General Informations about the places to visit

Time to visit Porto & Drive to Guimarães

The Porto Baixa (Downtown) is laid out around the Avenida dos Aliados (Avenue of the Allies), the city's focal point. At the top of this thoroughfare, there is the imposing Municipal Council building. At the other end, it opens onto the Praça da Liberdade (Liberty Square) where there is a statue of a mounted Pedro IV (19th c.), emperor of Brazil and, like much of Oporto, a supporter of the Liberalism movement. In a show of recognition, the king literally gave his heart to the city, now watched over in the Church of Lapa.

Time to visit Viseu

Arrival at Pousada de Viseu. The setting for the Pousada de Viseu is the former São Teotónio Hospital, which was originally opened in 1842. Atop the entrance to this majestic, imposing building, three statues, Faith, Hope and Charity, stand looking out over the old city. In 1799, D. Maria I obliged every county in the former district of Viseu to pay a contribution of one real towards the cost of building the hospital.

Pousada Mosteiro do Crato.

It is situated in a mystic spot that is lost in time, among century-old houses: Flor da Rosa. The Pousada Mosteiro do Crato blends the architectural characteristics of the castle, convent and Ducal Palace, which result in an eclectic and unusual work of art. The architectural intervention of Carrilho da Graça in the 1990s gave it a unifying modern touch, with which it welcomes its guests and diners with comfort and design.

Pousada Vila Viçosa

Dom João IV Pousada is set in the former Convent of Chagas de Cristo in the historical village of Vila Viçosa. Very characteristic with its intricate themed rooms, full of legends and tales, the Pousada has kept intact the convent cells, the retreats and the oratories built by the nuns. Not to mention appreciate the delicious conventual recipes...
It's time to go back.

BY YOURSELF and w / FRIENDS, and Hotel

You can reach Troia | Via Alcácer do Sal | or by | Ferry from Setúbal |, crossing the River Sado estuary. You can also wander about to discover the region’s cultural heritage, such as the Carrasqueira village on stilts and the Troia Roman Ruins which actually reveal how the area was already rich in natural resources two thousand years ago.

Forming part of the Sado Estuary Nature Reserve, Comporta Beach has been well preserved with the original dune vegetation surviving along with the adjoining pine forest.

1 - Day Arrival from Lisbon | Faro Airport

Signs of human habitation in Troia date back many centuries. The Roman Ruins are amongst the most important archaeological remains, dating from the 1st Century. They were the biggest complex for the production of preserves and fish sauce in the Western Roman Empire, and this is also evidence of the importance of fishing in the local economy since long ago.

After Troia, Comporta is a much appreciated spot for a family beach outing and has some good restaurants. This is a paddy field area, so rice-based dishes are an unmissable specialty.

Located on the southern tip of the Tróia Peninsula, the huge sandy extent of Comporta Beach is a regular summer favourite, given good means of access and plenty of parking space.

Forming part of the Sado Estuary Nature Reserve, Comporta Beach has been well preserved with the original dune vegetation surviving along with the adjoining pine forest.

Included:

- 1 night hotel accommodation with breakfast (3 star hotel or similar)
- 1 Dinner included
- 1 wine tasting

2 - Day From Alcácer do Sal - Named by the Romans Salacia Urbs Imperatoria
After a Alentejano Breakfast (Included).

Visit the Castle , and looking south, there is sharp bend in the river Sado, irrigating the smooth green plain that pre-empts the great Alentejan plain. Take the opportunity to look in on some of the main points of interest such as the Church of Santa Maria do Castelo (Saint Mary of the Castle), the Chapel of Senhor dos Mártires (Lord of the Martyrs), the Church of Santo António (Saint Anthony), the Church of Santiago and the Municipal Museum of Archaeology.

During the afternoon

In the vicinity, and all within a range of 30 km, the chance to see the villages of Santa Susana (A small church, with two 16th century panels), Santa Catarina and the Vale do Gaio Dam.

Wonders PORTUGAL BY YOURSELF and w / FRIENDS,

An unforgivable failure for any traveller is to believe that magic can only be found in the most remote places. You don't have any excuses, we propose various tours by road. There's only one condition: don't hurry and don't ever hesitate.

The climate in Portugal varies considerably from one region to another and is influenced by the relief, latitude and proximity to the sea, which offers mild winters, especially in the Algarve.

In the Porto e Norte area and Beiras region, particularly inland, nearer Spain, the winters are colder, although the temperatures are still mild when compared to the rest of Europe. There is some snowfall. It occurs most in the Serra da Estrela mountains, where we find the highest point in mainland Portugal (1,991 m)

It is widely suggested that the Southern coast of the Algarve is much more touristy than the Vicentina Coast which stretches north from Cape São Vicente to Alentejo. However, you must discover both coastlines, each with its peculiar charms, and even better, experience the seamless transition between Barlavento's and Amoreira beach, hugging the Monchique Mountain.

This tour gives a little from Portugal

City of Lisbon

Arrival to Lisbon 's airport. Reception at the airport and transfer to your hotel in Lisbon or surrounding areas. Dinner and overnight in Lisbon or surrounding areas.

Dinner and overnight in Fátima or surrounding.

Fátima / Batalha / Nazaré / Marinha Grande / Fátima or surrounding areas

We start the day with a visit of the famous Basilica and Fatima sanctuary, one of the most well known in the world. Continuation towards Batalha to visit its monastery, built to celebrate the battle of Aljubarrota, which gave Portugal its independence. Departure to the lovely fisherman village of Nazaré, crowned by Sítios' headland, connecting downtown by a funicular.

Coimbra / Aveiro / Costa Nova / Luso or surrounding.

Walking tour in the city of arts and literature, dominating the Mondego Valley. This city, known by its university, one of the oldest in Europe. Stop in the botanical garden. Continuation towards Aveiro, the Portuguese Venice.

Porto / Gondomar / Luso or surrounding areas
