WHY GOOD PLAYS HAD POPULAR

At first, the story of a rolling egg, which is called "agar" and grew up in the younger ones, is actually a bit different old style game behind the agar. Behind this, we offered the snake game, which was found on the old phones under the name slither.io, in 3D. As a goal in the slice of the game, eat the bait and eat the intention of eating small snakes themselves, so that the network in the game is settled in the first row.

The agario was also successful with the slither game. This time, teams that want to evaluate it differently made a mobile version of slither game with the use of mobile phone in the range of 65 - 70% of the world. These games, which are played on the internet basis, allow us to play all kinds of io games on one site by saving them without entering different sites.
