Residents Halt Cable Contractors From Entering Burial Ground

by Maria Girvin

Spokesmen for both the City of Boston and Cablevision of Boston, have apologized for the residential alarm cable contractors created when they began digging in the Bunker Hill Street Cemetery last Thursday.

Minutes after the workers sawed into the sidewalk, neighbors of the historical graveyard, made a series of phone calls to the Patriot, Charlestown Preservation Society and Boston City Hall, indignant over the trench that was being dug along the westerly border of the yard.

Promising that the trench would be re-sodded, Rick Borten of the Mayor's Office For Cable said that the Parks and Public Works Department were outraged, however, no gravesites had been disturbed. Borten said it would be made clear to Cablevision of Boston that damage would be restored and that residents should not hesitate to call the Cablevision office again if they have concerns or questions concerning the installation of cable lines.

Westerly neighbors of the graveyard said they were amongst the first to complain about the digging in the yard. "You would think someone would know better," said Irene Frataglia. According to Frataglia, her husband spoke with workers, showing them signed releases to burrow through their yard for cable line installation. "At first it seemed like they were going to stop, but then they began digging again and that's when my husband got on the phone and started making some calls," Frataglia said she thought that maybe the contractors saw that digging through and re-seeding a graveyard as being cheaper than having to restore the Frataglia's cemented yard. However, Sid Whiting, General Manager of Cablevision of Boston said this was untrue.

"It was a very regrettable mistake," said Whiting. "Someone used their judgement poorly and incorrectly. Whiting also said the graveyard would be sodded.

Bunker Hill Day Parade Committee Seeks Community Support

The Charlestown Veterans/Bunker Hill Day Commemorative Committee is seeking the support of the residents of Charlestown to once again make the 1983 Bunker Hill Celebration a significant and meaningful tribute to our patriot forefathers as Charlestown commemorates the 208th anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill.

The Bunker Hill Day Parade, which is slated for Sunday, June 12, 1983, commencing at 12:30 p.m. from the Hayes Square area of the town, needs the support of all of the residents, organizations and businesses in the community in order to make this event a success.

Due to the fiscal restraints imposed on the City of Boston under Proposition 2 1/2, the funds available for the City are very limited for such events. Thus financial assistance must once again be solicited from the community. The fundraising for the parade is being carried out by a small, but dedicated, group of residents. These people are giving many hours of their time to make this a grand event for the community and need the support of EVERY resident, whether he or she be a lifelong "Townie" or a newer resident of the town.

Monies must be raised in order to pay the fee of each band, drum corp, and color guard that marches in the parade. Units charge from $200 upward to $500, $700 or $800 to appear in a parade. They DO NOT march for free.

There are several ways that residents can help:

1. Send in a donation to the Parade Committee, using the coupon on page 16 of this week's Patriot. Once again this year the Monument will be featured weekly so the community can see the results of the fundraising efforts. Contributions of $25 or more will be acknowledged under the Monument.

2. Drop your change (or more if possible) in the canisters located in most of the neighborhood stores.

3. Buy a "Parade Booster" sticker for a minimum donation of $1.00. The Booster Committee is presently going door-to-door and when they knock on your door, support YOUR parade by purchasing a booster.

4. Buy a chance for $1.00 on a color television set, donated to the parade by WHDH. The drawing for this TV will take place on June 11th at the Legion's "Nite Before" Banquet.

Organizations or businesses that are interested in sponsoring a unit for the parade should contact the Parade Chairman James W. Conway at 241-9511.

The committee welcomes the assistance of anyone interested in this community celebration, whether it be in the fundraising efforts or in the organization of the event itself. The next parade committee meeting will be on Tuesday, even-

Spring Begins In Charlestown With Board Of Trade Kiddie Carnival

News From Pope John

On May 5, Sister Catherine McGarry, CSJ, chairperson of the Pope John Science Department, was honored as the guest of Governor Michael Dukakis at the State House in recognition of her dedication and service to the advancement of science within the state. For many years Sister has been the Diocesan representative participating with a select group of Massachusetts State science teachers in science education and directed student research. Because of a long history of conscientious planning, opportunities have been afforded to over 7,000 students who have participated in the International, New England, Diocesan, and Massachusetts State Science Fairs. Sister Catherine was encouraged by the Governor to "...continue her great work for many years to come". Sincere congratulations, Sister!

The following Charlestown students received awards in the Archdiocesan Art Fair: Second Prize, Grade 11 was Lisa Ryan; and Honorable Mention, Grade 9, Lisa Vitale (2). The winning art works were exhibited at McHugh Forum (Boston College) on May 6, 7, 8. Congratulations to the students and to their teachers Ms. Ann Marie Norton and Mrs. Candy Siegel!

Views On Dental Health

by Jeffrey D. Cohen, D.M.D.

DENTAL INSURANCE DOLLAR COVERAGE

As a rule, dental insurance plans do not pay for the full cost of dental care. They are designed to reduce the cost of care, not to eliminate it entirely. This enables them to offer a broader dental plan at economic rates. Some of the most common methods of payment limitation are:

1. Deductible. Like your auto insurance, this method requires that you pay a specified dollar amount toward your bill before insurance coverage begins.

2. Co-Payment. With this method, the insurance company assumes responsibility for a specified percentage of the bill for covered dental services, leaving the remainder to be paid by you.

3. Dollar Limit. This system requires that you pay the difference between the company's limit for a service and your dentist's fee.

Some programs use "pre-certification". If this is a part of your program, your dentist will submit your treatment plan and the fees to the insurance company for review. The company will then note exactly which services are covered and what the company will pay.

Travaglini Calls For Summer Youth Programs

Robert Travaglini, candidate for the District City Council seat, focused attention this week upon the need for improved summer work and athletic programs for young people in East Boston, Charlestown and the North End. Travaglini, who has been actively associated with youth programs in East Boston for many years, called these programs "the most important contribution we can make to the future of our neighborhoods and our young people."

Travaglini said, "Now that summer is nearly upon us, our attention turns to the students who will be off from school and who want to work and to participate in athletic programs. Summer should be a time when young people can train their minds and their bodies, and the city government should do everything it can to encourage and initiate programs for our youth."

"I think that existing groups, such as the local APACs, are doing a fine job with summer work programs," said Travaglini, "but more needs to be done. The city and state governments should develop various incentive programs to encourage local businessmen to hire young people in meaningful jobs during the summer. In addition, the existing athletic programs which are available to young people must be expanded in order to ensure that all young people who want to participate can do so."

Travaglini pledged to

"work tirelessly when I am on the City Council to develop and promote programs designed to provide better programs and facilities for our youth. Money spent on work training and athletic programs for young people is an investment in the future. I believe the people want that investment made, and

I plan to carry out their wishes as their new district city councilor."

Welcomes Smoke Shop Into "Big Money Game"

BARBARA POWER AND TOM RUSSELL

On Tuesday, May 10, Tom Russell Emcee of the "Big Money Game" seen each Wednesday at 10:30 p.m. on WLVI-TV Channel 56, paid a visit to the Smoke Shop. One Thompson Square.

Tom talked with the crowd of people who dropped by to say hello and hoped they would meet him again on the "Big Money Game Show" either trying for the $100,000.00 or $1,000,000.00 prizes which are awarded each week.

The main purpose of Tom's visit was to welcome Barbara Power, owner of the Smoke Shop, into the Massachusetts State Lottery Sales Force, selling Instant and Big Money Game Tickets plus the Daily Numbers Bet. Tom said, to the first 25 people who go to the Smoke Shop and buy one of the game tickets or place a numbers bet and say "Tom sent them," he will send an autographed photo of himself.

Friends To Meet

The Friends of The Charlestown Branch Library will hold their last meeting of the 1982-83 season on Thursday, May 12 at 7:00 p.m. at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main Street.

The Clubhouse at the Ryan Playground (Neck) will be operated and maintained by the Kennedy Center beginning May 16, 1983. We hope that this will lead to greater Community control over this beautiful playground. We want to encourage all community input over how our parks are utilized.

FOSTER GRANDPARENTS

Could there be a more perfect definition of the phrase "mutually beneficial" than the Foster Grandparent Program? Probably not. It's an experience in which older persons and children thrive ... together!

In this program, low-income people over age 60 spend 20 hours a week working one-to-one with special needs children in schools, hospitals, day care centers, and battered women's shelters. In return they receive a $40 per week stipend, their lunch, and their transportation costs. Each older person "grandparents" two children.

For the children, the Foster Grandparenting experience establishes a milieu of constant caring, patient attention, and quiet acceptance. In day care centers, schools, and shelters they rush to greet their older friends. In hospitals, the consistent, daily presence of a "grandma or grandpa" helps children cope with illness and a strange, often frightening environment.

"The program allows older people and children to meet each other's needs in a wonderful way," says Director Edith Stein. "The old are often lonely with time on their hands and a lot of love to give; the youngsters need and respond to love."

The Foster Grandparent Program began in 1964 as part of the federal government's antipoverty effort under the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO). Later, it became part of the Older American Volunteer Programs, under the ACTION office.

In Boston, under the sponsorship of Action for Boston Community Development, Foster Grandparents began working with children in two state schools in 1965. Today 110 grandparents work at 32 sites which include schools, day care centers, hospitals, and battered women's shelters. Although federal dollars support the program, several agencies have raised funds to contribute to the program, including Massachusetts General Hospital, and the YMCA. Agency spokespersons claim the program is not only beneficial, it's cost effective because foster grandparents work one-to-one with those children who need special attention thus releasing staff for other work.

The Kennedy Center is interested in bringing this program into Charlestown. Funds are short but you can help.

There will be a "Night at the Pops" on June 25, 1983 to benefit the Foster Grandparents program.

The Boston Pops will perform with conductor John Williams of "E.T." and "Starwars" fame conducting. Also, on that program will be "Peter, Paul, and Mary" and special appearance by Ruth Gordan.

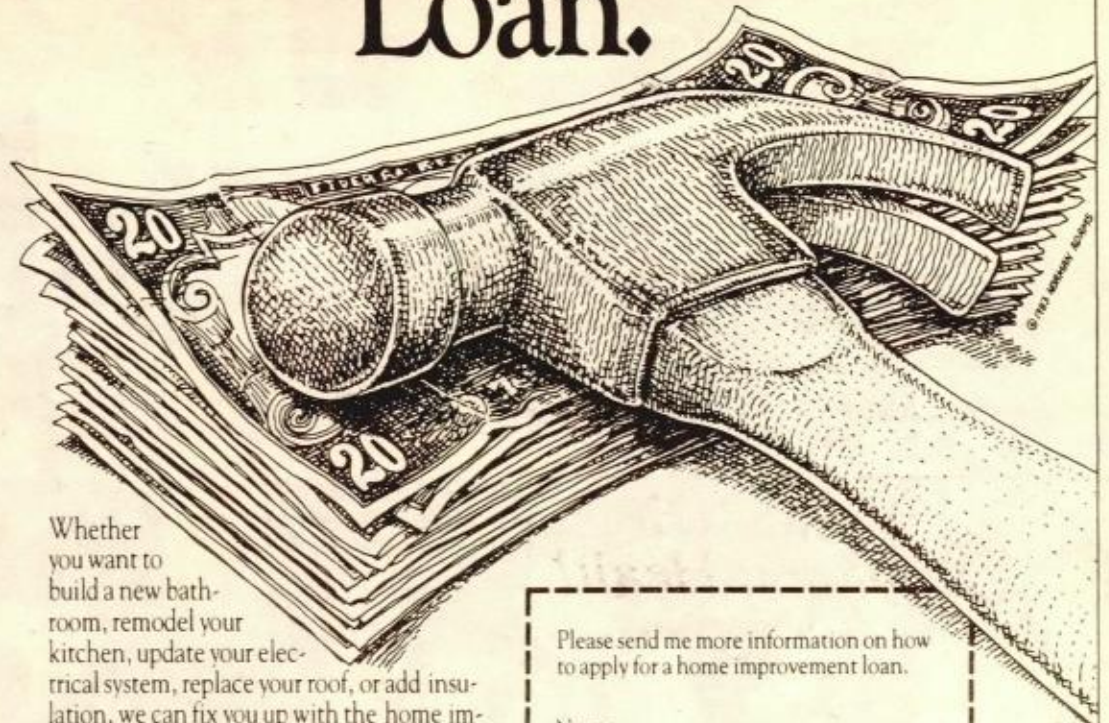

Contributions received from the event will be used to fund Foster Grandparents, and success could result in expansion of this worthwhile endeavor in Charlestown.

Tables of 5 seats are $125, Floor - $25, Balcony - $20, 2nd Balcony - $12.

Call Leo Carey at 241-8866 to reserve a seat.

The Kennedy Center provides Elderly transportation services, our priority is medical trips. Please call three days in advance if you need a ride.

We Can Fix You Up With A Home Improvement Loan.

Whether you want to build a new bathroom, remodel your kitchen, update your electrical system, replace your roof, or add insulation, we can fix you up with the home improvement loan to help you get the job done.

Depending on the kind of improvement you're looking for and whether your home is owner occupied, a multi-family dwelling, or a condominium, Bank of New England can help with one of our own home improvement programs or a federally-insured home improvement loan. We can lend qualified homeowners from $3,500 to $37,500.

So if you're looking for a home improvement loan, call Cora Davis or Dom Sansone at our Consumer Service Department, or visit any of our banking offices in your neighborhood.

CALL US BANK OF BOSTON.

The Old Colony Banks and The First National Bank of Boston
now share one name. A new name. Bank of Boston.

That means over 100 banking offices across Massachusetts now proudly call themselves Bank of Boston.

And we hope you will, too.

BANK OF BOSTON

The First National Bank of Boston, Bank of Boston-Barnstable, N.A., Bank of Boston-Berkshire, N.A., Bank of Boston-Bristol, N.A., Bank of Boston-Essex, Bank of Boston-Middlesex, Bank of Boston-Norfolk, Bank of Boston-Western Massachusetts, N.A., Bank of Boston-Worcester, N.A.

Gala Irish Music Festival Comes To The Berkshires

Irish music comes to the Berkshires in the form of the First Annual Berkshires Folk Festival.

It will feature an extravaganza of musical talent, kiddie rides, pipe bands, jugglers, clowns, animal exhibits and the most natural thing in the world, for an Irish festival, horse racing from 12:00 to 4:00 p.m. daily.

The entertainment lineup reads like the who's who of Irish folk music. Topping the bill are Liam Clancy and Tommy Makem, Ireland's top drawing duo, with hit songs such as "Four Green Fields" (written and composed by Tommy Makem). Sharing the bill will be the "Dubliners", most famous of all Irish folk groups, who are solely responsible for any of us hearing songs such as "The Black Velvet Band", "Seven Drunken Nights" (known to many in this area as "Hey Wife"), "The Shouls of Herring", "The Rocky Road to Dublin", "Peggy Gordon" and other well-known Irish folk songs too numerous to mention.

Then we have the "Barley Corn", who with their blockbusting "Men Behind the Wire" (written by the group) surged to the top of the Irish folk tree in 1971. "Barley Corn" are responsible for singing and writing most of the well-known social comment in the last twelve years, songs like "The Boys of the Old Brigade", "The Broad Black Brimmer", "The Man from the Daily Mail" and their most recent chart success "The Fields of Athenry."

TOMMY MAKEM AND LIAM CLANCY

Also coming from Ireland, a terrific group providing one of the sharpest and professional shows around is the "Barley Bree". Their songs and harmonies would warm the cold heart of a landlord.

Also featured is Boston's newest import "Claddagh", who have chosen Boston as their home base, but tour extensively coast to coast.

A special point of interest, one which the promoters are very proud of, is a special reunion of one of New England's long-standing folk groups "The Bards."

This spectacular event will take place June 24, 25, and 26 at The Great Barrington Fairgrounds located in the breathtaking Berkshires. Festivals begin daily at 10:00 a.m.

For tickets reservations, contact John Hurley, Gary Sullivan or Peter Nylan at The Celtic Tavern at 242-9692.

Irish Update

by Marty O'Brien

Tickets are still available for the Bunker Hill Irish Heritage Society's Dance this Saturday, May 14th at St. Catherine's Hall on Tufts Street. Entertainment for the evening is the Dennis Curtin Band and the donation is just $5.00.

Proceeds from this function are to be used to defray the expenses of the BHIHS Parade Committee in providing the New York City Emerald Society Band for the Bunker Hill Day Parade on June 12th. Last year, due to unforeseen circumstances beyond our control, the band had to cancel its engagements in June, but this year, according to Committee Chairman John McLaughlin, "all systems are GO".

Presently, plans are in the making for a BHIHS trip to the Great Green Mountain Irish Festival in Essex Junction, Vermont. The festival is held the weekend of July 22, 23, 24. Anyone who attended, the festival last year knows what a great time can be had, so it is anticipated that reservations will be booked quickly. Anyone interested in going with the Society can write to P.O. Box 202, Charlestown, MA 02129, or by contacting any of the officers of the Society.

Don't forget the regular monthly meeting is held the last Wednesday of each month. This month's meeting will be held at the American Legion Hall on 27 Chestnut Street on Wednesday, May 25th at 7:30 p.m. (Note the new starting time.) Come on down and get involved.

Where Are They Now?

Margaret "Midge" Foley followed in the proud tradition of Boston Latin School when she became the eleventh winner of the Quinn Scholarship in 1980. Margaret was the third woman to be so honored and she is currently finishing her junior year at Lesley College in Cambridge where she is majoring in early childhood education.

As part of her college program, Margaret is serving an internship at the Dallin School in Arlington and is presently working with fourth graders. Midge sees what she is doing now as being intimately related to her future plans. As she recently stated, when asked about her career ambitions, "I hope to never stop learning which may entail attaining my masters and ultimately I would like to be a child psychologist."

Ms. Foley, who is still single and states she is "loving it" recounts that, "The Quinn Scholarship to me, personally, was a great honor. It boosted my ego as I entered my freshman year. It also helped tremendously to lessen the financial burden of college tuition."

Midge recently attended the Quinn Scholarship Dinner, along with many of the other past recipients. She came to have a good time, but to also state her pride in being a part of a "Townie" tradition. That is something all of Charlestown can share in for with the accomplishments of people like Margaret "Midge" Foley, Charlestown has a great deal to be proud of.

JFK 10 K Road Race

The Second Annual JFK 10 Road Race, a commemoration of what would have been the President's 66th birthday, is scheduled to take place Saturday, May 28, 1983 at 10 a.m. This 10 kilometer race starts and finishes at the aesthetically imposing John F. Kennedy Library in Dorchester. The course follows a flat, out and back course turning at the South Boston Yacht Club, along some of the most beautiful stretches of Boston's coastline.

The inaugural JFK 10 K drew over 1000 participants, many of whom reside in and around South Boston and Dorchester. Richard O'Flynn of County Cork, Ireland and Providence College won the race finishing in 29:17.6. The first female finisher was Jane Welzel of Hopkinton, MA., setting a course record of 35:12. This year's race promises to draw over 2,000 runners who will be competing for valuable prizes. The first male and female finishers will be awarded a trip to the 1983 Dublin, Ireland Marathon in October. Another trip to the Dublin Marathon will be raffled off to a race participant following the race.

The JFK 10 K is sponsored by the Friends of the John F. Kennedy Library. The celebration will include a performance by a colorful bagpipe troupe and an escort by the Blue Angels motorcycle squad. For further information contact Melissa L. Croteau, John McGrath & Co. at 523-0734.

Seeking 11-12 Year Olds For Hockey Team

Joe Yannetti, former coach of Chelsea High School and St. John's Prep of Danvers will be coaching a Pee Wee "AA" Hockey Team for the North Shore Raiders of the Metro Boston Hockey League.

Joe is presently President of the Eastern Massachusetts Hockey Coaches Association and is New England Scout for the NHL Winnipeg Jets.

He will be coaching a summer league team prior to his fall/winter team and is interested in looking at any 11-12 year olds for his team this summer.

Tryouts will be held at Danvers Twin Rinks on May 24, 30 and 31. Contact Charlie Chesley at 535-1663 for further information.

C.Y.H.A. News

Anyone else who is interested in running must get the signatures of seven people at the General Meeting who will sponsor his her nomination.

Coaches will have to have their selections made and submitted at that time.

Globe Cartoonist Visits Clubhouse

Larry Johnson, sports cartoonist for the Boston Globe, was a guest speaker at the Charlestown Boys and Girls Club on Tuesday, April 28.

Mr. Johnson showed the children many of his original sketches of sports figures. He also discussed life in today's world and stressed that children need to respect themselves before they can achieve success in life. Mr. Johnson was well received. Some children asked him to come back. He has promised to do so next fall.

Old Charlestown Schoolgirls Reunion

The Old Charlestown Schoolgirls Association will be holding its Third Annual Reunion on Friday, May 27, 1983 at the Boston Teachers Union Hall.

Anyone wishing to attend should call Marie Walsh at 241-8866. Buses will be leaving Thompson Square at 6:00 p.m. and will be returning to Charlestown at 11:00 p.m.

Anyone wishing to join the Old Charlestown Schoolgirls must meet the requirement of attending a Charlestown School prior to 1935.

Charlestown High School Class of 1963 - 20th Reunion

Thanks to the story in last week's Patriot, ten people responded to our appeal for former 1963 classmates of C.H.S.

The reunion will be held on Friday evening, June 17th at 7:00 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 75 West School Street, Charlestown. There will be a hot and cold buffet and a blast from our past with Arnie "Woo-Woo" Ginsburg. Tickets are $15.00 per person.

Here are a few things about C.H.S. in 1963: the entire starting line was picked for the District All-Star Team; remember those great afternoons at the Boston Arena and then on to the Boston Garden under the leadership of "Coach John (Doc) Tyrell"!

Also, back in 1963, long before running or jogging was the thing at it is now, under the leadership of

"Coach James Stewart," Charlestown High School 1963 were the District Cross-country Champs.

Preservation Society To Hold Annual Meeting

The Charlestown Preservation Society will hold its 16th annual meeting on Sunday, May 15, at the Charlestown Working Theatre, 442 Bunker Hill Street. The afternoon's festivities will begin at 2:00 p.m. with a presentation of the play "Awake and Sing" by the Working Theatre, free to members of the Preservation Society and their guests. After the play, the cast will join us for wine and cheese.

The business meeting will begin at 4:00 p.m. The House Tour, Library, Boston Edison, Main Street and vacant lot committees will report on this year's accomplishments. Annual dues will be collected, $8.00 for an individual membership and $6.00 more for spouse or roommate. Finally, officers and trustees will be elected, officers to serve for one year and trustees to serve for a term of three years. The nominating committee has proposed the following slate: President, Stephen Spinetto; Vice President, Kathryn Downing; Secretary, Barbara Perry; Treasurer, Richard Johnston; Trustees, Joseph Caruso, Richard Paegelow, Jane Philippi and Kenneth Stone.

Join us for an enjoyable and productive meeting. For more information call Kathryn Downing at 242-4726.

May Is Better Speech And Hearing Month

May is "Better Speech and Hearing Month" in the United States. Although that might not affect you directly, one out of every 10 people - including your neighbors and family members - is affected by a speech, language, or hearing disorder.

For some people this might mean being passed over at work for that promotion because of poor communication skills. For some, there is the constant fear of embarrassment by an inability "to get the words out." For some families, it means the frustration of a child who, because he or she cannot express needs, may withdraw or develop tantrums or behavior problems. For other individuals, it may mean a voice which becomes more and more hoarse, periodically "giving out" completely.

Disorders of communication affect people of all ages intelligence, and economic levels. It is never too early to suspect; in fact, sometimes speech-language deficits are the early warning signs of an underlying medical condition. These communication disorders are generally divided into four categories: language, articulation, voice, and fluency.

Language disturbances affect one's ability to understand what is said (for example, to know what a single word means, or to follow long directions), or to put thoughts into words (e.g. to name things or to be able to say complete sentences). Infants during their first year may have language delays in recognizing words and connections. Language problems in older children may lead to troubles in school. For adults, language disturbances may affect memory or the ability to find the right word for something. Any head injury or stroke may result in language impairment.

Another category, articulation disorders, applies to the way words and sounds are pronounced. Many people think of a lisp ("thoup" instead of "soup") as an example of an articulation disorder. Sometimes the problem is confined to one sound; sometimes it affects many sounds making speech very difficult to understand. Although we often associate misarticulation with children, some adults who never had therapy available as children continue to "mispronounce" sounds. In addition, anyone may experience an articulation disorder from injury to the mouth or nervous system.

Most everyone has experienced a temporary voice disorder following a day of cheering at a football or basketball game. When the hoarseness doesn't go away, a voice disorder had developed. Talking with lots of tension, or excessive screaming or yelling can actually cause callous-like growths on the vocal folds (vocal cords located in the

The final category, fluency, refers to disruptions in the timing of speech. The most common problem here, stuttering, results in hesitations, repetitions, and/or blocks as a person tries "to get the word out." Most very young children go through a phase in which they repeat things, but if repetitions break up syllables ("Wha-Wha-Wha-Where's Mommy?") or create anxiety or tension for the speaker, the person is probably stuttering.

"Adams apple" or "voice box"). Disease and inflammation of the throat/vocal folds may also affect voice. As a result many different things may happen; voice may sound hoarse, harsh, nasal, stuffed up, gravelly, strained, breathy, too high or low, or too loud or quiet.

JULIE CAMPBELL, 9 years old.

Although it may sound pretty bleak, each of the above disorder types may be treated in speech-language therapy. The earlier detection is made, the greater the outlook for improvement. This holds true for infants as well as senior citizens, and everyone in between.

Diagnosis and treatment of communication disorders is done by Speech-Language Pathologists who have master's degrees, and are certified by the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association. Services are available in hospitals, health centers, public schools, university clinics, and some private offices. Insurance and public assistance coverage is generally available for services when there is a charge.

Does speech-language therapy make a difference? Here is what some Charlestown mothers have said:

"Everyone thinks she is talking so much better... I can understand everything. Wish I knew about this therapy program before."

"My son is now able to convey his wants and dislikes in actual words rather than grunts and groans and yelling. Although he is only 2½...the steady progress he is making in his speech makes him feel good about himself."

If you or a member of your family may be affected by a communication disorder, consult a Speech-Language Pathologist. If no problem exists, or if it is a minor one for which suggestions can be given, your mind will be at ease. If your suspicions are right, not only will you have identified a problem, but you'll be on your way to solving it.

City Children Visit Country Life

On Wednesday, April 20, the education department of the Charlestown Boys and Girls Club took 18 children, ages 6 to 9, to Drumlin Farm in Lincoln. The children learn about basket making, milking a cow, and how the indians in our region use to live. The "squaw" then painted the sign of each child's favorite animal on his/her cheek. Later the children visited the animals, petted the goats, and went on a hay ride. On the way home, the group stopped at McDonald's for a late lunch. On the trip were Frank and Keith Wallace, Kim Payton, Lori Bush,

Melanie Leonard, Linda and Beth Golden, Kenneth and Shannon McLaughlin, Joe and Nicole DiRowe, Chris Rizzo, Tanya Pappas, Kim Farris, Christine Clougherty, Michelle Gibbons, Eric Curry, and James Britton. The children had a good time

Letters To The Editor

Letters to the Editor must be signed and include name, address and telephone number for verification. The name will be withheld if the writer so requests. Anonymous letters will NOT be published.

An Open Letter

To Whom it May Concern:

This is a letter to inform the parents of any boy or girl who loiters in the vicinity of 274 Main Street that the neighbors of that area have been informed of their legal rights and will take legal action against these youths if the late hour disturbances don't cease.

The people of that area will and should have the peace and respect they deserve. So we are asking the parents of these youths, and they know who they are, to keep them out of that area during the late night hours. Legal action will be taken. Please do not let it come to this.

Voke Outraged At Digging In Graveyard

May 12, 1983

Mr. Sid Whiting, General Manager
Cablevision of Boston
21 Merchants Row
Boston, MA 02108
Dear Mr. Whiting:

I am writing to express my outrage at the recent actions of your company in digging a trench through the Bunker Hill Graveyard for the purpose of installing your cablevision wires.

The residents of Charlestown take great pride in the preservation and upkeep of the resting place of their ancestors and for your company to disrupt the peace of this graveyard is unconscionable.

I suggest that your company take appropriate administrative actions to prevent inexcusable actions of this type from happening in the future.

Very truly yours,
Richard A. Voke
State Representative

The Golden Rule

The Boston Globe (3/15/83) featured an interview with Mrs. Lillian Boutillier, the "Ceremonial Mayor of Charlestown." She commented: "Busing is the foremost problem. There is nothing for the teenagers to do."

She qualified this last remark by referring to the two theaters: the bowling alley; and the roller skating rink of her youth. (There were also several halls in Charlestown where weekly dances were held).

She also said, "all we have now is a library, what teenager wants go to to the library?" (I assume she meant for recreation)

The Boston Globe then quoted a man who said, "A woman, new to Charlestown, was trying to get $10,000 from the city to plant daffodils in the Parks." When told of this remark, the Boston Globe quotes ... "Mrs. Boutillier hides her head in her hands ... 'I don't know these new people, she says, you only get your good 'Townies' at the functions.'" (She works with the retarded).

A Mr. Stephen Spinetto of Charlestown took the Boston Globe to task (3/18/83) for printing the interview with Mrs. Boutillier. He felt that "her statement implied that 'new people' did not contribute to the Community." and that, "the Boston Globe shouldn't be a sounding board for people who wish to exclude new people from their Community." (???)

Mr. Spinetto continued, "to portray Mrs. Boutillier as representing the people of Charlestown is at its least bad reporting. The Charlestown described in the article is the Charlestown stereotype of 10 years ago ... also her statement, 'what teenager wants to go to the library? ...' only proves, that Charlestown and Boston's most pressing problems is not busing, but ignorance!"

For shame! Mr. Spinetto, the CEREMONIAL Mayor of Charlestown is a "FUN THING!" You are making it divisive, not the Boston Globe. You correctly referred to the Boys' Club, sports, etc., available in Charlestown, but ignored Mrs. Boutillier's reference to activities which would benefit teenagers, here, in Town.

You also said that Mrs. Boutillier shouldn't be surprised that "new people" do not attend K. of C. or Irish Heritage Functions, because mostly they are not Irish or Catholic.

Mrs. Boutillier DID NOT mention these organizations, she merely said "Functions."

Race and religion were NEVER mentioned.

That would be "DIVISIVE!"

One has to wonder WHY you mentioned them?

Your comment on "ignorance", brought to mind a recent letter in the Patriot (1/83) "IGNORANCE" was capitalized twice in that article. Obviously, some "new people" are "hung up" on the term "ignorance."

There are many types of "ignorance."

A couple of diplomas in an attache case do not necessarily eradicate their owners' ignorance!

Ignorance of the "Golden Rule" (do unto others as you would have them do to you) may cause an undercurrent of hostility in a Community.

In Charlestown, some of the "new people" have no intention of associating with the old-time residents. They will "use" them for information, or for any means that will benefit them or their newly acquired property.

Some mothers seek out their so-called intellectual counterparts in the Parks; and will not allow their children to play with the children of "Townies". (They're only babies, 3 to 5).

In years gone by when new residents moved into Charlestown, they became a part of the Community. They didn't attempt to set up a second Community, regardless of their social, financial, or educational backgrounds.

There has been an influx of newcomers to Charlestown for the past 15 years. It's only in the past couple of years that "Social Segregation" has become a pointed issue.

Mr. Spinetto, and those who share his views, should keep this in mind ... there may be some of you who are as good as the "Townies"; but, there are none of you who are any better than the "Townies!"

Don't put us down!

We are all EQUAL in God's eyes. There's good and bad in all walks of life.

Brotherly Love

P.S. We have no desire to share your Perrier. We are just accustomed to neighbors who practice the Golden Rule.

A Very Big Thank You

Dear Friends:

I would like to thank each and everyone of you for your kindness during my recent illness. For all your calls, cards, visits, flowers, fruit baskets, and all the love and support you showed me, my thanks.

I am deeply touched. Again I thank you and may God bless you all.

All My Love,

My Thanks

Dear Friends,

Please accept my sincere thanks for all your Prayers, enrollments, flowers and gifts I received during my recent illness.

My warmest thanks to all of you.

Sincerely,
Helen M. Neary

Our Thanks

To all who attended and celebrated our 50th Wedding Anniversary with us, we want to thank you. We will always remember and cherish the occasion. Again, thanks loads and may God watch over all of you.

Sincerely,

The "Isaac Hull" Collection Now At The USS Constitution Museum

Beginning May 12, 1983, the USS Constitution Museum in the Charlestown Navy Yard is displaying for the first time anywhere a stunning collection of treasures from the age of fighting sail, the Captain Isaac Hull Collection.

The collection, which is on indefinite loan to the Museum from Mrs. Roger

C. Elliot, a collateral descendant of Captain Hull, includes prizes he won during the War of 1812 as captain of USS Constitution, personal belongings, and a wealth of archival material. Additional pieces pertaining to Hull are on loan to the Constitution Museum by the Wadsworth Atheneum, Hartford; the Old Derby Historical Society, Derby, CT; the Peabody Museum of Salem; and the New Haven Colony Historical Society, New Haven, CT.

The centerpiece of the Collection are the prizes that were showered on Hull following Constitution's victory over HMS Guerriere in the early days of the War of 1812. Hull was an instant hero, and grateful people from Maine to the Carolinas hastened to commemorate Hull.

made for Hull by Philadelphia silversmiths Fletcher and Gardiner, a flatware. The silver and china were in use by members of Hull's family until very recently.

There will also be several important 19th century paintings included in the exhibition, most notably Gilbert Stuart's 1807 portrait of Hull, last publicly exhibited at the old Museum of Fine Arts in Copley Square in the 1890s. Four 1812 paintings of the engagement with Guerriere by Michael Felice Corne are on loan from the New Haven Colony Historical Society, and a circa-1833 portrait of

"ISAAC HULL", oil on canvas, Gilbert Stuart, 1807. Hull probably sat for his portrait during the winter season of 1807 in Boston. Stuart made a copy of this painting for Harrison Gray Otis in 1813, and it hangs today in the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York. This, the original version, was last publicly displayed at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts, Copley Square, in the 1880's. (Mrs. Roger C. Elliot Collection)

Pierre Charles L'Enfant in 1783 and presented to Hull by the Society of the Cincinnati, who made him an honorary member in 1816.

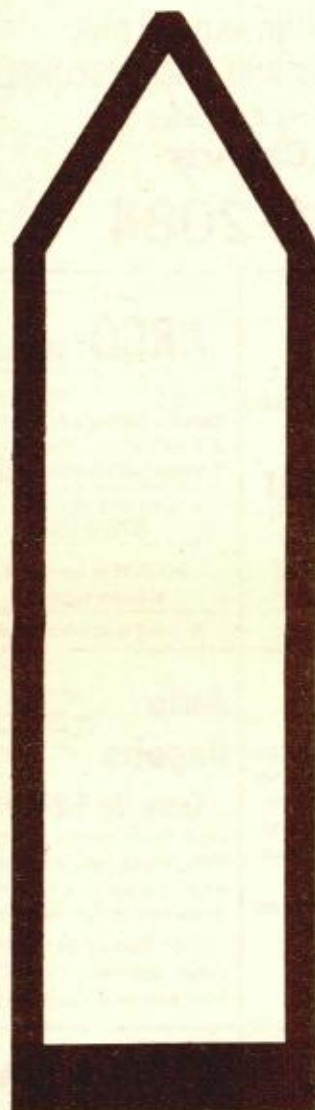

The exhibition "ISAAC HULL. A Forgotten American Hero" will be at the USS Constitution Museum, adjacent to "Old Ironsides" in the Charlestown Navy Yard, from May 12, 1983 through September, 1984.

$15,000 is needed to put the Bunker Hill Day Parade on the streets, June 12, 1983. Under the restraints of Proposition 2½, only a small amount of money is being allocated to the Celebration by the City of Boston, thus the success of the Parade depends on you — the residents, merchants, and organizations. Donations over $25 will be publicly acknowledged.

SILVER URN (Thomas Fletcher and Sidney Gardiner, Philadelphia, 1812-1813) presented to Isaac Hull after his defeat of the British frigate Guerriere by the Citizens of the City of Philadelphia.

(Mrs. Roger C. Elliot Collection)

gift from the citizens of that city. The governor of the State of Connecticut ordered equally lavish gifts to be given to Hull by his home state. Some of the finest craftsmen of the era were commissioned: Nathan Starr of Middletown, CT, fabricated a dress sword and scabbard of gold and damascus steel, and Simeon North, whose shop neighborhood Starr's in Middletown, fashioned a pair of .58 calibre gold-mounted walnut duelling pistols. These three pieces are considered to be among the finest examples of early 19th century American artistry extant.

The City of Charleston, South Carolina, presented Hull with a six-piece gold-on-silver tea service, each piece engraved with a tribute to Hull's skill and bravery. Ironically, the service was made in England, by the London firm of A.P. & W. Bateman.

Many of Hull's personal possessions are also included in the Collection: A Dutch tall case clock, walnut veneer on walnut, that Hull brought back in Constitution from a trip to The Netherlands in 1811; his gold pocket watch and eyeglasses; a gold-framed oil-on-ivory miniature that contains a braided lock of hair. Three pieces of the Hull family Chinese export hard-paste porcelain tableware are included, as well as a setting of silver

Mrs. Hull has been loaned by the Wadsworth Atheneum. A painting of Constitution being chased by a British squadron by Julian O. Davidson (1882) is from the Constitution Museum's own collection, a gift of the New York Yacht Club.

Among Hull's many accolades were two medals: one a gold Congressional medal (engraved by John Reich in 1812-1813) bearing a much-imitated rendering of the duel between Constitution and Guerriere, and one an extremely rare medal designed by Major
