

Gas Company Tries To Collect Payment On Past Bill From Colbert Apartment Tenants

by Maria Girvin
 Although elderly and handicapped residents of the Mary Colbert Apartments were told by Boston Gas to submit their rent payments to the Gas Company because that complex's account is in arrears, manager William Galvin of Bunker Hill Real Estate said that tenants should continue paying their rent to the Kennedy Center as he has worked out a payment schedule with the Gas Company.
 "I think it was a case of the left hand not knowing what the right hand was doing," said Kennedy Center Director Leo Carey in explaining that most of the complex's rent is made up of HUD subsidy monies which would never be paid directly to the Gas Company.

Presently the gas bill stands at $14,173.99 with a new meter reading scheduled for March 23rd.
 Galvin said that the Kennedy Center is expecting $50 thousand from HUD as payment of four months worth of vouchers which had not been billed for previously during former Executive Director John Gardiner's employment. This money is an accumulation of subsidy rent money which must be billed for by the Kennedy Center before it can be paid.
 According to Galvin, this HUD money will go towards the Gas Company bill. Galvin said that new letters will be distributed to the Colbert tenants, once HUD verifies that the Kennedy Center is to receive this money.

 The Economic Development Corporation (EDC) apparently suffered serious financial mismanagement under Gardiner and doesn't expect to catch up with bills for two to four months.
 "I don't blame John (Gardiner) for the gas bill but I do blame him for not setting aside money to pay the taxes as was agreed when they closed on the property," said Galvin.
 When papers were signed between HUD and the Kennedy Center, Gardiner opened an account for taxes, as specified by HUD. The account was opened with $100, however, no further money was ever deposited.
 Tuesday was the deadline for the EDC to pay their 1982 taxes which wipes out any available funds for the Gas Company.

 Galvin said he did speak to some of the Colbert tenants to assure them that the gas would not be turned off as elderly and handicapped persons are protected from shut-offs under the law.
 "The Gas Company had a legitimate concern," said Galvin, "but I was disturbed with the way they approached this. They never made one phone call."

Triumph And Tragedy

"Soon you will see the Son of Man ..."
 Jesus as played by Phil Carr.

"Softly and tenderly Jesus is calling
 Calling for you and for me;
 See at the portal he's waiting and watching
 Watching for you and for me."

The words of this dear enchanting hymn serve as your invitation to Golgotha. Jesus seeks you to witness his final desperate act of redemption. Stand and view the agony of betrayal the tempestuous scourging and the final sacrifice that opened the gates of heaven to you.
 "Triumph and Tragedy", a play, will be performed at St. Mary's Church, Charlestown on Wednesday, March 30, 1983 at 7:30 p.m.

ASBESTOS LUNG DISEASE

Asbestos dust causes serious lung ailments; the diseases appear suddenly, years after exposure. Today numerous shipyard workers, masons, and pipefitters of the 1930's-1970's have lung afflictions because they inhaled asbestos particles many years ago.

If you worked in one of those professions then and now have a lung disease, you may be eligible to receive money damages or workers' compensation. Relatives of living and deceased victims can also recover in some cases.

March Is Irish Month

"March is Irish Month" again at the Charlestown Branch Library and the Friends of the Library look forward to a large audience for their Irish program. "The Irish Poetry of Ellen McCreven" on Thursday evening, March 24 at 7:00 p.m. Miss McCreven, a Charlestown neighbor, is a frequent contributor to the weekly newspaper "The Irish Star." Selections from her poetry will be read by local actor, Jim Doherty, who has been a leading man in several of the Charlestown Working Theater productions. A "social" will follow the program and all are invited. An open invitation is also extended for the Irish film program, which will be held at the library on Thursday evening, March 31, at 6:30 p.m.

On March 31, "Treasures of Ireland" surveys Irish art from the pre-Celtic period through the Middle Ages and shows the influence on European art of the beautiful Celtic art forms. Those interested in Irish art or history will find several attractive books available at the library. Robert Kee's "Ireland: A History" follows the television series of the same name in providing an evaluation of important events in Ireland's history, while "Ireland: An Illustrated History" gives a beautifully illustrated overview. Two perfect guidebooks to every "Townie's" favorite country are "The Magic Of Ireland" by H.V. Morton and "Ireland Observed" by May Veber.

* A five minute walk from the MBTA station at Copley Square

More Police Visibility Aim Of New Deployment Plan

by Maria Girvin
Charlestown is slated for a police sub-station according to the 1983 Deployment Plan of the Boston Police Department. According to the 97 page detailed plan, a "neighborhood Station will be located at 3 City Square," where the District Court is also located.

However, according to the Public Information Office at City Hall, there has been no definite decision made on the station and is still in the discussion stage.

According to Deputy Superintendent Joseph Saia, several Charlestown sites were being considered on Bunker Hill Street, Main Street next to Store 24, Bunker Hill Mall, and the Court House. According to Saia, heavy emphasis has been put on the City Square area because of the proximity and cost factors. With the development of the Navy Yard, it is felt by some that the City Square area is the center of Charlestown, accessible by both the Main Street and Bunker Hill Street bus lines.

Should the new policing plan continue in effect, without further court injunction, Charlestown should see several walking beats come into existence. Under the new plan which began Tuesday, March 15, four "walking men" will keep an eye on the area between Hayes Square and Sackville Street on Bunker Hill Street; the Monument; Thompson Square; and CharlesNewTown along Medford Street.

The beats will take place

8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and another shift will continue from 5:30 p.m. to approximately 1:00 a.m. Some foot beats will end at approximately 11:30 p.m.

In addition, Charlestown will have a rapid response car daily between 7:30 a.m. and 4 p.m. with an additional shift before or after that time period, depending on the day.

Other standard beats will include a traffic patrol at City Square between 7:30 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. Monday through Friday and an evening shift between 4 and 6 p.m.

Beats were determined by computers, said Deputy Superintendent Joseph Saia at the last Community Police Relations Meeting. According to the new plan, Charlestown will lose a police officer during the night but pick one up during the day shift. Saia said he expected to gain another 11 new cadets, which could increase Charlestown manpower. The police department will add an additional 50 police officers in April.

It is hoped, that through the new plan, police visibility will increase, making residents feel safer, while deterring crime. Originally the plan was to go into effect March 2, but police union officials brought court action against the city because of the 1-man patrol cars. With the removal of a second injunction against the plan Monday afternoon, March 14, the plan went into effect the following day.

Not Addressing The Issues

Patric B. Moscaritolo
Director of Public and Governmental Affairs
Massport
Dear Mr. Moscaritolo,

With all due respect, I believe that you are not truly addressing the issues brought up by John Kelly in his recent letter to the Patriot. If we reach back into the past to show Massport's commendable activities in the Charlestown community, others can reach back and bring up activities that were not so commendable.

The issue that glares out at me is jobs for the residents of Charlestown. I do not mean people who, after obtaining a job with Massport, moved into Charlestown.

Your figures on jobs for Charlestown residents point up that 26 percent of the jobs at Massport go to local residents. Using Massports figure of 723 jobs that would mean that roughly 188 jobs go to local residents. Charlestown's share of these jobs according to your figures is 19. Therefore Charlestown as one of the more severely impacted areas receives only 3 percent of the jobs at Massport and only 10 percent of the jobs allocated to local residents. It appears that, no matter how you slice it, Charlestown DOES NOT receive the attention it deserves as an impacted community. Also Charlestown is a very densely populated community and the impact from Massport activities is felt greater than communities that are larger in area.

I agree with Robert Wallace of the Kennedy Center Board that Massport should address these concerns at public meetings and not through the use of letters that raise more questions than answers.

Thanks For The Memories

Dear Editor:

Reference: The "Hippie" by Charlie McGonagle
Charlie: Thanks for the memories, you really took me back. May I add just a few of my own of the "Hippie." Holding back on our Sunday School donation because we just had to see the movie currently playing.

Doubling up on Saturday afternoon for the candy bar the ushers offered because there just wasn't enough seats to empty that line up Wood Street Hill.

The endless Western Serials which continued week after week.

The yeahs when the hero got the villain, and the boos when he kissed the heroine. Putting your head in your lap when the really scary scenes flashed on.

Charlestown-To-Charlestown Committee Says "Thanks"

March 15, 1983

Dear Gloria,

The Charlestown to Charlestown Committee Inc. would like to extend a sincere "Thank You" to all those who helped make our first "Mayor of Charlestown" election such a resounding success.

We congratulate and thank the winner, Lil Boutilier, and the candidates Bill Griffin, John Flaherty, June Reilly, Lester Boyce, Terry Ring, and Danny Ring. To the respective campaign committees, we commend them for a job "well done"

Thanks also to Frank Smith, Bob Collier (Collier's Market), John Russo (Awards Unlimited), and Tom Donahue (Knights of Columbus) for their efforts to make "election night" a perfect evening.

We would be remiss not to recognize the help we received from the staff of the Patriot. Thank you for your time, patience, and advice: Gloria, Maria, and Pauline.

And, last but by no means least, to all those people of good nature and good will who purchased "votes", thank you all.

The response and success the Charlestown to Charlestown Committee has had with this election, its final goal, causes the Committee to look ahead with great enthusiasm for future plans, namely, the Charlestown "Rose Pageant" to be held June 3rd, 1983 and a community tour to the International Western Rose Festival in the summer of 1984.

Thanks again to all.

Time Is Ripe For Constitutional Convention

In recent years it has become apparent the only way to implement change to oppressive government policies is by initiative petition at the grassroots level.

The states of California and Massachusetts led the way with their initiatives which resulted in the lowering of property taxes in their respective states. Had they waited for the legislature to act, they would still be paying through the nose.

And now comes the groundswell for a balanced budget amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

Many Thanks

Many thanks to all the members of the Bunker Hill Irish Heritage Society who voted for me in our recent election. I look forward to serving you as a member of the Board of Directors.

Thank you,
Joan O'Brien

The national Tax Limitation Committee is working for passage of this amendment which will require the federal government to spend no more than it receives in tax revenues. In other words, if successfully implemented it would mean the end of deficit spending and the eventual lowering of interest rates.

It may come as a shock to many readers, as of this writing, 31 states have called for a Constitutional Convention to ratify the balanced budget amendment; only 3 more states are needed before the convention is called.

Why do we need the first Constitutional convention since the original in 1787?

It is my considered opinion the people of this nation are no longer being represented by Congress. So entrenched are many incumbents they no longer care for or serve the will of the American people.

Let's look at just two departments of government which should be abolished as President Reagan has indicated he would like done.

Department of Education

This department was created by Jimmy Carter as nothing more than a political payoff to the national teachers union for their support in helping to elect him.

Its budget is 24 billion dollars. Its function is to promote Secular Humanism and Forced Busing. It alters the text books of our children to conform with its left wing views.

Do we really need this mammoth bureaucracy at a cost of 24 billion?

Department of Energy

This department sponsored an energy conservation program to save consumers 39.33 million. Sounds great doesn't it? The cost to administer the program resulted in an expenditure of 1.25 billion. Again, the taxpayers have been taken.

And Congress remains silent.

Remember, once a Constitutional Convention is convened, there is no limit to the number of issues that can be discussed and, if approved can be ratified by the states as amendments to the Constitution.

Whereas Congress fails to act on certain issues, this would give the people the voice they need to abolish many social policies unconstitutionally undertaken by the Federal Judiciary.

A case in point would be the forced busing of children to obtain a racial balance in our public schools. With 80% of the American people opposed to this policy, Congress steadfastly refuses to intervene on behalf of the people.

Congress, knowing full well the federal courts are unsuited to administratively structured orderly supervision of a public school system, and with full knowledge that the net result of busing programs have failed all across the nation, at a cost of billions of dollars, refuses to enact legislation to limit the courts.

If we ever hope to find relief from oppressive government by Congress and by the Federal Judiciary the time is now for action.

This nation is ripe for a Constitutional Convention and the people of Massachusetts should insist that their elected representatives vote to make Massachusetts the 32nd state to call for the convention.

He was engaged in the attempted Irish Revolution of 1867, was captured, arms in hand, at Kilclooneywood. Was tried by English law for high treason and was sentenced to be hanged, drawn and quartered. Was transported, with 62 other Irish patriots, to West Australia Penal Colony, 1867. Was released from Prison 1871.

By religion, a Protestant. By nature, a brave man. By birth and principle, a soldier of liberty. GOD SAVE IRELAND."

Note: While researching material for a prospective article on a prominent fraternal organization, we were directed to their official Boston burial plot at Mount Hope Cemetery, Dorchester. Our roving eye, however, was drawn and glued to what appeared to be an Irish Round Tower in the far reaches of the older section of these hallowed burial grounds. It was, indeed, and the epitaph inscribed there upon was what you just read.

In commemoration of today's beloved Irish holiday, it was our intention to home in on a popular celtic subject but, obviously, John Edward Kelly's legacy (immemoriated in stone) captured our mind and heart. It tells its own story...not only of his exploits, dedication, and daring to unify Ireland and free her of the yoke of English tyranny, but stands in homage to all who have gone before, and are yet to come, in further testimony that this seemingly endless holocaust will never and until "Ireland is United, Gaelic and Free."

We were unable to develop more specific information on Mr. Kelly, but were told by another "Son of Erin" that on a visit to this same gravesite years ago he was given to understand that John Boyle O'Reilly stood the price of the monument itself, and was largely responsible for the wording of the inscription. Whatever, isn't it strange his plight and story should surface some one hundred years after his death? And does it not lend strong credence to the old axiom "To live on in the hearts you leave behind is not to die at all?"

A SHORT QUIZ FOR SCHOLARS AND SAINTS, AND THE REST OF US.....

Everyone is an expert today on St. Patrick, so no one will have trouble telling us (1) His real name, (2) Why he is associated with the Shamrock, (3) His date of death, (4) At what age, and (5) What it was that he reportedly told St. Germanus he persistently heard summoning him back to Erin? Answers elsewhere this column.

"GOOD LUCK, CHARLIE. IRELAND FOREVER!".....

Those kind and meaningful words were written upon a poem we received that was authored by one "Bibbers" Dalton, a new friend who lives in Springfield, who we had the pleasure of meeting as a consequence of the recent gubernatorial election. Through him, we were to learn that a large group of Corkonians settled in the western part of Massachusetts. Those in Springfield live, principally, in an area called "Hungry Hill," and we'll let his prose tell you the story:

"There's a Hill overlooking our city, with a church tower majestic and wide, It's unique with its people and history, and deeds that long will Abide. No other section in this city can match its claim to fame, of the scholarly, the witty, and politically acclaimed. Religious vocations were given amply, by the score, Is there any district or precinct that can boast of anymore? We're often asked how the Hill got its name, Some say the Depression, others will claim, How a trolley driver with voice loud and shrill yelled, "Get off

"There's a Hill overlooking our city, with a church tower majestic and wide.

It's unique with its people and history, and deeds that long will Abide. No other section in this city can match its claim to fame, of the scholarly, the witty, and politically acclaimed. Religious vocations were given amply, by the score, Is there any district or precinct that can boast of anymore?

We're often asked how the Hill got its name, Some say the Depression, others will claim,

How a trolley driver with voice loud and shrill yelled, "Get off all you Irish, you're on Hungry Hill!"

For Irish they were, and Irish they are, We wonder sometimes how they made it so far.

Now some come from Kerry, around the town of Dungen The Fentons, O'Connors, Dowds, Garvey and Finn, Harrington, Ryans, Powers and O'Roarkes, Sweeneys, and Sheas, all from County Cork. Those Corkonians, men brave and tall, Could have given the name for one and for all.

In Ol' County Cork where poteen is made still

There's a mountain above them they call "Hungry Hill."

Thanks, "Bibbers," and good luck to you too, Ireland will be forever!

ST. PATRICK, REVISITED.....

If in answer to the earlier quiz you knew that "Magonus Sucatus" was St. Patrick's real name, that he taught about the Blessed Trinity by showing the Shamrock has three leaves yet in one plant, that he died on March 17th (Circa 461, A.D.) at the age of 105, and that it was the "Voice of the Irish" he heard, you not only belonged at The Parade...but in it! However you fared, "May sunlight shine upon you and warm your heart 'til it glows like a great peat fire so that the stranger may come and warm himself by it."

NEWS ITEM FROM BOSTON'S "IRISH FRONT".....

Irish-American "Winter Soldiers," manning the ramparts outside the Boston Globe, were recent beneficiaries of the samaritanship and kindness of Funeral Director Larry Keaney who dropped off coffees and muffins to spirited - but darned cold - I.N.A. members Bill Paalat, of

Everett, and "yours truly."

Picketing continues each Saturday at the Globe's Dorchester offices on Morrissey Blvd., from 1 to 3 p.m., and will until an apology is forthcoming for their insensitive use of a rat to portray a leprechaun in a cartoon appearing in their newspaper last July.

Join 'em "on the line" when you have an opportunity.

Militia Corner

It has come to our attention lately that many people believe that the Charlestown Militia Company no longer exists. We are happy to announce that this isn't true. We are still in existence and are quite active in parades and other functions. In fact, the company is the largest it has been since it was started. The problem with being noticed by our home town is that most of our appearances are in other towns and states. We travel to Connecticut four or five times a year and also to New Hampshire two or three times a season. Plans are in the works for even more trips to New York, Vermont, and possibly Pennsylvania. So as you can see, we are quite active all over New England. Being more active at home has been the tough part. Therefore the Militia has come up with some ideas to function more in the town.

We will be running a column in the Patriot at least once a month to let the people know what we are doing and where we will be. There will also be announcements about any functions that we will be having in the town. One of our first campaigns will be to have a sticker promotion. We will be asking a dollar donation for the stickers to help us to run parties and functions like in the past. Along with the stickers, we are selling Charlestown Militia T-shirts for $6 a piece.

Anyone interested in joining the Militia can find us at the American Legion Hall in Charlestown on the first Thursday night of the month between 7:30 p.m. and 10 p.m. Or, you can write to us at:

Charlestown Militia Company, P.O. Box 1775, Charlestown, Ma. 02129.

Where Are They Now?

Thirteen years have past since Robert Irgens became the first Michael P. Quinn Scholarship winner in 1970. The Boston Latin graduate went on to attend Boston College where he graduated in 1974 with a degree in Business Administration.

Robert now resides in Peabody with his wife and two children, Melissa and Michael. He is presently employed by the Massachusetts General Hospital as a reimbursement and cost accountant. Robert plans to continue his career in the health care field.

In reflecting back on his selection as the initial scholarship recipient, Robert, in a recent interview stated, "I am still very proud of being the first winner of the scholarship honoring Mike Quinn. And I am impressed by the way it has continued and grown."

The administrators of the Quinn Scholarship are also very proud of Robert for his sagacious use of the scholarship. Robert was the first; and in being so, set the stage for subsequent winners. He established the high level of achievement that future winners would have to use as a benchmark. All of the scholarship winners have been exemplary individuals. Robert, as the first winner, made excellence a clear standard for others to follow and emulate.

Sheehan Chosen CHS "Teacher of the Month"

Mr. David Sheehan, a Social Studies teacher, formerly at Jamaica Plain High and Brighton High, is March's "Teacher of the Month" at Charlestown High School.

Mr. Sheehan has been a member of the faculty for just a few months but has shown a willingness to participate in many activities both inside and outside of the classroom. He is a teacher who regards his job as a profession worthy of excellence and gives his best efforts towards this end.

Upon hearing that he was elected "Teacher of the Month," Mr. Sheehan said, "I am surprised! Although I am not sure that I agree that one teacher should be singled out when so many are making valuable contributions to the education of the student, I am pleased, and it is a good feeling to know that you are appreciated."

Congratulations, Mr. Sheehan.

The Shamrock

By Anthony O'Manconi

In the Emerald Hills of Ireland
On the river banks so grand,
St. Patrick spread the Christian faith and sowed the seed of love not hate.
From fields he picked a wee Shamrock,
Then held it high above his flock.
"Three leaves - one stem - a mystery
But from it learn the Trinity."
A clover in a field of green
Tells more to me than any theme.
They grow and thrive near Galway Bay
Where a bit of Heaven fell one day

Meeting On Charlestown Pumping Station

The Metropolitan District Commission (MDC) will hold a public meeting on Tuesday, March 22, on its study to determine whether improvements should be made to the Charlestown Pump Station or whether a new station is required. The meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Kent Community School, 50 Bunker Hill Street, Charlestown.

The viable alternatives for improvements to or for construction of a new pump station, as well as the environmental impacts and cost of each alternative, will be discussed at the meeting.

The pump station, which is located in Charlestown on the Mystic River, conveys wastewater from Charlestown, Cambridge, Somerville and Medford to the Deer Island Sewage Treatment Plant in Winthrop. The nine month study, which began in September 1982, will lead to recommendations for efficient operation of the station for approximately the next 20 years.

Engineers from both the MDC and the engineering firm doing the study will be present at the meeting to explain the work done to date and to answer questions.

The study is required under the U.S. Clean Water Act and is part of the MDC's coordinated effort to improve its wastewater and combined sewer overflow management system.

Spring Show Rehearsals Begin

Final auditions were held this week for the Charlestown Working Theater's spring production of "Awake and Sing," a play written by Clifford Odets during the 1930's Depression.

Laurie Zallen, a long-time Charlestown resident, is directing the play. Jim Doherty and Willy Holgate will be acting in the play as well as seven other talent actors from around the Boston area.

The play is tentatively scheduled to open Thursday, May 12. It will run Thursday through Sunday, May 12 to 15, May 26 through May 29, and June 2, 3, and 4. The production will be "dark" the weekend of May 19 to 22.

Now that the cast is going into rehearsal, work really begins! The Theater needs lots of help to do costumes, sets, house management, publicity, and all the other support it takes to put a show together.

It's a lot of fun and very interesting work. Anyone willing to help should call the Charlestown Working Theater at 242-3534. Sherryl DeVries or Randy Warren will call you back and let you know how you can get involved.

Four C.H.S. Hockey Players Named To All Star Team

by Andrea Morin

He was thrilled. Honest enthusiasm. You could hear it in his voice. You might as well be telling the kid that he'd just won the Irish sweepstakes. "You made the All Star Team", he was told. Bobby Allen was stunned. "I did?", he questioned. "Wow! I'm very surprised." Then it hit him. "I made the All Star Team!" he shouted. Ah, exuberance.

Charlestown High School lead the pack of city schools this season by having four players selected to the hockey All Star Team. "They worked hard for it," Charlestown coach Jack Morris said of his All Stars: Dan Considine, Kevin Woods, Bobby Allen and Eddie Considine. "It was just. Just reward."

"Bobby was a very important part of our team," Morris continued. "He was very dependable. Kevin is one of the best defensive defensemen around. He could be up there with the top defensemen. And Dan Considine? I've said it all before, he's the best total hockey player in the City League."

The players' reactions to being selected to the All Star Team? Bobby Allen was, well, he was excited. "I feel good about it", Kevin Woods said. "It's a thrill to be picked for it," commented Eddie Considine. Danny Considine just took it in stride.

There was surprise at the exclusion of goalie Chuckie Smith from the All Star Team. "Smitty had a real good year," Morris said. "He was probably underestimated, maybe he didn't get as many shots in as some of the goalies on other teams." Between

Smith and Eric Johnson Charlestown had eight shutouts. That's kind of hard to overlook.

Plans have been proposed for an All Star tournament which would take place the weekend of March 25, 26, 27. All Stars from the Boston City League and several other leagues would take part in round robin play. Further details were not available as this issue went to press.

The City League All Stars are:

Third Team: Eric Powers, Umana, goal; Eddie Considine,

Considine And Vesey Named To HNIB All Scholastic Team

by Andrea Morin

Many superlatives have been used to describe Dan Considine. Jack Morris calls him, "The best in the City League, and one of the top players in Eastern Massachusetts."

Opposing coaches call him names unprintable in a family newspaper; but they would all like to have him play for their teams.

The colleges have been calling him. He hasn't signed a letter of intent yet.

And Hockey Night In Boston called him. What did they call him? All Scholastic.

"You can't let it go to your head," Considine said of his selection to the HNIB Division Two All Scholastic Team. "Because then you end up ruining everything."

Considine and his fellow All Scholastics, which include Columbus' Jimmy Vesey of Charlestown and Jamaica Plain High's John Torchetti, will take to the ice in the HNIB All Scholastic Tournament starting March 26 at Stoneham Arena.

The tournament is made up of five teams: North, consisting of the Middlesex, Merrimack Valley and Greater Boston Leagues, the Northeast Conference and New Hampshire; South, consisting of the Suburban, Bay State, Dual County and Old Colony Leagues and Rhode Island; Catholic, consisting of central Mass. Catholic school; Private, consisting of the Kelleher and Eberhart Divisions, Independants and clubs, such as the South Shore Braves and North Shore Raiders; and Division Two, consisting of all the Division Two Leagues.

The players for Division Two are: Forwards: Brian Holt, Triton: Joe Selluk, Tewksbury; Dave Warner, Duxbury; Danny Bowen, Cohasset; Jimmy Vesey, Cofumbus; Jim Marchard, Franklin; Joe Sullivan, Canton; John Torchetti, Jamaica Plain; Danny Considine, Charlestown; Jerry Grady, Falmouth; Steve Melloni, Wareham; Dennis Moran, John Newark, Wilmington; Dave Hallet, Medfield; Mike Glover, Barnstable and Mark Duncan, Franklin.

Defensemen: Bob Bowman, Falmouth; Chip Kispert, Duxbury; Rich Evans, Cohasset; Peter Heinze, North Andover; Bob Bissante, Franklin; Paul Pissano, Dom Savio; Tim Reams, Falmouth; Rich Olsen, Dover-Sherborn; Mike Keith, Northeast Regional.

Goaltenders: Tom Loose, Harwich; Ed Walsh, Tewksbury; and Joey Christopher, Lynnfield.

New Balance Basketball Clinic A Success

M.L. CARR, Boston Celtic's forward, captures the attention of "Townie" boys and girls at last Saturday's Basketball Clinic.

THE FUNDAMENTAL TECHNIQUES of basketball was demonstrated to a capacity crowd at the New Balance Basketball Clinic held March 12 at the Charlestown Boys and Girls Club. Celtic's forward M.L. Carr is shown coaching young "Townie" players in the game.

CHRIS FORD, former Boston Celtic's guard, gives basketball tips to Boys and Girls Club members.

On Saturday, March 12, the Charlestown Clubhouse of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston posted a New Balance Basketball Clinic. Former Boston Celtic's guard, Chris Ford, and current Celtic's forward, M.L. Carr, demonstrated the fundamental techniques of the game to a capacity crowd.

They were assisted by John Brennan, Gym Director of the Charlestown Clubhouse; Ro Walsh, former captain of the Merrimack College Basketball team and current coach of the New Balance-Boys and Girls Clubs team; Dan McGoff, coach of Columbus High School Basketball team; and Bobby Smith, former captain of the Boston College Basketball team.

New Balance Athletic Shoe Company sponsored the clinic as part of the "Academics and Athletics" program run in conjunction with the Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston. They also support a boys' and girls' All Star team and In-House Leagues in all three clubhouses. The goal of the program is to promote basketball as well as academics in Charlestown, Roxbury, and South Boston—the three communities served by the Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston.

Columbus' Hockey Dream

Ends . . . For Now!

by Bob DeCristoforo, Athletic Director

It's over! It's hard to believe, Christopher Columbus' longest hockey year has come to an end. Franklin out-scored our Hockey Friars 4-1 in a hard fought game at a crowded Boston University, where it all began three months ago, in the quarterfinal round of the State tournament.

It has been a little over a week since the final buzzer sounded, and the reality of it is just about setting in—no more practices, no more games.

In the end I had to take a 45 minute walk around Charlestown just to get my head straight, and my mind back to earth. It has been that type of season. I know I set a record this year for the most times a Columbus Athletic Director has been at the rink, practices, games, etc. It was that type of team—a magnificent group of kids you enjoyed being around, and enjoyed watching.

I've never seen a team closer together, and I've seen a lot of teams. They won, and they had fun. They had ability, and they put it together, and a lot of people caught it . . . the Globe, the Herald, Hockey Night In Boston, Channel 7, us.

It might be over, but the memories will be there, and there was a lot—the shaved heads, the singing, the crowds, "Musto" the All Stars, a league MVP, the TV game, WCOZ's Offensive Player of the Week Award, clinching the championship at Home, the tournament games, the newspaper articles, the TV spotlights, just to name a few.

And who will forget our parents, the unsung heroes of Columbus hockey, the beautiful cheerleaders, the coaches, and all our hockey supporters. They to have a special place in this special year.

I've been to Boston Garden since the final game. I've seen the ECAC Champions celebrate their win and I've seen the High Schoolers celebrate their championships, and I'm already getting anxious, because I know what it will be like when the Friars celebrate their State Championship. Imagine what it will be like when our team skates the Cup around the ice before a standing Garden crowd! Crazy thoughts?? Not when you realize that this year's team had 16 underclassmen and only 4 seniors, and not when you realize that all 16 will be competing to get back. This year may be over, but next year might have already begun, and besides November 28th isn't that far away!

At Columbus this winter PRIDE wore skates, and oh boy, wait till next year.

TAX RETURN TIME

It's here again!!!

Why spend countless hours selecting the forms and schedules you think you need, when they may not provide you with the lowest tax.

As an Attorney with 18 years of experience, I will do more than prepare your returns. I offer tax planning and financial assistance, including ways to avoid paying more taxes than necessary.

Views On Dental Health

by Jeffrey D. Cohen,
D.M.D.

ASPIRIN — GOOD AND BAD

If your child has a toothache, get him or her to a dentist immediately. If this is not practical, a proper dosage of aspirin will help make him feel more comfortable until you can get to the dentist. However, you should take precautions when administering aspirin.

Make sure your child takes the aspirin with enough water to prevent upsetting his stomach. Aspirin is a systemic drug: it relieves pain only after it has entered the bloodstream. So make sure it gets all the way down with plenty of water. Never place the tablet on the painful tooth or on the gum or let it dissolve in his mouth and ask him to swish it around the aching tooth. The aspirin can irritate the tissue seriously.

Never crush aspirin and place it between the cheek and the gum. Aspirin and related compounds are a common source of burns of the oral cavity. White lesions can develop where the medication touches the cheek or gum. The tissues will become painful and the white cauterized areas may be removed leaving a painful, raw, bleeding area.

February Assembly At The Warren-Prescott School

by Harold G. Robinson

February is indeed a very busy month at the Warren-Prescott and this year marked no exception with the celebrations and observances of the birthday of two notable statesmen. Washington (February 22nd) and Lincoln (February 12); it also marked the celebration of Valentine's Day. Chinese New Year on the 13th and, of course, the observance of Black History Month. All were noted in good favor by the children of the classes of Mrs. Tibbetts (second grade) and the fourth grade classes of Mrs. Devone and Mrs. Kinsella. It was a stirring program with lots of new songs and narrations and one which was thoroughly enjoyed by an appreciative audience of parents, teachers and children and other members of the school staff.

INTRODUCING the program was Tracy Claudio of Grade 4.

The program was introduced by Tracy Claudio and Nancy Roache and the usual salute to the flag and the singing of a patriotic song initiated the assembly. What would February be without the singing of "Yankee Doodle" and the poem, "February Thoughts"? The poem "George Washington" was recited and this was followed by the entire group singing "George Washington the Great". Pupils rendered in beautiful style and fashion, the poem, "You Cannot Tell".

Lovely Mildred Wong introduced the segment of the program on Abe Lincoln and this was followed by the poem, "Abraham Lincoln". The familiar tune, "Old Abe Lincoln" was next on the agenda, followed by a poem, "Lincoln".

The song, "Magic Penny" was presented and this led into the introduction of Valentine's Day by congenial Tonya Fennelly. The very familiar song, "Getting to Know You" fit into the program and it was well done and appreciated by the audience.

The children of grade 2, presented the beautiful poem, "For You", introduced by Monet Slekis. The appropriate song, "Will You Be My Valentine" was next and lilting Tonya Fennelly recited "When You Send A Valentine". The entire ensemble happily sang "Love Somebody" and "I'd Like To Teach The World to Sing," both very much fitting into the theme of Valentine's Day.

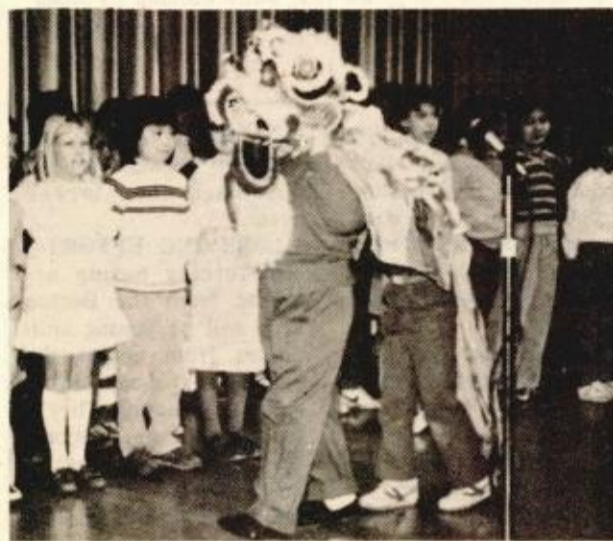

Colleen Boyden, Linette Duncan, Jessica Haney and Athena Woo joined together to recite "Be My Valentine", and they all did a superb piece of speaking.

Chinese New Year was acknowledged and introduced by Andrew Ma. There was an exciting dragon dance which really added to the enjoyment of the day's program. Eddie Chin and Michael Lee were the "dragoners".

Finally, this excellent and well prepared program came to its conclusion with a song that we shall always remember being done so well by these talented second and fourth graders; namely, "Up, Up With People" and the closing of the program was made by Robert Dowell.

Music accompaniment via the piano was by Mrs. Smith, music teacher and the children of room 209, did the usual excellent job of serving as ambassadors in greeting parents and other visitors to the program. They included: Helen Chan, Lisa Chin, Chung Tam, Dickson Fong, Robert Ng, Daniel Cheong, Leo Puleio, James Li, Adam Yong and Benny Lee. Mrs. Kiely thanked all in attendance, congratulated the teachers and children who were responsible for the program.

THE DRAGON in celebration of Chinese New Year was Eddie Chin and Michael Lee of Grade 2.

A Journey Of Healing Clears Minds, Hearts

by Rev. Thomas Conway

Editor's Note: Rev. Thomas F. Conway pastor of St. Catherine's Church in Charlestown and the author of several books on religious education, has written a series of Lenten messages. This is the fifth in that series.

There is a movement, motion to our journey. We stopped going away from God in conversion. We started again with a rededication to God in our sorrow and forgiveness, i.e., in reconciliation.

Now we move un-encumbered, impelled by the attraction of Jesus the Savior, Isaiah (Is. 43:18-20) expresses this:

"Remember not the events of the past the things of long ago consider not; See, I am doing something new!

Now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?"

St. Paul also stresses we should not look backward-but adds:

"It is not that I have reached it YET, or already finished my course; but I am racing to grasp the prize if possible, since I have been grasped by Christ (Jesus). Brothers, I do not think of myself as having reached the finish line. I give no thought to what lies behind but push on to what is ahead. My entire attention is on the finish line as I run toward the prize to which God calls me - life on high in Christ Jesus." (Php. 3:12-14).

The journey of healing this week is brilliantly portrayed in the spiritual healing of the woman accused of adultery. Filled with guilt; fearing death by stoning; despairing; she watched Jesus. As her accusers left one by one did she feel better?

Jesus looked at her. "Is there no one to condemn you?" "No one." "Nor do I." "Go and sin no more."

Released! Saved from death. Filled with joy; no fear; hoping.

Cleansed. Healed.

Is this woman Mary Magdalene to whom Jesus would appear on Easter morning?

The journey of conversion, towards reconciliation culminates in healing.

The journey through penance and fasting impels us to the triumphal entrance of Jesus into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday. This week of healing should clear our minds and hearts to celebrate the entrance into Holy Week. We will celebrate Jesus' journey to Calvary to death to resurrection and new life.

SYMBOL: A visual - This week of healing and new service could be a family photograph of a baptism or a wedding. Both of these events indicate new beginnings; the same new beginnings we receive through conversion, reconciliation, healing.

DISCUSSION: During these weeks of Lent, the articles directed attention to the pascal mystery of the death and resurrection of Jesus, the Christ, the Messiah. The articles indicated our renewal of the baptismal promises. This week we look at the promises. Families could discuss what each one means. People living alone could profitably reflect on the promises. We pray for God's help in these meditations. (Christian churches use various forms of the promises).

1. Do you reject sin so as to live in the freedom of God's children?

2. Do you reject the glamour of evil and refuse to be mastered by sin?

3. Do you reject Satan, father of sin, and prince of darkness?

Income Tax Help At The Library

If you are still on line 1-a of your 80 line income tax form, you might benefit from the Parents' Discussion Group program "Income Tax - Help!" on March 18 at 10:00 a.m. Speaker Dan Cullinane, of H&R Block, will discuss changes in the tax laws, possible deductions for the Charlestown homeowner, and precautions to take in order to avoid tax penalties. A question-and-answer period will follow his brief discussion.

The library has received several publications from the federal government that may help the reader through April 15. A three-volume set "Tax Information Publications" answers questions on specific tax forms. "Tax Guide for Small Business" answers, in more detail, questions about taxes on the four different types of business organizations - sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation and Subchapter S corporation. "Your Federal Income Tax: For Individuals" gives further instructions for filing Form 1040, Form 1040A and Form 1040EZ. A 1983 edition of J.K. Lasser's always reliable "Your Income Tax" is also available for reference use.

For more information about any of the Parents' Discussion Group programs call 242-1248 or stop by the library at 179 Main Street.

Charlestown Police Line

From the Desk of
Deputy Superintendent Joseph V. Saia Jr.
Commanding Officer District A
Charlestown, Downtown, East Boston

The following are some of the incidents which occurred in and around the Charlestown Area over the past week:

BREAKING AND ENTERING

Mathews, Inc. of 521 Medford Street, reported that unknown person(s) entered the premises and at this time it is undetermined what was taken.

A Pearl Street man reported to police that unknown person(s) gained entrance to his apartment through a back window. At this time, it is unknown what had been taken.

LARCENY

On March 9, 1983, Del Transport Inc. of 465 Medford Street reported that two trailers were broken into and cartons of American Tourister Luggage were taken.

ATTEMPTED LARCENY OF MOTOR VEHICLE

A Marblehead resident reported that unknown person(s) broke into his 1980 Datsun while he parked it over night on Cordis Street. The ignition was popped but apparently the suspects could not start the vehicle.

VANDALISM TO MOTOR VEHICLE

A Salem Street woman reported that someone slashed the tires of her 1983 Dodge while it was parked on Salem Street.

TRESPASSING

On March 9, 1983, three Chinese males were observed trespassing at 240 Medford Street. They were given a trespassers' warning and refused to leave. The suspects were taken to the Headmaster's Office and questioned for identification. They refused and were taken to District A and Booked on charges of Trespassing.

DOG BITE

A victim stated to police that while walking on Monument Square, the victim was bitten by a white German Shepard owned by a Monument Avenue family. The victim received treatment at the Mass. General Hospital and is seeking complaints in court.

ABANDONED AUTOS

STOLEN MOTOR VEHICLES RECOVERED

Officers were sent on a radio call to Austin Street on reports of an abandoned motor vehicle. Upon arrival, they found a motor vehicle which had been reported stolen to the Capitol Police by a Chicopee man. The vehicle was towed and the owner notified.

Officers recovered a 1976 Chevy Caprice at 66 Medford Street which had been reported stolen out of Somerville.

Thinking Out Loud

CAMPAIGN 83 NOTES— Citywide City Council candidate Diane Modica had her official announcement party at Lombardo's last week before a large crowd of supporters and well-wishers. Meanwhile, Bob Travaglini had a time at Eastie's Ramada Inn a week ago this past Monday. He's still the frontrunner for the district seat and is really starting to increase his campaign pace, taking nothing and no area of the district for granted...Both Travaglini and one of his opponents, Bob Cappucci showed up at Dan Pokaski's fundraiser at the Cobblestone in Charlestown a couple of weeks back.

MEANWHILE AT MASSPORT—Was talking with a Massport official recently who was disturbed with that letter to the editor criticizing Massport policies for neighboring communities. The letter appeared in the Charlestown Patriot and the following week, Mas-sport countered with it's letter of response. How about Massport requesting a column in the Patriot, Post-Gazette, East Boston Times, South Boston Tribune, Chelsea Record and the North End/Waterfront Review? Perhaps on a monthly basis to keep the people informed on their doings?

Another avenue might be quarterly town meeting in all the impacted communities.

BAG JOB FOR "MONDANE"—The Democratic State Committee's big dinner recently was a bag job for former Vice President and leading presidential candidate Walter Mondale, according to Herald columnist Peter Lucas.

The dinner was set up to highlight "Mondane" and only "Mondane" because he's the candidate of the party people. Rubin Askew was right in staying away, Hart, Glenn, Hollings and Cranston should have all boycotted the stacked event.

LOBBYING EFFORT—Anti-forcing busing activists from the Boston area will be joining anti-busers from across the country next month, exact dates forthcoming. They'll be going to the Nation's Capital to lobby congressmen on a new anti-busing bill being introduced into Congress.

UNCLE KEVIN DEPT.—Mayor Kevin White's niece, Connie White, down on the South Shore is running in a special state rep. election on April 12.

NUCLEAR FREEZE—The nuclear freezniks have their hearts in the right place but a real nuclear freeze must be both mutual and verifiable, if it is to be more than rhetoric and pap for press releases.

BIG GREEN MACHINE—This was not the Year of the Green Machine, at least as far as the regular season is concerned. The only trouble is the Playoffs are coming up and the Celts are going to have no easy time. The Sixers will get a buy in the first round, sitting pretty and ready for the survivor.

Last year I was glad the LA Lakers beat their pants off but this year the Sixers - even without real depth - appear going for it all, thanks to Moses Malone and of course, Doctor J... Meanwhile, the Big Bad Bruins are holding their own in the NHL and bring back memories of the early Seventies when the Bruins ruled the ice.

KUDOS TO...—New Acting Commissioner of Mental Health, Dr. Miles Shore. Shore has been

Superintendent of the Massachusetts Mental Health Center for a number of years. Has been a top notch superintendent and is a fine choice for the interim job.

DID YOU KNOW—According to the Herald's Eye, Boston's meter maids were tagging the TV camera trucks filming the power blackout in Boston's Financial District. I'm surprised, in their rush to fill a quota, they don't start tagging fire trucks parked illegally at the scene of a fire.

KUDOS TO KEVIN—Mayor Kevin H. White hasn't made a finer appointment in his four terms than his most recent one when he landed retired Superior Court Justice James P. McGuire as Boston's new Corporation Counsel.

Diane Modica Announces For Boston City Councillor-At-Large

Diane Modica announced her candidacy for Boston City Councillor-At-Large before a gathering of over 200 supporters. Modica is seeking this office because she believes there exists in city government a desperate need for qualified, experienced and committed people who can serve honestly, advocate effectively, and provide responsible leadership.

Citing immediate concern over the vacuum of leadership that will exist by the absence of four progressive City Councillors - DiCara, Sears, Flynn and Sansone - Modica charged, "Who will be responsive to all the neighborhoods in the City of Boston? Who will advocate for the poor and the homeless? Who will understand what it is like to come from a neighborhood like East Boston that for years has had to survive on its own?"

Modica also stated her concern that with City Councillor Frederick Langone running for Mayor, "the northern portion of the City of Boston will not be represented by an At-Large City Council Candidate". "Because I live in East Boston and have worked with that community and communities close to it, I believe my candidacy is extremely important in making sure there will be a balance among the Councillors elected At-Large," said Modica.

Modica believes that Councillors-At-Large must bring to the position the understanding and experience that will enable them not only to be particularly sensitive to issues facing individual neighborhoods, but also to be mindful of the implications of policy decisions affecting the city as a whole.

Modica is a lifelong resident of the city of Boston and has been active in civic and government affairs for the last 13 years. She is a graduate of Salem State College and received her Masters degree in Planning and Community Organization from Boston College School of Social Work.

Wheeler Named Constitution Museum Director

Board of Trustees President Alexander D. Washburn has announced the appointment of Richard C. Wheeler of Middleburg, Virginia, as Director of the USS Constitution Museum Foundation, Inc., effective March 1, 1983. Formerly headmaster of the Foxcroft School in Middleburg, Va., Mr. Wheeler has a strong background in education and a strong interest in the sea. A 1952 graduate of Harvard College, Mr. Wheeler holds an M.A.T. from the Harvard Graduate School of Education and was awarded a fellowship toward a Certificate of Advanced Study in Curriculum and Supervision from the Harvard Graduate School of Education in 1968. His project was "A Design for a Marine-Oriented Secondary School on a Maine Island." During his tenure at Foxcroft, Mr. Wheeler had instituted a professional development program for the faculty, strengthened the curriculum by adding Latin and doubling the number of advanced placement courses and developed community work projects. Prior to his position at Foxcroft, Mr. Wheeler was headmaster of the Catalina Island School in Avalon, California, from 1974 to 1979 where he developed elective courses in marine biology and island ecology that exploited the school's unique location. He also strengthened the school's outdoor programs and structured them so every student could be involved in such sports as skin-diving, rowing, kayaking and sailing. As Director of the Janss Oceanographic Foundation from 1972 to 1974, Mr. Wheeler was responsible for selecting proposals for grant awards and for monitoring the progress of the resulting research programs. He served in the Fiji Islands as a Peace Corps Technical Representative for Education and Fisheries from 1969 to 1972; as Associate Director of Placement and Director of Alumni Relations at the Harvard Graduate School of Education from 1965 to 1968; and as Headmaster of Waynflete School in Portland, Maine from 1961 to 1965. During the Korean Conflict Mr. Wheeler served in the Navy as an underwater demolition team combat platoon oflicer. He held the rank of lieutenant (jg). In announcing Mr. Wheeler's appointment, Trustee President Washburn commented, "The Constitution Museum is fortunate to have attracted a man of Dick Wheeler's ability and energy. His background in education and his knowledge of and love for the sea will be a real asset to this institution. The Trustees and Staff of the USS Constitution Museum look forward with tremendous excitement and anticipation to entering our second decade under Dick Wheeler's direction." LICENSED DAY CARE PROVIDER Will mind children in my home.
