What are the Trendsetters Saying?

Lilian Nderitu

Much has been said about coaching and mentorship. What has not been said is that coaching is self mastery. For the last few years I postponed starting the coaching program as I struggled the right person to do it. Up until I met Nabeel and his self mastery class that I discovered that is what I wanted. The self mastery program is superb but I can fail to talk about the brain behind it, Nabeel. Nabeel is smart, intelligent and well read to say the least. He is passionate about everything he sets out to do and deliver. His sessions are personalized and they often leaves one feeling wowed but very challenged.

I have had the pleasure of working with Nabeel on his self-mastery program in 2020. During this short time, we have been able to connect deeply mostly due to his comprehensive understanding of people and business leadership. Nabeel is persuasive, insightful and structured. His knowledge, skillset, commitment and work ethic are admirable. He is highly responsive, provides feedback in real time and is always clear and professional in his delivery. With a great ability to drive outcomes and hold you accountable on your commitments, Nabeel clearly stands out as an executive coach, leader and a great friend living through what he preaches, i.e. personal effectiveness and a learning mindset applied in a constantly dynamic business environment.
