

term paper

because of Julia's proven dedication to coursework and other academic endeavors I feel confident that she will continue to succeed in her graduate studies word like confident powered academic endeavors a little bit vague but we'll go into more detail not only was she one of the highest achievers in my course in 2017 she also spent much more time in my office than most students asking pertinent questions to assist her with personal study of social behavior in class she has proven to be a take-charge person who is able to fully developed work plans and implement them as you can see comparing this term paper to the previous one this one lacks detail it doesn't have it's not talking about the old ovn Gorge or the specific details of her study so it might be a good idea if possible to include at least one project you worked on or at least one specific detail of what you did in class because as an editor I read a lot of these letters and if they're too vague if they just include language about academic endeavors she's great she's curious without details it doesn't stand out as much so if you if you can point to what you've accomplished in academic course then that will be something that the faculty will be interested in and it will help you stand out okay so we're gonna look at some more evidence of characters and skills and as a transition you can work use words like also or in addition or furthermore julia has also assisted us in our admissions office so this is another thing that she's done that's why they've separated it this is another activity not only class work but also she's helped us in our office she has successfully demonstrated leadership ability by counseling new and prospective students her advice has been a great help to these students so you've this recommenders shown that julia is a great student she's curious she's smart but she also is helpful and a good leader excellent traits to have in a graduate student finally we have the call to action and you can note that this first sentence sort of shows the shows the intention right away it is for these reasons that I offer high recommendations for Julia Kim without reservation sort of a template sentence as well it is for these reasons that I offer high recommendations for student X without reservation your program is among the top in the nation for urban studies and Julia demonstrates both the level of empathy and awareness so a targeting of the student to the specific program mentioning the program name you could say your universe or you could mention the University's name and then reiterating the the skills that you talked about her drive and abilities her awareness of statistics her level of empathy finally if you have any questions regarding this recommendation please do not hesitate to contact me thank you for your time in consideration so you can see that these letters are structurally run-of-the-mill they shouldn't deviate too much unless you have a really wild and creative approach that you want to try that could be risky but you do want to include details that show how exactly you are a good a good candidate for a graduate program especially if the program is competitive so let's discuss some overall writing tips and we mentioned these in our SOP at webinar as well you want to show and not tell why not just list so what does that mean telling includes few details stevan accomplished a lot during his internship what's a lot well let's see he did a lot of great work okay that's not detailed and main some significant accomplishments for our company what are these accomplishments we're still waiting for them he also motivated he also we have some grammar issues too he also motivated
