Why now?

Give yourself plenty of time to prepare, organise and budget for any of the items that need to be done, rather than rush at the last minute, the week before you go on the market.

Book your consult now – the worst that can happen is you'll get to live in your gorgeous new and improved home for a few months before you sell it!

All the Stagers at Home On Display are trained Design Consultants also and can advise on paint colours, furniture layout & accessories whether you're planning on selling or not!

 Seller to pay upfront for the consultation, SoldBySteve.ca will reimburse the seller on commencement of a listing contract.
