

PCORI WORKSHOP

September 28th, 2015
Okey Patteson Auditorium

1st floor Health Sciences North, near Pylons and Cavanaugh's

This PCORI mini-CMA Workshop will cover how to apply to the Patient-Centered Outcomes Research Institute (PCORI). Special attention will be paid to choosing the correct funding opportunity, submitting a responsive application, and the merit review process.

- 2:00pm – 2:30pm Welcome and Overview of PCORI
Scott Solomon, MBA, MSE, Director, Contracts Management and Administration
Scott will kick-off the workshop by providing an overview of PCORI—its mission, vision, and purpose. He will describe the differences between broad and targeted funding announcements and related elements of PCORI funding.
- 2:30pm – 3:30pm Overview of PCORI Funding Announcements (PFAs) and Methodology Standards
David Hickam, MD, MPH, Program Director, Science
Dave will address the important features of patient-centered outcomes research (PCOR). He will also provide an overview of the funding programs PCORI has launched, describe the ways PCORI is promoting best practices in research, and identify successful strategy for receiving future PCORI funding.
- 3:30pm-4:00pm Coffee/Networking Break
- 4:00pm – 5:00pm Overview of Engagement Requirements
TBD
In this session, you will learn the importance of patient and other stakeholder engagement in research and how this supports PCORI's mission of patient-centered research. We will also provide an overview of the Engagement Rubric, a tool created to help research partners and PCORI ensure the meaningful engagement of patients and other stakeholders within PCORI-funded research teams.
- 5:00pm – 6:00pm PCORI's Application Submission Process
James Hulbert, Pre-Award Manager, Contracts Management and Administration
Jim will provide a detailed overview of PCORI's application process, including programmatic requirements (completing required templates such as research plans and budget templates) and administrative requirements (formatting and submission guidelines). This information is critical to the successful submission of an application.
- 6:00pm – 7:00pm Networking and One-on-One Meetings with PCORI Staff
Have a question for one of the presenters? This session provides an opportunity for you to get answers to your burning questions.
