If you're on a private link, like in your house, you'll be able to operate an anti-virus scan with your unit to verify it is not contaminated with malware.

