Galvin Memorial Green Dedicated On May 13

FAMILY MEMBERS AND FRIENDS of Maj. Gen. Michael Joseph Galvin gathered on the knoll at the south side of City Square to unveil the memorial plaques that will name the area in memory of Gen. Galvin. Shown (l. to r.) Attorney Bill Galvin, nephew of the general; Priscilla Galvin Watkins, daughter of the general; Sen. Thomas Birmingham, Ways & Means Committee Chairman; Kevin Sullivan, deputy commissioner, Mass. Highway Department; Jim Conway, past national historian, The American Legion; Boston City Councillor At-Large Albert L. O'Neil; Rev. John Galvin, chairman, Theology Department, Catholic University, nephew of the general; Hon. Argeo Paul Cellucci, Lt. Gov. of the Commonwealth of Mass.; (to the back) Maj. Gen. Peter W. Clegg, USAR, commanding officer, 94th U.S. Army Reserve Command; and Rep. Richard A. Voke, House of Representatives Majority Leader.

Raw wind and bone-chilling rain cut through the crowd of family members, friends and former neighbors but failed to dampen the spirits of those who gathered on the knoll at the south of City Square to pay tribute to Maj. Gen. Michael Joseph Galvin, USAR, on May 13.

According to Galvin's daughter, Priscilla Galvin Watkins, her father was an amazing man who was a Townie who went from jumping off bridges into the river to the advisor of presidents.

Some 15 months ago, Attorney Bill Galvin was researching his family's history when he came across some information that called for the dedication of a new low bridge across the Charles River in memory of Gen. Galvin. The bridge was never built, but when the knoll area came to be with the Mass. Highway Department (MHD) development adjacent to City Square, Galvin sought support from Sen. Thomas Birmingham. The senator then included language in Chapter 273 of the Acts of 1994 to have the area named in honor of Gen. Galvin.

Although 15 months seems to be a long time, it can be "faster than the speed of light" in attempting to get a bill passed through the legislature, noted Birmingham.

Bill Galvin asked the assistance of Charlestown Neighborhood Council Veterans Committee Chairman Jim Conway, Past National Historian of the American Legion, and the support of state and local organizations to make the tribute to "Uncle Joe," as he was called by family members, or "Iron Mike" as he was known in the military, a reality. Conway served as master of ceremonies for the dedication.

The colors were posted by the USS Constitution Color Guard, and music was provided by the Colonel Band of Lawrence with soloist Kathleen Adams.

Offering the invocation and benediction was Rev. John Galvin, chairman, Theology Department, Catholic University in Washington, D.C., nephew of Maj. Gen. Galvin. He stated that Maj. Gen. Galvin served his country and the commonwealth

Family Fun Day Set For This Sunday!

On Sunday, May 21, from noon to 4 p.m., the Charlestown High School football field on Medford Street will be the site of the fifth annual Charlestown Family Fun Day. With animal exhibits and performances, a petting zoo and pony rides, sponsored by the Boston Police Department, games, races, a hockey skills competition, square dancing will be featured and there will be refreshments for all those attending. This year's Family Fun Day is sure to be another enjoyable day for all.

Coinciding with the statewide recognition of "Increase the Peace Week," Charlestown Family Fun Day will be hosted by such respected community organizations as the Healthy Charlestown Coalition, the Boys & Girls Club, Charlestown Community Center, Charlestown Neighborhood Council, Charlestown Against Drugs (CHAD), the Boston Police Department and the Kennedy Center. The day's festivities will begin, rain or shine, at noon.

"Each year, Family Fun Day has proven to be just that, a fun day for the entire family. The Fun Day staff is busy making sure that there is something happening for everyone who wishes to celebrate one of Charlestown's strongest institutions: its families," said Coordinator Peter Looney.

Looney notes that other activities will include face painting, free balloons, old-time photos and the always popular, egg toss. The Boston Fire Department will again be on hand with a fire engine. Everyone will be invited to examine the apparatus and ask questions of the firefighters. Hot dogs will be served to as many people as possible.

Citizen Flag Alliance Sponsors Flag Rally In Charlestown On Sunday

Three historical 90-foot flags, part of the U.S. National Flag Exhibit collection, will be unfurled together for the first time at a Flag Rally at the Boston National Historical Park in the Charlestown Navy Yard on Sunday, May 21. This event comes a few days before the first hearing on Capitol Hill to review legislation to amend the Constitution to prohibit desecration of the U.S. Flag.

The rally is sponsored by the Citizens Flag Alliance (CFA) in cooperation with the Department of Mass., The American Legion, which is one of its members. The rally will begin at 11 a.m. with an Ecumenical Service on board the USS Cassin Young on Pier One, adjacent to the USS Constitution.

It will include the participation of the USS Constitution Color Guard, the Charlestown High School (CHS) MA-761, U.S. Air Force Jr ROTC, and American Legion color guards from Dedham Post 18 and Somerville Post 19.

Presiding chaplains for the service will be Rev. Daniel J. Mahoney, pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church and chaplain for the Boston Fire Department, and the Rev. Carl Bergstrom, president, New England Chapter Military Chaplains and chaplain for the Department of Mass. D.A.V.

Soloist will be Richard Kerry Thompson, Irish Lyric Tenor, and music will be provided by the Canton Post 24, American Legion Band.

The flag ceremony will follow immediately at 11:45 a.m., with Marc Valentine, caretaker of the U.S. National Flag Exhibit, directing the unfurling and joined by 30 sailors from the USS McInerney (FF-G8), a guided missile frigate, sailors from the USS Constitution and the First Coast Guard District as well as cadets from the CHS USAF Jr. ROTC and Sea Cadets, among others.

After the unfurling, the giant Mt. Rushmore flag will be raised on a crane.

At approximately 12:20 p.m., a parade of supporters, led by the USS Constitution Color Guard, the Canton Post 24, American Legion Band and pipers from the Kevin Barry Irish American Pipe Band, among others, will then march to the Bunker Hill Monument. On the monument grounds, CFA President Daniel S. Wheeler, CFA Mass. Chairman John P. "Jake" Comer, Past National Commander, The American Legion and other invited elected officials and distinguished guests from CFA member organizations, such as the Knights of Columbus, the Moose and other patriotic organizations will speak in support of a Constitutional amendment to prohibit the desecration of the flag.

The flags being used at the rally are part of the U.S. National Flag Exhibit, a historic collection of five 300-pound, 90-foot flags. The flags, which have traveled worldwide on the National Historic Truck, have been used in more than 400 official ceremonies. The National Historic Truck, based in Boston on the Freedom Trail, has been in existence through three White House administrations and has clocked more than 500,000 miles.

Each of the flags to be unfurled has a rich historical background. The Mt. Rushmore American Flag was first used to cover the Lincoln figure on Mt. Rushmore for the July 4 rededication in 1987. The World War II Commemorative Flag was the first American flag to travel through the English Channel Tunnel during the anniversary observance of D-Day in June 1994. The third flag was originally made for the U.S. Coast Guard's 200th Anniversary and has flown over the North Pole.

Mass. is one of 49 states that have passed memorializing resolutions asking Congress for a flag protection amendment. A hearing

The Greater Boston Real Estate Board has announced that local realtor Carolyn Sideman has been appointed to serve on its select Professional Standards Committee.

The responsibility of this committee is to enforce the Realtor Code of Ethics by conducting hearings on complaints against members and to arbitrate business disputes arising from real estate transactions involving member

Massport Begins Revere Sugar Demolition Project

In an effort to revitalize valuable property on the Mystic River, the Mass. Port Authority began demolition this week of the former Revere Sugar facility on Medford Street.

Massport Director of Seaport Planning and Development Daniel O'Connell said, "This 18-month demolition project is being performed to eliminate a potential health and safety problem from the Charlestown area. It will also facilitate the future use of the site for water-dependent industrial uses, potentially bulk cargo shipping."

The Revere Sugar Demolition project, awarded to Modern Continental Construction Co. Inc. of Cambridge, includes the demolition of several large uninhabited buildings, two wharves, cranes, conveyors and two piers on the old Revere Sugar industrial site on the Mystic River in Charlestown.

O'Connell said, "Modern Continental Construction Co. is utilizing traditional demolition methods which employ heavy equipment to knock down the structures and clean up the site, as opposed to explosion."

Massport has mitigation measures ready to minimize any impacts on the community and the environment. In order to reduce dust emissions, the building will be wet down periodically, and environmental dust monitors will be in use at all times. Truck operators are instructed to utilize Medford Street to Sullivan Square, the most direct egress route from the residential community.

O'Connell said, "The result of the project will be overall positive long-term environmental benefits, because buildings and other structures which pose a fire hazard will be removed leaving a clear site suitable for development."

The former Revere Sugar Refinery is an 18-acre site, composed of approximately 13 acres of uplands and five acres of tidelands. The site supports approximately 3.4 acres of buildings, 1.3 acres of dilapidated wood piers and 0.7

acres of concrete piers and mooring dolphins. Revere Sugar Company used these facilities to import partially treated refined sugar and completed the refining process at this plant until 1986. In 1988, Massport purchased the property for $6 million for land-banking purposes and it has remained dormant ever since awaiting a viable maritime use.

Representatives from Massport and the Charlestown Neighborhood Council Environmental Committee will meet with the community at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, May 31, at the old refinery site, 333 Medford St., to discuss any concerns that may arise concerning the project.

THE TITLE SEARCH

People who do title searches for a living don't have real estate's most exciting job, but it is an important one. They must ensure that the sellers really do own the property you're buying and that all liens against the property are taken care of before or as a result of settlement.

If, for example, your seller has had financial difficulties and didn't pay bills, there might be judgments that must be satisfied when the property is sold. Someone in addition to the people who signed the sales agreement may have a partial interest. If, for example, parents co-signed the mortgage for your sellers, they will need to sign the sales agreement and the deed that transfers ownership to you. In addition to looking at the current owners' situation, they go back many years, examining what is called the "chain of title," and they will send the results to the settlement office. If you learn that the property you're buying has title problems, don't panic. Most of them are resolved easily and in plenty of time to avoid settlement delays.

If there's a move in your future, the professionals at Monument Properties are ready to serve you. Drop by our office at 85 Warren St., Charlestown or call us at 241-5900.

Attorney Francis Chin made the presentation to the board and included photos, letters and a petition of support. Helen Chin also attended the hearing.

Judy Evers, community liaison from the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, testified in favor of the petition. She pointed out that the Chin family has "strong community ties and support." Also testifying in favor of the petition were At-Large Boston City Councillor Albert O'Neil, Jim Conway, Jack Whelan, Amy Chardavoyne from City Councillor Diane Modica's office, the Boston Redevelopment Authority and Ann Marie Vesey proprietor of the ice cream store on the property. The board voted to approve the petition.

★ Free Sailing For Youth . . .

Courageous Sailing Center is having an open house on Saturday, May 20, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. The center, located on Pier 4 of the Charlestown Navy Yard, offers free sailing lessons to youths ages 8-19 during July and August. Director Sandra Gould, Program Director Bryan Peugh and Staff Assistant Sara Cook hope that youths from Charlestown will come down with a parent and sign up. Youngsters interested should be able to swim 75-yards and tread water for one minute.

New to the free summer program this year is the "intermediate" sailing. When a youth has sailed at the Courageous for two weeks and is qualified, he/she may come down any weekday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. and sail in a supervised setting with a safety boat and coach. Gould, a Charlestown resident and a member of the Healthy Charlestown Coalition, is attempting to spread the sailing program to a Saturday morning once or twice a month, when qualified youth sailors will take a skilled adult sailor to the outer harbor.

Tom Cunha, new Courageous Sailing

Center Board member, said recently he was amazed that such a great program has evolved in the past year since Gould took the helm. "It's safe, it's free, it's wonderful!" Bob McGann of Charlestown Community Centers, also a board member, reports that the kids he sent to Courageous last year loved it. Last year, nearly one quarter of the 455 youth in the programs were from Charlestown. This year, Gould expanded the program's minimum goal to 540 children, with a maximum of 720. The goal has been exceeded (566) already. The program has hired 10 senior instructors and five junior instructors, one third of whom are from Charlestown, they are: Shane Coleman, Chris Gallagher, Patrick Lacey, Eddie Prince and Heather Richard.

Hey kids, it's a great opportunity to learn to sail! The program is funded by adult memberships, private and corporate donations, and a big boost from Mayor Thomas Menino's office. This past year, the city provided the funds to paint, build new ramps, repair docks, replace the roof, and reglaze the windows.

The Boston Company/Mellon Bank has created a partnership with Courageous and will donate $30,000 this year. The first corporate challenge at Courageous will generate $25,000, and the mayor, through the Boston Parks and Recreation Department, will grant $20,000, in addition to many other improvements.

Adult membership is booming, and Charlestown residents who wish to learn how to sail at a great price, are encouraged to come to the open house. The program has become a strong, stable one in and for the Charlestown Community and its youth.

The children of Bernard and Rita Kelly would like to share some thoughts about how much they appreciate their parents.

It has been 40 years since they were united in marriage. Presently there are 14 people in this world as a result of this union - four children, nine grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Two sons, two daughters, two parents, working together for the sake of their children.

Our mother and father are "teachers" in every sense of the word. They've nurtured and pruned and shaped the branches of our lives. Their commitment to us has never waned. We have hundreds of memories, each one precious, each one meaningful to each of us, so many filled with laughter! We can still enjoy them today because our parents kept us close by teaching us to be tolerant of one another.

They taught us to respect . . . by their own actions toward one another. They made us feel important, they made us feel secure, they built our self-esteem by verbally telling us how proud they were. They introduced us to the church, provided us with religious beliefs, teaching us to hope and have faith, giving us something to fall back on in times of despair and someone to thank in times of triumph. We have all been able, at one time or another, to call upon the help of God because of their efforts to provide us with a knowledge of God.

They gave us strength by being strong. We have pride and dignity because they do. We know right from wrong because neither would tolerate wrong. They have given us our heritage and shared with us their own memories of the past. They've kept track of our ancestors, giving us an even stronger sense of family and roots. They have sacrificed for our health, our schooling, our Christmases, and birthdays, seeming never to care what was left over for themselves.

They gave all they had to us . . . four children they brought into this world. They were responsible for their actions, they made themselves accountable for the people we would turn into.

They gave us table manners . . . we sat together at the dinner table and were shown the proper way to cut our meat. It may have only taken a minute but it was not forgotten. They gave us our social skills, our "Please" and "Thank you's." They made us do chores (though we protested) giving us the sense of accomplishment, and allowing us to tackle the even bigger tasks that life would hand us. Our home training was more valuable an education that any formal schooling could ever provide.

They gave us our love of music, which allowed us to express ourselves. They took an interest in all aspects of our lives. They came to our games and drove some of the other kids whose parents were too busy or uninterested. They gave us summer vacations to look forward to, and eventually laugh about, they never indulged themselves or went off without us. We were then, and still now are truly a "family." Time has not changed this . . . even today we still want to tell them what is going on in our lives, and our children's lives, because we want their approval, or opinion or reaction . . . because they still CARE. They are the only two people in this world who still care the most about us. We truly know this in our hearts. We are honored to be sharing in the celebration of their 40 years of marriage.

May God Bless the two people who gave us the greatest gifts of all.
The gifts of Life and Love! "We love you Mom & Dad" . . .

TheatreSköl America Children To Compete In New York

TheatreSköl America is a not-for-profit organization which specialized in providing dance and theater instruction to many Charlestown children. The school, located at 24 Spice St., is under the direction of Joseph Dussault, who has impressive training in both stage and screen.

Over the past year, a number of Dussault's young students have, in addition to their regularly scheduled classes, worked diligently to prepare a special dance routine for consideration at the Talent

America competition to be held in July in New York City. The children's hard-earned efforts have succeeded in that their dance group, known as "Dance Team America," has qualified to compete against hundreds of other young performers in the New York finals.

Although the children's dream of dancing on Broadway is practically a reality, they and their parents are now confronted with financing the trip which entails bus transportation, hotel and meals for three days.

To help finance the dance team trip, a benefit dance has been scheduled for Saturday, June 3 at the Preble Room, Building 5, in the Charlestown Navy Yard, from 8 p.m. to midnight.

The benefit dance, co-sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Charlestown, will feature live Irish music by "Murphy's Law" and dancing to D. J. "Sweet Low" Marcucci. The donation admission is $10.

These children have worked hard to achieve this unique opportunity of representing Charlestown in this nationwide competition and they and their parents hope for a good turnout at the benefit dance as a sign of community support and recognition.

For further information on this fund raising event, call 242-2344.

Also, for those interested in the curriculum offered to children at TheatreSköl America, stop by the school or plan to attend their annual recital scheduled for the evenings of June 22 and 23 at Charlestown High School.

Thank You

Dear Gloria,

We would like to take the time to thank everyone who came out to support the Charlestown Townie Football Team last Friday. The evening was a great success and, more importantly, everyone had fun supporting one of Charlestown's oldest traditions.

The success of this fund raiser will help get us going for the 1995 season, which kicks off the weekend of July 7 against our crosstown rivals, The Boston Cowboys.

Practice begins on Thursday, June 1 at 7 p.m. More details will follow. We are looking forward to a very successful first season back in the Eastern Football League. This would not be possible without the continued support of the people of Charlestown.

Again, we would just like to say "Thank You" to everyone who has helped bring Townies football back to Charlestown.

PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN

(never known to fail)
O most beautiful flower of Mount Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. O Star of the Sea, help me and show me herein you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity. There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times). Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands 3 times. Say this prayer 3 consecutive days and then you must publish and it will be granted for you. Grateful thanks. A.M.

Memorial Dedicated To Citizen . . . Soldier . . . Statesman Maj. Gen. Michael Joseph Galvin, USAR

Bill Galvin thanked Gov. Weld, Lt. Gov. Cellucci, the MHD, Birmingham and Voke, who he noted "has been dedicated to the rejuvenation of City Square." He said that "when things got stalled, Birmingham was on the telephone to assist."

As for family, he said that his Aunt Ann Donley was here from Alexandria, Va., and Maj. Gen. Galvin's four daughters were present - Noreen Dunn, Gail Cadasay, Patricia DeSimone and Priscilla Watkins, who spoke on behalf of the family.

In introducing Birmingham, Conway said that he was born in Charlestown and now resides in Chelsea. He spoke of his father being an "exponent of veterans rights and services." He added that Birmingham is "a good friend of Charlestown."

Birmingham credited the help of Voke, Weld, Cellucci, along with MHD Deputy Commissioner Kevin Sullivan. He stated that "Maj. Gen. Galvin has brought honor to his family and to his community. He was dedicated to his family, his neighborhood and to his country." He went on to say that "the values he so well personified are the core principals of Charlestown." Birmingham said that he "had to ask where the media is today?" He noted that Maj. Gen. Galvin personified the decent, hard-working, patriotic people of this community. He concluded: "In celebrating Maj. Gen. Galvin today, we celebrate the entire community."

Maj. Gen. Peter W. Clegg, USAR, commanding officer, 94th U.S. Army Reserve Command, stated: "It was an inspiration to read the background of Gen. Galvin with his extraordinary success in civilian, military and political careers," noting that "it was rare to see this combination." He said that Maj. Gen. Galvin displayed "heroism in combat plus a number of successes in all endeavors of his life."

Priscilla Galvin Watkins expressed the appreciation of the Galvin family for the honor to them and to Charlestown. She said that for those who wanted to learn more about her father, the archives in the Truman

Library and the state level of the Senate contains much information.

Watkins described her father as "a man who was Irish, he was going to have a good time, he loved women and he dressed like a peacock."

She spoke about her grandmother who had her first child at 32, her last at 46 and was left by the death of her husband when she was 47 to raise her children, with five being under the age of 10.

Watkins told about her father working as a pin boy at 11. He graduated from elementary school at 13 and then "got his first job with Western Union where he wore a uniform and got tips."

He was asked to join a prestigious law firm in Boston he encountered while working for Western Union and the senior partner became his mentor. He was encouraged to go on to school, graduating from the Charlestown Evening Commercial High School while he continued working. Watkins said it was instilled in him "to vote, get involved and know his responsibilities." She said he went to military training camp in 1928 and one of the proudest moments in his life was when he assumed command of the 94th in 1961.

He had been motivated to go to law school and worked his way up in the law firm. Watkins noted: "What was important was that someone took the time when he was young to give him direction, telling him over and over that it is a privilege to live in America."

Lt. Gov. Argeo Paul Cellucci related: "It's a great day for the Galvin family!" He said that there is something so hopeful in seeing wasted land turned into something beautiful, such as this knoll . . . and by dedicating land to Galvin, you are reminding all who see this green that what a sin it is to waste an opportunity to make something grand." He went on to say that "when you glance over to this knoll from City Square, you can know what the American dream really means."

Voke spoke of the Galvin family and their contributions to the city, noting that the Galvin family continues to be active in the city.

Conway invited the guest speakers to a ceremony to unveil the plaques

There are still a lot of choices out there as to where you can do your banking. And we're one of them. Citizens Bank.

Now more than ever, people are choosing us because of how we choose to treat our customers.

Specifically, we make life easier by offering all the products and services you want — under one roof. As well as ATMs where you're likely to need them. Including every Shaw's supermarket in Eastern Massachusetts.

What really sets us apart, though, is our commitment to old-fashioned courtesy. Meaning we hire nice people. And do thoughtful things. Like giving out dog biscuits at our drive-up windows.

And increasing our lollipop budget by one hundred percent.

If you're a business customer, it means making loan decisions locally instead of in some far-flung processing center where you're an unknown entity.

We even choose to play a very active role in our customers' communities. So much so that we offer our employees paid sabbaticals to roll up their sleeves and help where the need is greatest.

One last thing: we're not perfect. Except when it comes to taking a little constructive criticism when a customer sees fit to give it.

No, you don't have to bank here at Citizens. But we're doing everything we can to make sure that you do. Including giving you our toll-free number: 1-800-222-4322.

You don't have to bank here and we know it.

CYO & ST. CATHERINE'S NEWS BY FATHER RON COYNE

▲ Family Fun Day - We encourage all Charlestown families to set aside Sunday, May 21 from noon to 4 p.m., to join the Healthy Charlestown Coalition at its annual Charlestown Family Fun Day. There will be games and activities for all ages throughout the afternoon, food, music, sports and a petting zoo. Families are encouraged to pack a picnic lunch. The festivities will take place at the Charlestown High School football field.

▲ St. Catherine's Color Guard Recruitment Night - We are proud of our Color Guard Program which teaches our girls marching, dancing and choreography as they perform carrying flags, sabres and rifles. This activity encourages responsibility, commitment and self-discipline. Girls compete each Saturday from January through March and all practices are held in Charlestown gyms.

Registration will be held at the Medford Street gym on Monday, May 22 at 7 p.m. Parents should accompany each girl and bring with them a birth certificate and a $15 registration fee. All girls 7 years of age or older by Jan. 1, 1995 are encouraged to join. After the registration session, the "Townies" and "Little Townies" will put on an exhibition for your viewing pleasure.

▲ Pentecost Celebration - On Sunday, June 4, we will celebrate Pentecost Sunday in a special way as we recognize the presence of God's Spirit in all peoples. Our 9 a.m. Mass on that morning will highlight various cultures and gifts that are present within our community. There will be a procession of flags, offertory gifts that represent cultures, the prayers of the faithful in various languages and many will wear their native costumes. We invite all community residents to join us as we celebrate our diversity and acknowledges the gifts and talents present in our town. The next planning meeting will be St. Catherine's Parish Hall on Monday, May 22 at 7 p.m. All are welcome.

▲ Whalom Park - St. Catherine's is sponsoring its third annual trip to Whalom Park on Saturday, June 10. The buses will leave St. Catherine's at 11 a.m. and return around 8 p.m. The price is $15 which includes transportation; admission to all rides in the park, including the water rides; and an all-you-can-eat American barbecue. It's a great deal for $15 and the 200 people who went last year had a great time!

Families are encouraged to join us. Children and teenagers are welcome to come on their own - we will have chaperones. Sign up at St. Catherine's Rectory. Reservations will not be taken without payment.

▲ CYO Halfball Tournament - The annual CYO Halfball Tournament will be held on Saturday, June 17 beginning at 9:30 a.m. We are looking for teams of four teenagers each willing to compete. Anyone interested in entering a team should call Father Coyne at 242-1750. All players must be teenagers. Halfballs are available for practice. Bob O'Neill has once again accepted the invitation to be umpire.

▲ CYO Junior High Harbor Cruise - The CYO is sponsoring its annual Junior High Harbor Cruise for boys and girls in grades 7 and 8 on Wednesday, June 28 from 8 to 10 p.m. We will board the Provincetown II at Atlantic Avenue. A bus will leave St. Catherine's at 7 p.m. and return around 10:30 p.m. All junior high students, public and parochial, are welcome. The cost is $10 per person. You may sign up at the rectory by leaving your name and $10.

There will also be two Harbor Cruises for teenagers 13-19 years of age on Monday, July 10 and Monday, July 17. Both cruises will be from 8 to 11 p.m. The cost is $10. Sign-ups will follow soon.

▲ Three Day CYO Trip To Montreal - We are planning a CYO trip to Montreal this summer for any teenagers 13 to 19. We would travel in two vans, 20 teenagers and two adults. The trip would be Monday through Wednesday, July 24-26, and would include two nights at a Montreal hotel, tickets to the forum to see the Montreal Roadrunners game (professional roller hockey), a day at Aqua Park (water slide village) and a night at LaRonde Amusement Park. The entire trip, including transportation, will be $150 per person. You may sign up by leaving your name and a $50 deposit at St. Catherine's Rectory. Sign up as soon as possible as there are only five spaces left.

▲ CYO Baseball and Softball - We are grateful to the following men and women who have volunteered to coach our girls softball teams this summer: Jack Schievink, Stoney Boutwell, Sheila Brown, Mary Featherston, Bob O'Leary and Peter Golden.

Any girl between the ages of 10 and 18 who has not registered should do so at St. Catherine's Rectory. The fee is $15, and games will begin the first weekend in June.

Boys baseball coaches are needed for our CYO teams. We hope to have two boys teams, under 16. We are thankful to Bill Kane for returning as coach, but we need a coach for another team. Games will begin in mid-June. If you are interested, please call Father Coyne at 242-1750.

▲ Food Pantry Says Thank You - St. Catherine's Food Pantry would like to thank the U.S. Postal Service and the people of Charlestown for the wonderful support this past weekend. Our local postal workers collected food during their regular delivery on May 13 and the canned goods were donated to our pantry.

▲ Girls Spring Softball League - The Championship game for this league will be this Saturday, May 20 at 10 a.m. at the Charlestown High School softball field on Medford Street.

The team statistics will be reported in next week's Patriot. Two teams will be featured this week. The players on the Green Team, coached by Peter and Nicole DeRoeve, are Artania Arroyo, Erin Barry, Sharelle Bowers, Ashley Carr, Bridgette Chaisson, Michelle Dagle, Meg Gallagher, Jessica Grace, Crystal Lawton, Jessica Lawton, Kathleen Lynch, Cara Mondello and Alicia Snow. The Green Team played a great game last week and turned in two excellent plays.

The Red Team players, coached by Amy Rolinson, are Christina Biggins, Nicole Bourgeois, Megan Costa, Nicole Daly, Danielle Lacey, Erin Tiffany Lacey, Nicole McNeil, Charlene O'Brien, Katie Prince, Laurie Prince, Kelli-Ann Richardson, McKenzie Ridings, Allyson Roche and Sara Rolinson.

Charlestown Catholic Elementary School News

"Bring flowers of the fairest" . . . We began this week with a beautiful liturgy prepared by the first graders. Through prayer, song and dance they reminded us how important it is to keep Mary in our daily lives and prayers. A special moment in the Mass was the crowning of the Blessed Mother, while the first graders sang and performed a moving interpretation of "Hail Mary" and "Gentle Woman."

Throughout the school, classrooms are preparing for the upcoming Science Fair. Please stop in and see our scientific discoveries. Projects will be presented on Wednesday, May 24 from 12:30 to 2:00 p.m. From tropical rain forests to schools of meteorology, our classrooms are bursting with new life and new learning. You'll be impressed with the work of the Charlestown Catholic scientists. Come and meet them.

Busy days are ahead: The Science Fair; eighth graders preparing for graduation; a school-wide spelling bee; second graders meeting their New Hampshire pen pals; and much more.

The days are always filled with activity at Charlestown Catholic.

FAMILY FUN DAY

The fifth annual Family Fun Day will be held this Sunday, May 21, from noon to 4 p.m. at the Charlestown High School field, rain or shine.

As always, there will be games and activities for all ages, as well as face-painting and free hotdogs. This year will also feature a Zoomobile and a ball hockey five-hole competition.

DIABETES SUPPORT GROUP

The Health and Lifestyles Design Team, with input from local residents, found that there was a need for a diabetes support group in Charlestown. The support group met for the first time in April and will continue to meet on the fourth Tuesday of each month at 6 p.m. in the community room at 55 Bunker Hill St. The next meeting is on May 23.

HOMEBASE

The Homebase program, which was cosponsored by the coalition and the city of Boston Public Facilities Department, consists of a series of classes that educate prospective first-time homebuyers about what it takes to save, shop and purchase a home. Although we have not set up another series in Charlestown, those who have expressed interest in the program can contact the Homebase office at 635-0220 for information on other sites where classes may be held.

Any local organization or individual who lives or works in the Charlestown community that would like to become involved with the coalition, please contact Danny Ryan at the coalition office at 241-3756.

$35,000 is needed to put the Bunker Hill Day Parade on the streets of Charlestown on Sunday, June 18. With the fiscal constraints on the city of Boston, only a limited amount of money is being allocated to the celebration by the city, and each unit is asking for an increase in its fee. Thus, the success of the celebration depends on you - the residents, merchants and organizations. Donations of $25 and over will be publicly acknowledged.

BOB D'S BEAT BY BOB DeCRISTOFORO

◆ Danny Gibbons: Quality, Commitment and Class . . . As I comb through the newspapers each football season to see what high schoolers and their team have accomplished, certain names pop-up week after week. Attending the 20th annual Eastern Mass. National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Dinner put faces on many of the stars I read about all season long. Listening to each of the 22 honorees, among them our own Danny Gibbons, made me feel even better about our young people, and reminded this former high school athletic director the importance of the high school sports experience.

Each player thanked his family, coaches and teammates for helping to make the coveted award possible, and each mentioned in glowing terms what playing football meant in their lives. Some told funny stories, others told about memorable moments, and all told the truth about the importance of academics and the sport.

To be in that room and see the pride shown by players families and guests as each talked, was an honor and a privilege. It made me feel good to know that there are still a whole lot of young people who value many of the same values that many of us still value. It made me feel good to hear them say they realize the important partnership between academics and athletics if they are to fully realize their goals. To be in that room also with many of the quality people I shared so many happy high school moments with brought back some great memories of a very happy time in my life, and to realize that many of them are still involved made me feel very good.

Everything written here points to Danny Gibbons, son of Beverly and Dan Gibbons of Union Street, Charlestown, and Boston Latin Football Scholar-Athlete. Everything written her points to the quality person Danny Gibbons is, and to the commitment he made to be a scholar-athlete, one of the state's top 22. Everything here also points to the Gibbons family and what quality people they are, because they made a commitment, the commitment to see that their children would always be the best they could be.

The Gibbons' thanked me for sharing this special night with them, but the thanks goes from me to them. You are very special people and Danny is, and always will be a special young man, as he was even way back in day camp.

◆ More Quality, Commitment and Class . . . I have really been waiting for the right person(s) to come along to simply say, "I want to coach," and Friday evening I tossed the ball to Jason Gallagher, and he gave me the answer I wanted to hear. RBI Baseball is about to begin a second season in Charlestown and I am very pleased to announce that Jason Gallagher will be the head field manager. Jason has all the qualities that I want instilled in every player who wears the Charlestown RBI uniform this season and in future seasons. First as people and second as baseball players.

Congratulations Jason on your graduation from Merrimack College!

◆ Yawkey Talk . . . Sunday was a very important day for me and Charlestown baseball - we are back in the Yawkey League. Charlestown Pride took the field at Savin Hill in Dorchester, and Mark Saitta made it official by getting the very first hit for our rookie franchise. I've had many "opening days" in my life, but this one was very special. A victory would have been nice, but a very competitive 8-4 game was the next best thing. To look around at the bench and see a very Charlestown-laden team was for me the victory. To have people walk up to me, and hear about their Charlestown ties, and how proud they were of Charlestown made me feel very good. On the way home, coaches McIntosh and Giordano and I talked about the goals for this season, and this team. Goal number one has already been accomplished.

Charlestown Pride games this week at Ryan Field will be Sunday, May 21 vs. AM/PM at 4 p.m.; Monday, May 22 vs. the Avi Nelson Club at 7:30 p.m.; and Tuesday, May 23 vs. Cambridge at 7:30 p.m.

Game sponsors this week include Charlestown CYO.

◆ BHA Talent Show . . . The annual BHA Youth on the Rise Talent Show will take place at the Berklee School of Music on Saturday, May 27 at 5 p.m. Bunker Hill will be taking part in the show, and tickets are only $1, and may be purchased at the Bunker Hill Teen Center. Carmen Nunez is coordinating the Bunker Hill performers and, as always, continues to do an exceptional job. We are most fortunate to have her as part of the BHA Youth on the Rise staff here in Charlestown.

◆ Townie Time . . . What a great night it was Friday evening down at the Knights of Columbus. The event was the Charlestown Townies Football Fund Raiser, coordinated in large part by Danny Ryan. Townies Football will be back on the field this season, and this fund raiser will go a long way in helping the rebirth of a very proud and history-laden team. It was also great to be with so many good people, and renew some fine friendships. Charlestown is great because of its many fine and valuable traditions that have been kept alive by so many good people. The Charlestown Townies are one of these traditions, and renewing it says a lot about Charlestown.

◆ Charlestown Community Center . . . If you are 21 or older and looking for something to do this Saturday evening, St. Catherine's Hall is the place to be in support of the Charlestown Community Center. A lot of unsung work is done by the Charlestown Community Center, and its staff of fine, dedicated people directed by Bob "Louie" McGann. I think the "Three Cs" is one place we take for granted, but believe me, if the place we know as the Medford Street Pool, the new gym and the Kent, to name a few, were closed, we would know it very well. This is the Charlestown Community Center's only fund raiser of the year, and the only time they ask for anything. They're always there for us, and now its time for us to be there for them. The fund raiser begins at 7 p.m. and hypnotist Frank Santos headlines the show. There will be a D.J. and a cash bar.

◆ Hope Line Open . . . Just a reminder that the Boston Youth Cleanup Corp Red Shirt Summer Job Hopeline is now in operation. If you are looking for a summer job, call 635-HOPE from 3 to 6 p.m. and be patient, the phone will be answered!

◆ Spring Basketball Underway . . . Thanks to the efforts of Area A Youth Officer Ted Boyle, Boys & Girls Club Gym Director Derek Gallagher and BHA Youth Worker and Andy Puopolo-Charlestown Pride Coordinator Bob DeCristoforo, the spring teen basketball program is underway. The first event of the season was a jamboree held at the club on Wednesday evening. Forty young people are currently participating and the door is still open. Any player or team interested in taking part should leave their name, number and/or roster at the club gym. This basketball effort hopefully will improve the numbers that will be involved with BNBL this summer, which have been off over the past few seasons. There is no reason why Charlestown BNBL should not have eight full teams in both the 15-and-under and the 19-and-under division, and there is no reason why Charlestown girls shouldn't have enough participants to have one or more summer BNBL teams in the Women's Division. Lack of numbers will mean eventual loss of programs. This cannot happen!

◆ BAD Youth Forum . . . Boston Against Drugs and Blue Cross and Blue Shield will host "Break Away From The Pack," a Youth Forum on the Tobacco Industry and the Power of Advertising on Tuesday, May 23, at the Blue Cross/Blue Shield building, 100 Summer St., Boston, beginning at 4 p.m. A pizza and soda social hour will follow the presentation.

◆ Prom Time . . . Charlestown High School's prom takes place tonight and to everyone who will be attending, have a great, safe and responsible time before, during and after!

AT A PROM OF THE PAST was Jimmy Griffin and Bob D (he identifies as "the handsome one") at a Columbus prom in days gone by. According to Bob D, "Yes, we did have dates."

◆ Tidbits . . .

- Mike Collins loves chocolate cake.
- Marc's favorite TV show: Taxi.
- Jamie Strickland, thanks for the ride home.
- Chico, watch out for BMWs.

Smile!

IRS ADJUSTS 1995 TAX NUMBERS

The tax law requires the IRS to adjust certain tax numbers annually for inflation. Clip and save these 1995 numbers; you'll need them for this year's tax planning.

Tax brackets. The income tax brackets for 1995 will be as follows:

Tax Rate	Taxable Income
	Single	Married (Joint)	Head of Household
15%	$1-23,350	$1-39,000	$1-31,250
28%	23,351-56,550	39,001-94,250	31,251-80,750
31%	56,551-117,950	94,251-143,600	80,751-130,800
36%	117,951-256,500	143,601-256,500	130,801-256,500
39.6%	Over $256,500	Over $256,500	Over $256,500

Personal exemptions. The deduction for each personal exemption increases in 1995 to $2,500.

Standard deductions. The standard deductions for 1995 will be:

Joint returns & surviving spouses	$6,550
Married filing separately	3,275
Head of household	5,750
Single	3,900

The standard deduction is increased by $750 for a married taxpayer age 65 or older or blind ($1,500 if both 65 and blind). It's increased by $950 for single taxpayers age 65 or older or blind ($1,900 if both 65 and blind).

Other adjustments. In 1995, children under the age of 14 are allowed to have $1,300 of unearned income before the kiddie tax applies. Also adjusted for inflation is the amount of income taxpayers can have before they begin to lose the tax-free exemption for college bond interest. The income levels for 1995 increased to $63,450 for married taxpayers and to $42,300 for singles.

The maximum contribution that taxpayers can make to 401(k) plans remains at $9,240 for 1995. The standard mileage rate for business travel increases to 30¢ a mile.

New tax legislation in 1995 could change some or all of these numbers. Keep that likelihood in mind as you undertake your 1995 tax planning.

Calling All Acting Students!

Patrice Melanson, our Saturday acting teacher, reports that many of the students participating in the 11:30 a.m. - 1 p.m. class are chronically absent without calling the theater. If you have enrolled for this class, please call Kristin or Patrice to let them know if you wish to continue, since we are trying to work on a production that would be presented in late June.

If you are between the ages of 11-16 and would be interested in signing up for class, please give us a call. There is also room in John Quinn's Tuesday evening class "Adaption for the Stage." This class is held every Tuesday from 6:30 to 8 p.m. and is open to ages 12 and up.

The CWT is also exploring the possibility of adding an acting class for adults. We need to know if there is an interest in such a class. If you think you might participate, please call us at 242-3285.

Students From Poland To Attend High School In Boston

Dr. C. Scully Stikes, president of Bunker Hill Community College (BHCC), has announced that two students from Plock High School in Poland will attend high school in Boston during the school term starting in September.

Stikes is working with Dr. Andrezej Pronczuk, director of the Boston Chapter of the Congress of American Polonia, to provide living quarters with Polish-American families and raise the funds the students will need during their stay in Boston.

The process to select one male and one female student is now on-going in Poland. The final selection will be made in May.

The students selected, who will be starting their third year, must be high scholastic achievers and be proficient in English. During the summer they will be prepared for cultural life in the States.

Maj. Gen. Michael Joseph Galvin Honored

indicating Galvin Memorial Green. Taps was rendered by the buglers of the Colonial Band of Lawrence and a Rifle Salute was given by the Mass. National Guard Ceremonial Unit. The haunting strains of "Amazing Grace" came across the knoll from the bagpipe of Ken Giordano of the Kevin Barry Irish American Bagpipe Band of Malden.

Conway noted the presence of Ethan Beeler of the Boston National Historical Park, Cmdr. Paul Morceau of Bunker Hill Post 26, A.L., Stephen Collins from MHD and David Hancock from CBT for their help. He also recognized the assistance of Leo Purcell and Phil Massa from Birmingham's office.

Sullivan, deputy commissioner of MHD, spoke of his pleasure in being involved with such projects, adding that "transportation is not just roads and bridges - it's about people." He said that over the next few months, a sculpture will be added to the site.

Conway stated that the sculpture will be created by noted artist Robert Shure who sculpted the soldier that stands at the center of the Mass. Korean War Memorial in the Charlestown Navy Yard.

Boston City Councillor At-Large Albert O'Neil told about serving with "Iron Mike" under the command of Gen. George S. Patton and related their fighting in North Africa up through Italy. O'Neil said: "He was a tough guy - a good soldier. He wouldn't ask you to do anything he wouldn't do." He said he would "always salute 'Iron Mike' when passing by the memorial."

Amy Chardavoyne, aid to Boston City Councillor Diane Modica, along with O'Neil, presented a City Council citation declaring "Saturday, May 13, Maj. Gen. Galvin Day in the city of Boston.

Bill Galvin recognized Jim Hennigan, a colleague of Uncle Joe in the senate, and Solely Street resident Dan Ahearn who served in the same division. He praised Conway for his work with veterans on the local, state and national level and thanked him for his assistance.

He invited all members of the Galvin family to pose for a photograph in front of the brick entrance column with the general's name embossed.

(never known to fail)
O most beautiful flower of Mount Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. O Star of the Sea, help me and show me herein you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity. There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times). Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands 3 times. Say this prayer 3 consecutive days and then you must publish and it will be granted for you. Grateful thanks.
M.B.

PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

Holy Spirit, You who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal. You who give me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and in all instances of my life. You are with me. I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things as You confirm once again that I never want to be separated from You even in spite of all material illusions. I wish to be with You in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy toward me and mine. (Say for three consecutive days - favor will be granted.) Prayer must be published.

Annual Doherty Park Clean-Up On May 20

The Friends of Doherty Park and the Boston Parks and Recreation Department will be cosponsoring the annual park clean-up on Saturday, May 20. Rakes, shovels, gloves and plastic bags will be provided. All that's required is your participation. Join in at 9 a.m. to share in the effort to give our national treasure its spring cleaning! We'll do sweeping, shoveling and collecting litter and some weeding. It's all over at noon, so the more adults and children, too, who can help - the merrier!

Doherty Park is the last remaining neighborhood park designed by Frederick Law Olmsted for the city of Boston. Olmsted is recognized as the father of American landscape design and is the one person believed to be responsible for this country's park system as we know it. He designed parks in almost every major American city, including New York City's Central Park and the Capital grounds in Washington, D.C.

While he was working on the Emerald Necklace for Boston, he and his firm were asked to design five neighborhood parks. There are only two left, one at Copp's Hill in the North End, and ours here in Charlestown. It has only recently come to light that ours is actually the last of Olmsted's parks for the city; Copp's Hill was designed by his sons.

Through the efforts of The Friends of Doherty Park, the Parks Department has completed a master plan for restoration of the park and work will begin on different areas of the park this spring. Final steps are being taken toward the park's being listed on the National Historic Register.

Doherty Park is on Bunker Hill Street near St. Francis de Sales Church and runs down to Medford Street. In case of rain, the clean-up will take place on Sunday, May 21.

In Memory Of MARCUS ALVARADO

April 21, 1975 - May 21, 1993

Have you ever lost a loved one who meant the world to you Someone you loved so very much and miss them as I do?

A thousand words can't bring them back, I know, because I've tried.

Neither will a million tears, I know, because I've cried.

My heart aches with sadness my secret tears still flow,

For what it meant to lose you, no one will ever know.

Beside your grave I often stand and try so hard to understand.

The tears in my eyes I can brush away but the ache in my heart is here to stay.

I miss you more than anyone knows each day without you the emptiness grows.

I laugh, I cry, I play the part but beneath it all lies a parent's broken heart.

I hide my tears when they speak your name, for without you, life will never be the same.

Falling tears and heartache are the things that I must bear

But losing you the way I did will forever be unfair.
