

The New Zealand electronic travel authority (NZ eTA) is an electronic visa waiver, introduced in July 2019 which allows eligible citizens to travel to New Zealand for tourism, business, or transit purposes. It will become an obligatory requirement for visa waiver nationalities, as well as airline and cruise line crew of all nationalities, to have an eTA NZ from October 1st 2019 in order to travel to New Zealand.

New Zealand eTA Requirements

In order to submit a New Zealand eTA application, it is necessary to meet the following New Zealand eTA requirements: Passport valid for at least three months beyond the intended date of arrival in New Zealand

Credit or debit card to pay the eTA fee and tourism levy

A current email address at which to receive the approved eTA.
