

The SUN in astrology

In Astrology, the Sun, the source of life, symbolizes our conscious intellect. It symbolizes our will to live as well as our creative life energy.

Our life mission is derived from the Sun in our natal charts, much as the planets in our solar system rotate around the Sun. Natal chart is represented by the Sun. It's also our "adult" the part of us that stifles our "inner kid," weighs options, and makes final judgments. The Sun represents self-realization and is our fundamental identity

When asked, "Who are you?" after you've given your basic information and employment, your replies will most likely reflect your Sun. Our whole energy is also symbolized by the Sun. The Sun guides us and is sometimes referred to be the "boss" of our horoscope. The Sun (Sun) is so essential in the chart that individuals who identify (without over-identifying) with the Sun's expression are the happiest people on the planet. Though <https://astrologers.us/order-report> may believe that their Sun's characteristics would come naturally to them, the fact is that the Sun represents what we are learning to be. It's critical to remember that the Sun symbolizes logic rather than impulse.

Glyph of the Sun

In comparison to the Moon, the Sun represents the present, or "here and now," but the Moon infuses the past into our lives via emotions.

The Sun, according to Grant Lewi, represents "the psychological bias that will control your behavior." "You may think, dream, imagine, hope to be a thousand things, according to your Moon and other planets: but the Sun is who you are, and to be your best self in terms of your Sun is to cause your energies to work along the path where they will receive the most assistance from planetary vibrations," he continued. (1) We are purposeful, driven, proud, and creative when we are "acting out" our Sun. We may be arrogant, extremely willful, self-centered, and judgemental on the negative side.

The native's life goal and the way in which they make their imprint in the world are represented in the chart by the location of the Sun by zodiac sign.

The location of the Sun in each house reveals where our personalities shine. The aspects of life linked with that home show the kinds of experiences that develop our sense of self-identity and pride. These are the areas of life where we try to exhibit and emphasize our Sun sign characteristics.

Note: Both the Sun's sign and the Sun's house are important to consider while understanding your horoscope. Someone with the Sun in Aries in the 2nd house, for example, would read both the Sun in Aries and the Sun in the 2nd house interpretations. Another individual can have the Sun in Aries in the 8th house and read Sun in Aries and Sun in the 8th house meanings. Despite the fact that these two people have the same Sun sign, they exhibit their Aries Sun in distinct ways.
