Bunker Hill Day Parade-June 17th

The 209th Anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill will be highlighted by the annual Bunker Hill Day Parade which will be held on Sunday afternoon, June 17th. This parade is sponsored by the Charlestown Veterans/Bunker Hill Day Commemorative Committee, under the auspices of the City of Boston. Giving the command "Forward March", starting the parade up Bunker Hill Street from Hayes Square, will be Chief Marshal William (Bill) Connell. "Officer Bill", the Chief Marshal, is the voice of the WHDH Skyway Patrol.

When he's not providing the valuable public service of guiding Boston's rush hour commuters in and out of the city, he is performing duties as Officer William Connell of the Metropolitan District Police.

Monument Orator And Chief Marshal Meet On Celebration

MEET TO FINALIZE PLANS: Mayor Raymond L. Flynn, Monument Orator on the occasion of the 209th Anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill and Metropolitan Police Officer Bill Connell, Chief Marshal of the 1984 Bunker Hill Day Parade, met recently with committee members in Boston City Hall to

Are You Planning to Sell Your Home This Year? ECONOMISTS PREDICT VERY HIGH INTEREST RATES BY FALL

When mortgage rates hit 17-18% in 1982, home sales ground to a halt. Mortgage rates are now 14-15% and rising, with many economists predicting sharp increases in coming months. Some brokers we know report that home sales are already starting to slow down.

DOESN'T IT MAKE SENSE TO SELL NOW RATHER THAN LATER?

The timing of the sale of your home is one of many important considerations when you want to sell your home. There are many other ways Gibson can help:

- PRICING: There are many factors to consider when putting a price on your home. We'll be glad to show you comparable sales and discuss competing offerings so that you can price your home to receive the most money in the time you have for selling.
- MARKETING: Marketing is exposed your home to the greatest number of qualifying buyers. We'll be happy to tell you about GIBSON OFFICES CITYWIDE, Gibson's CHARLESTOWN-CAMBRIDGE-BOSTON CO-BROKERAGE NETWORK and our daily/weekly/monthly advertising.
- QUALIFYING: We'll explain how we qualify prospects for financial ability and seriousness so that your home is not "on tour"
- PROBLEM-SOLVING: Problem solving starts with listing procedures that spot problems before they happen: when the buyer can move-in; what stays and what goes, etc.
- NEGOTIATIONS: Starting with knowing how to get a good offer in the first place, and negotiating with the Seller's interests in mind.
- FINANCING: We continuously update which lenders offer the best financing for a specific buyer and property
- FOLLOW-THROUGH The most important of which is riding herd on the mortgage application so that the sale isn't lost because of foul-ups with the lender. There are many other details to keep track of so that the sale proceeds smoothly.

Formation Of Neighborhood Council Topic Of June 26th Meeting

On Tuesday, June 26, 7:00 p.m., a meeting will be held to discuss the creation of the Neighborhood Council in Charlestown. Mayor Raymond L. Flynn's Office of Community Participation is the sponsor of the meeting which will take place in the cafeteria of Charlestown High School on Medford Street.

All neighborhood residents are strongly encouraged to attend. The purpose of the meeting will be to discuss the role, responsibility, and selection process of Neighborhood Councils. The Councils will be designed to allow active community involvement in decisions which will affect the neighborhood, including the delivery of services, and economic planning and development.

Mayor Flynn said, "We want to ensure community input in the decisions affecting their neighborhoods. We want a dialogue in order to guarantee that decisions made at City Hall are part of a process which includes the concerns of the neighborhoods. I hope all citizens interested in establishing these councils will come and let us know what you think. Everyone's ideas are important."

The Mayor's Office of Community Participation has already sent out over 5,000 questionnaires to neighborhood residents across the city who were involved in the planning process and attended the 17 "Neighborhood Meetings", and participated in the Spring Clean-up campaign in the neighborhoods. The questionnaires asked for feedback as to whether the individual favored the creation of neighborhood councils, what their objections might be if they did not, what the boundaries should encompass, who should be eligible, and how should members be selected.

For more information, contact the Office of Community Participation at 725-3485.

Mishawum Tenants Meet With Police

by Marianne Martin

Angry Mishawum residents and area neighbors have decided to join together along with the Boston City Police Department in an effort to combat the problems of vandalism, public drinking, drug dealing and abuse which have been plaguing the area.

On Wednesday night, June 6, 1984, over 60 residents met with Lt. Ray Lowney and Officer Richard Pimpentel of the Boston Police Department at 95 Dunstable Street to discuss alternatives available to the residents.

According to Lt. Lowney, the Police Department is "trying to get the people together as a neighborhood, not just as a group of tenants." Lowney suggested that the group band together and form an association which is "just a group that says 'we've had it'."

By banning together, Lowney states, prompter action from the police will occur because "it's just like every where else, politics works."

Bill McClellan, Superintendent, has been working closely with the residents in organizing the group who tentatively have been dubbed "The Mishawum Tenants Association".

Some of the problems which have been occurring in the area include public drinking, drug dealing, abusive language, late night noise, public urinating on residential windows and stairs, as well as, vandalism to neighborhood homes and children's playgrounds.

One step in ridding the problems of the area involves the permanent assignment of two officers to patrol the area nightly.

In the future, the Police Department will be bringing in various citizen groups from Dorchester and other troubled areas in the city who have organized themselves against crime, and similiar neighborhood problems (such as vandalism and drugs) and have proved successful. These groups will instruct area residents on how to handle the variety of problem situation and get results.

Ceremony Marks Dedication Of Charlestown Veterans Garden

Veterans Garden

Charlestown veterans, city and state officials, Charlestown residents and guests gathered at 105 Bunker Hill Street on Sunday morning, May 27, 1984 for the dedication of the Charlestown Veterans Garden, created and cared for by James "Buttsy" McGrath.

The phrase "they shall not be forgotten" has never been more meaningful than at this site in the Bunker Hill Housing Project where the American Flag, along with a flag from each branch of the military, flies over a beautiful garden. Plaques with the name and branch of services of most of the Charlestown men who died in the service of their country, from World War II to Vietnam, line the fence of this Memorial Garden.

Through the cooperation of the Boston Housing Authority and numerous community residents, the dream of "Buttsy" McGrath to honor the Charlestown veterans who paid the supreme sacrifice, became a reality.

Veterans whose names line the garden fence are: SP4 Lawrence T. Borden, 101st Airborne, Vietnam, 1966; PFC John E. Connolly, USAF, 1951; Sgt. James P. Curran, USAF, Germany, 1944; PFC William J. Dever, U. S. Army, Pacific, 1945; S/Sgt. Aloysius L. Doherty, U. S. Army, Aachen, Europe, 1945; M/Sgt. Hugh P. Doherty, USAF, Vietnam, 1967; PFC James F. Goggin, U. S. Army, 1943; Cpt. Daniel E. Hoban, U. S. Army, Pacific, 1944; L/Cpl. Edward L. Johnson, USMC, Vietnam, 1967; brothers, Private Daniel A. Kelley, USMC, Iwo Jima, 1945 and S/Sgt. James P. Kelley, USMC, 1942; 3rd Class Radioman Robert J. Lowney, USN, 1945; Cpl. Jack Mahan, U. S. Army (died in 1983 of wound received); brothers, Seaman 2nd Class Charles T. McCormack, USNR, Atlantic, 1944 and Elec. Mate 3rd Class Patrick H. McCormack, Pacific 1943; SP4 William J. McNamara, U. S. Army, Vietnam, 1969; PFC John J. Noonan, U. S. Army, Omaha Beach, D-Day, June 6, 1944; Capt. Francis E. Powers Jr., U. S. Army Vietnam, 1970; Private John W. Powers, 3rd Army, Germany, 1945; L/Cpl. David J. Pugh, USMC, Vietnam, 1969; 2nd Lt. Michael P. Quinn, USMC, Vietnam, 1969; and Sgt. Joseph F. Riley, U. S. Army, Korea, 1950. Also honored is Four Star General George S. Patton Jr., Commander Third U. S. Army.

Flags decorating the Garden have been donated by the following persons: American Flag, which was flown from the mainmast of the U.S.S. Arizona, sunk in Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941 - donated by Florence Johnson in memory of her son, L/Cpl. Edward Johnson USMC and her husband, Lee, who served in the U. S. Navy; Army Flag - donated by PFC James McGrath, U. S. Army, World War II; Navy Flag donated by SK2C John McCarthy, U. S. Navy, World War II; Marine Flag - donated by the Rosselle brothers, USMC, Korea-Vietnam; Air Force Flag - donated by Sgt. Gerald Buckley, USAF SAC, Europe; Coast Guard Flag - Donated by Rear Admiral Richard A. Bauman, Commanding Officer of the First Coast Guard District; and Bunker Hill Flag - donated by Mrs. Joseph Morrissey in memory of her husband, Joe.

The Charlestown Veterans Committee, under the chairmanship of James W. Conway, organized the dedication services. The Bunker Hill Post 26, American Legion and U.S.S. Constitution Color Guards were present and music was provided by the Joseph Hill Post 156 Band, under the direction of Dorothy Slamin Hill. The dedication ceremonies were a tribute to the dedication of Jim "Buttsy" McGrath and to the Charlestown men who gave their lives in the service of their country, and the large gathering of area residents paid testimony to the esteem in which McGrath and the Charlestown veterans are held.

Fifth row (l. to r.) PAST LEGION National Historian James W. Conway, presents a citation on behalf of the Department of Massachusetts, American Legion to McGrath; PAST COMMANDER Glenn W. Luce Jr. presents a citation to McGrath on behalf of Bunker Hill Post 26, American Legion, and its auxiliary; RESIDENTS gather at the Garden fence to view the dedication services.

Sixth row (l. to r.) REVEREND Tom Conway, Pastor of St. Catherine of Siena Church offers a prayer following a blessing of the Garden; Robert Gillen, former Commanding Officer of the U.S.S. Constitution, represented the U. S. Navy; A SALUTE to the deceased veterans is offered by the platform guests.

Also present for the dedication were Reverend Robert Boyle, Pastor of St. Mary's Church; Harry Spence, Receiver for the Boston Housing Authority; and Bill Knox, Manager of the Bunker Hill Housing Project.

It took more than a van to move from Apt. 3B to 39 Cedarwood Drive.

With the wide range of mortgage plans and interest rates available, it's not surprising that a lot of prospective homeowners are confused. And while many banks are more than willing to give you a mortgage, it takes Newworld Bank to give you the right one.

To begin with, we won't fool you with negative amortization or attractive "teaser" rates that can increase as much as 5% after the first year. We offer competitive variable interest rates that cannot increase nor decrease by more than 2% per year.

And unlike many of our competitors, we offer a construction/permanent financing plan. A convenient plan that automatically rolls your construction financing into a permanent mortgage at the end of six months.

We'll guarantee to conduct your entire mortgage procedure (application, rate commitment and closing) within 30 days. Which is an assurance that most other banks can't provide.

For more information about our Newworld mortgages, drop by any of our convenient Newworld Bank locations. Because whether you're building or buying, no one knows more about the new world of banking than Newworld.

Design Plans For Old Charlestown High To Be Finalized This Summer

by Marianne Martin

The Old Charlestown High School on Monument Square will reopen its doors in the next year, but instead of students, the former high school will be accepting tenants.

After a six year vacancy, the four story building will become a 40 unit apartment complex, opening tentatively in the spring of 1985.

According to Ms. Jan Brodie of the Graham Gund Associates in Cambridge, the developers of the building, plans for the renovations are to be finalized this summer, and if all goes well, a construction team will be chosen in September to commence the 10 month project.

Presently, the building is still property of the City of Boston. But according to Attorney Lori Goldin for the Department of Public Facilities, papers for the sale of the building to the Graham Gund Associates will change hands before the summer.

Ms. Brodie stated that the apartments will be mostly two bedroom units, with an additional four-three bedroom and 11-one bedroom units as well. As for parking for the 40 units, Brodie stated that all of the parking will be on the premises with the bulk of the cars parked within the building itself. An additional lot will be built on the land parcel behind the school, which presently is the site of an annex to the building.

Goldin stated that there is legally no need for a public hearing by the Graham Gund Associates, since the firm has met all the community needs and the proposal has already been approved. However, Goldin added that the firm may wish to meet with the immediate neighborhood once more to discuss the renovation, although they are not required by law to do so.

BUNKER HILL DAY
Sunday, June 17
10 a.m. - noon
ALERT A.A.
385 Bunker Hill Street

Concert At Navy Yard

An evening of musical entertainment will be held at Waterfront Park at the Charlestown Navy Yard. The concert will feature a unique combination of jazz and Irish music.

The Mae Arnett Quartet will perform a variety of jazz and swing music. The quartet features Mae Arnett who has performed at the Copley Plaza, Storyville, and The Jazz Workshop. Ms. Arnett's Quartet includes pianist Al Vega who has appeared with such nationally known jazz musicians as Charlie Parker, Erroll Garner, and Art Tatum.

Comhaltas Ceoltoiri Eirann, The Traditional Music Association of Ireland, will perform some of the wonderful music, song, and dance of Ireland. Comhaltas Ceoltoiri Eirann is a worldwide organization founded to preserve and teach Irish music, and the performers have appeared throughout the Boston area.

The entire concert will take place on Friday, June 22 from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. Admission at the concert is free, as is transportation from many points in Charlestown. A double decker bus will make two trips through Charlestown beginning at 6:00 p.m. Pick-up points include St. Mary's Church, Warren Street; Thompson Square; Main and Sullivan Streets; Main and Eden Streets; Main and Bunker Hill Streets; St. Francis Church; Collier's Market; Carr Funeral Home on Bunker Hill Street; and St. Catherine's Church at Hayes Square.

Sponsors include: First Night, Inc.; Charlestown Community Development Corporation; Charlestown Boys and Girls Club; John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company; Frances R. Dewing Foundation; Massachusetts Council for the Arts and Humanities; and the Arts Lottery.

The concert offers a unique opportunity to enjoy the Charlestown Navy Yard and a pleasurable evening of music.

In case of rain, the concert will be the following evening, Saturday, June 23, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

No Public Drinking

On Sunday, June 17, 1984, the Annual Bunker Hill Day Parade will be held, a celebration enjoyed by young and old alike.

On this day, the Police Officers of this district have been requested to strictly enforce the NO DRINKING ORDINANCE.

There will be NO DRINKING ALLOWED ON THE PUBLIC STREETS OF CHARLESTOWN. Those drinking in public will first be warned, and if they persist, they will be arrested under the provisions of the City of Boston Ordinance Number 14 which reads as follows: "No person shall in any public way or public alley, whether in or upon a vehicle or on foot, drink any alcoholic beverage."

This City Ordinance will be strictly enforced on the 17th of June the day of the Bunker Hill Day Parade so that the community may have a pleasant day, a successful parade, and a celebration not marred by any unpleasant incidents.

Cars Will Be Towed

Residents of Charlestown, their guests, visitors and businessmen are warned that they must remove their cars from the parade route and assembly area by 11:30 a.m. on Sunday, June 17, 1984 so that the parade may proceed in an orderly fashion without obstructions. Any cars left on the streets at noon will be towed by the Boston Police Department.

Streets that will have the NO PARKING PROVISION from 11:30 a.m. until the conclusion of the Parade are: Bunker Hill Street from Chelsea Street to Sullivan Square; Main Street from the intersection of Main, Bunker Hill, and Medford Streets to Union; Union Street to Washington; Washington Street to Harvard; Harvard Street from Washington to Main Streets; Pleasant Street from Main to Warren; Warren Street from Pleasant to Monument Avenue; Monument Avenue from Warren to Monument Square; Monument Square from Monument Avenue to Pleasant; High Street from Pleasant to Green; Green Street from High to Bartlett; Bartlett Street from Green to Concord; Monument Square from Concord to Lexington to Winthrop; Winthrop Street from Monument Square to Common; Common Street from Winthrop to Park Street.

Also the streets where the parade is assembling will have a ban on parking from 11:30 a.m. until the Parade leaves the area sometime after 1:30 p.m. Those streets are: Lowney Way; Chelsea Street from Gate 4 to Medford Street; Decatur Street; Vine Street; Tufts Street; Ferrin Street from Lowney Way to the Kent School.

Bunker Hill Day Parade

(continued from page 1) on Bunker Hill Street in Charlestown, just down the hill from St. Francis de Sales Church and school where he spent his childhood years. After high school at Boston English and studies at Northeastern University, Bill spent the next four years in the U. S. Air Force. He joined the Metropolitan Police in 1971 and took to the air and the airwaves four years later. As the WHDH Skyway Patrol reporter, Connell is the area's most visible example of modern law enforcement. He was awarded the Metropolitan Police Lifesaving Medal on several occasions for swooping down on drowning persons and boaters in urgent distress, plucking them from certain death or injury when all else had failed. He is a dedicated police professional who has earned his place on the roster of the Boston area's most admired citizens.

Connell serves on the Board of Directors of The Jimmy Fund, United Cerebral Palsy Association and Kiwanis Pediatric Trauma Institute. He is active in the Somerville Kiwanis and the Irish American Association in Malden.

Needless to say, wife Barbara and children Bill, Lisa, Michael and Stephen love William Daniel Connell, but so does Boston, and especially his home town of Charlestown where a proud and grateful community will cheer for him as he leads the 1984 Bunker Hill Day Parade.

The parade will step off promptly at 1:30 p.m. to the stirring music of the Emerald Society Irish Bagpipe Band of the New York City Police Department.

Assisting Chief Marshal Connell in organizing the parade are Chief of Staff Edward Kelly and Parade Chairman/Adjutant James W. Conway.

Chief Marshal Connell expresses his thanks to the Bunker Hill Day Parade Committee and to all who have worked so hard in the organization of the parade and on the fund raising committee, for without them there would not be a Bunker Hill Day parade this year. Through their efforts and with the generosity of some of the businesses, individuals, clubs, organizations, elected officials, and candidates for public office, the committee has been able to raise the necessary funds to put a successful parade on the streets of Charlestown. With the drastic cutback in funds for the parade from the City of Boston, the town has once again rallied together in support of the celebration so that approximately 30 musical/marching units will be in the line of march on Sunday.

"This Bunker Hill Day celebration, commemorating the 209th Anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill, promises to be a great day," stated Chief Marshal Connell, "one of which the Town can be proud. So many contributed to the success of this day, whether it be from taking a raffle ticket, to dropping coins in a canister, to the many generous donations... each one was significant and each donation was received with thanks".

"Let us all the residents of Charlestown make the Bunker Hill Day Parade and Celebration a happy one by putting out the 'welcome mat' for all our guests and visitors. Remember that the bands, drum corps, militia, military, veteran and other marchers are here to help us celebrate Bunker Hill Day. They are our guests.

"It is the donations from the residents of (Charlestown 'Townies', former 'Townies', and some of the Charlestown merchants that have made this parade possible and it is up to each and every resident to consider themselves a 'proud Townie' and do all in their power to make this a grand celebration. With the cooperation of all, this can truly be a memorable day. Let's all make sure that none of the 'wise guys' mar the day, for too many people have worked too hard to make this a top notch parade, one that we can all be proud of," concluded (continued on page 11)

Governor Signs

Bunker Hill Day Proclamation

GOVERNOR SIGNS PROCLAMATION: Governor Michael S. Dukakis recently signed a Proclamation recognizing the sacrifices of the colonists in their struggle against the mighty forces of the British government as Charlestown commemorates the 209th Anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill. Shown (l. to r.) Mrs. Margie Kent, member of the Bunker Hill

Mayor Flynn To Be Monument Orator

Bunker Hill Day Commemorative Exercises To Be Held June 17th

The Bunker Hill Day Commemorative Exercise, sponsored by Bunker Hill Post 26, The American Legion under the auspices of the City of Boston, will be held on Sunday morning, June 17, 1984.

The program, according to Standing Committee Chairman James W. Conway, Past Commander of Post 26, will begin with an Ecumenical Service at St. Francis de Sales Church, 313 Bunker Hill Street at 9:15 a.m.

Following the service, the veteran, military, militia, and patriotic organizations will assemble outside the church and form a procession to march to the Bunker Hill Monument Grounds for the Patriotic Exercises, commencing at approximately 9:45 a.m.

The Monument Orator on this, the 209th Anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill, is the Mayor of Boston, the Honorable Raymond L. Flynn.

Raymond L. Flynn was elected the 46th mayor of Boston on November 15, 1983.

Since taking office, Mayor Flynn has been selected vice chairman of the 1984 Democratic National Platform Committee and has been elected co-chairman of the Committee on Community Development, Housing, and Economic Development of the U.S. Conference of Mayors.

Mayor Flynn's career in public service spans terms in the Massachusetts House of Representatives and the Boston City Council. His career has been marked by a consistent commitment to the issues of economic justice that are fundamental to the constituencies he has served.

Mayor Flynn served four terms in the state legislature, from 1971-1978. He was chairman of the Boston Harbor Pollution Committee and served on the committees on Public Service, Federal Financial Assistance, and Post Audit and Oversight.

In 1978, Mayor Flynn won election to the first of three terms on the Boston City Council.

He received a masters degree in education from Harvard University in 1981.

Mayor Flynn received his start in politics through the late Speaker of the U.S. House John W. McCormack, a fellow native of South Boston who was a friend of the Flynn family. Mayor Flynn worked as a volunteer for the Speaker, and in 1968 the late Senior Hubert H. Humphrey selected him as a personal assistant in his presidential

After being graduated from Providence College and after a stint in the U. S. Army, he worked as a probation officer for the Suffolk Superior Court from 1965 to 1970. His work in investigating and supervising criminal cases gave him daily contact with ex-offenders, most of them economically disadvantaged, from across the city. His work led to his selection as a special assistant on drug abuse to the state Attorney General

For the past seven years, he has conducted the Ray Flynn Basketball Tourney, which functions as a showcase for the talented but often overlooked students in the city's high schools. He is one of the founders of the Boston Neighborhood Basketball League. Also, he is active with the Boys and Girls Club of Boston and is a director of the South Boston Neighborhood House.

The mayor's involvement with youth sports activities has evolved from his personal achievements as an All-American basketball player at Providence and as one of South Boston High School's most distinguished athletes.

He won the Most Valuable Player Award in the 1964 National Invitational Tournament and is a member of the Providence College and South Boston High School halls of fame. He was third round draft pick of the NBA Philadelphia 76ers in 1964.

Raymond L. Flynn was born in South Boston on July 22, 1939. He is the son of the late Stephen Flynn, an active member of the International Longshoremen's Association, and Lillian (Kirby) Flynn. He has three brothers, Stephen, Albert, and Dennis.

He is married to the former Catherine Coyne, also a South Boston native, and the couple has six children; Raymond Jr., 17; Julie, 15; Edward, 14; Nancy, 10; Catherine, 9; and Maureen, 7.

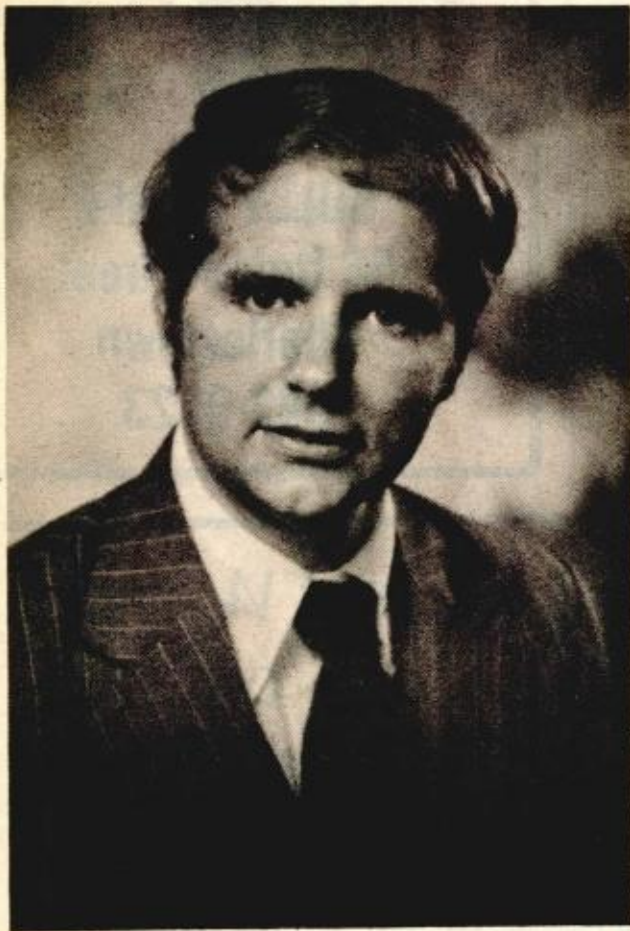

Chairman of the Bunker Hill Day Commemorative Exercises, James W. Conway and the committee, extend a warm welcome to all residents, community organizations, patriotic organizations from within and outside the community, to join with them on the morning of the 17th of June - the 209th Anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill, at both the Ecumenical Services at St. Francis de Sales Church at 9:15 a.m. and at the Patriotic Exercises at the Monument at 9:45 a.m. With the cooperation and attendance of all, these commemorative exercises will be truly a fitting tribute to our fallen heroes of Bunker Hill.

RICHARD A. VOKE

Bunker Hill — The Battle Continues

by Marianne Martin

For many visiting Charlestown in hope of being touched with the revolutionary spirit, a trip to the Bunker Hill Monument can be confusing.

First of all, the site of the Battle of Bunker Hill and the monument memorializing the event are not on Bunker Hill. Rather Breed's Hill is the actual location. However, since the battle was planned for Bunker Hill not Breed's Hill, the name Bunker Hill was given to the battle. Follow so far?

The second element of confusion is the conflict on the correct version of the Bunker Hill Flag.

The flag, which sometimes referred to as "The Green Tree Flag", has been the subject of debate for years. Sometimes flag is a red ensign with a white canton, or a blue ensign with a white canton. Other times, the a Cross of St. George is located in the white canton. And always there is a pine tree in the canton; if there is the Cross of St. George, the tree is in the first quarter; if not, the pine tree is large in the center of the canton.

With all the versions of the Bunker Hill flag available, it is no wonder that visitors are confused.

The differences in design are not simply a matter of personal preference among historians and local residents. Each version is justified in history.

An important fact to note before a discussion of the real Bunker Hill Flag, is that the early Americans loved to redesign flags. And until the American flag that we know today was flown, there was no one flag which unified the colonies.

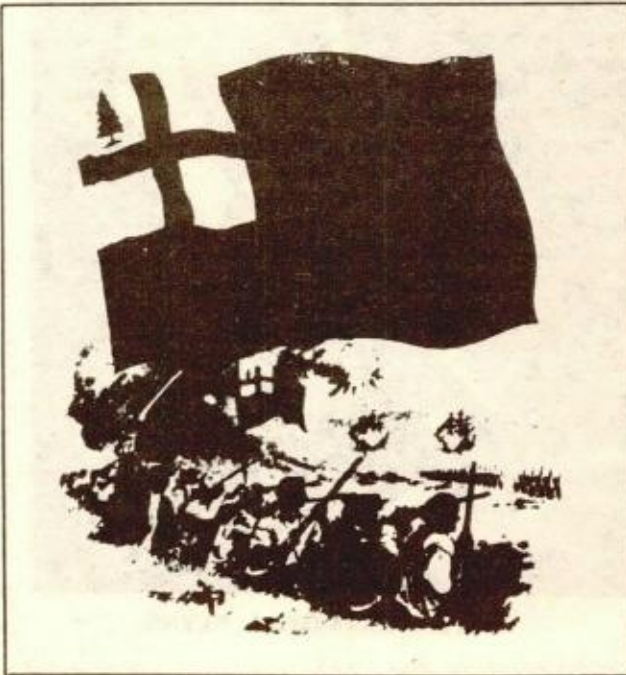

When the Puritans arrived in Massachusetts, with them came the British flag. The colonies at this point were still governed by the Mother Country.

In 1634, the governor of Massachusetts, John Edicott, ordered the Cross of St. George to be removed from the flag. (The Cross of St. George in England represents knighthood and soldiers.) Hence, the Edicott flag was born. This flag was a red ensign with a white canton. From this flag, a long line of local flags were born.

In 1686, England sent Sir Edmund Andros to Massachusetts to act as governor with the purpose of asserting royal authority on the colonies, and the English cross was restored to the flag.

This was the same year that New Englanders introduced a distinctive local symbol to the flag: the pine tree.

The pine tree represented the forests of New England and the source of livelihood.

The question of the proper color is still not answered. Up until this point, it would seem that the color of the ensign is red.

However, this may not be true. Depending on the historical book one reads, the color could easily have been either be red or blue.

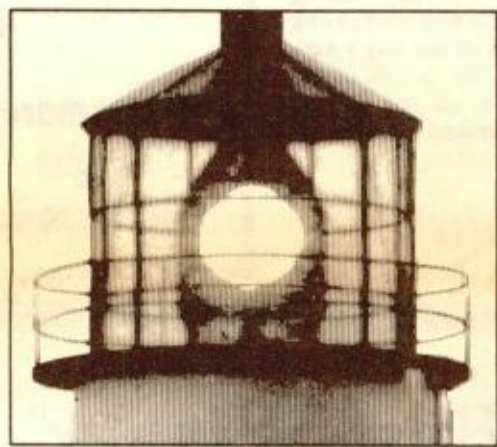

One book states, very diplomatically, that there were two flags at the Battle of Bunker Hill. One of these flags was simply an old British flag with a blue ensign, white canton and the added pine tree in the first quarter. Hence, the blue "Bunker Hill Flag." The other flag which is pictured in John Trumbull's famous painting, "The Battle of Bunker Hill" (more commonly referred to as "The Death of Warren"), is a red flag with a white canton with a large pine tree. This flag is known as the "Continental Flag".

Another book states that the Bunker Hill Flag cannot be blue since the line of American flags stem from the adaptation of the British flags and blue has never been a British color.

Yet another book states that sources that show a blue field for the Bunker Hill Flag all copied heavily from one single source which pictured a blue field, but described directly underneath the painting as being red.

But all historians seem to agree that such pictures should not be trusted as historical fact.

So, what is the tourist to do? The only really safe assumption to make is that there was a flag at the Battle of Bunker Hill. And that this flag, regardless of color, symbolizes the spirit of freedom which inspired those brave patriots to fight for a liberty we are proudly enjoy - freedom.

Puppet Show To Follow Doll Carriage Parade Charlestown Concert

by Andrea Garr

At 11:00 a.m. on Bunker Hill Day, Sunday, June 17th, the Charlestown Association of Parents (CAPS) will be presenting a puppet show on the Training Field, following the Doll Carriage Parade. All children are invited to bring their parents and come watch Clair DiMeo from Melrose, a puppeteer who has performed extensively throughout the greater Boston area.

CAPS was formed to provide arts and entertainment programs for all children in the community, as well as offer educational presentations for parents. In its first year of existence, some of the successful activities which have been sponsored and/or developed by CAPS include the Halloween Party at the Charlestown Working Theater; swimming for tots at the Boys and Girls Club; expressions and movement classes for toddlers at the Charlestown Working Theater; the Bunker Hill Monument Family picnic; and various speakers for parents.

New programs being planned for next year include: a Sunday performing arts series for children and a children's toy and clothing exchange.

In the long tradition of Bunker Hill Day activities, we hope there will be many entrants and spectators at the Doll Carriage Parade. Be sure to join us for the puppet show and balloons to follow. In the event of rain, the puppet show will be held at St. Mary's Parish Hall, Winthrop Street. CAPS welcomes new members. For further information call Patricia Johnston at 241-7716 or Andrea Garr at 242-3356.

Free Observatory Night On June 21

The Harvard-Smithsonian Center for Astrophysics invites all to attend a free program in popular astronomy on Thursday, June 21, featuring a non-technical lecture, film and telescopic observing, weather permitting.

The program begins at 9:00 p.m. with lecture, "In the Beginning: The Formation of the Earth," by Dr.

Myron Lecar, an astrophysicist at the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory. Following his presentation an astronomy film will be shown, and the public will be invited to use the telescopes on the observatory roof, if the weather permits.

Admission to the program is free and no tickets or reservations are required. Seating is limited and will be filled on a first-come basis. (Doors open at 7:30 p.m.) All age groups are welcome to attend, however, the lecture is intended for adult and high-school-age audiences.

The lecture is held in the Phillips Auditorium of the Center for Astrophysics, 60 Garden Street, Cambridge. (The Center is located about one mile west of Harvard Square.)

Bunker Hill Day Road Race

Running shoes ready? Muscles limber? On your mark . . . get set . . . go!!!

The Battle of Bunker Hill Road Race promises to be a race befitting its title, as the novice and the experienced runner will have the opportunity to battle the hills of Charlestown on Sunday morning, June 17th.

This race, the proceeds of which will benefit the Charlestown Clubhouse of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston, has become a Bunker Hill Day tradition.

The two mile novice race will start at 9:00 a.m. Registration for the race is $5.00 and entrants will assemble at the Clubhouse on 15 Green Street at 8:30 a.m.

For the more seasoned runner, a sanctioned 10K race will begin at 10:00 a.m. Runners for the 10K race will gather at the Clubhouse at 9:30 a.m. Registration is $5.00 per runner and teams of five is $25.00. All registrants will receive a T-shirt.

The race will take runners along Rutherford Avenue to the Sullivan Square rotary, over the summit of Bunker Hill to Chelsea Street. It then winds through the neighborhood and proceeds on a challenging uphill run of Monument Avenue, around the Bunker Hill Monument to High Street, down Green Street to the finish line at Austin Street.

Entry forms are available at the Charlestown Clubhouse at 15 Green Street. For information, call Clubhouse Director Tom King at 242-1775.

Volunteers Needed By Science Museum

The Museum of Science needs volunteers for the Live Animal Center, to help clean cages and spruce up the animals' living area. The Great Clean-Up takes place every day from 9 to 5, and anyone over 14 is invited to take part. There's a choice of hours - morning, afternoon, or even all day. And the days you come in are up to you. The Museum asks only that you sign up for a least two days per week.

Right now the Animal Center is home to an unusual assortment of wildlife from a great horned owl, to a porcupine, to an albino ferret and an eight foot boa constrictor. Most of the animals are orphans or abandoned pets and can no longer be returned to the wild.

Anyone interested in this adventurous opportunity should get in touch with the Volunteer Office at the Museum of Science, at 723-2500, extension 259.

Laying Of The Cornerstone Of The Bunker Hill Monument — An Eyewitness Account

According to historical records, the celebration commemorating the Battle of Bunker Hill dates back to 1786, some eleven years after the Battle when a parade was held dedicating a new Charles River Bridge, with the fact that it was held on June 17th being somewhat coincidental.

In 1794, King Solomon's Lodge, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons voted to erect a memorial on Breed's Hill, the site of the Battle. A wooden Tuscan pillar was erected on the very spot where Joseph Warren, Master of the Grand Lodge in Massachusetts, had fallen during the Battle. That year and again in 1801, the Charlestown Artillery commemorated the event with a parade.

In 1823, Daniel Webster, William Tudor and Theodore Lyman Jr. invited persons interested in the construction of a memorial, to attend a meeting. Out of this meeting came a decision to request incorporation from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the act of incorporation passed and on June 17, 1823, the first meeting of the Bunker Hill Monument Association was held.

By the spring of 1825, the Association had purchased the slope of Breed's Hill and had embarked on the necessary preparations to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the Battle. A committee was formed to recommend a suitable plan for a memorial and on June 7, 1825, the directors of the Monument Association decided to adopt the form of an obelisk and Solomon Willard was appointed architect and superintendent of the project.

On 17 June, 1825, the 50th Anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill, the cornerstone of the Monument was laid by the Master of the Grand Lodge in Massachusetts in the presence of the Marquis de Lafayette and a huge assemblage.

The following is an eyewitness account of the laying of the cornerstone from a letter in the Bunker Hill Monument Association Archives written on June 26th, 1825 by Benjamin F. Fields, who was 19 years of age at the time that he penned this account of the celebration.

Boston, June 26th, 1825

Dear Coz.

Having undertaken to write and not knowing what to write, I shall therefore give you a small history of the principal events that have occurred since your departure which will prove as acceptable as anything else.

Without further consideration, I'll commence.

General Election took place soon after you quit Boston, which passed as usual. Elisha turned out and spent all his money before breakfast; then came Artillery Election and the new Governor came out in all his Glory: a little thin-shingle backed looking chap as ever I beheld all rigged out in uniform. He has two aids-de-camp which look no better than himself, one of which wears spectacles. The Lieut. Gov., by the way, is a fine looking fellow tho he makes no show in the parade. The day was fine, etc. etc.

The next curious thing that happened was Elisha and Franklin went down to the wharf, got upon a timber in the mast yard which rolled over and pitched them both into the dock up to their middles in water and mud. Franklin lost a shoe and they both came home in a pretty predicament - this was done before breakfast, too.

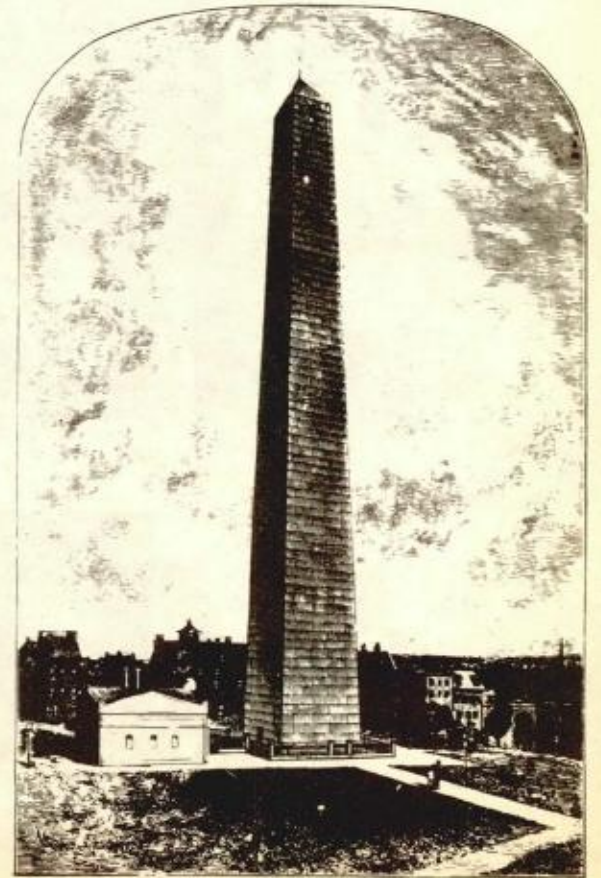

Nothing more of consequence till the ever memorable 17th June, the particulars of which I shall give at some length. The day was fine beyond description, a single wish could not have exceeded further than the day proved to be.

Early in the morning the troops from Salem and other towns with the Boston companies had formed on the Common (none but uniformed companies). The procession was to start at 10 o'clock - it started a few minutes before 11 in the following order. The Soldiers first, nearly three thousand, with a troop of light horses at their head, about a hundred drummers with fifers immediately behind which was the Boston Band which played at intervals, then 20 superb Barouches, each drawn by two horses with the surviving heroes of the Great Battle - then followed old revolutionary Soldiers on foot, six deep with badges. Then the (Bunker Hill Monument) Association with badges on the left breast, then the Freemasons and a more splendid appearance than they made I never saw, particularly the Knight Templars who were all dressed in black with caps and tall black plumes - They were all trimmed with skull bones and dry bones in silver and they made a most Ghostly appearance tho elegant. The Grand Master Masons made a fine show all rigged out in crimson, each with golden tools in miniature hanging from his neck. Then came a Mason trimmed with gold with a golden vase in his hands filled with corn with one of each side with a silver vase - one with oil and the other with wine.

Then came the principal Architect with square, level and plumb with a Mason on each side with a globe. Then two grand chaplains between which was a deacon with a huge Bible in his arms open. Then came two grand deacons each with a tremendous golden candlestick and a burning candle, by the way the candle was unlighted but a piece of wood made to represent fire stuck in it's place. In all there were about five thousand Masons which were from the six New England States. Then came the President of the Association, Directors etc. etc. Then came General Lafayette in a most superb Barouche drawn by four beautiful white horses, accompanied by General Ballemant, followed by a beautiful carriage with General Lafayette's son and suit and then came the Cincinnati of Massachusetts - His Excellency Gov. Lincoln, aids, Lieut. Gov. Morton - Senators - Representatives etc. etc. Officers of the U. States in uniform. Naval Officers. Governors of the other states, societies etc. etc., too numerous to mention.

Suffice it to say the procession exceeded one mile and a half long, six deep, consisting of nearly Forty thousand men. Streets crowded, nothing but heads to be seen - every window was crowded with women and children. The day before there was not a lodging to be had of any sort. People were seen flocking to the city from all parts. The stages were crowded inside and on top. You can find how eager people were to get into Boston by the following laughable chaise load. A chaise came over the Cragies Bridge with three huge fat women bundled inside and two equally stout men mounted on behind and one man on the horse - six for a chaise and horse is pretty decent. Boston and Charlestown was completely crowded.

The procession moved as before stated amid the cheers of thousands of spectators to Bunker Hill which was surrounded by Sentinels. No one was allowed to go on top of the Hill it being reserved for the procession. Around the Hill huge Galleries were erected for the accomodation of the public, admittance one dollar each.

The procession arrived, the corner stone of the monument laid. At the back of the hill was a Grand Place made for the services of the day - seats to accomodate upwards of forty thousand men were laid out and a large platform with awning elegantly ornamented with evergreens, and roses for the ladies. Capable of holding about five thousand which I need not say were crowded.

After the procession had seated themselves the crowd broke through the sentinels and filled all parts. Services commenced by a prayer. Rev. Joseph Thaxter who preached to the Army the day the battle was fought, he being then chaplain to the Army. Then Old Hundred was sung - never was a Psalm sung be so many voices as was this. Boston Band played and most everyone on the Hill sang, among which my voice was not the least. After singing Mr. Daniel Webster delivered an oration after which Mr. Walker made a prayer, another psalm and done.

After the services a procession was formed by seventy five hundred people and marched to a long tent with tables set, plates complete for four thousand five hundred men. The troops then marched home. Lafayette and son, the Gov. etc. were at the dinner. It took the sails of fifty ships to cover the tent, ten barrels clear lemon juice for punch, - 100 pigs roasted and not more than half the people could get any. After the dinner was done, which was about 7 or 8 in the evening, those that could walk went home and those that could not spent the night on the grass which was no inconsiderable portion. Thus passed the ever Memorable 17th of June. It was calculated that the President of the U. States would be present and a place in the Procession provided for him, but we were disappointed. You will probably like to see a plan of the Monument. I'll annex a little sketch.

A little more and I'll quit. Last Saturday, Mr. Minns made his appearance from New York, married Frances Parker and decamped with all possible dispatch the same evening. On last Friday, Elisha got into another pickle on the wharf while crossing from one raft to another on a narrow strip of board, he lost his balance and in he went 3 times over his head. There happened to be one boy there and when Elisha's head poked from under the water he seized him and drew him forth not hurt but well soused. This is what I call a hair breadth escape. The same afternoon he knocked Maria in the head with the axe but did not kill her which I think is also a hair breadth escape. Just had news that Rebecca Faxon Dodd is safely delivered of a daughter. We are all well as usual.

I shall expect an answer to this letter the first opportunity. No opportunity for a private conveyance of this letter so send it by mail. Frances Parker was married Saturday before last instead of last Saturday as stated above. Silas does not intend going to Northfield this summer etc., etc. All folks send love as I do.

P.S. I forgot to say that we had no wedding cake tho our huge shares were plentifully supplied. You need not worry any about Elisha as he has been strictly forbidden the wharf since the last disaster. Mrs. Dodd's daughter was born at 11 o'clock this morning - no name thought of.

Yours, B.F.F.

Note Benjamin F. Field b. 1806 on the summit of Copps Hill up from the harbor and in the vicinity of the Old North Church and Bunker Hill. He would have been age 19 at this writing. His uncle Elisha died in Java in 1817, the same year that his son, Elisha was born.

On 17 June, 1843, 68 years after the decisive and awesome day in the history of Charlestown, the Battle of Bunker Hill, in the presence of approximately one hundred veterans of the American Revolution, eleven of whom had been in the battle on the hill on that day in 1775, the Bunker Hill Monument was dedicated.

St. Francis de Sales

To Celebrate 125th Jubilee

On September 11, 1859, the Third Bishop of Boston, the Most Reverend John J. Fitzpatrick, established the Parish of Saint Francis de Sales in Charlestown and a site at the very top of Bunker Hill was chosen for the location of the Parish Church.

On September 30, 1984 at the 11:30 a.m. Mass, there will be a Special Jubilee Mass celebrated for the 125th Anniversary. After this Mass, there will be a special homecoming gathering which will take place in Bishop Lawton Hall, below St. Francis de Sales Church.

Another program commemorating this Jubilee 125 will be a Jubilee History Book, which will truly be a memento to cherish in the years to come.

There will also be a Jubilee Banquet on October 12th at Caruso's Diplomat in Saugus. Music will be provided by Dick McManus and the Irish Revolution. There will also be a Prime Rib Dinner served. The Banquet Committee has promised this event will truly be an event of the decade. Tickets are priced at $20.00 per person or you can reserve a table for ten people at $200. There will be a cocktail hour from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. and dancing into the early hours. Buses will be available for this great event for transportation to and from Charlestown. For tickets, contact Sue McKeon at 241-9066 or Barbara Swales at 242-2557.

The ten committees of the Jubilee 125th Anniversary have worked very hard to make this celebration a huge success. Let's get behind them and give them your support!

For future details, write to St. Francis de Sales Rectory, 303 Bunker Hill Street, Charlestown, MA 02129.

Three Naval Academy Yard Patrol Craft To Visit Charlestown

Three United States Naval Academy (USNA) yard patrol crafts and the Navy minesweeper USS Affray (MSO-511) will arrive in the Charlestown National Historical Park June 16. The vessels will depart June 19.

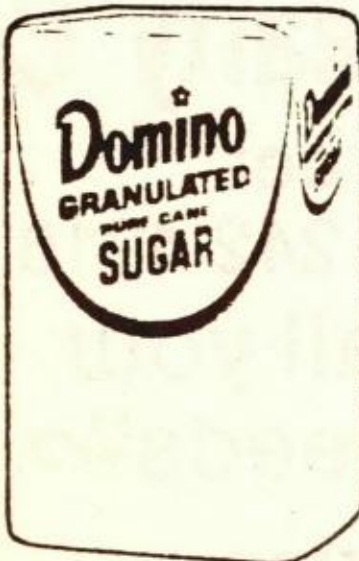

One yard patrol craft will be open for general public visiting from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Sunday, June 17.

The three training vessels will have approximately 50 USNA midshipmen, eight officers and 12 enlisted men embarked, while the Affray will carry approximately five officers and 60 enlisted men.

The midshipmen and patrol craft are stopping in Boston during the Naval Academy's annual summer afloat training program, which familiarizes midshipmen with their duties and responsibilities as future commissioned officers in the United States Navy and Marine Corps.

During their stay in Boston, the midshipmen will be participating in sporting events with local teams and other social activities.

Reminiscence Of The 17th Of June Passed

by France Dancoe

It is the end of April and it has started again as predictable as the new buds on the trees. "Are you going to have the family for the 17th of June"? You have promised yourself there must be a halt. It is getting too much for you. This year you will spend the day quietly watching the parade without interruptions.

Then it happens-just as predictable-the memories of the 17th past. The clinging memories, impossible to erase that bridge sadness and glee. They teeter on the delicate expanse and waver from one side to the other. What emerges are the smiling faces.

The tradition of the gathering of this clan started at least 25 years ago. My brother, Tom, who has since passed away, said to me at Christmas time, "Fran, you know what would mean alot to me-to go back to Charlestown for the 17th to be together with all the family, close friends, and to see the parade". Needless to say, I could not refuse such a request. After the first year and for the ensuing years, Tom made sure he advised his employer on the 2nd of January that he would be in Charlestown for Bunker Hill Day.

Preparing the house was a month's work. All windows were washed, curtains changed, and at least one room had to have a new coat of paint and paper. My husband and I had so many chores that had to be completed for the day, it tires me now to think of it. Funny, somehow I fortunately remember the pleasure of the day more than the labor. Through the years the menu was added to, but the main course was ham and potato salad. It hasn't changed much. To change that menu would be like taking the turkey out of Thanksgiving. The standard joke was when I began to peel the potatoes for the over-flowing salad. It was always good for a laugh. After the 1st of June, any telephone conversation might begin with, "Have you started peeling the potatoes?"

The clan gathered and the PATRIOTS checked out for the rundown of the day's events. The spidery memories of our years as children were recalled. The Big Park with its winding roads and the Devil's Den, the Little Park leading to Dewey Beach where our summer days were filled, the Neck with its carnivals and all the parades. Living on St. Martin Street, we had the advantage of the two parks and the beach. They were happy days filled with song, laughter and conversation. We had all types among our family and friends, from ultra liberal to staunch conservatives. I don't believe anyone changed another's thinking, but I like to think we gave each other food for thought. Maybe not, but each year we certainly enjoyed the banter.

At the first pounding of the stakes roping off the parade route, the excitement increased. Then came the organ grinder complete with monkey outside the window, the hawkers peddling their wares, the doll carriage parade, the crowds gathering and the joy of greeting friends you had not seen in years. I have always been aware of the eerie feeling of treading on the ground of our country's beginnings, but it is more apparent to me on the 17th of June. I think of the bravery of the participants in the battle, the price paid for our democracy and the important part our small town played in the resulting independence.

Today's deeds are tomorrow's memories and we must always try to share the laughter so that the tradition will be repeated with some new members of the family to help compensate for the loss of the old. The elaborate plans will be lessened as time takes its toll on my energies - but the spirit is willing.

The years have passed much too quickly, but I know with each step of a marcher I will feel the presence of the dear ones no longer with us as though they were among us. I hope I will always remember the laughter-that precious commodity-the laughter-to quell the tears.

Named Publicity Chairman

Thomas L. Gallagher of Charlestown has been named the Publicity Chairman for the 63rd Annual State Convention of the Massachusetts Department of the Disabled American Veterans, which will be held June 28, 29 and 30 at the Copley Plaza Hotel in Boston.

State Commander Vernon Cardosi of Saugus has appointed the following convention officers: Stanley R. Greeley of South Boston, Convention Chairman; Joseph R. Harold of Quincy, Convention Secretary;

Louis N. Stamas of Rockport, Resolutions Committee Chairman; Frank B. Shumski of Norwood, Chairman of Registration; and Judge David B. Williams of Concord, Banquet

Chairman.

The National Commander of the DAV, Dennis A. Joyner of Appollo, Pennsylvania, a triple-amputee Vietnam veteran, will be the Keynote Speaker. Registrar of Motor Vehicles Alan Mackey and the National Commander of the DAV Auxiliary, Florence E. Daley of Dorchester, will also be guests.

To Host Cable Coverage Of Bunker Hill Day Parade

A husband-wife team, well known in communications circles, will be television hosts for the Bunker Hill Parade on June 17.

Bruce and Norita Lee of Mystic Street, will be first time TV commentators in a colorful retrospect of the parade which will be cablecast for home viewers over Channel A3 on Monday night, June 18, beginning at 6:00 p.m. The cablecast is provided as a community service by Boston Community Access And Programming Foundation which operates Channel A3 as BNN-TV, Boston's Neighborhood Network.

Bruce is long time news anchor for WEEI and Norita owns a public relations/communications firm.

The Lees will provide detailed descriptions of the parade, narrate little known historic facts about Charlestown and will interview local personalities who will have their own stories to tell.

Local persons who will be interviewed are: Herman O. Sudholz, USN, commanding officer of Old Ironsides; Robert L. Gillen, USN retired, past commander of the USS Constitution; Bill Connell, chief marshal of the parade, known as Officer Bill of the WHDH Skyway Patrol; Jim Conway, parade chairman; Loren Owens and Wally Brine, WVBF morning team; Tom King, director of the Charlestown Boys and Girls Club; State Representative Richard Voke and State Senator Francis Doris. Mayor Ray Flynn will also appear.

The Lees have lived in their mid-1800's row house on Mystic Street for eight of their 14 years of marriage.

Norita, who was born in Charlestown, is on the boards of the Charlestown Boys and Girls Club, the National Kidney Foundation and the National Language and Cognitive Center, a school for autistic children. She is also active in the Publicity Club of Boston and a member of the Public Relations Society of America and the New England Broadcasting Association.

Bruce, originally from Kansas City, Missouri, had been in broadcasting for 28 years with 10 years of experience in Chicago and 15 years in Boston. He is chairman of the board of Alcoholism Referral, a non profit corporation which directs people to alcoholic services.

Children's Films

The Film Program for Children will be held at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main Street on Tuesday, June 19, 1984 at 10:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

This week there will be two Walt Disney features, "How to Play Baseball" and "El Gaucho Goofy". "How to Play Baseball" teaches the ins and outs of this summer sport by the baseball pro himself, Goofy. "El Gaucho Goofy" is the story of Goofy's trial life as a cowboy in South America.

Suggested reading in conjunction with this program includes The Easy Baseball Book by Jonah Kalb and Cowboy on Ice by R.H. Maxwell.

Kent/Charlestown Community School Hosts Appreciation Night

An Appreciation Party was held recently at St. Catherine's School Hall, sponsored by the Kent/Charlestown Community Council. Plaques were presented by the Council to various individuals citing service to the community. Accompanying each of the plaques was a citation from the Boston School Committee signed by members and staff honored at this award's night.

School Committee member John A. Nucci. Boston City Councillor Robert Travaglini also had citations for Council

A special honor was bestowed upon Mary Parker, for her many years of service to the Council, to the programs of the Community Schools, and her tireless work on behalf of the Charlestown community. She was presented a plaque and citation, along with a bouquet of flowers and a standing ovation from those in attendance.

Third row (l. to r.) TABLES ARE TURNED as Anne Martin, on behalf of the Kent/Charlestown Community School Staff, presents an appreciation award to Director Mike Griffin; SWIM COACH appreciation awards went to Jim "Dinga" Houlihan, Bob McGann and Ann Connolly.

Fourth row (l. to r.) MARK THOMAS received a Swim Coach Appreciation award; APPRECIATION PLAQUE is presented by McGann to Council member Mary MacInnes; CHARLESTOWN HIGH SCHOOL Headmaster Robert Murphy is awarded a plaque by McGann; CAUGHT WITHOUT A TIE?...Never! The staff of the Kent/Charlestown Community School has made sure that Director Mike Griffin will never be improperly dressed for an intown Directors' Meeting.

Fifth row (l. to r.) THE JACKSON'S, Paula and Tom, receive an appreciation award from McGann; A PLAQUE was presented by Mark Urquhart to Noreen Wong, who in turn presented Urquhart with a special citation for the work he has done on the Citywide Board of the Community Schools; SCHOOL COMMITTEEMAN John Nucci and Judy Evers.

Graduates From St. Paul's

One hundred twenty-one St. Paul's School students received diplomas and awards from the Rev. Charles H. Clark, Rector, at the School's 128th Graduation Exercises held on Sunday June 3rd.

Major School prizes were presented at the exercises attended by over one thousand parents, friends, and students.

James M. Galvin, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Galvin, Jr. of Monument Square, Charlestown, received his diploma at these exercises.

White Honored By VNA

Reed White of Soley Street, Charlestown, was honored for five years of service to the Boston Visiting Nurse Association (VNA) at a recent ceremony at the Park Plaza Hotel, Park Place.

White is a homemaker/home health aide in the VNA's Charlestown office.

She was presented with a gift from the VNA, and her name will be inscribed in a plaque honoring all of the VNA's service award winners.

Founded in 1826, the Boston VNA is Greater Boston's oldest and largest home health care provider.

Gloucester Hornpipe & Clog Society Perform In Charlestown

GLUCESTER HORNPIPE & CLOG SOCIETY

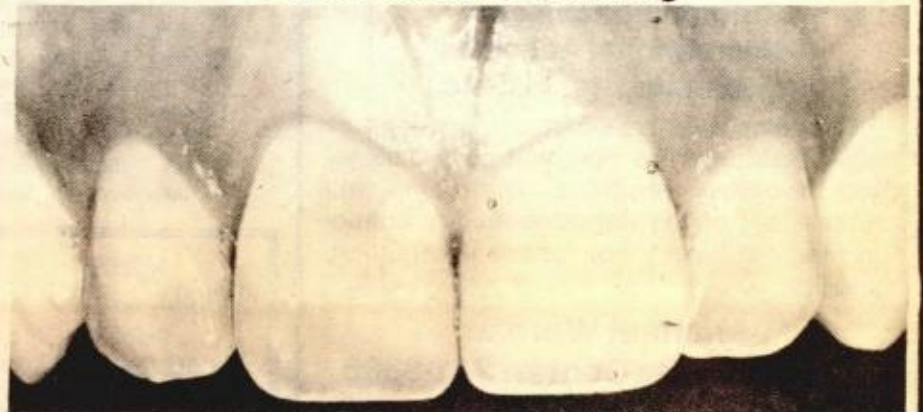

The Gloucester Hornpipe and Clog Society performed Friday, May 18th, for the Community School Appreciation Night. The band featured a selection of traditional folk music from Ireland and the British Isles: jigs, reels, hornpipes, sea chanteys, and ballads.

The group has been performing regularly throughout New England for the past eight years at coffeehouses, festivals, colleges and Concert series. Recently, the band toured Ireland and the American representative at the Letter Kenney International Folk Festival in County Donegal, Ireland. The band's first album was released on Fiddlin' Whale Records four years ago. Members of the group include: John Berger, fiddle, guitar, and banjo; Ralph Tufo, accordian and concertina; Patty Shinehouse, flute and pennywhistle; Tim Murphy, mandolin, bozouki, fiddle; Patty Murphy, hammered dulcimer and guitar; and David Rosen, percussion instruments.

WHICH IS THE DACROWN (day-crown)? A cast ceramic covering

You cannot tell because the new crown is Dacrown, short for Dental Associates Crown. The difference is that the ceramic material is cast and there is no metal under the restoration

ADVANTAGES:

- Stronger than other porcelain crowns.
- Coloring and form closest to natural teeth.
- Fits better.
- No metal at edges.
- Less sensitivity to hot and cold.

DISADVANTAGES: NONE

- The process requires special laboratory procedures
- The crown is made in our own laboratory.
- Prosthodontists (specialists in restorative dentistry) prepare, fit and color these crowns at Dental Associates.

NO CHARGE FOR CONSULTATIONS

MISSING GIRL — ANNA GOTLIB

During the past week, Police Officers and Detectives from Area A, and the entire city, conducted an intense investigation relative to a missing person, the missing girl is described as follows: Name, Anna Gotlib; Missing from Kentucky since June 1, 1983. She is 5'1", 85 pounds with grey eyes, red curly hair, and light colored eyebrows. There were reports that this girl had been spotted in Charlestown. After an intense door to door search, no girl has been found. Officers distributed over 3000 flyers with a photograph and description of the subject. Any persons with any information which may assist Officers in locating this missing person, are requested to contact the Boston Police Area A Detectives, at 247-4248 or 247-4240.

On May 24, 1984 between 3:30 a.m. and 9:30 a.m., persons unknown stole a patio umbrella, four blue patio chairs, and four chair pads from the back yard of a Cross Street Home.

May 27, 1984 at 2:40 a.m., Police Officer Curran responded to the rear of the Edwards School on Walker Street, on a report of a gang drinking. Upon arrival, Officer Curran observed a twenty year old male turn the corner from High Street to Walker Street with a bottle of beer in his hand. Officer Curran told the defendant twice to get rid of the beer. The defendant refused to get rid of the beer and when the Officer attempted to take the beer away, the bottle fell to the ground and broke. The defendant was arrested, transported to Area A, advised of his rights, and booked for Public Drinking.

During the past week, Police Officers recovered several stolen automobiles, at the following locations: Winthrop Street, Temple Street, Sullivan Street, Main Street and Russell Street.

On May 27, 1984 Officers responded to Sullivan Street on a Breaking and Entering report. Upon arrival, the Officers spoke to the victim who stated that between 10:00 p.m. and 11:10 p.m., unknown person(s) broke into the apartment and removed a door alarm.

On May 28, 1984 at 3:15 p.m., a victim came into Area A to report vandalism to an automobile. The victim stated that while his automobile was parked on Eden Street, unknown person(s) slashed all four of the tires.

On May 30, 1984 at 6:15 p.m., a victim stated that while driving his truck in the Bunker Hill area, person(s) unknown threw rocks at his truck, almost causing him to lose control of the vehicle. The victim was not injured, however the vehicle received several dents on the body. This incident is under further investigation by Area A Detectives.

On June 5, 1984 at 1:45 a.m., Police Officers responded to Russell Street on a Breaking and Entering report. Upon arrival, the Officers spoke with the victim who stated that about 1:30 a.m., she heard footsteps and a door slam, after which, she heard a car start up. Looking out of the door, she observed her car being driven away. Further investigation found that entrance was gained by breaking a window in the cellar. Missing from the premises was one T.V. The victim's car was recovered by Police Officers in the parking lot of Tibbetts Town Way. The dashboard was damaged and AM-FM cassette player was removed.

On June 5, 1984 at 1:45 a.m., Officer Schroeder responded to Phipps and Lawrence Streets on a report of Vandalism to a Motor Vehicle. Upon arrival, Officer Schroeder spoke with the victim who stated that person(s) known to him did damage his motor vehicle by deflating the rear left tire and putting scratch marks on the driver and passenger sides. The victim will seek complaints at Charlestown Court on June 6, 1984.

On June 6, 1984 at 10:00 a.m., Officer Olsen responded to Old Ironsides Way on a report of a Larceny from a Motor Vehicle. Upon arrival, Officer Olsen spoke with the victim who stated that between 1:00 a.m. and 8:00 a.m. (same date), person(s) unknown broke into his car on the driver's side and damaged the weather stripping, dashboard, and removed the radio. This incident is to be further investigated by Area Detectives.

On June 7, 1984 at 2:20 a.m., and while on routine patrol on Medford Street, Police Officers found a white male bleeding profusely from the left lower back. The victim refused to identify any of the assailants, nor would he give any information on the incident. The victim was transported to Mass. General Hospital for treatment.

On June 7, 1984 at 1:55 p.m., a victim came into Area A Police Station to report a Larceny to his Motor Vehicle. The victim stated that while his truck was parked on Cambridge Street, unknown person(s) smashed the window to his vehicle and removed a power drill from it. He also stated that he had heard no noise nor did he see anyone near his truck prior to the incident.

On June 7, 1984 at 9:50 p.m., Officers responded to Bunker Hill Liquor store on a report of an Armed Robbery. Upon arrival, the Officers spoke with the clerk who stated that approximately at 9:45 p.m., an unknown male walked into the Liquor Store, pointed a handgun at him and demanded the money in the cash register. Upon receiving the cash, the suspect fled on foot up Bunker Hill Street towards Sullivan Square. To be further investigated by Area A Detectives.

The next Community Service Meeting will be held on Tuesday, July 10, 1984 at 7:00 p.m., at the Kent Community School, 50 Bunker Hill Street.

Report Drug Activity

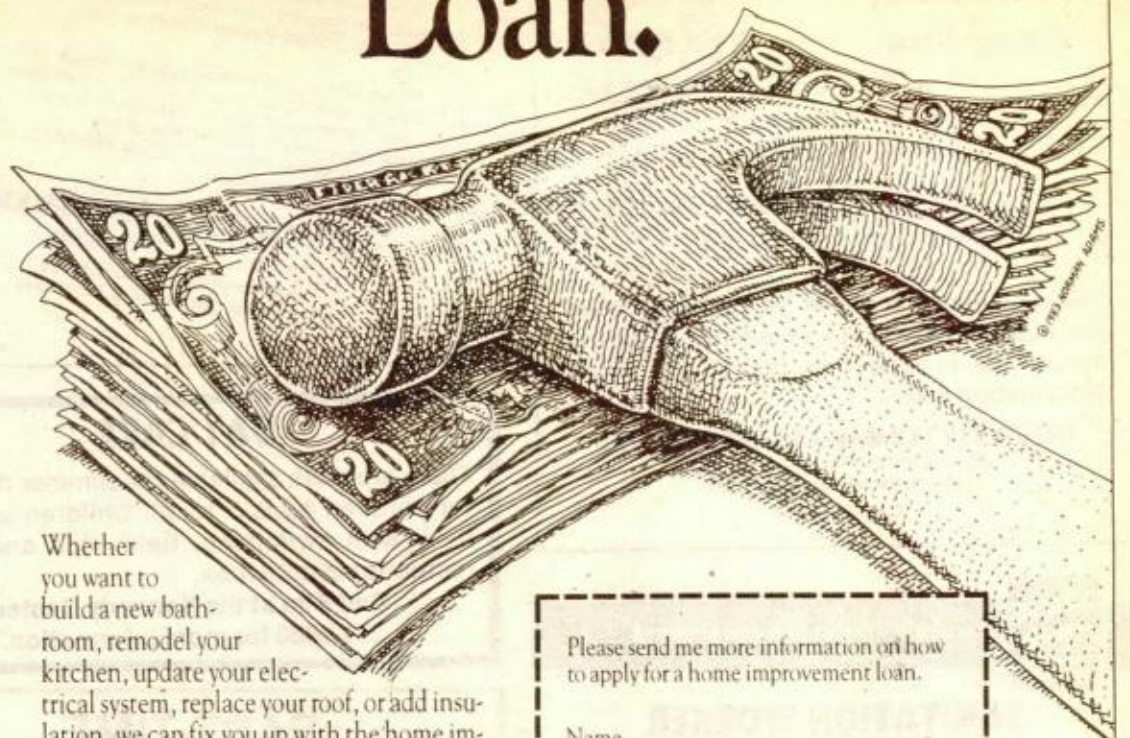

Charlestown residents are being asked to assist the Boston Police Drug Control Unit in cracking down on the sale and distribution of illegal drugs in this community. Information is needed as to the locations of drug activities, the names of persons involved with the distribution of drugs, along with any and all other information on drug trafficking in the community.

Persons with such information, are asked to call the Drug Unit number, 247-4695, between 8:30 a.m. and midnight, seven days a week.

All information will be held in strictest confidence. Callers may remain anonymous. If a caller wishes to leave his/her name, that person's identity will be protected.

The Police need the cooperation of the residents. Report any drug activity to: 247-4695.

We Can Fix You Up With A Home Improvement Loan.

Whether you want to build a new bathroom, remodel your kitchen, update your electrical system, replace your roof, or add insulation, we can fix you up with the home improvement loan to help you get the job done.

Depending on the kind of improvement you're looking for and whether your home is owner occupied, a multi-family dwelling, or a condominium, Bank of New England can help with one of our own home improvement programs or a federally-insured home improvement loan. We can lend qualified homeowners up to $50,000.

So if you're looking for a home improvement loan, call Cora Davis or Dom Sansone at our Consumer Service Department, or visit any of our banking offices in your neighborhood.

Please send me more information on how to apply for a home improvement loan.

It's About Time!

To the Editor,
I wish to applaud "A concerned Townie", on the letter to the Patriot in the June 7th edition, regarding the deplorable conditions in the Chelsea Street area leading to the Constitution and to the Bunker Hill Monument. It is about time someone brought attention to these problems.

I'm sure some people in the town aren't even aware that there is such a problem, because they have no reason to travel in this part of town. If you ride the Bunker Hill bus, you will understand what "Concerned Townie" is writing about.

Most tourists who take the T, take the 93 Bus to Old Ironsides and the Monument. There are no visible markers or signs to let them know where they are. If the bus driver doesn't know the area, the "Townies" riding the bus are always very helpful, giving them directions, telling them where to go after they get off the bus. Also, if they are going to the Monument from Old Ironsides via Chelsea Street, the tourists are completely lost and confused. There isn't one sign directing them to Monument Square.

It is all too true, that the first impression that tourist who come here from all over the world get as they land on Chelsea Street is very embarrassing. Our town, especially in that area is a very shabby setting for the Historic Gems that await the tourists only a few steps away.

Where is our Spirit of Massachusetts, our "Townie" Pride?

This time of year, with the tourist season just beginning, something should be done.

Another Concerned Townie.

Walter Guest Of Boston VNA At "Night At Pops"

Samuel Walter of Washington Street, Charlestown, enjoyed a special night of music at the Boston Pops on May 16th, as a guest of the Visiting Nurse Association of Boston (VNA) and its sister agency, the Visiting Nurse Association of Boston Foundation. Walter was among nineteen patients selected to attend the third annual "VNA Night at Pops." He was chosen by his nurse, Patricia Audie, R.N., who believed that night on the town would be a spark towards rehabilitation. Walter was accompanied at Symphony Hall by VNA nurse, Diane Harness, R.N.

The VNA emphasizes independence and self-help to patients while providing them with necessary health care at home. Part of this emphasis involves getting people out of their homes whenever possible to participate in social activities.

Staff and friends of the VNA also attended the concert. In all, more than 350 people took part in the event held during Visiting Nurse Week, May 13th through 19th.

a long double to drive in the only three runs for the losers. In other League action, the 520 Club knocked the Knights of Columbus from the ranks of the undefeated with a 16-15 win. The victors came up with 10 runs in the sixth inning, thanks to the big bat of Steve Considine, who got two hits and stole two bases. Mike Moloney and Bill Boyle also got a few hits for the winners. The Knights threatened in the last inning, but Paul Allwood came in to pitch and stopped the threat.

Community Center News

The Charlestown Community Center, in conjunction with the Early Childhood Education Staff of the Kennedy Center, is coordinating a Summer Day Camp Program for children from three to five years of age.

The program is set to open on July 16th and run through August 10th and will operate weekdays from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. The only prerequisite is that each child have some form of prior group experience.

Registration will be held at the Community Center.

14 Green Street, June 25th, through July 6th from 9:30 to 11:00 a.m. daily. A staff person will also be available Monday and Friday evenings from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m.

Please plan to sign up early as medical examinations and updates of immunizations are required by law. Space is limited and children will be accepted on a first come-first served basis. The fee is $20 a week per two week session and there will be two-two week sessions.

Donna M. Lane, former director of the Community Center, has officially resigned her position. This was a very difficult decision for Donna and I know in her heart, she has not left her staff and the friends she has made over these many years at the Center.

We wish her luck in her new position and want to thank her for her hard work to keep our doors open. Thank you, Donna.

Please watch for our Summer Program in the Patriot and through our flyers and posters.
