RE: CALL FOR OPEN INVESTIGATION INTO PSYCHOLOGIST REGULATORY SCHEME (Add to Case

Dear Citizen Complaint Center-Antitrust Division,

A preliminary review of public records by this entity, revealed that the below-named Licensed Psychologists, personally and substantially, as part of their public official duty to regulate the field of psychology in their respective States, directly and predictably restricted the trade of psychology, to substantially have an effect on their private financial interests and those of the non-profit corporation, the Association of States and Provincial Psychology Boards (ASPPB) for the last 10 years.

Note: Appendixes briefly illustrate named psychologists in connection to applicable ASPPB IRS Forms 990 and States' Board Minutes.

Materials Reviewed:

ASPPB Forms 990: 2005-2010, and 2012-2014

State's Psychology Board Minutes: GA, CA, NY, MO

- 1. Past ASPPB President and current ASPPB Chief Operating Officer: Dr. Carol Webb, has drawn compensation from the ASPPB, while concurrently serving as public official in Georgia's Psychology Board, which regulates the field of psychology and its relevant market (See Exhibit #1).
- 2. Current ASPPB President-Elect: Dr. Don Meck, has drawn compensation from the ASPPB, while concurrently serving as public official in Georgia's Psychology Board, which regulates the field of psychology and its relevant market (See Exhibit #1)
- 3. Past ASPPB President, Dr. Jacqueline Horn, has drawn compensation from ASPPB the ASPPB, while concurrently serving as public official in California's Psychology Board, which regulates the field of psychology and its relevant market (See Exhibit #2).
- 4. Past ASPPB President and Board Director, Dr. Fred Millán, has drawn compensation from ASPPB, while concurrently serving as public official in New York's Psychology Board, which regulates the field of psychology and its relevant market (See Enclosure #3)

- 5. Past ASPPB President and Board Director, Dr. Sharon Lightfoot, has drawn compensation from the ASPPB, while concurrently serving as public official in Missouri's Psychology Board, which regulates the field of psychology and its relevant market (See Enclosure #4).
- 6. By conspiring to restrict, and monopolize a trade across the United States, the ASPPB and named psychologists violated Title 15 of the United States Code, Sections 1, and 2, within the FTC/DOJ's jurisdiction.
- 7. By giving/accepting compensation, which unduly influenced ASPPB Members/Public Officials to promote trade-restricting rules across the United States, and in favor of that enterprise, the ASPPB /Public Officials violated Title 18 USC, Sec. 201 (See Attached Enclosure).
- 8. As a consequence of their violations, the ASPPB and named conspirators' exacerbated the shortage of qualified mental health providers in the USA. The psychologists are there, but the trade is overly being restricted. See links:

http://on.wsj.com/1E1dj7P http://bit.ly/1LtTeet http://wapo.st/1GsoHxx http://sciof.us/1GL893M

- 9. The ASPPB and named conspirators' harmed consumers by reducing the overall quality of care that patients receive, reduced the quantity of mental health services availability, reduced the supply of mental health services, reduced patients/consumer's choices, restricted innovation, kept high prices, and delayed future competition for services in the relevant markets.
- 10. The ASPPB and named conspirators' caused prospective competitors significant economic and financial losses, including but not limited to inability of competing in current and future relevant markets, the loss in the ability to do business with third-party organizations and insurance companies across the USA., and the loss in the ability to compete for federal and state government contracts with incumbents. Incumbent psychologists had and will continue to follow a predictable and complacent course of commerce with minimal competitive interruption.

WHEREFORE, we request a public investigation onto the alleged psychologist regulatory scheme by the ASPPB and alleged conspirators, and Revocation of Tax-Exempt Status 501(c)6.

Sincerely, Modern Psychologist, PLLC /es/MP/
