

Royal Decree 2020/154

of the 20th of May, by which the Imperial Britannic Commonwealth approves the initiative to tend to international relations with the People's Federation of Pan-Asiatic States.

BE IT ENACTED by Her Royal Majesty, Queen Eleanor IV of the Britannic Realm, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords and Ladies of this present Cabinet assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Royal Decree 2020/154 of the 20th of May, by which the Imperial Britannic Commonwealth approves the initiative to tend to international relations with the People's Federation of Pan-Asiatic States and, in doing so, agrees the establishment of a permanent ambassadorial mission in each respective country. In the interests of securing the national sovereignty of the Imperial Britannic Commonwealth against deadly international threats, and as such, extending the courtesy of the same to the People's Federation of Pan-Asiatic States, the Imperial Foreign Office commits to constructing a cordial diplomatic relation between both aforementioned States.

Article I.

1. The Cabinet of Ministries approves the establishment of an Imperial embassy in the capital city of Neo-Manila. This embassy will be under the jurisdiction of the Imperial Diplomatic Cooperation Initiative.
2. The Imperial Commonwealth shall be represented in the People's Federation of Pan-Asiatic States by Honourable Ambassador Louise Philippe.
3. The Imperial Commonwealth's National Security Service shall assign a security duty to the ambassadorial mission consisting of ten [10] ambassadorial guards. The equipment assigned to this mission is at the discretion of the National Security Service and the Diplomatic Cooperation Initiative.
4. The Imperial Commonwealth's embassy shall include a team of diplomatic staff consisting of: [2] Legal Attaché, [3] Economic & Trade Attaché, [2] Cultural Attaché, [1] Defense Attaché, [1] Charge d'Affaire.
5. The Imperial Commonwealth's embassy shall include a team of administrative staff consisting of: [5] Personal Secretaries of Ambassador & Diplomatic Staff, [5] Councillor's Staff, [1] Official Embassy Press Spokesperson, [2] Diplomatic Cooperation Initiative Liaison Officers, [4] Medical Staff, [4] Chef & Staff, [10] Other.

Article II.

The Imperial Britannic Commonwealth deposits the competence of the elaboration of any further agreements between the two countries as indicated in this Royal Decree with the Imperial Foreign Office, which may delegate said competence as it sees fit. Any and all elaborated agreements must be finally presented before the Cabinet of Ministries for approval by all members of the Cabinet.

Article III.

In accordance with Royal Decree 1952/1147, which states: ‘Should the Imperial Britannic Commonwealth approve the establishment of an embassy abroad and the host country in question approves this diplomatic request and proceedings to initiate the construction of the diplomatic mission in the country have begun, and in the event that following thirty natural days, the Principle of Reciprocity has not been adhered to or their intention to do so been guaranteed by the government or appropriate authorities of the host country, the diplomatic mission shall be considered null and void and all Imperial delegators are to return effective immediately to the Imperial Britannic Commonwealth’, the Imperial Foreign Office requests that the People’s Federation of Pan-Asiatic States refer to the Imperial Diplomatic Cooperation Initiative with haste to continue the construction of these diplomatic relations.
