what is SP Enanthate 250mg/ml (Testosterone enanthate)? SP Enanthate 250mg/ml (Testosterone enanthate) is one of the oldest as well as most well-known of the anabolic steroids out there. It is a slow acting form of testosterone that is released at intervals in the body. It was the first time a large ester was introduced for testosterone and it was created in the 1930s.

correct diaphragmatic breathing/bracing will therefore allow more core and psoas activity = more tightness , more strength due to increased recruitment of muscles to perform the squat = PB
