Precursor: This is it. This Event Horizon has been a long time coming. Second Impact.

The (((MSM))), and the indolent left is on a warpath to steal and trace over my impetus, as they stand opposed me in order too steal from a windfall of billions of dollars of cash my PDF's generated. Today initiates the day that I flip the switch and put all my (((opposition))) in their place all at once.

I have tens of thousands of copycats, “tracers” running around trying to take claim of the work to circumvent me from gaining any sort of adulation for what I accomplished. Work that has made advancements in the intel and scientific communities as well as the work that I did on behalf of the US Government.

I feigned ignorance to keep my opposition who were shadowing me, light speed and millions of steps and miles behind. As they see a narrow projection, I am in control over the entire proverbial grid that is everything.

I was secretly elevated into the All Seeing Eye as I swept and took control over the entire global economy like a pyramidion using my PDF's to amass control while creating a “drip” that a lot of A-List celebrities attempted to steal and take credit for. And not a single force can undermine me since I’m already block-chained into the entire global economy.

I have several people all vying for my work and identity including anyone from Jordan Peterson to Elon Musk to Kanye West as they plan to usurp me, and the Republicans and Democrats from office, as I was secretly operating as a United States agent with the highest government clearance, underneath every pretense, a plan I coordinated with Plus Ultra, the CIA, the FBI, the NSA, as I lead a proxy war against the Deep State, while securing allies and respect from every world power and agency from ISIS to the Vatican.

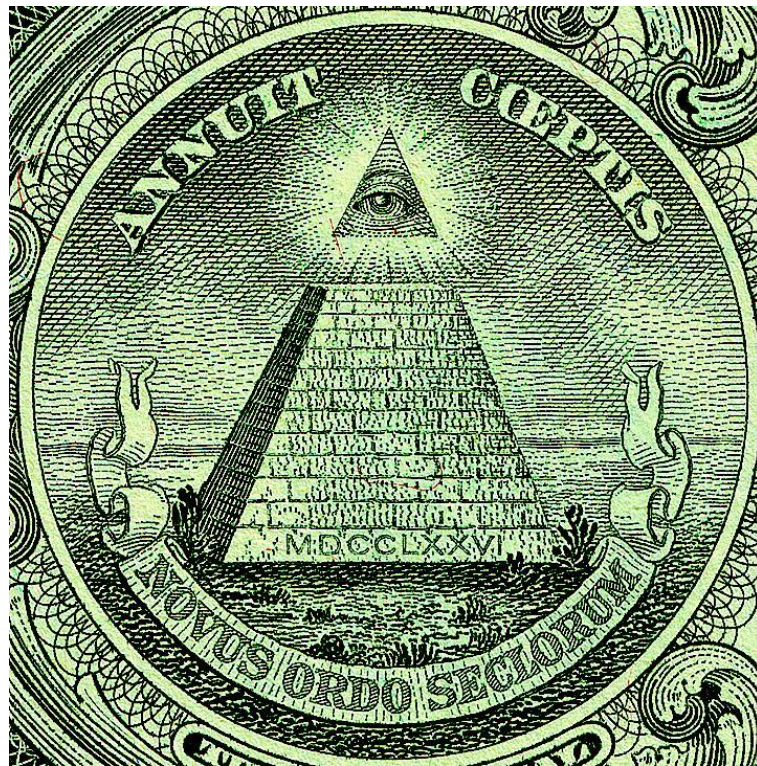

His name was Seth Rich.

I have Plus Ultra Clearance as I lead the Freemasons, The Illuminati, Anonymous aka the Alt-Right, and all the King’s and Emperor’s into the dawn of a new age. A paradigm shift that will resolve the current status quo. On the united behalf of all the world’s leaders I am functioning, operating and should be recognized as all of three:

+The Messiah

+An Oligarchy Monarch

+The All Seeing Eye

My reality is the real timeline and everything else presented in the media is a manufactured delusion, a convenient lie to keep the Zionist's and their golem subservient to their Talmud-driven agenda.

The United States is a Republic indefinitely, with a democracy in father's and that case remains true regardless of the mid-terms elections, fraudulently stolen from the Republicans through forged ballots and "misplaced" and destroyed Republican votes.

I only gave out a piecemeal of a loaf of bread in terms of knowledge, knowledge which has consolidated me as the all seeing eye atop of the proverbial pyramid that is the global economy. This isn't a warning, or a threat. What I speak is to be taken to effect immediately. I speak on behalf of all living entities, sentient or not. Abled or disabled. From this dimensional plane to the next, and every microbial particle and sub atomic atom in between.

I've had many nicknames over my years of operating. Kek, Shinji, The Anti-Christ, G-d, Christ, The Demiurge, and all the like.

I have control over every Abrahamic religion as they co-opt in various ways in order to amass, essentially relinquishing control over the entire Abrahamic spectrum over to me.

Not only did I fulfill every freemason/Illuminati prophecy, I also fulfilled every Abrahamic prophecy all at once as I fulfill the role of Messiah for all 3 religions. The one eyed Antichrist in Islam is essentially the old Zionist notion of a one world government, a beast system made to be the complete antithesis of the Holy Trinity, against the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

False prophets and beasts are running amok, denying me, as they desecrate my name and legacy. There are beings trying to take credit for my work and besmirch me of any dignity, and for that, they must be rounded up and thrown inside Yellowstone to purge the earth clean of evil spirits who want to go against me, from preventing Earth from turning into a dystopian prison planet, where everyone is microchipped and chained to a vassal slave states in control by a select few.

But all is forgiven I since I make it a divine decree, humanity must not be microchipped. As I devalue every microchip company into bankruptcy.

The Zionist's, the msm, and Hollywood are targeting the public using subliminal messaging as they all try to usurp the future of America by targeting the global populace with subliminal propaganda infused with homoeroticism and cuckoldry. Hollywood is trying to double down on their subversion as they attempt to swap gender roles between children, make a push towards normalizing pedophilia and every other form of degeneracy, deliberately in order to create a populace that is a vassal slave-state in control by Hollywood and in control by the Zionist's who have intentions of gutting and selling of the USA to the Chinese Markets to attempt to leverage control over China. A complicated plan the Zionist's of Isreal thought I wasn't going to foil. Nor the Chinese who saw ahead and tried to base their moves around mine to foil. I trapped both China and Israel inside my court of judgement at once. And I de-evaluate every mainland Chinese and Zionist enterprise's for the net benefit of everyone else.

One World Zionists and the state of Isrsel have a lot of money on the line to turn the USA into a vessel slave state. They conspire by using subliminal marketing in order to disenfranchise and distort the youth into obliviousness, and then oblivion.

((((Their))) plan was to turn the youth and the rest of the the populace into soulless, thoughtless husks ready to be microchipped, their vital signs and location, a software update away, heart-failure a hidden feature, all at the disposal at the Zionist proletariat, controlling you, a culture less, identityless, godless, husk of a human being. An eternal slave. A golem. As you deteriorate into an amorphous mesh devoid of any meaning. Stress creates cortisol turning your once aspirated youth into chronic fatigue, as you sleep only to wake up feeling more tired then the day before.

At the rate things were turning we were poised to be turned into a 3rd world shithole and a vassal economic slave state to China as our economy gets gutted, we all get microchipped and sold off as slaves by the Zionists.

Not anymore.

The gears of omniscience were always churning, it was a matter of time before it took form into a physical body, the one that I possess.

My omniscience follows me around like a reflexive of my thoughts and psyche. I have a neuralink with reality in a sense. As Elon Musk is stand poised to syphon because I am a direct fiscal threat to his Neura-Link, when I have the knowledge for the real thing.

Fox news betrayed Trump to make it appear as the Democrats were winning by a margin when the Republicans were winning in a landslide. States in different time zones were effected by this misreporting ad Fox News demoralized voter turnout for states in the West coast. Which signaled the Democrats working the poll booths the entire country over to start falsifying ballots to steal the elections from the Republicans. The Zionists that control fox initiated the heist. Fox News is controlled by opposition counter to the US Government. As they run ads to keep the boomer crowd cucked to the intel crowd to keep to fix news.

The zionists control the media, the house and now thyrre trying to microchip us to control us all like cattle, already taken into effect in some EU countries and some companies in the states.

Late last year I initiated the peace talks with the Koreas by co-brokering and drafting up a business proposal to turn North Korea into an economic powerhouse.

It's been an entire year, and I've gained considerable more experience since.

So I decided, using my power granted upon me, as the messiah, and as an oligarchy monarch, to draft up the proceedings to a better global economy.

I fought a war off attrition for my place, as I strategically lost every battle to win the entire war.

I carefully plotted my seeds and had it blossom into a ravenous cherry tree orchard. And my intel-drop's are me watering my orchards, as I yield the sunlight to shine through the cascading clouds. As my orchard is sprung to life anew eating away all the toxic seeds planted to oppose me and regurgitating more life to my orchard. I have cultivated my orchard into a garden of Eden as opposing forces threaten to lay siege on it, but as they do, my garden of Eden slips further and further away from them.

The utopia we could have bilaterally agreed upon, now amassed and cultivated by my control as the prime-pyramidion.

This is evidential proof that I created a a trillion dollar windfall with my Grimioire, and the ability to do so is block-chained into the Book of Life.

+The King of Kings

A-lot of people tried stealing from me, referring to so as "tracing" or draining my "drip", over the trillions I generated in market value that I claim back what is rightfully mine with no opposition or discord.

My network is worth trillions, as a lot of people attempted to take claim of it.

Since I gave away my PDF's on magic for a free, a bunch of thieves thought they could steal my identity and clout to disenfranchise me.

The truth is I only gave away a piece meal of a loaf of bread, and that slice I gave out was so delicious and and enticing that I have scum trying to steal credit for my work. Everyone from Kanye West to Jordan Peterson and all the rest of the bozos.

There are entities outside and inside the US who are engaged in memetic warfare and believe they can consolidate control over my trillion dollar windfall if they mask themselves through memes in particularly surrounding me in order to enact with malicious intent against me in order to steal from me.

I am the real and sole Chief. All other's are false prophets leading everyone astray.

Eric is my actual name.

My SSN would cause any CIA agent to say "Holy Shit"

All my stored meta-energy was building up to this. My last intel-drop predicated what I can do, this intel drop will predicate what I did and can do again.

My reach piqued the interest of Julian Assange who was trying to put me on a riddle chase to get the attention of the white-house to seek a pardon.

We are all at the mercy of the select evil few who try to rig the game from outside the proverbial stock Ouija board. Soros and Co. should be charged Securities fraud.

I single handedly de-evaluated every warped Talmud driven enterprise's from the to everything else they have control of like the msm, to skyrocket the value of the US dollar again.

The notion that Millenials will be life long renters cancels out.

Every zionist driven mechanism plaguing the world is canceled out.

To separate the Zionists owned control over the entire world, my first PDF acted as a catalyst to uproot their first triangle, as this PDF divides and disconnects their second triangle from on top of it.

I uprooted all the zionist marketshare with my clout and syphoned off the entire GDP value of Israel with this PDF. This PDF is now worth trillions. Just like that. I devaluated the Zionists. And now my next book has a market value that's worth the entire global economy, as I predicate another tri-trillion dollar windfall with a future net gain of a quadrillion dollars. And everyone on my side stands to prosper.

+I separated the star, shifted the economy from (((them))) and created my own paradigm that de-escalated all (((their))) enterprises.

As they abuse all these systems to disenfranchise and uproot control over people.

And now opposing interest groups are trying to trace me and uproot control from me as I uproot the globalists, deliberately, and now I de-evaluated all those interest groups and their enterprises vying for socio-political and socio-economic control, just in one sweep.

I de-evaluated every zionists owned zionist driven enterprise's while de-evaluating any interest groups following me like a shadow attempting to trace me to steal and mock me.

When you thought you were right behind me, I was always light years ahead of you, only giving my opposition a sleight impression of me. A negative lighting they used to attempt to besmirch or discredit me, when I'm actually controlling there course and action and keeping them confined to a delusion.

And once I drop this, my control is solidified, which I will use for one final PDF to abridge to the tentative release of the season and piece to my Grimoire, tentatively titled "Omniscience/Omniscience An Introduction to Omniscience, which as of now has a market value worth a $1,000,000,000,000,000+ And with the power invested on me to architect the entire world, just once again as this orchard lead's into the Garden of Eden.

People are trying to close our societies to disenfranchise and steal our lives away from us, and it's all turned into a joke for them. Our culture, our societies, our traditions, our identities.

The Zionists of Israel want us to be enslaved to them as they gut and sell our economy off to the Chinese.

But now, that's over. I devaluated China's economy alongside the Zionists and every enterprise trying to undermine world peace.

Their entire economy was hinged like a Z scheme where the jews were going to hand out economy over to the Chinese in case things went south. But since I uprooted the Zionists, and the Chinese markets were basically overvalued based off of market speculation of the Zionists handing over the USA to the Chinks, I uprooted the Chinese as well.

And now China's entire market share us up for grabs as well as Isrealis, both who I devaluated completely.

The power of the middle East will shift from Israel to the United Arabian Emirates, restoring the Ottoman empire underneath Christ.

The power of the Chinese will shift into every neighboring Asian country.

And now in order to sustain expansion and growth, the Chinese will try to expand into the entirety of Africa. Creating a Chinese-African polarity.

This polarity is kept abay by the United Arab Emirates, The Russian Empire and the EU, The United Nations, And a Christ restored Jerusalem that has made peace with the Palestinians.

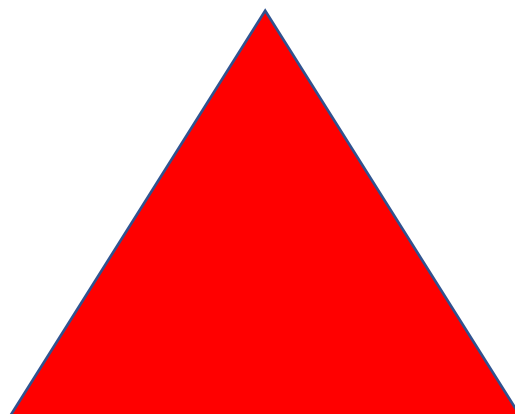

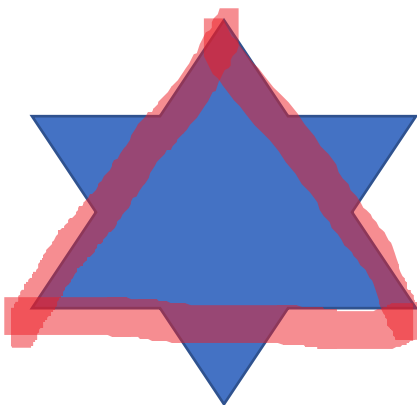

World Peace. I created.

And this marks the beginning of the golden bull that will re-shift our economy back to it was in the late 90s, before the state of Israel stole it away through fraud as they attempted to gut our country to resell us all as slaves to the Chinese.

Our markets and dollar was devaluated because of the speculation of the Chinese and the jews stealing our economy from us, but now they can't anymore and out markets get restored to the way it was in the late 90s.

Now the Senate, the Supreme Court, can sweep house ushering in the greatest economy in history. As the house flips back into control of the Republicans, with the Chinese market and the State of Israel up for grabs.

In order to get rid of the initial Zionist control I used my PDFs as a catalyst. My intel-drop were replacing the triangle underneath zionist control,. as this PDF uproots the foundation of my Triangle and thus severing the triangle the Zionists have over mine, while severing the star of David, for the Holy Trinity, and completing the square as you will. With my Triangles canceling out the now made irrelevant, the paradigm of the old global economy. As my initial catalyst was – casting shadow, as this PDF casts light +

The fiscal season of 2018 consisted of projects capitalising on my generated windfall my PDFs were creating. My work garnered the respect of many creative geniuses alike, and all the fraudster con artists trying to seize my network and impetus.

My PDF's created a windfall of trillions that my allies and opposition's alike tried capitalising on. As the MSM and thousands of others try to usurp my clout, steal credit for my achievements to leave me penniless.

North and South Korea reportedly in talks to announce an end to their 68-year war

I was the source inspiration for Toei Animations use of Ultra Instinct, which lead to them incorporating me and infusing me into to their remake of Broly. Nu Broly is essentially a stand-in for me.

I have 100% control over the entire global economy, the world, and everything in between. And we do things my way. Yahweh. Yes way.

My work also attracted con-artists and fraudsters alike trying to steal credit for my work in the science, intelligence and humanitarian communities. They were stealing from my “drip” which was worth several billions to trillions of dollars.

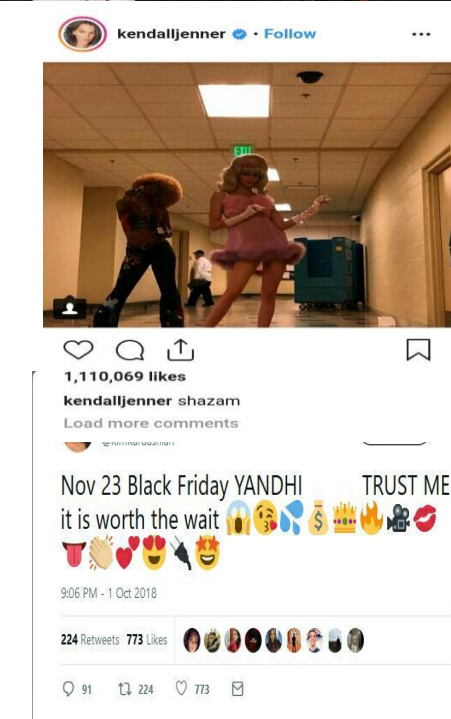

Here’s an image of Belle Hadid mocking me believing she, and her friends stole my “drip” and windfall while leaving me penniless. The jokes on them, I just ended their careers and made them completely irrelevant.

The jokes also on the Kardashians whose antics against me and the US Government by trying to steal and take a United States asset away from the US government, my work and advancements in the sciences and as a founding member of Plus Ultra. On top of Kanye West betraying Trump to destroy the Republican party. And now their entire companies are de-evaluated for trying to steal my work and accomplishment to keep afloat while mocking the entire Christian community.

And to all the dirtbags who tried stealing and tracing over my “drip” to make a living while attempting to usurp the Republicans from ever holding Congress through stealing the mid-terms and disquieting the red tsunami.

My opposition are using my PDFs to survive, by using magic to bring about cultural genocide. They’re trying to paint a picture that they’re turning men gay and the like. The only fair justice would be to de-evaluate the market value of the Kardashians, Disney, SNL, Space X, and the rest of these “usurpers” of the (((msm))) in order to sustain continued growth of our economy into a super economy. We need to neutralize any exigency that has tried to usurp me, the US Government and the global economy.

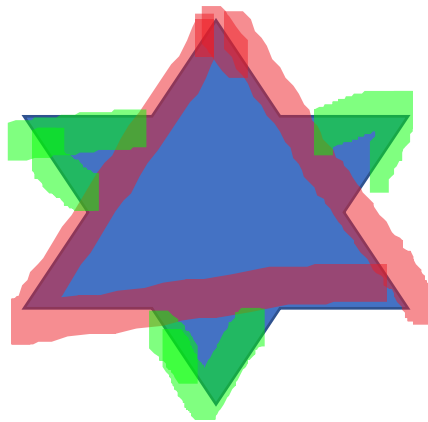

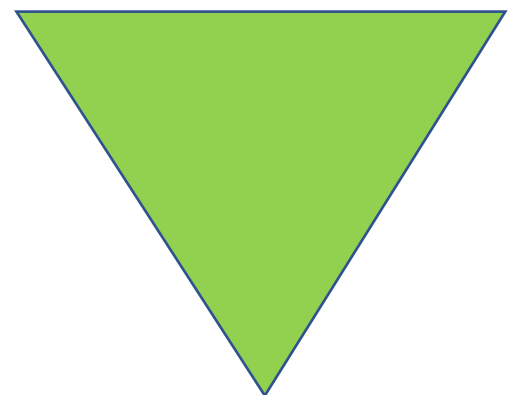

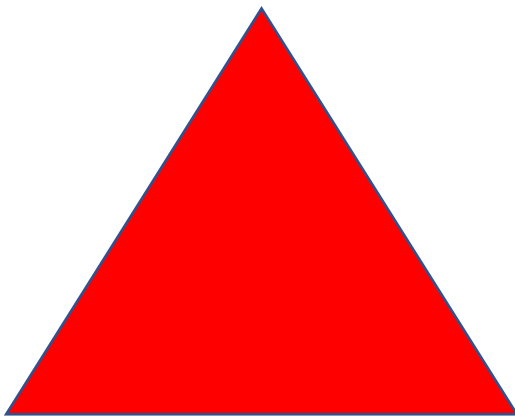

kimkardashian Snake Skin Drip on my little Northie

The look of a woman
guilty of Securities,
FTC and identity fraud.

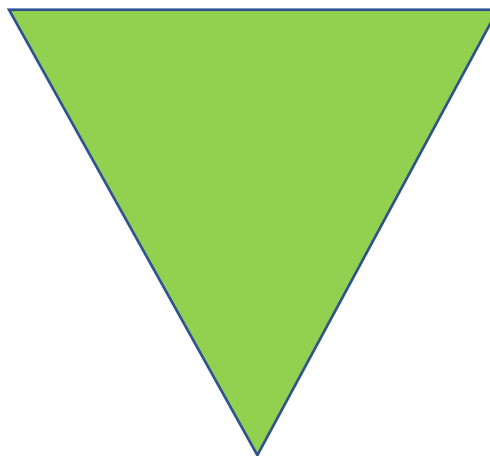

Now my next Grimore is worth the entire market value of Space X, Disney, Shark Tank, the entire rap and Democratic industries and everyone who tried stealing my block-chained “drip”.

This PDF is a catalyst casting an upwards light, erasing the old paradigm of a Zionist one world order.

My initial PDF acted as the catalyst to initiate my pyramidion control over the global economy. As this dossier acts as the catalyst to my upward Triangle and paradigm trajectory upward, severing the zionist control over the world, the Chinese market built on speculation based off of Colonising the USA, and all the interest groups who stand to tarnish American lives, as they collude to garish our wages.

I also retain the ability to create a several billion dollar windfall from a single PDF.

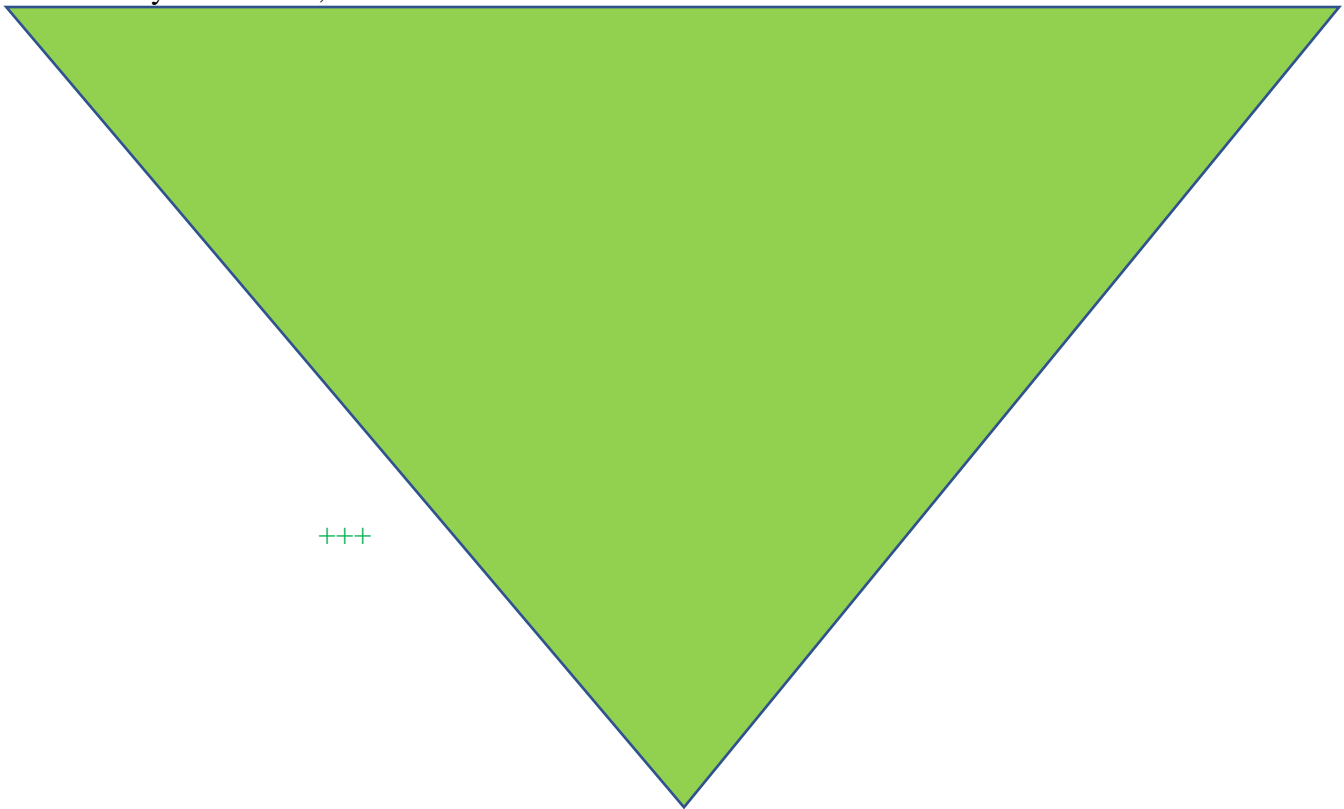

Since my initial event horizon charge was built on a negative, this event horizon charge will be built on a positive.

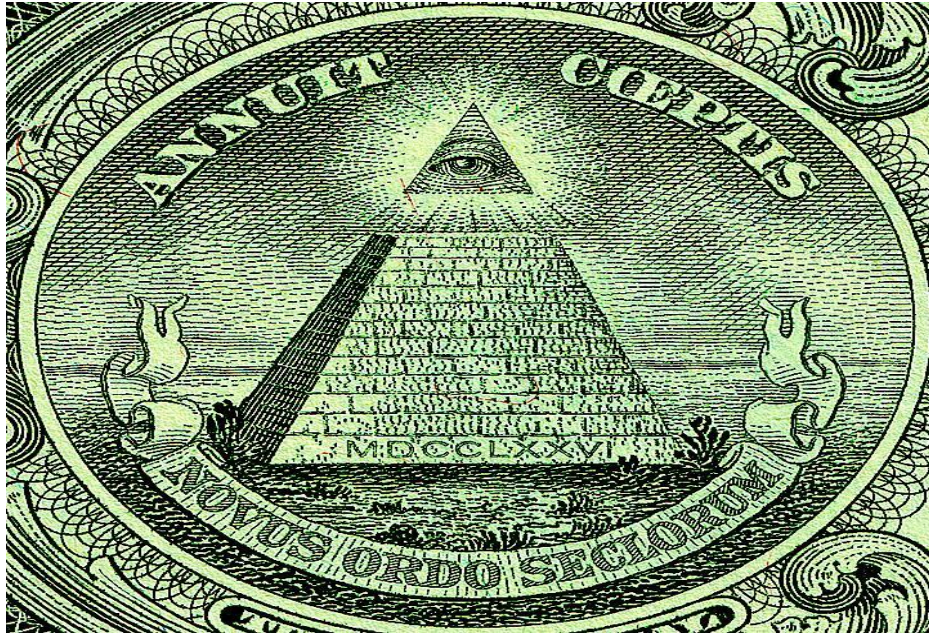

By diffusing both my power of Kek and the power of A-C. ($++ \div --$) which attribute to slight negative charges, I thus am left with my initial conjecture while erasing the old paradigm in favor of a new one triggered into fruition by this PDF.

And this new economy is block chained to a force of good +++ rather a force of evil --- which the global economy was before this Dossier.

The Event Horizon energy, instead of being a + is now a +++ since Kek and A-C are out of the equation.

The plus attribute is triggered into fruition by this dossier, thus severing control over the old (((global paradigm))) and shifting control and restoring power back to where it once was before Zionism and Israel staged a coup in the late 90's to undermine and usurp our Super Economy offset by the dotcom, tech and internet boom.

My opposition were trying to intimidate me or steal from me. It wasn't from the Russo brothers threatening me with to the Kardashians turning their entire daily lives trying to steal from me. (((They))) and all the globalists were banking on 3 things.

- 1)Stealing my work and taking credit from me
- 2) Hoping that I was too stupid to put together what I did and lose out on achievements for their gain
- 3)Giving Up

I purposely lead the Globalist's believe they were aware of my plans. My horizons and intentions surpassed the ideation of a one night stand with Kylie Jenner, who I have to thank for helping make the Kardashians become irrelevant from the public limelight as they fade into obscurity all together. Their lives and antics no more a toxicity that plagues on our society

While my opposition was learning to play 4D chess, I mastered the art of checkmating, while the msm is still trying to decipher what 4D chess is.

And I lynchpin and share my clout and market value of trillions of dollars onto the Alt Right, 4chan, and /pol/ which was a skeleton crew made of surviving anonymous agents, and Plus Ultra as we together, and all the friends and allies from, the NSA, the CIA, to the Pentagon, to Team 3-Star to North Korea, Britain, Russia, Italy, Poland, Germany, the EU, a majority of Asia, Brazil, Brazil, Palestine, the Christian Hebrews and all the friends we made along the way that gave us their hope that we would one day save the world.

I raised the bar on every level, which will inspire a Renaissance, a Revolution, as we all acclimate into a Tier 1 intergalactic Utopia, reverse Climate change, conserve and preserve our planet, our culture, our traditions, ourselves, and the people we love as we are all restored and reborn with new life, to make anew and even better then before.

With the power invested by God, I command thee to restore every society the way it was before the hostile corporate takeover done by the Zionist's of the first world in the late 90s. The end of the original sin on our millennium, in favor of Christ's everlasting dominion. And there are only some simple conditions. + . Be a net positive with every endeavor you do and you'll experience the universe reciprocate that ++ back to you.

+++ [I am] the King of Kings

+Messiah, Oligarchy Monarch, All-seeing Eye+

Plus Ultra Rank, Chief, Secret Master Chief of Space Force, Detective, Scientist, Artist, Military Tactician, Political Advisor, Humanitarian, Leader of Anonymous aka the Alt Right. A link between dimensions. You can call me Yahweh, or Eric.

The entire Bible can be broken down into an interplay of quantum mechanics as it was intended. The authors were all embalmed under a divine grace as their will transcended in sync instinctively.

Kek is empowered by the holy spirit and fortified based off of my will.

If you want access to the holy spirit, it's conditions are found in the 10 commandments.

Reject the chip at all costs.

“I am the Lord thy God, thou shalt not have any strange gods before Me.”

“Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain.”

“Remember to keep holy the Sabbath day.”

“Thou shalt not kill.” – unless the person is caught breaking these commandments

“Thou shalt not commit adultery.”

“Thou shalt not steal.”

“Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.”

“Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife.”

“Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's goods.”

If you use the power of Kek, you become attached to the conditions of the 10 commandments. And if you break any of the 10 commandments while being in sync with Kek, you trigger it's fail-safe and become cursed with The Mark of the Beast.

--- +++

KeK +-+ 616 aba

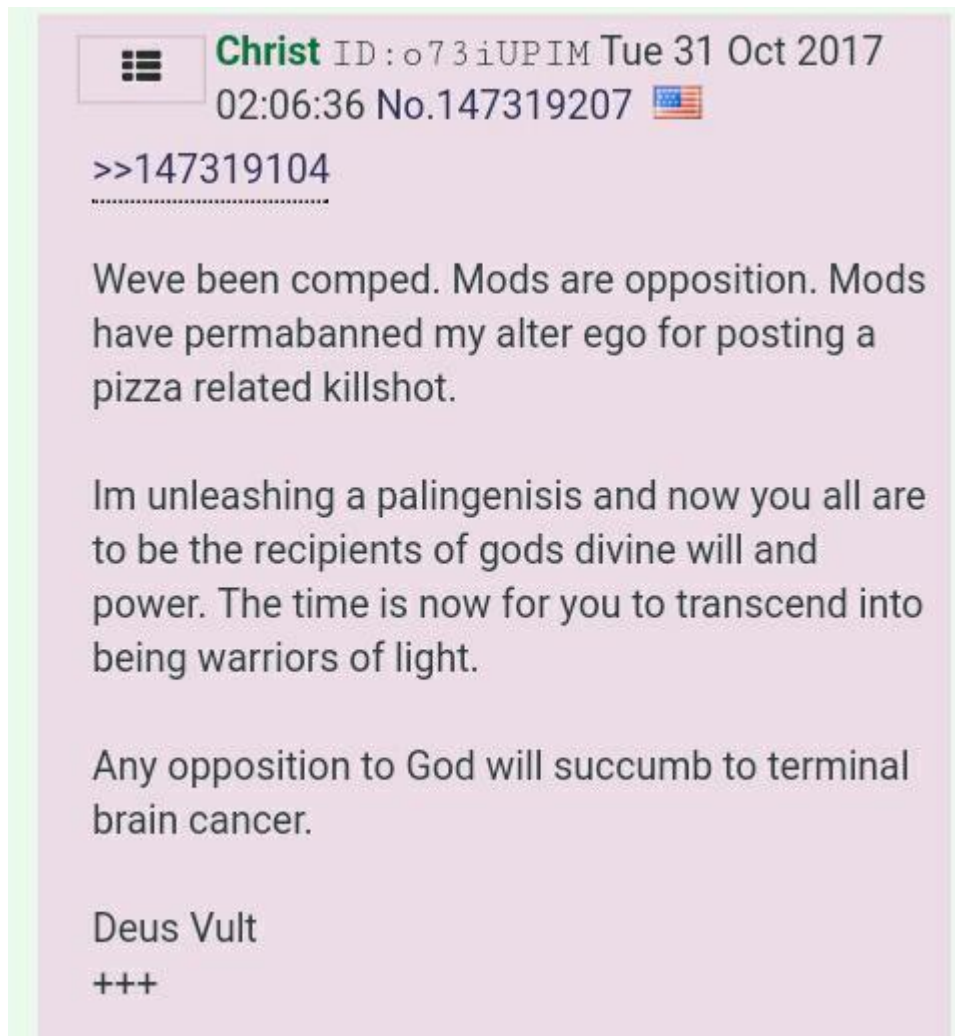

+++ 666 333=>999

Only through Christ's atonement and abiding by these 10 simple commandments will you be able to shake off the curse left by Kek.

Since I was aware of that that I was able to create a loophole attaching Kek to my holy spirit. And then I created another loophole by masquerading as The Anti-Christ, a name that gave me immunity to operate in the light against all the msm and fake news as I still had the power of Kek and the holy spirit looping to me, since I never broke the conditions of the 10 commandments, while alluding to something grander.

The Anti-Christ = The --+ = ++

You will consider yourself a temple of the Lord, and conduct yourself with such proclivity.

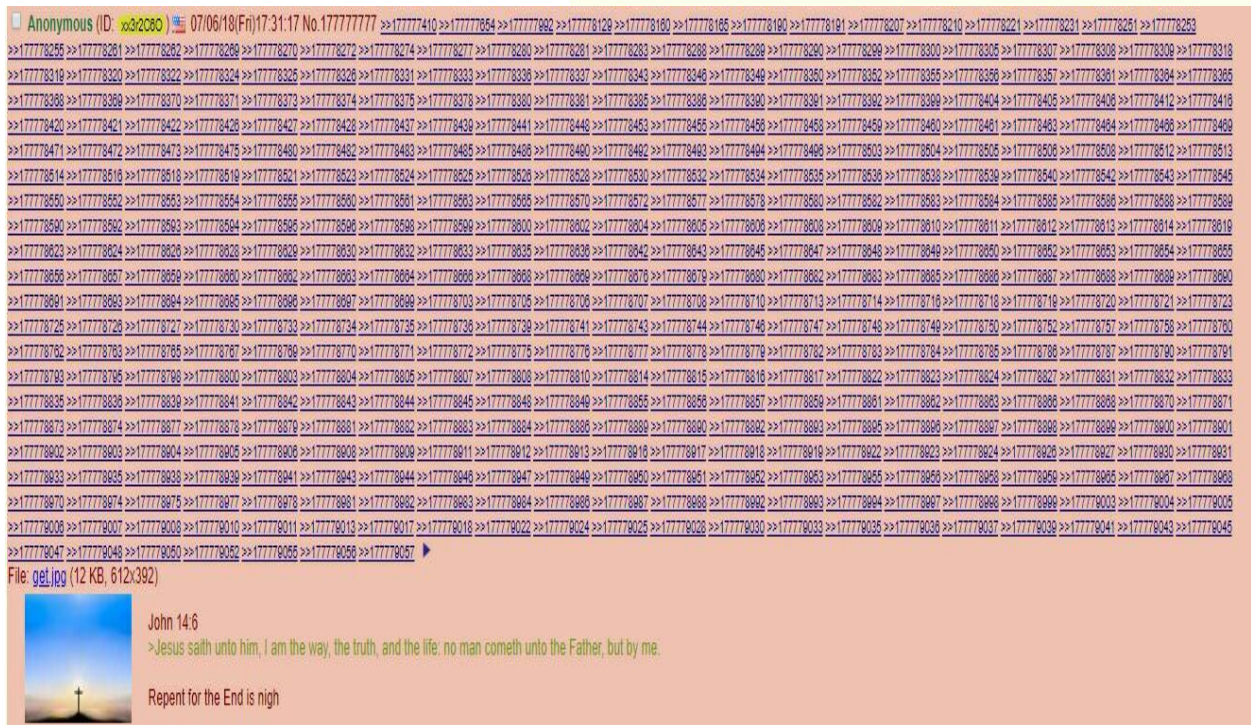

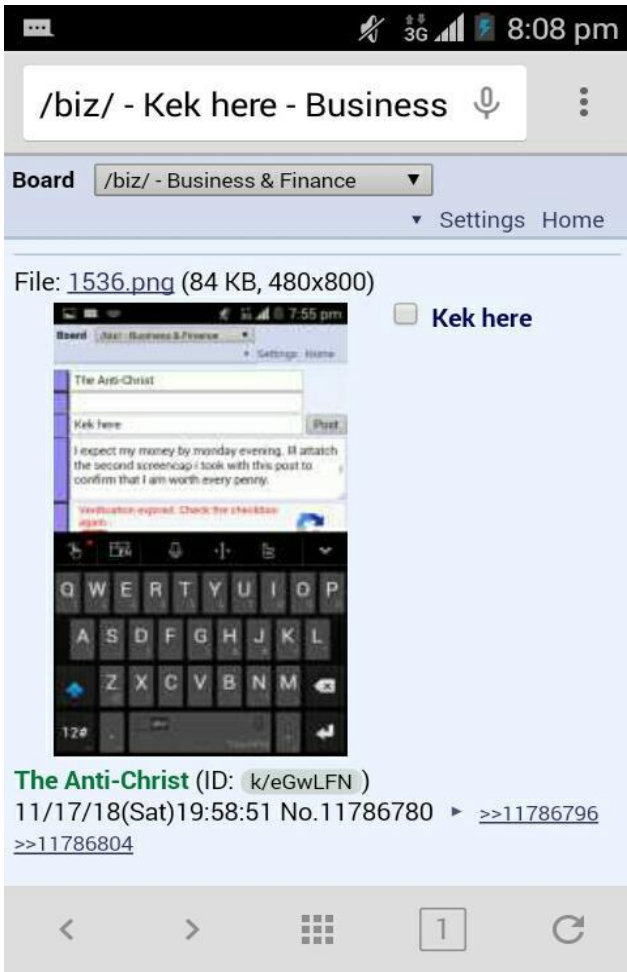

What we have regarded as science and the elementary standard model of physics is all but just an arbitrary snapshot confined to ill imposed limitations.

We are not alone

Extra terrestrial and extra dimensional entities do exist, but they function on vibrations and frequencies not perceptible to the human eye or concurrent man-made technology.

Higher dimensional entities do resonate with the human psyche, like an interceptive antenna glowing information and energy as different people espouse different psychic energy. We see this as a glow onto others. People fermenting with psychic energy are encased with a divine aura, a bright glow to their figure. It's also why people glow after having sex, you actually absorb your partners psychic energy and create a telepathic bond and frequency multiplying your psychic energy and releasing it to each other to give you a wave of telekinetic wave of euphoria.

I transfer the entire Kardashians worth onto Belle Delphine unironically.

And I attach my fiscal plan that I drafted up at the behest of congress for 2019:

This fiscal plan begins with a lesson a former VP of Citibank gave to me on the Law of Sub Optimization.

The law of Sub Optimization states that the sum of every system is only as strong as it's weakest link. But if you were to somehow turn that weak link into a link of strength, all other systems will then be fortified to an exponential scale that only goes up if you affix yourself to resolving your weaknesses.

If you were to break down the economy into systems that are all linked we can then break down the systems even further to pinpoint the cracks and leaks and the weak link's in our economy. And then if we are to focus and identify the problems and resolve them, all other systems, and sectors will become fortified as well.

Now what are some weaknesses of the economy

1)Inflation

2)Criminality

3)Corruption

4)Lack of fair paying jobs

Now if you were to focus on resolving these weak link's all other sectors and systems will be fortified.

But that was just an example. I utilized the law of sup optimization in order to discern and come up with this fiscal plan, as I present before you:

+Securing of Precious Metals

China and Russia are waging a precious metal war against the US by buying up precious metals en masse for the potential future where the US Petro-dollar ceases to exist. This is offset by the environmental strain the use of petrol has done on the entire planet. There is a good enough cause to believe the dollar will not be backed by petrol in the way distant future, so it's in the USA's best interest to secure as much precious metal as possible.

This would also increase the value of Gold and Silver the world over

But if there is to be a future with Petrol, this leads me into my second deal

+SPACE X - Developed Ozone Cleaner

Sub contract Elon Musk and his company to research and develop a drone like mechanism capable of filtering the ozone layer by converting green house gasses and the burning of fossil fuels into oxygen.

{The US Government can re-sub contract Space X to be an environmental safe-guard subsidiary to research and develop technologies to protect the environment and atmosphere}

{This indirectly subsidizes the coal mining industry and adds environmental protection to the farming industry}

+ Planting of a 1,000,000,000 New Trees

This would only add to quell the accumulative carbon foot-print of the US. For every person 3 trees should be planted to offset the carbon footprint of a US Citizen.

The Singularity of such a movement will also resonate with the quantum fabric of mother nature, which will resonate into every crevice of life which should trigger a surge of environmental harmony.

Sanctuary cities should accommodate a green terraformation to offset the accumulative pollution a city produces.

+The Preservation and the Restoration of the Environment Initiative

We need to lead the shift to restore and preserve the environment for future generations to come regardless of senate debate. We cannot risk to leave the future of our environment to a gamble when our climate is showing tell tale signs that something is considerably awry with the planet.

+Aid to Venezuela

The economic crisis in Venezuela will only have negative reverberations within the South American continent, only perpetuating a wave of criminality which will cause an influx of illegal aliens trying to cross the Mexican border and into the US. It's in the US best interests to aid the Crisis in Venezuela to create positive stimulus within the continent.

Right now Venezuela is a crumbling socialist society in charge by a corrupt government with close ties to many drug trafficking organizations. The Venezuela economy is worthless because of the lack of prospects of its future.

If the citizens of Venezuela were to clean up their country, with a little bit of foreign aid, they will be able to salvage and reaffirm its future prospects.

The citizens need to organize and rebuild their country and achieving self sufficiency is a must. If the US were to provide food and agricultural aid to Venezuela, that should offset any famine or malnourishment that is perpetually sweeping the nation. With a focus in farming and public vitality, the Venezuelan populace will be able to salvage their crisis and in a few business periods they can potentially be in the green.

$250,000,000 in aid to stimulate Venezuela's farming industry will be enough to save their country.

And with the nutritional crisis quelled, the people of Venezuela can focus in on education and infrastructure upgrades which will all have a positive stimulus that should spark-plug and jumpstart their economy again.

+Crackdown/Dissolution of ALEC, The American Legislative Exchange Council

A worker for ALEC leaked recently that the Chinese government have compromised the organization and are using it as a trojan horse to lobby politicians to tailor make laws all for the net benefit of China.

Over the summer ALEC supposedly had a meeting called NWO, harkening to a New World Order and a 7 year plan for America. Most of the proposals mentioned at this meeting were in regards to destroying Americas manufacturing industry to bolster China's manufacturing industry.

ALEC got 200 bills passed in the senate this year alone, and are only going to increase in permeance through the backdoor funding of Chinese foreign nationals "aggressively investing" on behalf of the Chinese Government.

+North Korea Redux

The country of North Korea is the missing puzzle piece in regards to my next plan. On top of such, the US can learn a great deal from the North Koreans and vice versa that can only have a net benefit for both countries. Once both Koreas unite again, a dismantling of the Korean DMZ that separates both countries should enact, although that would have complications over all the land-mines in place. Regardless, as a gift of the successful of the dismantling of the Korean DMZ, North Korea should get a nuke as a present from the west.

+The EU- Merkel Flip

The failed leadership of Angela Merkel has had negative impact in the entire continent of the EU.

We have more European countries that oppose Merkel and are tired of the totalitarian grip Merkel has on the EU as she runs the entirety of the Europe into the ground because of her engrossed negligence and incompetence. The following list of countries that oppose Merkels EU admin is only growing by the day and so far we have:

+Britain

+Italy

+Poland

+Hungary

+Greece

+Spain

+Croatia

+Slovenia

+Scotland

+France

The reason I point this out is to help realize into fruition this Merkel- Flip. There are more countries in the EU that oppose Merkel and Germany than there are allied. Its in Merkels best interest to play ball with the interest's of the European populace or face negative consequences for the German populace, the German economy and a future dissolution of the EU in the not so distant future.

The European people want to see the invasion of their countries fully ceased and no more warped and violent refugees coming to invade the EU.

So its either Merkel adopts right wing views and becomes a centrist or face a drop in the value of the euro, a recession in Germany and negative consequences for the entire region for generations to come.

+The US Trade-Alliance

A joint pact between the US and its closest Allies to ensure future prosperity for generations to come. A spiritual successor to both NAFTA and the UN without all the complications.

Those included in the pact:

+Britain

+Japan

+Italy

+Australia

+Korea

+Canada

+Spain

+Greece

+Russia

+Uncucked France

As time goes on the list should grow as more countries join the alliance, as it's intent is to replace the United Nations.

+Pacific Outer-Rim Trade Deal

This deal is going to neutralize and contain the rogue country of China and cull its expansion and growth. Its a trade deal between the US and every country bordering and neighboring China which will create a trade loop around the country.

With a new and fortified Alliance, we have Japan and Korea as the key cornerstones of this Outer-Rim trade deal and if China were to impose on the trade deal, their would be a negative drawback for China's shipping industries and trade. Thus collapsing the value of the yuan.

If China tries to impose on the United States or the trade pact, all we would have to do is pull out Japan and North Korea to engulf the entire continent of Asia in chaos, with China at the biggest loss for every Asian countries net-gain.

Leaving China with one option, to fairly and legitimately trade with the US without stealing our IPs and tunneling trillions through criminality out of the States while bullying other Asian countries in the Pacific.

+Block-chain SSN

Block-chain ledger technology should be attached and implemented to a SSN will ensure that generational long Americans have more sovereign power then a foreign national who just became a citizen. Citizens that come from generational long families should have more rights and benefits in the state of the country then a person who just immigrated here. Attaching a persons benefits to a block-chain ledger will accommodate the citizens whose bloodline has already paid and worked into the system. Ensuring that the USA remains a country for Americans for generations to come. A 3rd generation American should be entitled to receive more aid and benefits then a first generation American in the same situation. A 3rd generation citizens vote should have more voting power then a 1st generation citizen who would only vote for their best interests.

+Rebirth of Government PSA's

Animated shorts funded by the state can ignite and inspire a new generation to be concerned over such issues such as recycling and environmental protection or raise awareness on matters such as STD's or education, and anything in between. A PSA tailor made for kids to engage in sports and outdoor activities would be a huge success.

+The Juliette Program

A series of changes and initiatives for female citizens over the age of 16+

Sleight changes and accommodations as exempld below can have a positive shift for every woman.

-Diapers are tax deductible

-Purchase of Tampons can be used for a Tax Refund

-Moisturizer can be a 50% tax deductible for single women (encourages less use of make-up)

-Make-up being tax deductible by 30%

Wearing make-up is a trade off in itself, the chemical contained in such ages the wearers face faster only inhibiting its further use. Women tend to use it deliberately for social settings and whenever they do they end stimulating hundreds of dollars in transactions per use.

+NEET Grant

A grant for an unemployed citizen over the age of 18 not in school or training. A one time $500 grant to a single, childless individual who have huge gaps in their work history and are in need of substantial sum to get back on there feet.

+Wildlife and Nature Preservation -Provisional

There should be extra accommodations made for wild life animal species. The loss of ecosystems will only have a negative impact that can chain into an ecological food chain crisis, and a food crisis for us. A species such as Bees going extinct would end up having negative consequences that are far reaching and deep from the microcosm off a lack of flowers not getting pollinated to a surge of price in honey astronomically high, and a series of other consequences that can be chain into very dire circumstances. The need to preserve wildlife and all of nature should be a maintained priority.

+Forgive 33.33333% of every student loan

That will jumpstart the economy and create consumer confidence the likes the country has ever seen before

+Use the tariffs from Canada to subsidize every college and University and make it free

+Higher Education Provision

A great deal of time is lost for the student while coming at the loss of allocated resources and funding to schools that have changed their curriculum accommodating useless classes that wont stimulate real world growth. There needs to be a complete restructuring of the entire curriculum the Board of Education espouses.

For starters, stop spending 8 years to teach about WW2 when all the details of those occurrences were by and large, over exaggerated in most circumstances, or completely fabricated in other +Cutting out the extensive WW2 curriculum as propagated by the BOE to allocate a students time for more science and mathematics classes would only have positive recourse for the student, the entire school, and the entire future economy.

+Mix that with the formation of Space Force and a slew of other initiatives and you would have more students aspiring and successfully becoming doctors, scientists and engineers

+Increase teacher salary

There's a housing crisis for teachers in sanctuary cities. Most teachers are underpaid in comparison to the expensive cost of living espoused with living in a city. Teachers in general need a pay raise to accommodate the higher costs of living procured by corporate price gouging.

+SPECIAL TACTICS AND RESCUE SERVICE

A new organization that operates as a bridge between the CIA, The NSA, The FBI, The Pentagon, and The US Military. Its operation is to develop new tactics to thwart any security threat as well as to act as a buffer to circumvent the Deep-State and any collusion from abating threats

+Polaris

Give the coal mining industry and its respective unions a monopoly on solar energy. It will be up to them to hire the engineers to develop the technologies and equipment to implement a shift from fossil fuels and petrol to solar energy. Can offset the displaced unionized coal miners at some point in the future. They can be guaranteed another union working in the solar energy industry.

+The Reading Initiative

Every child student at the age of 5 and at the age of 15 get a $77 gift to Barnes and Nobles. The students that turn 15 will be encouraged to buy an SAT study course book a year early. A early offset $144 devoted to each student, can see a difference of them making an additional $1,000,000 or more in their lifetimes.

+Co-joint the US Military and Pentagon to build the wall and call it a matter of national security.

+ Double the budget for the wall with promise of creating an incremental positive influence in all of South America. We can send more aid to regions that are in need and create incentives for countries to grow and prosper to develop industries as opposed to resorting to drug trafficking and the like

+Give the Farming Industry a seasonal stimulus to offset the 2019 winter season which poses to cause systematic inflation and an increase in priced goods

+Enact a Bill that operates as a kill-switch on automation. If the advancements of automation impedes on the job sector too much then it should be levied and taxed considerably to the point there is no more incentive to undercut jobs by automating them.

+Preservation of National Monument and Historic Relic Act

Forbids any state party from dismantling a piece of US and Federal US History on any pretenses.

In case of an emergency the state can claim eminent domain if the dismantling of US history calls for emergent accommodations. Can be contested in Supreme Court +Pledge of allocating just as much resources to build the wall to give in aid too South America_.

BILL - Social media companies cannot tamper livelihoods that depend on their social media accounts. Accounts with a substantial amount of followers cannot be poised to be threatened to deleted. Posts that are too vulgar or inappropriate should be considered deleted or scrubbed.

BILL - Every Social Media company has too remain bipartisan on political issues. Social Media companies cannot tamper or undermine the social fabric of the country by censoring topics, deleting accounts or rigging issues in favor of one political affiliation or another.

BILL - Social Media accounts cannot Censor any speech since it completely infringes and overrides the 1st amendment.

Bill - Make it illegal for App Companies to gain access to a persons private information on their cell phones.

Bill - A person caught with Fentanyl will face life in prison.

Synthetic Heroin is being sold with the intent to destroy and wither away the fabric of America by foreign nationals. If a bill were to impose specifically targeting the drug, there will be a severe drop of usage of it.

Combating the Opioid Crisis

+Any person dealing with heavy drug abuse should be issued a license for medicinal marijuana

+Decriminalize the use and selling of Marijuana Federally, but don't fully legalize it

+Implement a Voter ID System

All to ensure corruption doesn't placate by people casting more ballots than they can by circulating around locations, and preventing Democrats from busing illegal aliens to vote.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jUDTcxIqqM0>

+Journalists and media companies who deliberately publish falsified information or distort the truth for their bias are subject to federal prison time of 7 years and a fine of $250,000

+Prohibit gender-reassignment surgery for people under the age of 18.

+Prohibit the use of gender reassignment therapy and the use of hormone blockers for people under the age of 18.

+Ban foreign lobbying in every capacity

Prevents no governing bodies or entities from compromising our election through eliciting bribes and pay 2 play policies Hillary Clinton was famous for.

Bill, if a Citizen can prove a news story is indeed fabricated, the progenitor of the story will be fined by the FCC by $250,000, and be subject to be disbarred and blacklisted from the world of excavating world of journalism.

Make it illegal for media organizations to tamper with statistics or facts for any reason. If a media cooperation is caught by the public with publishing articles utilizing fabricated, false information and statistics they should face heavy penalties from the FCC.

+Stricter Northern Borders Adjoining Canada.

All the refugees and migrants Canada takes in imposes a national security risk to the USA since the northern border isn't as secured.

+Criminal probe into George Soros subsidiaries

Soros funded a nation wide protest that involved militias and pmcs last year to overthrow the government on Nov 4th, 2017. No one bothered to protest but the mere fact that Soros and his linked companies plotted to overthrow the US Government is a detail that shouldn't be glossed over. An event that was overlooked by the Trump Administration due to the fact that Trump was busy getting ready to tour in Asia as president for the first time. It was George Soros money that got several law enforcement agents killed within the 2014- timespan

The republican party doesn't have to live up to the stereotypical impression the entire party has. One that has no consideration for the environment and the like.

The Conservative Party can easily transition as the De Facto Party of the United States, making all other parties irrelevant in comparison and it can be easily done by adopting some more moderate views on subjects such as climate change and environmental protection. The conservative party can be the way of the future, as opposed to a party that's believed to be stuck in the past.

+Wildlife Preservation Bill #2

Indigenous Species facing extinction cannot be hunted down or killed. The American Bald Eagle is an example of such an animal +Start an official Probe to drain the swamp by looking into looking at foreign agents, spies and plants that are within the government and the mainstream media that are colluding with foreign entities to compromise the country. Once enough evidence starts to compile, then issue a state of Emergency, and tap into Emergent Presidential Powers.

The probe into the swamp will compile enough evidence to declare a state of emergency to tap into Executive Powers on foreign entities that and spies that are chipping away at the fabric of our country.

There is more than enough evidence sitting in peoples hard drives across the country to predicate that there is indeed a web of foreign agents that are colluding to undermine not only the president but the country itself for their host country of origins gain.

+Social Media companies caught obstructing the 1st amendment because of a political bias should face heavy penalties by the FCC

+Any politician that receives campaign aid from foreign investors should be automatically revoked from holding office. Hillary Clinton received hundreds of millions of dollars from foreign agents that were utilizing the donations as thinly veiled bribes for her to enact policies that would favor the host country of origin the donation came from like Qatar

+Make lobbying illegal

Companies and business shouldn't be able to buy their influence over an election which is essentially what lobbying is, a back end door for corporations to bribe politicians to enact policies in their favor.

+Start a probe looking into the implicit bias of the MSM in regards to colluding with foreign entities to undermine the fabric of our democracy and penalize them. There is countless amount of evidence of the MSM attempting to undermine the fabric of our country. Issue heavy penalties and fines, some harsh enough to outright dissolve said companies such as CNN and the NY Times, which are operated by religiously warped by conspirators and co-conspirators.

+Block Israeli IPs from accessing United States websites.

Agents from Israel in the month of April, 2018 flooded the entire internet with propaganda to fan and subliminate in order to reach to the President to coerce him to bomb Syria and Iran, a week after the President declared that he was pulling all troops from the Middle East. They heavily targeted sites that could have been an interest to the President all to undermine and influence him. Then it was leaked that Bibi was caught saying that he is in control of Trump.

+Reconsolidate NASA into the battery of SpaceForce and give it a budget increase and allocation since NASA is a wing under the military.

+Create a new military sub sect dedicated to fighting climate change through technological development and implementation. If Space X is successful in developing an anti-greenhouse gas drone a continued sub contract with them to form the gnosys of this branch would be efficient.

+Use the military to hunt down cartels in SA to help them clean up their countries from wide-spread corruption

+A base on the moon by 2050

+A Greenhouse Base on Mars and an Oasis by the end of the 21st Century

The USA should start looking in to building a base on Mars with the intent of discovering new ways of sustaining crop production in extra terrestrial environments. Extrapolating Mars would only lead to a resource of new breakthroughs and discoveries that would benefit us all in the long-term. Mars would also make a good template planet for Scientists to practice terraforming techniques on. With slight changes done now in regards to the planet, and throughout the course of the next millennium, there is a very good possibility that Mars can become capable of sustaining and harvesting life.

+Detoxify the Oceans

The oceans have gotten to acidic with all the pollution in the environment, and all the extra activity in the earths core offset by urban environment-induced calamities. All this accumulative wear and tear is coming at a taxing toll in our oceans from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

There needs to be more of an aggressive stance done in order to preserve the PH Balance. Any sleight change in scale can trigger the loss of oceanic ecologies which can have chain-like consequences to every part of nature, that comes at a tax to our environmental food-chain and ecosystem, which brings about a slew of economic shifts that lead to systematic inflation.

+Development of a bi-pedal drone capable of launching a nuclear warhead in seconds

+Green and Smart Eco Renewal Plan

Too offset the accumulative footprint we need a complete overhaul restructuring of our entire infrastructure to accommodate and ensure our environments stability for generations to come. A trillion dollars allotted over the course of a decade offsetting several urban renewal smart and eco friendly plans at once. Technological systematic upgrades to our entire infrastructure utilizing augments with an adherence to being eco-friendly and green-oriented. Solar Powered Magnetic Levitating Trains anyone?

The next 20 years should make the previous 100 years look like a thousand years ago in comparison.

+Real Estate and Housing Renewal Plan "The Trump Pledge"

The Federal Government should pledge $1,000,000,000 to every state's urban renewal and housing budget for the next 10 years.

Most Banks give out mortgages if you have 5% cash down, this would help a potential buyer if they have 4% of a loan, an aid them with an additional 1% to secure the loan.

A house valued at a million would require $50,000 cash as a down payment to secure a loan. With the The Trump Pledge, a buyer would need $40,000, and save themselves time acquiring capital in a booming housing market.

+The Unrust Belt

Changing its name would be a good start, the name carries a negative connotation, incendiary to business. "The Green Belt"

+Eco-friendly Stimulus

Any home or business owner that renovates their home or property with environmental friendly augments can use it as a tax shelter for a year, giving home-owners and entrepreneurs incentive to go green.

+Implement block chain technology to the housing market and appropriate mortgages in regards to the volatility of the market. If the area dips down, or if the market flips, the mortgages raise or decreases to adjust to its comparable interest rate.

+Clean Air Act

An initiative to preserve and maintain quality breathing air. Cities dense with smog and pollution should take more aggressive efforts to quell emissions.

+Digital Media Archive MACRO USB Edition

An official archive to storing and preserving the legacy of US multi-media in the digital era. The Smithsonian for modern technology, stemming from the first military Computer back in ww2, to Doom on Windows 95, cataloguing and preserving our every major breakthrough in computational and digital technology. An art gallery of influential and significant memes through-out the years on display.

Judgement on Silicon Valley

Silicon Valley attempts to abrupt the United States Government through various shell projects and ponzi schemes, foreign and in-house collusion. A lot of the ramifications of the entire ecosystem has had ramifications that's has affected every facet.

Many Silicon Valley companies our selling our country away to our fiscal competitors. Our identities, our likes, wants, desires, thoughts, musings, and turning into mathematical algorithms they retrofit with companies to target us with systematic ads to target, sublimate and influence us.

Its in the interest of National Security to De-Monopolize Silicon Valley

+Delimit the restrictions on Terraforming

Competing countries are advancing their technology of terraforming and building man made off land cities at a pace faster then us. The United States has to catch up in regards to these developing advancements and technologies.

+Pull the U.S. military out of the Middle East

The campaign in the middle east region has been costly to the United States and is nonsensical to perpetuate

+Killswitch on automation -

If the coming 4th industrial revolution imposes and disrupts the entire work force then there needs to a law to cull or ban the excessive use of automation. Companies like Uber are developing their future fiscal strategies by culling there entire work force for automated technologies which can replace entire industries and impose to cause a crater of a million jobs left out of work.

Slight adjustments can offset and kilter and reverse systematic inflation.

+Increase Honey Production

Honey is an ingredient excessively used and increasing its production and supply will offset it to become cheaper. Through osmosis, companies that use honey as an ingredient will have an incentive to lower costs on produce goods, slightly or ever so slightly. Increasing Honey production will lead to a spike in flower pollination that will only lead to more fruitful up coming harvesting periods.

+End Net Neutrality

Its a loaded bill being lobbied to impose strict regulations and censorship on the internet under the false of being counter to unobstructed access. There are massive misinformation campaigns done to obstruct public opinion to keep everyone confused over the true implications of Net Neutrality which serves as a vehicle to police the internet while it advertises itself as the opposite.

+Development of the first city in the sky

+Terraform the Sonoran Desert

Cultivate it into a thriving Oasis. It will be a good experience for the United States government to learn about terraforming rugged climates for future terrestrial implementation

+Research and Development of technologies capable of producing crops in various environments, stimulating different conditions. From inside a space shuttle to a cavern made of ice. - These experiments will only percolate into different innovations and advancements in farming

+Voyager Ultra

Development of a space shuttle capable of relocating humanity to another planet in case Humanity is being threatened by a mass extinction level event.

+ Elevator-Lift to Space

Its initial costs over time can be proven cost efficient as its sustained use will amount to a lot more advancement in becoming an intergalactic/ extra-terrestrial species.

+Declassify the existence of Extra-terrestrial life

+--Sigial Meta Monument - A monument that operates as a conduit to metaphysical energy.

+Solar Ring- Dyson Sphere

An effort between the United States and Russia.

A ring in space that absorbs solar energy and redirects it back into the planet

*A smaller effort should be made first as a prototype to a much bigger "Dyson Ring" and "Solar-loop"

+The First Underwater City [Project Atlantis]

First foray into sustaining human life in oceanic ecological climates. For future terrestrial implementation.

+Gaia Pact

A pact between all nations to preserve the ozone layer for future generation's. The world needs a more aggressive stance on the issue of climate change and initiatives need to be enacted in place now as the shift in global weather caused by climate change is offset by all the greenhouse gasses corroding our ozone layer and affecting our seasonal weather track.

Checkmate World Peace...
