ISADORE HALL'S BAD JUDGMENT PUTS OUR CHILDREN AT RISK

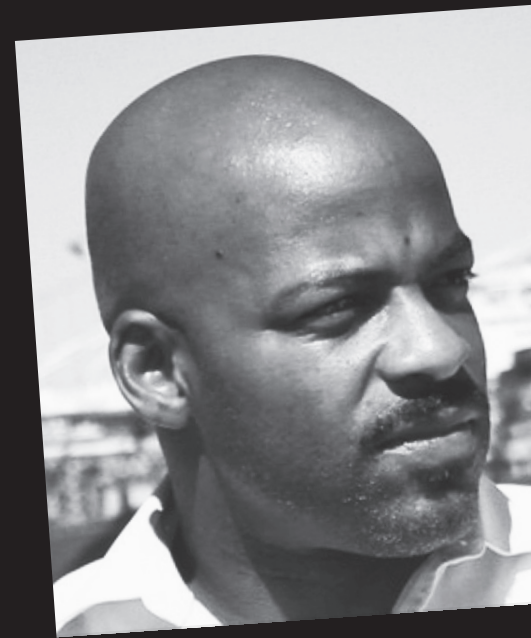

Not once—but twice—Isadore Hall's bad judgment has allowed known child molesters to work near and with children.

HALL BROUGHT BACK FIRED COACH WHO ABUSED AGAIN.

In 2002, as head of the Compton School Board, Hall led the charge to rehire high school basketball coach Russell Otis, even though Otis had been fired after he was accused of molesting a child.² Ultimately, Otis had to be fired again after trying to pay a student for sex.²

HALL GAVE SPECIAL GOVERNMENT AWARD TO MOLESTER WORKING NEAR DAYCARE CENTER.

Earlier this year, CBS2 discovered that Hall's brother, Errick Lee, a registered sex offender convicted of sex crimes with a minor, was managing a state building in Los Angeles that houses a daycare center. In 2014, Hall gave Lee a "Certificate of Recognition" for "outstanding dedication and exemplary service." Yet just months before, Lee had been charged, again—this time with sexual harassment.⁴

ISADORE HALL USES CAMPAIGN CASH TO LIVE THE HIGH LIFE

From meeting at a strip club to all-expenses-paid trips to fancy out-of-state events and tropical Hawaiian resorts, Isadore Hall is one of the “worst abusers” of campaign cash in the state. [San Diego Union-Tribune, Editorial, 11/15/14]

"oiliest

California."
[Daily Kos, 5/1/16]

Isadore Hall has received nearly $150,000 in campaign contributions from the oil and gas industry – more than almost any other state senator.¹ He votes to protect their interests, not ours.

Here is what $150,000 in campaign contributions bought:

SPECIAL TREATMENT FOR FRACKERS TO HIDE INFORMATION ABOUT HARMFUL CHEMICALS. Hall voted to allow the oil and gas industries to hide information from the public about chemicals they pump into the ground.²

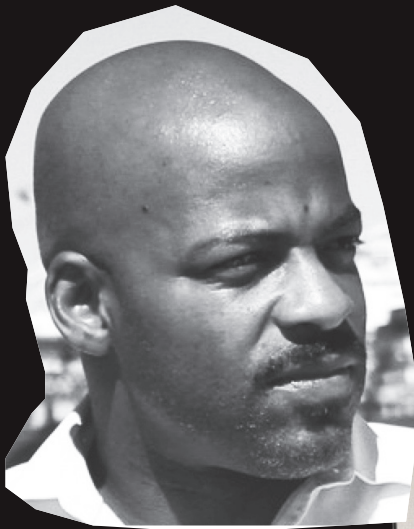

INCREASED RISK OF GROUNDWATER CONTAMINATION. Hall deliberately failed to vote for AB 669, which would have protected local California water supplies from being polluted by oil and gas drilling.³

LEGISLATION THAT FAVORS POLLUTERS OVER CHILDREN. Hall voted against stricter penalties for air polluters that harm our children and families.⁴

We need a representative in Congress who puts our families first, not Big Oil. We can do better than Isadore Hall.
