFL

Diarrhea XTRA

The person experienced stomach discomfort at 786 & 727. I did not run 802.

But no improvement by the 6th morning. If the person was more tolerant of the rifting sensations, I could have probably retreated using 786 & 727 with more success.

Still desperate the person accepted my offer for remote treatment. I ran from the Spooky DB the following using the default remote settings, except voltage at 5 and 1 for repeat each set.

Diarrhea CAFL

Diarrhea XTRA

Colitis and Diarrhea 2 XTRA

Cyptosporidium CAFL

Irritable Bowel Syndrome CAFL

Antiseptic General CAFL

Detox 3 Toxins in the Kidneys and Liver PROV

Haemorrhoids CAFL

Pause 1 hour CUST

Pause 1 hour CUST

Pause 1 hour CUST

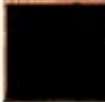

The person was sceptical so I was not expecting any placebo effect. To my surprise, they reported feeling a little bit better almost immediately. After afternoon sleep on the same day, they woke up hungry and feeling less nauseas. They ate some food and kept it down. Later they ate an evening meal and kept that down too. Now fully recovered.

I know the sample size of this is small (n=1), so not willing to draw any conclusions, the person could have got better anyway etc. But given the treatment cost nothing to administer, was painless and risk free, I will continue experimenting. If it was the treatment, then these notes may help others. I know of someone who almost lost an Aunty to this particular strain.

I want to share a success I have had using Spooky2 recently. The past few weeks I have had pretty constant heartburn, popping a homeopathic remedy daily to keep it at bay. 41 hours ago I started running the Chronic Heartburn frequency set with the Spooky2 and after the first few hours I have been heartburn free, now I'm afraid to stop the program! => Here are the setting I used. I do not have the Boost or the magnet upgrade for the remote.

Hello all. In the manual it talks about running the Spooky 2 for 4 to 5 days and then take 24 hours off. I'm tech supporting an 80 year old woman who has had a stroke and is paralyzed in her left arm/hand and has an itching problem from meds she's taking. She is improving every day since she started using the machine.

My question is, can she run other sets of frequencies during the 24 hours off or should she take a break completely?

Pollen Allergy Success

QUOTE

by [REDACTED] » Sun Mar 30, 2014 2:52 pm

I'd like to report my first success with Spooky2. Every year I have pollen allergies. Once we get through winter, plants start to bloom and I'm not necessarily miserable but I have a constant nasal drip down the back of my throat. In years past it would be worse because I'd be outside biking and running, which even led to exercise induced asthma.

I'm a newbie with Spooky2. I fumbled through the settings but with the help of members Jim Beach and Milivoj Jelakovic I think I finally figured it out for this season.

Looking up on the internet, the pollen that is around my area right now is Ash, Alder and Cedar/Juniper.

My general settings are:

using Spooky Remote

Sine Wave

Feathering +/- .02%

Amplitude 10

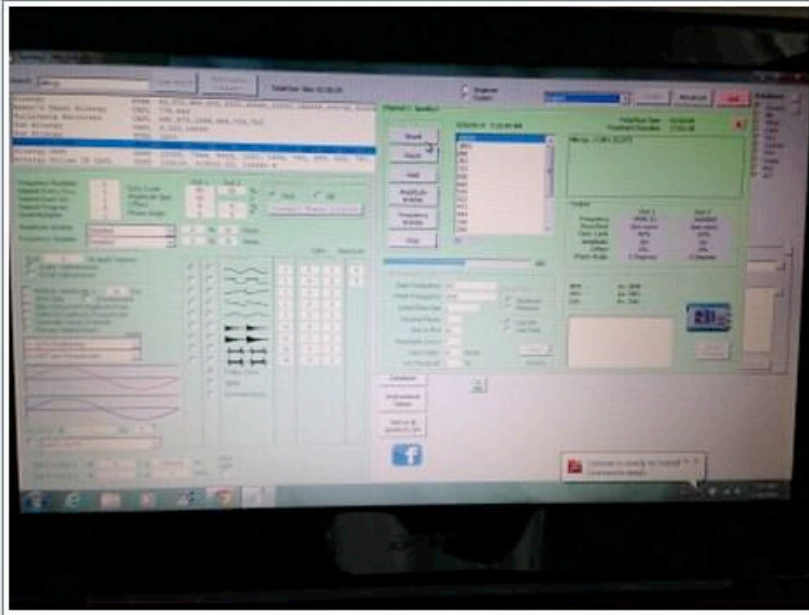

Dwell 1

Repeat Program 0 (looping continuously)

Scalar subharmonic checked, although I did not set this deliberately

Duty cycle 50/50 although I did not change this either

Here is a screen shot of my settings:

I then tried a bunch of the frequency sets. These were:

Allergy XTRA
Allergy Pollen XTRA

On [REDACTED]'s suggestion, I went to <http://www.electroherbalism.com/Bioelec...s/CAFL.htm> and typed in:

Allergy (also see Pertussis) - 10000, 7344, 5000, 1550, 1234, 740, 880, 835, 787, 727, 500, 330, 160, 30, 3

Allergy_1 - 10000, 1865, 880, 787, 727, 690, 660, 555, 522, 473, 444, 330, 290, 146, 125, 95, 72, 33, 20, 3

Allergy_pollen_TR (pulse 64 75, converge 2 0.03125, dwell 500) - 116113, 119061.03, 119441.8

I don't know what those extra settings in Allergy_pollen_TR mean, so i only put in dwell of 500.

I tried each one for a few hours and noted any particular reactions in me. I didn't get any conclusive positive reactions from any of them except for Allergy_1. For example, I typically am a bit more gummy in the back of throat in the mornings, which makes sense because I'm lying down and draining the nasal drip is not as good as when I'm walking around and upright during the day. So symptoms ease a little bit as the day goes on.

With Allergy_1, I noticed that my nasal passages completely dried up by evening. But I was still not convinced. I left it on overnight and when I got up in the morning, they were still pretty dry. There is still a bit of gumminess, but noticeably less.

So far, it has been running about 17 hours straight. I have no frequency fatigue symptoms. I'm going to keep it running for a little while longer before turning it off. I am curious as to the longevity of this treatment, and whether or not I need to keep Spooky2 running for long periods of time, or continuously to keep the allergy at bay.

This trial and error seems to be necessary but kind of a pain too. Also, it is possible that during trial and error, the condition may even ease - so did I find the right frequency sets or did my body just ease the condition along the way? I am wondering if Spooky Pulse could be modified to sweep through frequencies of a given general condition: ie. I have a cold, so sweep through all known cold frequencies and see if I can narrow further via technology versus through me needing to search around and figure it out...

Hi guys!

Got some pretty amazing news the other day and I thought I would share it.

My mother has Alzheimer's disease and just recently she was not talking anymore and not even smiling or acknowledging our presence. I have been running the Alzheimer's frequencies for her for about a month continuously with sine waves.

I didn't tell the caretakers that I was doing something different, but two of them approached me! They told me that she had been more responsive and actually interacting and talking! Mom is also very psychic and she has been giving me a look as if she knows and is aware that I am doing something to help.

Will post more if anything else develops.
Pretty amazing spooky power!!!

Hair and Knee and other simple things.

THANKS

by [REDACTED] » Fri Jun 06, 2014 5:34 pm

So, I'm still learning and going very carefully and I know people are working with serious disease conditions and I don't want to seem irreverent here.

But I thought I could give myself a make-over. As a result of some crazy stress, my hair started falling out some time ago. We follow good diet, so it was not necessarily a dietary issue as I also started taking some colloidal copper and did some other dietary adjustments. Whatever I did, bundles of hair kept falling out.

Spooky2 to the rescue. I ran the Hair Loss 1 and 2 and Hair Regain Color/Grow, on remote, very carefully, only 1 session a day - for 4 days - today my hair feels different. So, I could be imagining it, but I don't think so. Of course time is needed for growth but there is a clear difference and it feels just very good. I can just imagine what this can do for people who have lost hair with chemo or other such destructive processes.

Another good thing. With some exercise a few days ago, I must either have slightly torn a inner meniscus on my knee, or wrenched something, but I woke up and literally could not walk or put weight on my knee. A physio therapist strapped it for me, and he suspected a tear but knew he would not get me even close to a x-ray machine. I ran the two injury frequency sequences, 2 x per day and immediately pain disappeared and I could walk much better than hobbling. It felt right to rest my knee though from time to time. This was 4 days ago and there is nothing wrong with my knee. Usually this would have been at least 3 weeks of strapping and careful hobbling around and so on.

I love this Spooky2, I'm in awe of the power of it, I'm still scared of it but now feel good enough to start using it for more serious conditions in our household. I just wanted to say that it feels sometimes too easy. We should not forget about exercise, of the type that is good for us individually, clean food and diet and a bright and expectant focus on life.

This is also in the form of an offer. I do not have much time, but could put some time in on say ... database management or some other computer related task.

  I used the pre- programmed frequencies with the white remote -- wasn't really expecting much -- but now have a completely covered bald spot that I had on the back of my head for years.. thin hair in front is a lot thicker.. Very happy... Only ran the remote a few times.

Hello, Just this weekend I have been running the (Liver Flukes – CAFL) program as part of the set recommended via the user guide Appendix A:terrain Step 3 Program 1 using Remote mode (BN white pad setup with spooky boost all configured correctly via the user guide)

To my delight, lots of liver flukes are appearing in my stools, to me these results are amazing because it proves to me that quantum entanglement actually works.

I know that the white remote is supposed to be for healing and the black for killing, but I've actually proved that the white remote can actually kill.

  17 mins

Okay, tonight I am doing the "killing" Spooky scan and in the area on my left side, just below the waste has some strange movement going on. A little poppin in area of heart as well. I am doing specifically grouped together "Morgellons" scans along with "healing" Morgellons expeller, liver etc I began on April 24, 2015 Top of head is tingling on right side top. You really have to drink water all day long and during night when doing these scans. I feel it improving the condition of the upper part of my mouth and also near gums. Really makes me wonder about the mercury, perhaps it got into my system when I got them replaced with the white ones in 2002. So many things, on top of Morgellons The lesion on my arm is not helped so far and fibers are still as alive as ever.

I think I pooped out a rope worm!!!!!!!

by [REDACTED] » Sun Apr 05, 2015 11:53 pm

! QUOTE THANKS

I would like to post a success story.

I just recently started doing the msm/mms protocol along with the turpentine protocol again to kill parasites along with running a bunch of kidney programs with my spooky2 using remote. I do not know if it truly is a rope worm but I think it is. The spooky2 has allowed me to take in much more turpentine and msm/mms because I don't get near as much kidney pain as I did before using spooky. This is very exciting to me for two reasons 1) being this is the first time I can verify for myself spooky using remote is actually doing something to me, because before I could not take even half the turpentine and msm/mms as I am now. And 2) this is the first rope worm/parasite I have ever pooped that I know of (if that's what it really is) and that gives me a lot of hope that I can recover. I am so happy right now and just wanted to share this with you all. I took the parasite/rope worm out of the toilet, it was coated in a mucus like substance and looks similar to the pictures of rope worms on Google images, I would post a picture on here but in not sure how to. If I figure it out ill post it so you guys can judge for yourself

At the beginning of 2013 my wife was diagnosed with Eagle Syndrome ( <http://emedicine.medscape.com/article/1447247-overview> , http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Eagle\_syndrome ). She had difficulty eating, facial pain, ear pain. The only option was surgical. We were very afraid of the surgery since in youtube there are several videos and we read in several forums that the operation can be a little risky.

In June 7, 2013 with decided to try remote healing first to see if it can do something for her condition. I search in internet looking for possible causes, and based in them I used the following frequency sets:

Kieferosteites (CALF)
Calcifications (XTRA)
Bone Spur 1 (XTRA)
Bone Spur 2 (XTRA)
Endocrine System Balance (XTRA)

Square wave, Duty Cycle 50%, 2V, the frequencies were run 24/7 using the old Spooky software, UDB and sensor

After a few days she begin to feel a different type of pain in her jaw and as she described electric shocks.

We continued running these frequency sets and she began to show improvements with much less pain and was able to eat things that she cannot eat before.

On October 2, 2013 she was feeling normal again and we stopped the frequencies. So far she continue feeling fine.

I'm planning to run them again in a month as a preventive measure.

How did Spooky2 come to be? QUOTE THANKS

by [redacted] » Sat Apr 04, 2015 12:21 am

Newbie here....got my first XM last week and just bought a second one today!

As someone who travelled from dark into Light, I'm fascinated about the journey of fellow travelers and wonder if there is a thread here about how this effort came to be?

I'm thrilled that it's an effort to serve humanity.

I've been devouring whatever I can to get up to speed on Rife and Spooky2. Just prior to finding Spooky2, I had just received a GB4000/MOPA to help treat my mother inlaw's gallbladder cancer. Now, I'm running both side by side as I get experienced with electromedicine. I foresee selling the GB4000 in the near future.

Much thanks and love to John White, David Bourne, Echo Lee, Linda Ray, Royal Rife, Hulda Clark, Tesla, etc....., for being true healers and servants of mankind!

Dear T.T and Team

Thank you for your interest in my endeavor with Spooky2

Let me say first, thank you for what you are doing, not just for me but for your humanitarian efforts in helping people who for the price of one doctor visit can purchase the Spooky2 kit and kill whatever is killing them.

I just received Spooky2 this week and had not read enough to attempt anything until yesterday and what I did was to put in the program "Spooky Spectrum Sweep Dual-output Turbo Boost (remote)" and I am not sure if I did everything according to the instructions --- but when I woke up coughing up a lot of phlegm this morning was because I kept the remote going all night last night. This is wonderful to be getting rid of something that I have had for several years.

Tomorrow I am going to a friend who is using only 20% of his lungs because of phlegm --- Lets see what Spooky2 can do!

Thank you T.T and team

I have been having this problem since a candida flare up. I call it an addiction rather than just a craving because it seems to get out of control, in that while I am in a store I can't help myself and before I know it I have bought some candy often chocolate and before long it is gone. Anyway I started to run the plain Addiction set and success! So long as I keep it up I can stay off sugar and substitute stevia and xylitol.

The post text reads: "Friends, for the first time in a long time I feel that there is some hope for me to recover from my poor health. I honestly had just about given up hope. I have felt I was dying for a long time. Thank you so much to the people at Spooky2. My skin is breathing again and I think even my lips and inside my mouth is improving. I am in tears, as I almost lost hope. If this works on me, I am certain it will help others too. I hope more people try it out." Below the text are options for "Unlike" and "Comment".  It kinda says a thing or two, about the other Groups, moreso than about Spooky2, don't you think ?

Weak people, who feel the need of using that kind of censorships and restrictions, usually have a hidden agenda.

The Spooky2 is more of a versatile system, than a machine, really. You can use contact mode in different ways, you can use remote mode in 4 ways. You can change the amplitude and wave settings, in a number of ways, anything you can think of. And there is a light and PEMF machine on it's way, just around the corner.

The Spooky2 development team are receptive to suggestions/proposals from you, the Spooky2 user, of functions that you think would be nice, to have incorporated into the Spooky2 system. And the Spooky2 Development team consists of Spooky2 users, who voluntarily, depending on skills, are working with the development.

So you could say, that there is a bit of "grassroots movement" about the Spooky2 society ;-)

Everybody should be able to take care of their own health,- not only the rich people.

 Your present Spooky2 system properly works fine. So whether or not, you decide to upgrade to get new functions, is totally up to you and your needs.

The continuously development of Spooky2, is it's greatest strength and what really makes the Spooky2 system so powerful.

Remember: Standing still in a forward moving crowd, is really going back.

The Spooky2 development team, makes the Spooky2 system not only keeping up the pace, but well ahead of the pack :-)

Hello, I've only recently been successful using spooky2. I bought the device back in late 2014, but was unable to rid myself of a virus. To be honest with you, I stopped using the machine completely untill about a 10 days ago. I only use it in remote format. The hulda clark frequencies were the only ones workin on me, untill they too would seem to just stall or stop. So I used her concepts of creating frequencies that build and I diversified the frequencies...and to my suprise it has been very successful. Great machine.

Spooky2 report Rbisy 40d 176

Greetings,

I have been using Rife tech'y for about 10 yrs.
My first unit was a Global Wellness unit, $1800.00.
The second, about 6 years ago, Electro Med, sold as a TENS unit, but is a excellent unit for Rife frequencies. $3500.00
Third is a Spooky2, about 3-4 months. About $300.00

I love the Spooky 2. It is so versatile, plus, using the DNA remote I can receive freq's without being hooked up. In fact, I'm receiving freq's from a different room, now, as I type this.

I'm 77 yrs old so I have plenty of variety of things to work with.
I'm getting ready to do a bio scan for a condition I have not been able to resolve.

By the way The Spooky remote can be hooked up to most Rife machines.

Any one looking to buy Rife tech'y should go on line and read the Spooky2.com manual before buying anything else.

Regards

[REDACTED] Echo This is my sisters dogs. One of them, got some fungus of a kind, on the upper lip.
I have treated it remotely with the Spooky2 and now it seems like it is healing 😊

Further more, I also treated her cats for fleas remotely (just like on Youtube) and now it seems, like the fleas have all gone now 😊

Adam Did you have some of the present fleas in the remote and what settings did you use ?

Because I too have had success, in removing fleas with the remote. And it was no even in my own house, it was at my sisters ( Kittie ) place. She have a lot of cats, and they had fleas. She caught some of the fleas and bring them to me. So I put the fleas in the remote, which is located at my house and ran the ting for a week. Fleas 95% gone :-)

I ran 2 frequencies, though. 2435 and 2750, using Square waves and 100% positive offset.

In this case, with that many cats, the chance of one of the cats to pick up new bloodlines of fleas, are potentially very big. So to remove the new bloodline of fleas, you have to catch some of the new bloodline fleas.

Where you have only 1, 2 or 3 cats, I see no problem in removing 100% of the fleas :-)

FINAL UPDATE

This dog is now 100% clear of all illness, dis-ease, and related conditions. His coat is now well on the way to a full recovery.

The hardest part was the last 5% which I had been warned about by David Bourke... and he was absolutely correct. Demodex is an absolute bitch - even after killing that you then have to contend with the green Amoeba Slime/Mange in parallel. Nightmare!!

It's the life-cycle of the eggs that is the difficult bit to break.

In the end I moved my position to a 93% Duty Cycle and ran it 24/7 for the last 3 weeks. I think it is important to remember that I personally prefer a huge number of Repeat Cycles and shorter Dwell times (Multiplier set to 0.35). All other settings were my usual Positive Offset 100 etc etc.

I do believe Spooky saved him in the end. I know from using other Mental techniques it is not allowable according to 'Universal Law' (God) to kill another life-form using 'Subconscious Intention' type techniques.... although I do think that in the last 3 weeks I pulled his Immune System up MASSIVELY using said technique, called 'QE Awareness (Remote Intention)'. The dog knew I was doing it and always looked for me.... probably sucking Positive Energy out of me too. LOL.

There are many people looking for Demodex cures on the Internet.... if you come across one of these posts on Curezone or Earthclinic, you could point them to this post, as many have to cope for years with this condition, so I don't think 90 days... ish is too bad a result. Although with something like an egg life-cycle duration of 64 days, I don't think I could have done much better.
