★ Dunstable Street — A suspicious fire, causing an estimated $50,000 in damage, destroyed a home in Mishawum Park on Tuesday, Feb. 18.

The first alarm was struck at 5:24 a.m. at Boston Fire Department Headquarters, resulting in 35 firefighters from seven companies responding to the scene. Engine Companies 32, 50 and 8 and Ladder Companies 9 and 1 were joined by the Rescue 1 truck and the Tower Unit to fight the blaze. Cambridge responded with Ladder 2 to assist the fire-fighting operations.

CANA TUNNELS connecting City Square to Routes 1-93 and 1 were capped off last week with 2,000-cubic-yards of concrete, marking the last large concrete pour on the Central Artery/North Area Project. Contractors Perini/Kiewit/Atkinson are expected to complete the work and open the tunnels to traffic in early 1993.

Charlestown's Historic Graveyards Meeting

In response to concern from various groups in the community, including the Charlestown Neighborhood Council, the Charlestown Historical Society, the Charlestown Preservation Society and Gardens for Charlestown, representatives from the Boston Parks Department and the Charlestown community will make a presentation about the historic graveyards in Charlestown. The meeting, hosted by the Charlestown Preservation Society, will be held on Tuesday, Feb. 25, at 7:30 p.m. at the Bunker Hill Health Center, 73 High St.

Charlestown residents Ken Stone and Carol Bratley will present a slide show about the graveyards, and Kathy Kottaridis of the Parks Department, will share some ideas from the

Friends Of Doherty Park To Develop Action Plan

by Dorothy Healy

There will be a meeting to discuss Doherty Park next Wednesday, Feb. 26, at 7 p.m. at Bishop Lawton Hall, St. Francis de Sales Church, 313 Bunker Hill St.

The Friends of Doherty Park will join with the Basic Services Committee of the Charlestown Neighborhood Council to develop an action plan to restore the back slope of Doherty Park. All abutters, interested neighbors and representatives of other community organizations are urged to come to discuss what needs to be done to make the lower park usable once again.

Over 150 residents have attended the two previous meetings and enjoyed the slide presentation "Charlestown Heights in the 1890's." Many have expressed interest in its restoration. Now is the time to act!

Come to the meeting next Wednesday and be a part of the process to decide what we want our park to be. The hard part is making it all happen, and your ideas and help are very important. Our reward will be a park that we can all enjoy.

department on what might be done to improve the state of these important historic places. The Parks Department would like to see a group of interested residents work together over the next few years as a team

In this time of escalating prices, there is one program that allows people to stretch their food dollar. The program is called Project Share — and it is open to all residents, regardless of income.

Persons pay $14 for each food order at the beginning of each month and pick up their food order, worth $30 to $35, on a specified Saturday at the end of that month. Persons may purchase as many orders as they wish.

In addition to the payment, a commitment of two hours of community service is required during the month. The service can be with such organizations as the Kennedy Center, Senior Centers or with Boy or Girl Scouts — to name just a few.

The food order must be paid for at the Kennedy Center, 27 Winthrop St. Payment and pickup dates are as follows:

Lions Club Makes Good Use Of Recycled Eyeglasses

by Bud Coleman

The Charlestown Lions Club was honored recently to have Helen Bell, a senior student at The New England School of Optometry, as a guest speaker. Bell is a member of the Volunteer Optometric Society to Humanity (VOSH).

VOSH is an all-volunteer organization of professional eye care people and others, including Lions, who at their own expense travel to South America, Africa and other parts of the world to give free eye care and eyeglass fittings to people who would not have any eyecare if it were not for them.

Bell recently returned from a VOSH trip to South America where they examined and treated thousands of people and fitted glasses to thousands more who would probably go through life without either the care or the eyeglasses they desperately needed.

The Charlestown Lions Club presented VOSH with over a thousand pairs of recycled eyeglasses, collected over the past six months at The Charlestown Patriot office at One Thompson Square. The Lions are grateful to Gloria Conway and the staff of the Patriot for making a central collection center possible. The number of eyeglasses collected has tripled over the past year.

In keeping with the goal of Lions Clubs International's Sight First Program, to eliminate blindness worldwide, the Charlestown community can take pride in the fact that thousands of people will have better eye sight in the years ahead thanks to their taking the time to donate old eyeglasses for further use.

GETTING PREQUALIFIED FOR A LOAN

Many lenders help prospective buyers to get pre-qualified for a mortgage loan before they begin a serious house-hunting effort. You sit down with a loan officer, give all of the information about your assets, income and debt, and they can tell you how much of a mortgage you will be able to get under the various loan plans being offered. For a nominal fee, they will do a credit check. If there are any problems with your credit rating, you and the lender can work together to straighten things out.

If your lender prequalifies you, it makes you much more attractive to the seller when you do find a home. If you are competing with other buyers, it will be helpful if you have included with your offer a letter from your lender showing you've already begun the loan application process and appear to be qualified to buy the house. It will also save you and your Realtor a lot of time by eliminating from consideration homes you would not be able to afford.

Monument Properties is happy to serve all of your real estate needs. If you are planning a move, call us at 241-5900 or stop by our offices at 85 Warren St., in Charlestown.

The Stock Exchange Comes To Charlestown

by Maria Paul-Welling

Some years ago a small thrift shop on Main Street, Charlestown was run by church volunteers. Prices were good, the help was friendly. The increased cost of living drove many women to work downtown. With no more volunteers, the thrift shop folded.

This winter, a sign at 73 Main St., at the corner of Monument Avenue, promised a new thrift shop. Checking this, we learned The Stock Exchange had been operating in the small village of Manchester-by-the-Sea and would start a second store here. Word had it the Manchester shop was exceptionally attractive with lots of white wicker and flowered chintz. Lovely, but would their prices be out of sight?

The opening was on Presidents' Day, and we can now give you the scoop.

The owner is Elaine Perkins. She is Massachusetts born, fair-haired and friendly. She tells the Patriot that Kate Henson, a Charlestown resident, suggested that we needed a shop like hers. Not planning to expand but at the urging of Henson, she came to see the area and was delighted with its charms and quaint architecture. So after 17 successful years in Manchester, Perkins is establishing roots here as well.

The Manchester shop was a brave effort in the beginning. Having dreamed of a large gift shop operation, Perkins found that renting a tiny hole-in-the-wall and selling consigned goods was the realistic way to go. Gradually she was able to expand that space and now has loyal customers from many Massachusetts towns.

The Stock Exchange is not the place to pass when you have an appointment to keep. Windows are filled with potted spring bulbs and deep blue cineraria flowers. More daffodils, rosy tulips, primula and gentle cyclamen peek out from copper tubs and wooden trays inside the shop.

A red-on-white quilt sparkles on one wall, two other quilts give kaleidoscope dazzle elsewhere for background. Set against this glory is an unusual and exciting collection of furnishings. Several antique chests, one of burled wood, are snapped up promptly by new customers. An oval marble top hides in a corner. An antique bird cage says "take me home." One stunning iron and brass bedstead sports a very reasonable price tag — far below city standards.

Designer shoes, evening handbags and interesting women's suits are displayed in a controlled way, not in a rummage counter atmosphere.

Perkins is very hopeful that her new neighbors will consign objects to her for sale. The store policy is to pass consignments on to charity if they do not find a buyer quickly. This means that items given may never have to be picked up again if they do not sell fast.

Those in town who do not need the income from objects sold might consider using payments from sales on their consignments as a fund to raise cash they give to their own favorite charity. The Stock Exchange gives to the Salvation Army and to the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

Suggestions for consignments include Waterford glass, table linens, pottery from foreign lands and tableware painted in classic style. Clothing is best donated in a bundle of 15 items. Irish sweaters, nice quality lingerie and tweeds are sought by buyers.

Remember the friendly salespeople at The Stock Exchange when you begin spring cleaning. One Charlestown resident has found employment there already and your attic treasures will keep the ball rolling.

Even Perkins' parents pitch in and help at The Stock Exchange. Her mother, a stunningly beautiful matron of 80, tags the clothes and checks the hems and buttons. Her father, at a hearty 88 years, paints all the wicker furniture white.

A new family establishes a business in Charlestown once again and, just as in Manchester-by-the-Sea, offers its talent in a true family-oriented old town. Charlestown welcomes The Stock Exchange.

Lynch Named To Dean's List

John Lynch of Charlestown was named to the dean's list at Loyola University Chicago School of Law for the fall 1991 semester. Lynch ranked 10th out of 174 first-year students by earning a grade-point average of 3.64 while taking five courses plus a legal writing class. He also received the American Jurisprudence Award for Criminal Law in recognition of his having the highest final exam grade out of 185 Criminal Law students.

Lynch has been involved in extracurricular activities. Last fall he was elected as a representative to the Student Bar Association, and he recently formed a Sports & Entertainment Law Society at Loyola.

He will receive his Juris Doctor degree in May 1994.

All interested residents are welcome, and everyone is encouraged to join in the discussions. Refreshments will be served.

Brown Bag Bookies To Meet

Brown Bag Bookies, the adult book discussion group of the Charlestown Branch Library, will meet on Tuesday, March 3 at noon at the library, 179 Main St.

This month's featured book is Before The Trumpet: Young Franklin Roosevelt, 1882-1905 by Geoffrey C. Ward.

A New York Times Book Review stated: "If the outlines of the broad story are familiar, if some of the family anecdotes have been told before, the texture is nonetheless richer, the detail more finely tuned than in other portraits of Franklin Roosevelt's early years."

Participants may bring their lunch, and new members are welcome at any time. For more information, call Tess Francisco at 242-1248.

Marsden Competes In Lions International Speech Contest

by Bud Coleman

The Charlestown Lions Club held its first annual Speech Contest this past November at Bunker Hill Community College. Melanie Marsden of Mystic Street was victorious in a closely scored contest, earning the right to compete in the Lions' zone contest.

The zone contest was held on Jan. 14 and Marsden finished first, besting Mariano DeFabio of the Somerville District by one point.

On Jan. 28, Marsden competed against speakers representing Malden and Cambridge in the District Speech Contest. The representative from Malden was the victor in the final contest, with Marsden coming in a close second by less than one point.

The Charlestown Lions Club members are extremely proud of Melanie Marsden, Karen Black and Mary Hardiman, the entrants in the local club's contest. Each gave a very inspiring speech on the topic "My Responsibilities in the Twenty-First Century."

MELANIE MARSDEN of Mystic Street competing in the Lions International Speech Contest.

Marsden's representation in the zone and regional contests was something to behold. All who were present at the events will long remember the image of a Charlestown teen-ager with a great personality, a fantastic speaking ability and a strong sense of who she is both as a winner and a runner-up. Melanie represented the true spirit of what growing up in Charlestown is all about and what a real Charlestown teen-ager is.

Outraged by the ever-increasing cost of water and sewer services, Rep. Richard Voke has blasted the Massachusetts Water Resources Authority (MWRA) for proposing a budget which "drowns local ratepayers." Should the requested rate hike be adopted by the MWRA Board of Directors and its Advisory Board, water and sewer bills will increase by an average of 36 percent beginning July 1.

"During these tough economic times, people have a difficult enough job trying to maintain a decent standard of living without needing to worry about being able to afford to take a shower or wash some clothes.

Receive Scholarships At Don Bosco

Twenty-one students at Don Bosco Technical High School in Boston received scholarships presented at the recent Mass for the Solemnity of St. John Bosco.

The scholarship recipients included Charlestown students Paul M. Griffin of 74 Bunker Hill St., who

Voke Says No To MWRA Rate Hike

Asking local residents to pay 30, 40 or even 50 percent more for such a basic need as water is not only unreasonable, but it is totally unwarranted," Voke stressed.

According to Voke, as the MWRA continues to use rate fees to pay for its Boston Harbor cleanup effort and other large water and sewer modernization projects, its reliance on the assessments charged to residents of its member communities is a burden needing to be lifted off the backs of ratepayers.

"The spiralling cost of MWRA charges is truly becoming a new form of water torture. While the goals for a clean harbor may be just, the idea of charging 60 communities for a project which will benefit the Commonwealth, as well as New England as a whole, is very unfair," noted Voke.

On Beacon Hill, Voke and his colleagues are examining ways to curb the drain on ratepayers. As House Majority Leader, Voke is involved in a wide range of policy initiatives on a variety of ways to obtain some much needed rate relief.

"More state and federal funds need to replace the money ratepayers are pouring into the harbor cleanup and other MWRA projects. In addition, ratepayers and taxpayers alike need to be assured the MWRA is producing maximum efficiency at minimal cost. The MWRA must certainly tighten its own budget and produce cost savings which provide local residents with more than just a trickle of benefits," Voke said.

Voke says he will continue to work with his legislative colleagues to fight the MWRA rate increases. "The spigot needs to be turned off before the water for our coffee becomes more expensive than the coffee itself. While it appears the dam is ready to burst, I will further my efforts to find some way to stop the process from engulfing us all," concluded Voke.

The origin of the fire is believed to have been in a fourth-floor bedroom at 28a Dunstable St. There was no one at home at the time of the fire. No injuries were reported.

The Boston Fire Department Arson Squad has the fire under investigation.

★ Constitution Marina — A fiberglass speed boat docked at the Constitution Marina, located at Water Street and Constitution Road, went up in flames on Thursday, Feb.

13 causing an estimated $20,000 in damage. Flames from the blaze could be seen as far away as Lowney Way.

The first alarm was struck at 9:33 p.m. It took firefighters over 45 minutes to extinguish the blaze. There were no reports of injuries, and no other boats docked alongside the pier sustained damage.

Charlestown Pop Warner Update . . .

by Matt Stillman
On Feb. 13, the Charlestown Pop Warner Board of Directors asked permission to enter the South Shore Conference of Pop Warner Football. A vote was taken by the conference officials and Charlestown was granted permission to enter this league.

As some of you may realize, this is a different league from what the local football club was in previously. This means that the teams will be traveling to cities that will be further than if Charlestown was still in the Greater Boston League. Transportation is going to be needed to bring the players back and forth to the games, and help will be needed from the parents. Parents will be contacted in the near future.

BOB D'S BEAT

by
Bob DeCristoforo

■ Charlestown Pride . . . It has been an exciting and very good week for Charlestown. A lot of good positive activity involving a large number of our young people has been taking place.

Through various events, a lot more people have learned what Charlestown is all about, and how great our young people and all our "Townies" are.

Charlestown Pride is certainly being shared by many now, and we are proud to spread it around.

■ Interparish Basketball . . . The playoffs in the Interparish Basketball League are now in progress.

Final Standings
St. Peter-Paul	9-0
St. Catherine	5-4
Gate of Heaven	3-6
Sacred Heart	1-8

■ Charlestown Falls In Cherry Tree . . . The 1992 Andy Puopolo Cherry Tree Invitational Basketball Tournament is history. Eight hours of non-stop basketball at the Boys & Girls Club produced a fine championship team, and many champion performances.

For the record, the championship trophy remains in South Boston for the second straight year, but now the title belongs to St. Brigid's who defeated a very gutsy team from Savin Hill and St. William's Parish. John Puglia of St. Brigid was the tournament MVP and Danny Clark received the very prestigious Andy Puopolo Sportsmanship Award of Excellence.

Our two Charlestown entries lost in the quarter-final round. The "Townies" were defeated by the South Boston Devils 79-73 in overtime in a magnificent basketball game. Todd Sgro led the Townies with 32 points and was named to the All-Tournament Team. Nick Smith and Vin Tamburello played superbly for the Townies.

The more experienced Charlestown Pride Team had a hard time getting started and lost to finalist Savin Hill 69-59. Pat Woods, a '91 all-star, edged out Pat Owens for the All-Tournament honor.

Named to the All-Tournament Team were: Frank LaMonica, St. Brigid; Jake Mikalauski, Savin Hill; Willie Miller, Condon; Pat Woods, Charlestown Pride; Frank Bennet, South Boston Devils; Todd Sgro, Townies; Joe Santangelo, North End; and Parrish Rossi, East Boston.

Representing Charlestown in the tournament were: Matt Warren, Dave Delmedico, Matt Mehigan, Tom McDonough, Vin Tamburello, Nick Smith, Todd Sgro, Dave Walsh, Pat Woods, Chris Brennan, Mark Collins, Pat Owens and Jeff Houlihan.

Special thanks is extended to Rep. Richard Voke, Rep. Paul Gannon of South Boston, Papa Gino's of Charlestown and the Charlestown Boys & Girls Club for their contributions to the tournament.

I would also add a very special thank you to scorekeeper Nick Smith and timekeeper Adam Olsson for their work all through the day.

■ ADSL Upset? . . . Charlestown caught Roxbury by surprise on Sunday afternoon, and Charlestown just might be the surprise in this year's 19-and-under ADSL League. The one point 65-64 win turned a few heads as the "rookie" Charlestown franchise played its best basketball game of the year.

The "G" brothers — Derek and Jason Gallagher — had 16 and 15 points, respectively, but this week's unsung hero was Anthony Matson who had 19 points to lead the Charlestown scorers. The record is now 3-2.

■ Wayne, N.J. Defeated . . . The Boston PAL "Unified" Team had little trouble with the PAL team from Wayne, N.J., defeating them twice — 79-33 on Saturday and 71-53 on Sunday — in games moved to the high school gym on Medford Street.

Jeff Houlihan led our Townie contingent with 13 points on Saturday, and Mark Collins did the same on Sunday with 10 points.

Charlestown participants on the Boston PAL "Unified" Team were Nick Smith, Mark Collins, Tom "TJ" Gould, Jeff Houlihan, Tom McDonough and Adam Olsson.

The "Unified" Team was comprised of Charlestown and South Boston players, and it was certainly an honor to coach them.

■ High School Update . . .

Charlestown High: CHS geared up for today's City Playoff versus Burke at noon at the Shelburne Center, easily defeating Lexington Christian 89-64 and West Roxbury 70-64. Teddy Bonds led the scorers in both games with 27 and 25 points. The winner of today's semifinal will play the winner of the South Boston-East Boston game tomorrow at UMass/Boston for the city title.

The CHS lady hoopsters were defeated by Burke 54-40 and West Roxbury 60-33.

Anthony Matson had three goals as Charlestown blanketed Tech 7-0.

Latin Academy: Latin Academy warmed up for tomorrow's city championship game versus South Boston at 10 a.m. at Northeastern by defeating Brighton 9-1. Latin Academy ended the week at 12-1-1.

Malden Catholic: MC defeated St. John's of Shrewsbury 4-3.

Boston Latin: Boston Latin split, topping Walpole 5-3 and losing to Lincoln Sudbury 6-0.

Don Bosco: Don Bosco rolled on in the Catholic Conference, defeating St. John's Prep 2-1 and Boston College High 4-3. Paul Tibbetts added another goal to his collection to stay among the top scorers in the league.

In basketball action, Bosco defeated St. John's Prep, but lost to Malden 56-44.

St. Clement: Charlestown's Brian Thompson, a senior at St. Clement, got a much-deserved and long-overdue story in Sunday's Boston Herald "City Hoops" column. Brian is St. Clement's top basketball player, and one of the stars in the Catholic Suburban League.

■ Corey Gallagher . . . ALL STAR . . . Catholic Central League coaches voted their All-Star Team, and it was no surprise that Corey Gallagher was named to the team. The Matignon freshman was the league's top offensive star. In the league All-Star Game, Corey had an impressive 15 points, and in her most recent league game, Corey led Matignon with 20 points as the Warriors defeated Pope John 56-28.

We will hear a lot more from Corey Gallagher in the future. She is a beautiful, energetic young lady, and we are all very proud of her. If you don't understand the true meaning of Charlestown Pride, just see Miss Gallagher.

C.Y.O. NEWS by Father Ron Coyne

• CYO Ice Hockey Season Ends — We finished up our regular season hockey games with a 4-4 tie with Sacred Heart, Malden, giving us a record of three wins, five losses and two ties. We did not qualify for the playoffs.

We are deeply grateful to our coaching staff, Tom McGoff, Paul Wrenn and Tom Lent, and to all of our players who represented Charlestown so well throughout the season. We finished with the least penalty minutes of any team in the league and our final game was played without a penalty for St. Catherine's. That's what we're all about!

• St. Catherine "Little Townies" Color Guard — Last Saturday evening, we traveled to Weymouth South High School to see our girls take third place out of 10 cadet color guards behind St. Ann, Neponset, and Blessed Sacrament, Cambridge. Our next contest is Saturday, Feb. 29 at Waltham High School, beginning at 5 p.m.

• CYO Basketball — This winter, St. Catherine entered seven teams in the CYO Basketball League, ranging in age from 10 to 19. We had 25 girls and 57 boys proudly representing Charlestown. We played 101 games during the season, and are proud to say that the boys and girls who played on our teams did so with poise and real class. Our home games were played at the Boys & Girls Club and Charlestown High School, and we had to travel throughout Boston and the suburbs to play our away games. We are deeply grateful to our coaches and the parents for providing transportation and assuring that our Charlestown teams never had to forfeit a game. The CYO is a wonderful league, well run and supervised. We are especially grateful to all the referees assigned to our games, but in particular to Rick Rock and Kevin O'Halloran who gave us their time, expertise and basketball savvy. They are two wonderful local boys who we are privileged to claim.

Three of our teams qualified for the playoffs: the junior boys, under 18, coached by Bob DeCristoforo with a regular season record of eight wins and five losses; the intermediate boys, under 20, coached by Mike Cummings and Steve Fabiano, who ended their regular season with a record of seven wins and three losses; and the bantam boys, under 13, coached by Danny Ward and Muff Maguire with a regular season record of 13 wins and one loss. Good luck in the playoffs!

• Wrestling Matches — We have 40 tickets now on sale at the rectory at $9 each to the WWF wrestling matches to be held at the Boston Garden on Saturday, Feb. 29 at 8 p.m. featuring Hulk Hogan and Rowdy Roddy Piper versus Ric Flair and The Undertaker.

• CYO Day Ski Trip — St. Catherine's CYO will be going on a day ski trip on Sunday, March 1 through Youth Enrichment Services (YES). The bus will leave from St. Catherine Church at 5:30 a.m. and will return at approximately 5 p.m. All boys and girls 13 and over are welcome. If you intend to go skiing, you must attend a fitting on Wednesday, Feb. 26 at 4:30 p.m. A bus will leave from the church for the fitting at 3:45 p.m.

The cost of the trip is $30 which includes ski rental, transportation, an all-day lift ticket and a lesson.

You must leave your name and payment at the rectory as soon as possible. Each youngster must have a permission slip filled out and brought to the fitting. Permission slips are available at the rectory.

The registration fee is $10 per child. Children are eligible to play if they are 4-years-old by April 1 and will not turn 8-years-old by Aug. 1.

Players Of The Week

It was an exciting day of bowling for Matt Lakeman of the B&B Oil team. He was named a Player of the Week for bowling 54 pins over his average. He started the day with a strike in his first string, bowled a spare in his second string and three spares in his third string. He bowled a 98 in his second string. His determination, along with perfect attendance, helped his team take eight points on Saturday and move into first place.

Paul Blaikie, a new player who bowls for the Bunker Hill Florist team, shares the Player of the Week honors. He bowled 23 pins over his average and helped his team take eight points. Blaikie also has had perfect attendance.

Congratulations to you both.

The 80s Club

Kelleigh Harrington became the newest member of the 80s Club for her 84 string for the B&B Oil team.

The government has endorsed the use of chiropractors by including their treatment in Workmen's Compensation.

Sheeran Attends Leadership Training Program

Mike Sheeran from Charlestown High School recently attended a five-day leadership training session held at the Massachusetts Interscholastic Athletic Association (MIAA) in Milford.

The MIAA is the governing and service body for high school athletics in Massachusetts. Leadership training is one of the services offered by the MIAA. This training is facilitated by consultants from the Na-

Information provided during the five-day session will equip Sheeran with tools and information needed to return to his school and implement a chemical health program. These include conducting training events for the school staff, conducting pre-season meetings with parents and understanding the nature of the resources available throughout the state.

Come 'Meet Eleanor Roosevelt' At Bunker Hill Community College

The Fenway Middle College High School at Bunker Hill Community College is sponsoring the theatre production of "Meet Eleanor Roosevelt: Wife, Mother and First Lady" in the BHCC Auditorium on Tuesday, Feb. 25 at 9:50 a.m.

Co-author and actress Elena Dodd portrays Mrs. Roosevelt in a direct, personal "visit" with the audience. With humor, reminiscences, and a frank look at some of the struggles of her life, Mrs. Roosevelt shares her journey toward becoming a fulfilled and adventurous person.

The production is offered free to the community by Streetfeet Workshops, under a grant from the Polaroïd Foundation.

The production covers events of the four decades of Eleanor's marriage to Franklin Delano Roosevelt, 1904-1945, including early years in Washington before women were granted the right to vote, life during the Depression and travels to military bases in the South Pacific during World War II.

Directed by co-author Josephine Lane, the piece is based on Eleanor Roosevelt's autobiography, research at the Roosevelt estate in Hyde Park, N.Y. under a grant from the American Association of University Women, and biographical writings by Joseph Lash.

You CAN Do It!

The Life Focus Center of Charlestown is expanding its can and bottle recycling program to help support its vocational programs that serve people with disabilities. These programs have been severely impaired by recent state budget cuts.

If you would like to participate, please put your recyclable beverage containers (glass and aluminum soda and beer cans and bottles) aside, then give LFC a call.

LFC recycling will pick up your returnables either weekly or daily, if necessary. Any number of cans or bottles is valuable to LFC, so please save them . . . and tell a friend! We will pick up any number — anytime, anywhere or you can drop them off at LFC, One City Square between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. daily.

If you would like to become part of our program, please call Bill Connell at 242-3423.

An RFP, which requires a simple application and outline of the proposed project, is currently available for interested groups at 15 Beacon St., Boston. PFD expects to fund up to 15

Thank You From The K. Of C.

Dear Gloria:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who helped make last Saturday's Meat Raffle such a tremendous success. Proceeds from the raffle will benefit the Centennial Celebration taking place this spring, marking the 100th anniversary of Bunker Hill Council No. 62.

I would especially like to thank the following people for their help at the meat raffle: Terry Ring, Judy Burton, Dodie Boyle, Mary MacInnes, Mary Rizzo, Paul Allen, Linda Donovan, Alice Lynch, Jackie McGonagle, Bobby Scalli, Eddie Ellwell, Dennis Callahan and Peter Looney. I also would like to thank Camp Bunker Hill.

I wish to congratulate the lucky winners of the meat raffles: Mary MacInnes, Kay Herrick, Eleanor Wehler, Helen Awbrey, Bud Whelan, Marilyn Travers and Gert Woods. Also, A. Christopher won 50 scratch tickets and Edna Kelly won the 50-50 money raffle in the two special drawings.

Thanks again to the helpers and everyone who came and showed their support for Council 62, Knights of Columbus.

Thank You To The Harvard-Kent Students

Dear Gloria,

On behalf of the Kennedy Center's Senior Lounge, I'd like to thank Maria D'Itria's fifth-grade class from the Harvard-Kent School for the wonderful program they presented for Valentine's Day.

Twenty-five students sang love songs, recited poetry, interviewed seniors, and presented everyone with candy and beautiful handmade Valentine cards.

The event was so successful that another one is planned for Friday, March 13. The students plan to sing Irish songs for St. Patrick's Day, and the seniors are going to teach them the Electric Slide. Everyone is welcome to join us.

Sincerely,
Judith S. Meaney
Director, Senior Services

BHCC Offers Free Tax Return Help

Students from Bunker Hill Community College are preparing tax returns free-of-charge now through April 15.

The tax return assistance will be provided by about 30 students who take part in the nation-wide Volunteer Income Tax Assistance program under the direction of Ed Kerr, business professor at BHCC.

Kerr said BHCC students prepared tax returns for more than 4,000 people last year. The free service could save roughly $75 to $150 that tax payers might pay if they chose to have the service provided by a tax-return business.

BHCC students will provide tax return assistance at the Bunker Hill Community College lobby: Mondays, 7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Tuesdays, 8 to 11 a.m. and 12:30 to 4 p.m.; Wednesdays, 7:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 2 to 6 p.m.; Thursdays, 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.; and Fridays, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

COCAINE ABUSE

Cocaine is one of the most powerfully addictive drugs of abuse. It is a strong central nervous stimulant that heightens the body's natural response to pleasure and creates euphoria.

Physical effects of cocaine include constricted blood vessels, dilated pupils, and increased temperature, heart rate and blood pressure. Some regular users of cocaine report feelings of restlessness, irritability and anxiety. High doses or chronic cocaine use can trigger paranoia. When some people stop using cocaine they become depressed. To relieve the depression, they often increase their use.

Occasional cocaine snorting can produce nasal congestion and a runny nose. Chronic cocaine use can ulcerate the mucous membrane of the nose. Heavy use can damage the nasal septum enough to cause its collapse.

Cocaine used chronically or at high doses can have toxic effects. Cocaine-related deaths are a result of cardiac arrest or seizures followed by respiratory arrest.

USS Constitution Museum Hosts Annual Ship Model Exhibit

From now through Saturday, March 21, the USS Constitution Museum will host the 13th annual Juried Show of the USS Constitution Model Shipwright Guild of New England.

Approximately 50 ship models from several centuries, built by professional and amateur modelers, will be on display. The models range from small rowing and fishing boats to commercial freighters and naval vessels. Last year's gold medal winner was an intricate model of a 1774 British warship with rich gilt carvings. Previous entries have included tiny ships-in-a-bottles and large radio-controlled models, complete with every detail of the original vessel.

All show visitors will be given a chance to peruse a catalogue with a brief history of each ship entered, and be asked to vote for the model they like best.

The USS Constitution Museum, located in Charlestown's Navy Yard, is a non-profit, educational institution dedicated to preserving and interpreting the history of "Old Ironsides" and America's Maritime heritage. The Museum is open to the public Monday to Friday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on weekends. For additional information, please contact the Museum at 426-1812.
