NO PLAYOFF NERVES

Miami earned a Conference Semifinals bye and easily dispatched Jacksonville Armada FC 3-1 in the Sunshine Conference Final.

In the South Region Semifinal, a valiant effort by Atlanta Silverbacks FC kept the match tied through the first 80 minutes, but Miami's quality shined through when it needed to most.

With a spot in the National Playoffs on the line, the Orange and Blue decimated the Little Rock Rangers with a 3-0 shutout in the South Region Final.

UNRIVALED RESOLVE

With 14 regular season matches played, Duluth endured one of the more grueling schedules in the league and came out unscathed.

Duluth's playoff triumphs can be attributed to its sheer unwillingness to budge under pressure, as the Minnesota team has played 120 minutes in each of its playoff matches.

In two of those matches, Duluth has taken out its opponent by coming up clutch from the spot in nerve-racking penalty shootouts.

MATCH NOTES

MIAMI EN FUEGO

The Orange and Blue is on an unprecedented tear at the moment, having won its last eight matches, including the Sunshine Conference Final, South Region Semifinal and South Region Final.

Over that span, Miami has dominated its opponents to the tune of a 22-3 combined scoreline.

Going back even further, the Orange and Blue has outscored opponents 35-4 over the past 12 matches, dropping just one match in the process.

Having truly hit its stride on both offense and defense over the second half of the season and in the playoffs, Miami is the top candidate to win the NPSL Championship.

BALANCED OFFENSE & DEFENSE

Miami's offense has poured in goals during its eight-match win streak, tallying 22 goals for a 2.75 goals per match average and scoring multiple goals in all but one of those victories.

While the offense will always grab the spotlight, Miami's backline has been nothing short of outstanding during the streak, and for much of the season.

The Orange and Blue has given up a measly seven goals in 15 NPSL matches during the 2018 season, which ranks in the top five in the league.

Miami has also pitched a shutout in eight of its last 12 matches, as the defense begins to peak at the perfect time.

MIAMI FC 2 PLAYERS TO WATCH

Dylan Mares is as good of an all-around player as there is in the entire NPSL.

With five goals scored and three assists provided, Mares' numbers speak for themselves, but it's Mares' dribbling and passing ability that allow him to pull the string for the entire Miami offense.

Mares leads Miami in shots taken, and his frequency of creating scoring chances makes the offense tick when it most needs it.

Mares' stellar season earned him nods on the Sunshine Conference and South Region XIs, and the midfielder has been nominated for the National XI.

Tomas Greco has become a spark plug off the bench for Coach Dalglish in his first year with Miami.

The St. Thomas University product provided an assist on Miami's third and final goal in the South Region Final last week, after coming on as a substitute in the 64th minute.

Despite starting in just one match, Greco has notched four assists in 11 appearances and owns the team's best shot on target per shot taken percentage.

The diminutive Argentinian plays like so many of his compatriots: With a natural feel for passing and a relentless motor on both offense and defense.

NEWS

UP NEXT

If Miami FC 2 were to beat Duluth, Miami would play the winner of the FC Motown-FCM Portland Semifinal in the NPSL National Final.

The Final will be played on Saturday, August 4. If Miami plays FC Motown, the latter would host. If FCM Portland is the opponent, the Orange and Blue would host the Final.

MIAMI FC 2 TECHNICAL STAFF

PAUL DALGLISH HEAD COACH

The son of legendary Scotland international, Celtic and Liverpool forward Kenny Dalglish, Paul enjoyed a successful playing career through the ranks of the Premier League and the Scottish Premiership before heading to the MLS in 2006. He won the MLS Cup twice with the Houston Dynamo in both of his seasons with the club, in 2006 and 2007.

After working in the Houston Dynamo Academy in 2009, Dalglish began his coaching career as manager of the Tampa Bay Rowdies in 2010. From 2012 to 2013, he managed the Austin Aztex of the PDL. Under Dalglish's tutelage, the Aztex reached the Conference Finals in 2012 and won the league championship in 2013, a year in which Dalglish was named PDL Coach of the Year. Dalglish became an assistant coach with Real Salt Lake in 2014, before returning to lead the Aztex in early 2015. In November of that year, Dalglish was named Head Coach and General Manager of Ottawa Fury FC. After two seasons with Ottawa, Dalglish joins The Miami FC.
