DEADLIFT - 230kg (506lb) This is my current PB at 95kg. Will be smashing this in the next 6 months. Goal weight is 250kg □ Will add mass once I leave Australia then PBs in everything!!

Over the past 2 weeks I have experienced more energy and mental clarity when working on my phone for long hours. I am cutting down on my carbs and naughty treats I cannot believe I have come this far already, another 2 weeks to go! 😊

If you are not eating enough calories then it's highly likely you are not meeting your protein requirements too. This leads to your body tapping into your muscle stores for energy (rather than vital organ tissue ☺) and this results in lower muscle mass, strength and eventually lower resting metabolic rate - muscle requires calories just to keep on your body, and so, less muscle = less calories needed!!
