If President Barack Obama could openly disown a Pastor, I see NO reason why I should pay much attention to a President who was recently stated to be dementia after his wife fled to Dubai claiming there was insecurity at the State House (where the President resides?! Then where else would be safe?).

Under the watch of this same President, the fate of Leah Sharibu remains unknown years after she was reported to have been taken hostage (probably killed) for being the only one who refused to deny Jesus Christ from among the about 109 captured Dapchi school girls (it is amazing that the captors drove freely to the town to return the other captured girls who were majorly Muslims, about 109 in number, and the security agencies till date could NOT trail them to their hideouts). A US Intelligence report at the time claimed that the Nigerian Government under the watch of President Muhammadu Buhari spent huge amount to negotiate with the captors of the school girls for their release (a claim the Nigerian Government denied by stating the negotiations for the release of the school girls did NOT involve payment of the money).

These same security agencies (DSS et al) could tell the nation that they spent about 3 Million NGN monthly (~ 7,500 USD monthly @ approx. 400 NGN/USD conversion rate) feeding an internationally recognized terrorist in prison, El-Zakzaky, for a period of 4 years (amounting to about 164 Million NGN). I cannot but wonder how much has been spent since then.

It is worthy of mention that it took a struggle for a meagre minimum monthly wage of 30,000 NGN monthly (~ 75 USD monthly) to be recently approved for hardworking citizens with some state governors unwilling to implement it after the approval at the national level. Also, Pensioners under the public sector are being owed several months of pension funds/gratuity (my mum for instance has NOT been paid up to 80% of her gratuity more than 6 years after retirement).

It is obvious that the privately funded pension funds (which is funded by the individual and optionally his employer) needs URGENT review based on the level of dissatisfaction expressed by pensioners in this category over the years which was prominent during the COVID-19 lock-down (especially from those who have previously utilized the option of 25% of their Pension Savings for emergencies who are no longer eligible for further access to their funds till they are up to 50 years of age).

The answer to the question previously asked, if there is ANY act of terrorism in the world that the perpetrators linked to the teaching of Jesus, should be obvious by now from documents published thereafter.

The documents clearly show that the security agents (most especially THE SECRET SERVICE) have a lot to answer for the state of our world today. A knowledge of the background of THE SECRET SERVICE/SOCIETY/EVIL from the time of Jesus to Muhammad to Hitler to Martin Luther till date speak volumes.
