USS Constitution 'Salute To The Nation' Cruises And Drawing Kick-Off

The return of a copper spike, pried from the venerable hull of USS Constitution, that orbited the earth on board the space shuttle Atlantis last summer during its historic link-up with the Russian space station Mir, signaled the kick-off of USS Constitution's "Salute to the Nation" Boston Harbor cruises and nationwide drawing.

Guest speakers at the Jan. 19 ceremony marking the return of the spike to the USS Constitution included Navy General Counsel Steven S. Honig-man and Dr. William S. Dudley, director of the Naval Historical Center.

The copper spike, pried from the underbelly of USS Constitution, served as a tangible link between the nation's past and its future frontiers as it traveled aboard the space shuttle.

"Because of the condition of that copper spike and because of where it was located in the ship's hull, we believe it first circumnavigated the globe during Old Ironsides' historic around-the-world diplomatic voyage from 1844 until 1846," said Cmdr. Michael C. Beck, USN, the ship's 64th commanding officer. "Now this spike has circled the earth again - in space. It is fitting to see Constitution, built using the most advanced methods of her day, associated with the most sophisticated technology of the 20th century."

The copper spike traveled onboard the Atlantis, which lifted off from Kennedy Space Center in Florida on June 27, 1995. The Atlantis rendezvoused with

MWRA To Present CSO Plans To The Community

The Massachusetts Water Resources Authority will hold a public meeting around its proposed Combined Sewer Overflow (CSO) project sites in Charlestown on Tuesday, Jan. 30 at 7 p.m. at Bishop Lawton Hall, St. Francis de Sales Church, 313 Bunker Hill St.

Charlestown is one of several neighborhoods included in the MWRA's "Interim Assessment of Facility Siting" submitted to the Mass. Environmental Policy Act Unit. Other areas identified are Roxbury, South and East Boston, Cambridge and Chelsea.

The Assessment names Charlestown as the site for a screening and disinfection facility to be located on either side of the Tobin Bridge in and outside of the Navy Yard, or at Sullivan Square. The Charlestown facility will likely include coarse and fine screens, disinfection and dechlorination equipment and dewatering pumps.

According to the MWRA, a combined sewer system is one that collects sanitary sewage from homes and businesses in the same pipes used to collect stormwater runoff in the systems of Boston, Chelsea, Cambridge and Somerville.

Maps and a site list will be available at the Jan. 30 meeting. Copies of the document submitted to MEPA are available now at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main St., or at the MWRA Library, 100 First Ave., Charlestown Navy Yard.

To Whom It May Concern:

From the bottom of my heart, "Thank You" for the great retirement surprise party. To all my family and good friends, I hope you enjoyed yourself as much as I did. Luck be with you all this coming year.

John Greatorex

P.S. Thank you Maryanne Ryan and Rita Mahoney for giving me a wonderful birthday present, a ladder, to replace the one someone took from my yard. J.G.

Charlestown Catholic Elementary School News

There's something in the air! The staff and students at Charlestown Catholic Elementary School (CCES) are once again preparing for Catholic Schools Week, which will take place Jan. 29 through Feb. 2. This is a national celebration and the staff and students will use this occasion to celebrate the great happenings at CCES.

A special prayer service will be on Monday to set the mood for the week as all look forward to the activities. Parents and friends are invited.

Also on Monday, we will pause to show appreciation to the wonderful teachers who teach and guide the youngsters. After the prayer service, the teachers will be treated to a delicious breakfast prepared and served by Sister Mary Ellen, Sister Catherine and the eighth grade students.

Tuesday is the day on which appreciation is shown to all the youngsters who are striving to do their best to learn and who are making a special effort to make their school a place where each one is loved and respected. One activity will be a pairing of students who will pray for each other and become special friends, which will help build a special community at CCES and, hopefully, beyond.

Tuesday will be a fun day for the youngsters in Kindergarten through grade 5 as they take part in a morning of games such as face-painting, hockey, miniature golf, concentration-memory game and others.

On Wednesday morning from 9 to 11 a.m., the doors of Charlestown Catholic will be open to all who would like to come and see what wonderful teaching takes place in each classroom. We welcome all, parents, relatives, friends and anyone else who may be interested in enrolling their youngsters in our Kindergarten or in any other of the grades. Registration for new students will take place on Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 12 and 13.

Wednesday afternoon will be the annual "Family Feud" to challenge the students in grades six through eight and their teachers.

The week will culminate on Thursday when all will participate in a Mass at which the students will sit with their "prayer partners" who were chosen at the beginning of the week. It shall be a joyful celebration as the students think and pray about ways in which they can follow in the footsteps of Jesus of Nazareth.

There will be some happy and surprised students at the end of the Mass who will be receiving awards for their wonderful cooperation and spirit which they have exhibited throughout the year. These awards will be given in memory of Geraldine McGowan Burns, who died during this past year.

The members of the School Council will show appreciation to the staff by serving a special luncheon on Thursday at noon.

Throughout the week, the students will be able to purchase reading materials from school librarian, Sister Jeanette Burke, who is planning a book fair.

On Friday, the teachers will attend a special meeting in West Roxbury for all the teachers in the Archdiocese of Boston, while the students take advantage of a day of rest.

Annual $5,000 Drawing And Dinner

CCES will hold its $5,000 drawing and dinner at the Bunker Hill Council #62 K. of C. Hall on Friday, Feb. 23 at 7 p.m. Don't be left out! A few tickets remain and can be purchased for $100 by calling Ellen Eddy at 242-4591 or Donna Hickey at 241-7979.

For those who have purchased a ticket and made a half-payment, your final payment is now due. Those who have made a complete payment, you should now have your tickets for this fun evening. No tickets will be sold after Feb. 10. If you have any questions, call CCES at 242-0169.

REAL ESTATE MARKET TRENDS

Last summer your neighbors put their house on the market and had so many buyers that they were on the winning side of a bidding war. Now you're trying to sell, and there's just no action.

The real estate market is highly fickle. Many factors come into play, the most important ones being interest rates and prevailing asking prices. In a strong seller's market, for example, prices tend to escalate. When they reach a certain point, many prospective buyers will begin to say no, and the listing inventory increases. When this happens, sellers who price their homes over the level of previous sales prices must rethink their pricing strategies. If they do not, their homes may not sell. Whether you're buying or selling a home, it's important to remember that the shift from a seller's to a buyer's market can reverse itself very quickly. You can count on us for sound advice on what our market is doing right now.

For solid advice on buying or selling real estate, consult the professionals at Monument Properties. Please call us at 241-5900 or stop by our office at 85 Warren St., Charlestown.

★ City Council Recommendations For Snow Emergencies ... City Council President James M. Kelly and Councillor Diane J. Modica co-chaired a public hearing on Jan. 17 relative to snow removal and parking policies during snow emergencies.

The council recommended the development of a snow emergency survival handbook for residents, fire hydrant markers, better snow removal at MBTA stops, schoolyards, crosswalks, traffic islands and handicap-access ramps, and the development of neighborhood parking lots on city-owned vacant parcels.

Among the greatest concerns were the parking ban and towing policies implemented during snow emergencies. Both Boston Police Commissioner Paul Evans and Fire Commissioner Martin Pierce agreed that the parking ban on major arteries was put in effect in the interest of public safety to maintain emergency access.

While the councillors did agree that emergency access is of utmost importance, they took issue with the notification process. Councillors suggested that a more comprehensive public notice practice be undertaken, including utilizing existing neighborhood organizations for dissemination of snow emergency policies beginning in November of each year highlighting double-sided parking bans which in the past had not been consistently enforced.

"It would make sense for the city to develop a comprehensive snow emergency survival handbook that could include all types of information from parking bans to alternate parking sites and contractors who perform various snow removal and emergency services," stated Modica.

the Mir space station on June 29 and returned to the space center on July 7. This link-up was the first between the US and Russian (formerly Soviet) space programs in 20 years. The milestone flight, mission STS-71, was also America's 100th manned space mission.

The copper spike had been pulled out of the outer live oak planking of USS Constitution's hull during her current restoration. The nearly four-year, $12 million restoration is slated for completion in mid-March 1996. The spike is on permanent loan from the Navy for display at the USS Constitution Museum.

During the US Navy's "Salute to the Nation," USS Constitution will host 4,000 Americans on board during 10 tug-powered cruises from July through August 1996. In a random drawing, a total of 1,000 winners will be selected from all 50 states and the US territories. Each winner will be allowed three guests. Each of the 10 scheduled cruises will include citizens from specifically designated states and territories.

Entry forms are available through the Navy League, libraries, and US Navy recruiting centers across the country, via e-mail at sails@navtap.navy.mil, on the World Wide Web at www.navy.mil/home/pages/constitution, or by phone request at 1-800-713-0754. Entries must be postmarked no later than March 15 and returned to the USS Constitution Museum. Winners will be notified by mail by April 15.

Winners will be feted at a welcome reception at the USS Constitution Museum on the eve of each "Salute to the Nation" cruise. Each tug-powered cruise will shove off at 7:30 a.m. and return at 9 a.m. Passengers, their guests and the public will enjoy an array of museum exhibits, programs, entertainment and hands-on activities in the historic Charlestown Navy Yard.

USS Constitution's 200th birthday activities will focus on re-establishing the link between the ship and the spirit and ideals in the nation's founding document, Constitution, and on encouraging Americans to ask themselves, "What are my duties as a citizen?"

"Salute to the Nation" will be the prelude to USS Constitution's 200th birthday celebration, which will include the sailing of Old Ironsides for the first time in 116 years in July 1997.

A COPPER SPIKE from the USS Constitution was returned to Charlestown last week by Steven S. Honigman, general counsel of the U.S. Navy following its journey around the world aboard the space shuttle Atlantis. It will be on view at the USS Constitution Museum. This ceremony marked the kick-off of events, including 10 cruises on Constitution this summer, leading up to the Bicentennial of Old Ironsides in 1997. TOP ROW: At the left, guests view the copper spike. Shown (l. to r.) American Legion Past National Historian James W. 'Water Quality In The MWRA Service Area' At The Charlestown Library

Jenny Mendez-Isenburg, project manager for Residential Planning for the Mass. Water Resources Authority, will be the guest speaker at the weekly adult discussion group meeting at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main St., at 10 a.m. on Friday, Jan. 26.

Years ago lead pipes were installed in homes to carry water. Some of the homes in Charlestown still have lead pipes. Mendez-Isenburg will discuss how the MWRA has worked with other agencies to develop a program to address these issues and others affecting water quality. A question and answer period will follow the program.

Uppercrust

by Chloe A. Cahill

Quietly nestled on the outskirts of Charlestown is the standoffish building of the Charlestown Commerce Center (CCC). From the outside, the old brick textile warehouse is dull and eerie.

Well, this is a good time to heed to the age old saying, "Don't judge a book by its cover." On the inside of the CCC is a life of constant activity, energy, youth and several booming new businesses. The marquis includes: Atlantic Coast Brewing aka Tremont Ale, Biga Breads, Mobil Communications, Rhygin Racing Cycles... and the list goes on. Most of the founders of these companies are young go-getters who are not afraid to work hard and will lend a hand at any given opportunity. Most importantly, they all seem to have a sense of humor.

For the past two years, I've been a player for the very driven, "Don't stop 'till we're at the top," Biga Breads. It has been my pleasure and I'd like to share why with the community that supports this business.

Biga Breads made its first delivery on June 8, 1994. The total delivery load was about 80 loaves. Six months prior to that day, the researching, test baking and building had begun. It would turn out to be quite a long six months. The constant, momentary question, "Will this work?," was in back of everyone's mind. The only way to know, would be to trudge through, work as hard as possible and hope for the best, which would come.

When the first delivery (of European style, thick crusted, rustic bread made without dairy, without yeast and without oil) was made, Biga Breads made an oath to provide excellent service, the highest quality product they could attain, and friendly and reliable deliveries. This oath continues to stand today.

Last November, Biga delivered its daily record of 2,250+ loaves. The clients who received the bread that day included: The FleetCenter, Le Hotel Meridien, Bread & Circus, Sorelle, Barsamians and the Museum of Science. The list is endless, but Biga continues to treat each customer as if they were its only one.

Because of the two open-minded, ambitious leaders at the helm, Laurie Brooks and Tracey Janney, the company quickly increased its product line and area of distribution. The long hours of hard work finally received recognition when, after six weeks in business, Boston Magazine awarded them "Best of Boston - New Bakery 1994."

From there, it has been work, work and more work, but the payoffs have been great. Most recently, The Boston Globe wrote an article on the cooperation of Biga Breads and Tremont Ale to create a Harvest Bread. In September, Biga was acknowledged for the educational tours it was giving to the fifth graders at the Harvard-Kent School in Charlestown. After participating in a Vineyard Farmer's Market in R.I., the Biga staff was pictured on the front page of the Sakonnet Times.

Publicity isn't just what Biga is about. The company has tried to give back to the community that has given it so much. Although Biga cannot take deductions for charitable contributions, they continue to give. For the past two years, Biga has made generous contributions to the Bastille Day Celebration on Marlborough Street to help raise money for the French Library. Over the holidays, Biga Breads held a clothing drive and delivered bread and clothes to nearby shelters (bringing extra bread to shelters happens frequently). In the next week, Biga Breads will have made donations toward the Oxfam Brunch for Starving People.

As you can see, food donations are not all Biga Breads has been able to offer. The atmosphere at 50 Terminal St. is energizing and I have found all of the staff and leaders of Biga Breads to be amazingly fun-loving, helpful to each other, to other entrepreneurs and to colleagues. Time there is a precious commodity for everyone, and it is put to use in a wise balance of friendship and work.

So Charlestown, I'm proud to be a part of Biga Breads and I think you can be too. There aren't many companies around like this one, folks! The next time you feel discouraged at work, ask yourself what can you do for your company instead of thinking about what they should do for you. I did, was inspired, and reminded of what a pleasure it has been to work for Biga Breads.

The drive continues with Laurie and Tracey's newest, beautiful retail venture, The Biga Bread's Cafe, located in the Flagship Wharf Building in the Charlestown Navy Yard. Stop by!

BOB D'S BEAT

BY BOB DeCRISTOFORO

◆ All Star - Thank You! ... On Friday evening I had the opportunity to take 14 young people from Charlestown to the Heroes of Hockey Game and the Skills Competition at the FleetCenter. Between the events, the entire 1996 NHL All-Star squads were introduced, similar to the way they would be prior to the All-Star Game.

We attended a Pizza Party where the honorary guest was Wayne Gretzky. The tickets were made possible by the Coca Cola Company and youth groups were selected through the mayor's office and the Boston Police Youth Services Office.

On behalf of the Andy Puopolo Club, I would like to thank Officers Joe Dasmener and Teddy Boyle, and a special thank you to Joe Curran for pointing us in the right direction. You all gave us a night we'll never forget. Attending were: Jamsie Greateorex, Joe Tallent, Willie Hutchins, Paul Hennessey, Tim Warren, Rob Murray, Shane Fisher, Chad Titcomb, Richie Sullivan, Brian Doyle, Marc Russell, Brian Lewis, Greg McNeil and Mike Sweeney.

◆ Andy Puopolo Basketball ... We're back! The Andy Puopolo Basketball 17 & under team will play St. Gregory's this Sunday, Jan. 28, at 2 p.m. Players are reminded to bring their game shirts and be there by 1:15 p.m.

◆ College Board ... Joe DeRoewe had some points in Stonehill's 9-3 win versus Wentworth. Stonehill makes their "local appearance" tonight when they visit Suffolk at Boston University's Walter Brown Arena. Game time is 6 p.m.

Bowdoin continues to be on a roll defeating St. Anselm's 6-1. Mark Chardavoyne had a point in this one. Bowdoin is now 8-2-1.

◆ Charlestown High-Lights ... Basketball is back on the courts after a weather break. Scott Clark had 24 points and Desmond McDuffie had 18 points to lead Charlestown past Brighton 86-36, and Scotty's 29 points and Anthony Walker's 20 points were the big difference as the Townies remain undefeated, topping Madison Park 76-38.

Nicole Matson had a well-deserved article in Sunday's Boston Herald. She had 24 points in the Lady Hoopster 45-26 win versus Madison Park, and led the scorers in a loss to Brighton 56-52. She is one of the top scorers in the City League.

◆ Hall Of Fame ... Beanpot Hockey action is near and a Beanpot Hall of Fame has been created. Among the first inductees is Charlestown's Jackie O'Callahan, who starred at Boston University. Another great tribute to a real good guy, and to a fine Charlestown family.

◆ Pro Line ... Keith Tkachuk scored his 26 and 27 goals of the season as Winnipeg defeated Toronto 4-2. Winnipeg went into the All Star break with a 20-22-4 (44 points) record. Keith and his teammates spent the break visiting the Jets' new home in Phoenix, and his family spent the weekend at the All-Star festivities at the FleetCenter.

The Florida Panthers begin the second half of the season with a 28-12-4 (60 points) record in second place behind the hot New York Rangers.

◆ Coca Cola Challenge ... Congratulations to Mike Carney who won the $10,000 Coca Cola Classic College Scholarship at the FleetCenter last Friday. Mike is a sixth grader at Charlestown Catholic, and was randomly selected to represent our area in this All-Star event.

James Edward Cotter, a fifth grader at the Condon School in South Boston, also participated and has some fine Charlestown roots.

◆ Tidbits ...

- Birthday best to Brian Ringer.
- Congratulations to Pat "Pail Head" Collins who received special recognition and special notice at Goodtime Billiards.
- Good to see Paul Anthony, Billy MacDonald and Jimmy Tibbetts enjoying themselves at the All-Star Game.
- Hair cuts at night, a good idea. Check out young Pat "The Barber" Owens' shop, and also wish him good luck.
- Chris Rizzo has tossed his hockey helmet into the Mayor's Race.
- Good news for Pat Lacey - McDonald's is having a sale.
- Malden Catholic Hockey is alive and well - must be a Charlestown connection.

Smile!

'A Wonderful Time To Remember'

Dear Friends and Family,

I would like to take this time to apologize for taking so long to express my thanks for the goodness of you all. Thanks to all my friends for making my 75th birthday party such a happy occasion and a wonderful time to remember.

Thanks to my family, who did so great tricking me and hiding it from me. My family is wonderful as you all know. Surprised? You bet!

Thank you again, and my love and prayers are always with you. God bless you all!

Rita G. Scales

Thank You

Dear Gloria,

Last week while returning home from dropping my boys at school, I slipped on what the EMTs called "black ice." From the moment I slipped until he heard the ambulance coming, there was a man who was there through the whole thing with me.

I was never able to thank him, which I would love to be able to do personally. He stayed with me, helping me keep calm and comfortable. Also, thank you to his wife for calling the ambulance.

I would also like to thank other people who were there helping me: Melinda Sweeney, Sandra Hennessey, Sonny Ross, Liz Hanscom, Jeanette Prendable and Laurie Cahill.

I am now home recovering from surgery and would love to thank this man and his wife as well as everyone else who helped me, personally. Please stop by my house - I live at 5A Old Landing Way.

Last, but not least, I would like to thank all my family and friends for the flowers, gifts, cards, visits and phone calls I received while in the hospital. It meant a lot!

Thanks Again,
Diane Wrenn

January 26th Second Year Anniversary Remembrance To MIKE, EDDIE & BOBBY SMITH

*Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow;
I am the diamond glints on the snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain;
I am the gentle autumn's rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft star that shines at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there, I did not die.*

Are the hardest things to say,
For, dear Dad, we your family loved you
In a very special way.
It's not engraved in rarest gold
Or hung for all to see,
It's just engraved within our hearts
Your beautiful memory.
We hope you're happy, that somehow you know,
How very much we miss you
And how we love you so.*
