

Easter Bunny Visits St. Mary's

THE EASTER BUNNY visited the children of St. Mary's Parish on Easter Sunday morning. Following an Easter Egg Hunt, the East Bunny gave out balloons and candy to the children. Expressions of delight on the faces of these children indicate the success of this event.

St. Mary's Mass of Anointing

St. Mary's is planning another special mass of Anointing...to honor the shut-ins and the elderly of our parish on May 20th at the Knights of Columbus Hall, at 11:00 a.m.

If you know of someone in the parish that is elderly or restricted to a wheelchair or bed, and who would like to attend this Mass, and is in need of assistance and/or transportation, please call St. Mary's rectory, 242-4664. Everyone is welcome to attend the Mass.

Street Festival Celebrating "Siena In Charlestown" May 4-6

We're calling it "Siena in Charlestown" and hope it will resemble in some small way the celebration of St. Catherine's Patronal Feast Day as they do it in Siena, Italy. It's only our first attempt, so perhaps we won't "do it up" quite as elaborately as they do in St. Catherine's home town, but it should be lots of fun. There will be the Foods (fried dough, pizza, sausage and peppers, lasagna, home-baked goods, cotton candy, fresh fruit, pastries, etc.), the Music (Roma Band of America Concert, Italian and Irish Music), Blockdancing; Kiddie rides and games.

The Fiesta opens with a 5:30

Task Force- Police Committee To Meet

All interested citizens are invited to the combined monthly meeting of the Charlestown Police/ Community Relations Steering Committee and the Bunker Hill Housing Project Task Force this Monday evening, May 7, 1979 at 7:30 p.m. at the B.H.A. Administration Building at 55 Bunker Hill Street.

Topics to be covered will include the current status of security lock installation, the development of a special security patrol exclusively for the Housing Project, and the present effectiveness of Team Policing in the Project area. The meeting will be opened to general business after the topics on the agenda are covered.

All are welcome to attend.

presence and prayers in Heaven. People offer donations "to St. Catherine" during the procession, again as a gesture of devotion and a plea for her prayers before the Lord in Heaven. It is essentially a celebration of faith, and we hope it will be that for all who share in the festival activities with us.

The processional route will be: Tufts Street to Medford Street, around Old Landing Way and back to Medford Street, around Old Ironsides Way and back to

You Are Invited

The friends and neighbors of Mrs. Mary S. Colbert of 59 High Street, Charlestown are cordially invited to attend the Ground Breaking Ceremonies of the Mary S. Colbert Senior Citizens Apartments at 20 Devens Street, Charlestown (the old Harvard School) at noon on Friday, May 11, 1979. The speaker on this occasion will be The Honorable Thomas P. O'Neill, Jr., Speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives.

This ceremony is under the sponsorship of The Kennedy Center and the Charlestown Economic Development Corporation.

IF YOU WANT TO SELL YOUR HOME.... FIND OUT WHAT IT IS WORTH IT MAY BE WORTH A LOT MORE THAN YOU THINK

The worst mistake a homeowner can make when selling his home is putting the wrong price on it. A low price cheats the owner of equity earned over years of maintenance and paying taxes. A price above the market value causes long delays and can result in dropping the price too low when you've run out of time.

If you want to sell your home, we hope you'll consult us before you put your house up for sale. With our 25 years of experience and our daily exposure to the changing market. We can advise you how to price your home for the best sale in the time you wish.

With the recent very strong rise in Charlestown home values, you will probably be surprised just how much your home is worth. We're known for getting high prices, but that isn't all we offer. The way we handle a sale is very important. For example, the way we list a home saves a lot of problems later: We ask what is included in the price and what things don't stay with the house; we ask when you prefer to move.

We are also known for our courtesy and respect for your wishes. At your request, we'll be glad to call you and your tenants before we show your house. We won't use the sale of your home in our promotions without your consent.

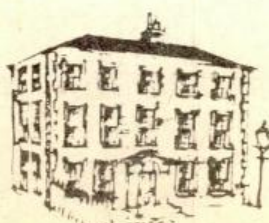

For an opinion on the sale value of your home, at no cost or obligation, please call JOEL CLAYDON at:

Local Artist In Mills Gallery Exhibit

The artists who brought you "The Artist's Ball" at the Boston Center for the Arts, will bring you large scale works of sculpture, fiber, paper constructions plus oil paintings, drawings, prints of silk-screen and etching and photographs at Boston City Hall's Main Gallery, May 7 to 31, 1979. Hours are Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The exhibit is a special feature in conjunction with Beginnings

'79, the concurrent exhibition of Newbury Street galleries, now through June 10. Co-sponsored by the Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs and the Mills Gallery at the Boston Center for the Arts (BCA), the exhibit will celebrate Beginnings '79 by showing 33 of their own stars from the Boston Center for the Arts including the works of artist Carole Bolsey, a painter, who lives at 21 Prescott Street, Charlestown.

Charlestown Historical Society Announces Annual Essay Contest

The Charlestown Historical Society is pleased to announce the Annual Reverend Wolcott Cutler Essay Contest, which is open to all school-aged residents of Charlestown.

The theme for 1979 is: "June 17, 1775 - 1979 Why Celebrate a Battle We Lost?"

Prizes will be awarded in four groups:

Grades 1 - 2 Appropriate books for top three entries.

Grades 3 - 5 $50 U.S. Savings Bond for first place and carefully selected books for second and third places.

Grades 6 - 8 Same as above.

Grades 9 - 12 Same as above.

Decision of the judges is final and prizes may be withheld in a certain category at the discretion of the Committee.

Essays will be judged on the neatness, originality, and content. In order for the judges to be fair in their decision, the Chairman of the Committee will cover the names and addresses of all participants before the judging begins.

The idea of the theme "Why Celebrate a Battle We Lost?" is to get the participants to take a closer look at the Battle of Bunker Hill and see why these patriots fought against overwhelming odds to be free.

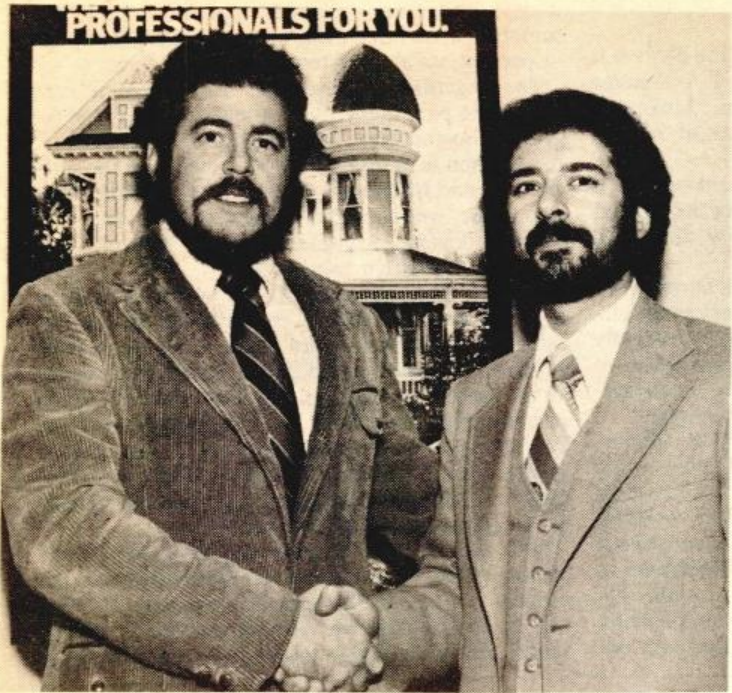

The Committee hopes that students and teachers will visit the Bunker Hill Community Museum to help prepare for the essay contest.

Deadline for entries is May 25, 1979. Students in Charlestown schools may submit their essays through their principals. Students attending school outside Charlestown, may turn their entries in at the Bunker Hill Museum, 43 Monument Square, Charlestown. (Museum Hours are Tuesday through Sunday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.)

If there are questions, please contact Chairman Robert F. Rooney at 242-3735.

Medford Street again, down Monument Street to Bunker Hill, and back to Hayes Square where it will end. The Roma Band and all who wish to, will follow the procession route. At its conclusion, food service, music, games and rides will continue for as long as people remain to celebrate. It will be at this time that the Bonanza drawing will be held in the parish hall.

We cordially invite all our friends and neighbors to "come to the feast. Pray for good weather!"

Last Friday was a homecoming of sorts as alumni filled the Knights of Columbus Hall for our first school reunion. A tumultuous reception was given Fr. Serino and Sr. Ernestine as they shared their pride in St. Catherine's. Special guests included Sr. Louisa, class of 1918; Sr. Raynald, 1936; Elizabeth (Powers) Murphy, 1920; Catherine Shea, 1921; Mary (Calabro) Everett, 1927 and - Eddie Everett, 1929 (our 'Earliest Sweethearts'); Mary (Kenny) Scannell, and Fran (Tegan) Murphy, 1928.

It was so nice to see entire families return, parents, brothers and sisters joined together again. Some of the larger families in attendance were the Hurleys, the Whites, the Maguires, and the Breens. Especially heartwarming was that those who came couldn't have been more thrilled and excited at seeing old friends and showed it with much open affection.

It was truly a time to remember with delicious food served by Marty Murphy and the band mixing it up so all generations danced their feet off (especially the older ones!)

A special note of thanks to the Knights of Columbus for the use of their beautiful hall and to committee members who worked so hard to make it possible. And, to Sr. Constance for her support above and beyond the call of duty.

Charlestown Teen Center News

We would like to thank everyone who came to our Car Wash on April 21st. Your presence and a lot of hard work from local teenagers made it a great success. The donations that we collected will be used to finance some summer trips.

During the recent school vacation, our newly elected Teen Council (which includes such familiar names as Kenny Riley, Michael Tucker, Janice Devlin, Dianne Wrenn, Freddy Arroyo, Sharlene Stearns, Grace Monaco, Bobby McGoff, Cecil Jones and Dianne Kroon) was responsible for setting-up field trips.

We visited the Wallex with a group of 25 teens and activities included bowling, roller skating, and miniature golf. Also a group of 40 youths went horseback riding in Stoneham on Friday, April 20th.

Last Saturday, we attended the New England Teamen Soccer game at Nickerson Field. Although the Teamen were defeated, the 20 teens who attended received FREE Teamen T-shirts.

The Teen Center will be celebrating the St. Catherine of Siena Street Festival this weekend. Therefore, the doors of our Center (which is located in the basement of St. Catherine's Rectory) will be open to ALL during the weekend of May 4, 5, and 6.

Arts Council To Meet

The Charlestown Arts Council will meet on Wednesday evening, May 9th at 7:30 p.m. at the Charlestown Community Center, 14 Green Street. All persons interested in this Council are welcome.

Participated In Tourney

On March 22, 29, and 30, boys from St. Catherine's, Charlestown participated in an Invitational Tournament at St. Joseph's in Medford.

The first game was an easy victory for the "Townies" - climbing over St. Raphael's 38 - 15. Dan Fitzpatrick led in the scoring with 18 points. Fellow players who added to the score were John O'Donnell, Jim Harrington, Jim King, John Sheehan, and Jim Ryan.

In the second game, the boys from C-Town were behind going into the fourth quarter. They held St. Joseph's to one point and baskets by John O'Donnell, Jim King, Liam Fittz, and Jim Vesey gave the "Townies" a 26 - 19 victory.

Defeat came on Friday when many players were on their way to Canada. St. Catherine's proved a concern to St. Ann's of Somerville. The final score 29 - 25 showed equal ability. The "Townies" never gave up. Hopefully this drive will continue into the next basketball season.

Thanks are due to all who came, drove, and caught the spirit!!!!

A Friend.....

A FRIEND CAN MAKE ALL THE DIFFERENCE IN THE WORLD...

It is now 2:30 p.m., and Linda has only thirty minutes left to wait. She carefully selects an outfit, making sure it's just right for the occasion. It has taken two months, but finally she will be matched with a Little Sister.

At 2:45 p.m., Linda hears a knock at the door; it is her social worker who has been working to arrange the match. At approximately 3:30 p.m., Linda and the social worker arrive in Charlestown at Susan's home. Susan is her Little Sister.

Susan, aged ten, greets Linda at the door with a warm smile. After the formal introduction, Linda and Susan are left alone to talk while the social worker talks with the parent.

"What will I say to her?", Linda asks herself. She was hoping that she didn't appear as nervous as she felt. In the meantime, Susan was trying equally hard to hide her nervousness. "Would you like to see my room?", Susan asked. "Of course I would," Linda replied. And so the relationship began.

This was the scene for Linda and her Little Sister, Susan, two years ago. Approximately two years have passed since Linda and Susan were matched by the Big Sister Association of Greater Boston. Initially, they really didn't understand exactly what a Big and Little Sister relationship was supposed to be; however, Linda can now sum it up with this statement: "In a Big and Little Sister relationship, you learn by sharing and giving your time and love to someone who is more than willing to reciprocate. It's fun sharing ideas with someone younger than yourself. It gives you an entirely different perspective on life." Linda said.

Being a Big Sister does not mean you have to spend a lot of money. Linda and Susan have become regulars at the Children's Museum, Faneuil Hall and other free sites around the city. Many times the Big Sister Association provides free or discounted tickets to Big and Little Sisters, and Linda and Susan take advantage of these opportunities whenever possible. "When there is nothing going on in town of interest to us, Faneuil Hall is usually the place to go," states Linda.

Linda and Susan do not advocate spending a lot of money; however, they do believe in celebrating special occasions such as birthdays and Christmas. "Susan's eleventh birthday was celebrated at my apartment. The party was planned as a surprise, but somehow Susan found out. I baked a cake and invited a few of our mutual friends. It is not rare to celebrate special occasions this way," Linda said.

"It takes time to build a relationship. Susan and I are no exceptions. We may not always agree, but somehow we manage to work things out. In a Big and Little Sister relationship you learn to compromise," Linda said.

Ice skating is one of Susan's favorite sports. "When Susan asked me to go ice skating, I agreed. I couldn't skate, so she offered to teach me. I think I underestimated her talents when she told me she could ice skate; she is really good."

"I have always wanted a Little Sister. Becoming a Big Sister was an opportunity to gain a Little Sister, as well as a friend. Susan and I have been matched for two years. For two years we've laughed together, played together and, yes, sometimes we have even cried together, but most important, we are still together," said Linda.

The Big Sister Association has played a very important part in the lives of over 3,000 girls in the greater Boston area. The purpose of the Big Sister Association is to give young girls between the ages of seven and fifteen an opportunity to identify their own goals, work toward achieving them and help them to develop new goals with the help of a Big Sister as a positive role model.

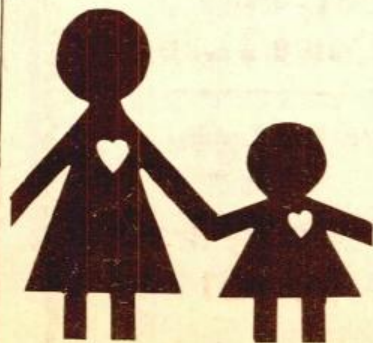

The Big Sister must be at least eighteen years of age and able to make a commitment to see her Little Sister for four hours every week for at least eighteen months. In addition, interested women must attend orientation meetings and training sessions and have at least two screening interviews. Currently there are over 200 girls in the greater Boston area waiting for Big Sisters. There is a great need for volunteer Big Sisters so that the agency can help meet the needs of these girls.

Now, at 1:30 p.m., on Saturday afternoon, Linda has only thirty minutes to wait. However, she is not nervous and her social worker is not with her. She will go to Charlestown, pick up her Little Sister, Susan, and today, Linda thinks, "We will just talk."

200 girls are waiting.

Be a Big Sister.

THE MOB - MAYOR'S OLDER BOSTONIANS

A fact that should be known to all is the Mayor's commitment to the Senior Citizens of Boston. Through multiple senior programs as well as active leadership on behalf of our older Bostonians, the Mayor has developed many programs and has lobbied on behalf of the Elderly to influence businesses to cut from 5 to 20% off their retail prices. Discounts are offered in various stores on groceries, afternoon movies, dinners, furniture, etc. There are no strings attached only that one must be just 60 years or older.

The MOB's primary goal is to make community businesses aware of the needs of Boston's senior citizens.

Seniors can join the MOB presenting proof of age and residence to Little City Hall, 236-1/2 Bunker Hill Street, Charlestown.

The following Charlestown merchants are participating in the MOB Program: Austin's, Cummins Pharmacy, Donovan & Fallon, Family Shoe Store, High Pharmacy, Kerrigan's Flower Shop, MDC Skating Rink, Meat Outlet, Tuttle's Cleaners on Main & Bunker Hill Streets, Renie's Sub Shop, Joel's Meat Shoppe, Murphy's Furniture Store, Magouns and Bunker Hill Glass.

SENIOR CITIZENS HALF FARE MBTA PASSES

MBTA Half fare cards for the elderly and the handicapped citizens of Charlestown will be issued May 25 from 9:30 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. at the Charlestown Little City Hall.

To qualify for the reduced transit fare, senior citizens must show proof of age (must be 65 years of age). Acceptable proof is a birth certificate, baptismal record or driver's license, as well as proof of residency such as driver's license, library card or charge plate. A 50¢ fee will be charged for the cost of the printing and laminating of the I.D.

Handicapped citizens whose card will only be good during off peak hours, must bring acceptable proof of their disability, such as Medicaid card showing category 03, social security certificate of award letter or completion of MBTA form. No. SN - 7 which must be approved and signed by a physician or state or federal agency serving the handicapped.

For further information contact Brian Hickey at 242-0805.

Friends of The Library To Meet

The final meeting of the season of the Friends of the Library, Charlestown Branch, will be on Thursday, May 17, 1979, at 7:00 p.m.

Following a short business meeting and election of officers for 1979-1980, there will be a delightful program!

Miss Pauline Cloues, widely known for her interest in and knowledge of Antique Dolls, will have some of those dolls on exhibition and will tell us a bit about her hobby.

Downtown Bus Service To Continue

In response to many inquiries from Charlestown residents, Representative Richard Voke contacted the MBTA regarding the continuation of the downtown bus service from Sullivan Square along the Main Street and Bunker Hill Street routes. MBTA official, Robin Stavinsky, who is the chief planning officer for the "T", assured Representative Voke that there are no plans at this time to stop running the busses downtown. However, Ms. Stavinsky did disclose that the federal funds which have been paying for this service will run out on September 8th. As a result, if the service is to continue beyond next September, the funds to support it will have to come from the MBTA operating budget. Some "T" officials have expressed concern that the downtown run is too expensive to maintain and should be cut from the budget.

When he was asked to comment on his plans to prevent Charlestown from losing this valuable service Richie Voke said "the MBTA is losing sight of its function which is to provide transportation for all the citizens of the Commonwealth within its reach. When the "T" expanded the Orange Line, so that it would extend further into the cities north of Boston, they closed the City Square and Thompson Square Stations, thus depriving the people of Charlestown of two easily accessible outlets which previously had transported them into the downtown shopping district. Now that Charlestown has finally regained some of the service it had lost, I have no intention of letting the MBTA take it away without a fight.

There is tremendous public demand within Charlestown for this bus service and we must send a message to MBTA headquarters that we want to keep it."

Just as a reminder, Representative Voke holds office hours at his desk in the community service area at 1 Thompson Square (Old Charlestown Savings Bank) on Mondays from 3:00 - 4:30 p.m., on Tuesday from 9:00 - 10:30 a.m., and on Thursday evenings from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. You can reach him there by calling 242-0412. His telephone number at the State House is 727-4900.

Businessmen To Meet

The monthly meeting of the Charlestown Businessmen's Association will be held on Monday, May 7, 1979 at noon at the Cobblestone Restaurant on 412 Medford Street.

All businessmen and merchants in the community are urged to attend. Plans are being formulated for a Street Fair to be held on Saturday, June 9 with rides, a meal for the elderly, music, games, surprises and the Association needs the help of each and every member.

Old Charlestown Schoolboys To Hold Annual Reunion May 9

Charlestown was founded in 1628 and established as a City in 1847. It was comprised of such areas now known as Somerville, Malden, Woburn, Stoneham and Cambridge.

In January 1874 - Charlestown was annexed to the City of Boston.

A register was compiled of the 6500 School Boys who attended schools in the City of Charlestown from 1847 to 1874. The five schools that existed in this period of time, were the Prescott, Bunker Hill, Winthrop and Harvard Grammar Schools and the High School - It is significant to note that no Parochial Schools were operating in Charlestown during the period of 1847 to 1874. This listing of boys was the basis for tracking such School Boys for membership in the association, which was founded in 1913....Mr. James Smiley Murphy who lived at 25 Warren St., Charlestown and graduated from the Harvard Grammar School in 1862 and the High School in 1866 and later became the President of the Stickney and Poor Spice Company - was the prime mover in founding the association. Mr. Murphy was elected as the First President of the Association in 1913.

Life Membership at that time was restricted to those men who attended any school in Charlestown prior to 1874. This is the reason that the year 1874 is considered as the starting year. Thus, the members at the First Reunion in 1913 were all 42 years of age or older. Every five years the Officers and Executive Committee vote to change the eligible date for membership into the association. Currently, in order to become a Life Member, one must have attended any school in Charlestown, Mass. prior to January 1, 1935, and Life Membership is still only two dollars!

Briefly, the object of the association is "to keep and to perpetuate the memories and associations of our early schooldays in Charlestown and to promote brotherly love and kind feeling among ourselves." The motto of the association is, "Liberty - A Trust to be Transmitted to Posterity" - Which is considered to be a timely and significant guiding principle considering life in our present world conditions.

Of great significance is the fact that the Old Charlestown Schoolboys' Association is a very unique and singular organization in that there is no other group or Association that perpetuates having gone to schools in a particular geographical area of our Nation.

The Association was incorporated under the statutes of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in the year 1939 - The association held their first meeting after incorporating at the Boston City Club, Boston, Mass., on April 26, 1939. Yearly meetings of the Officers and Executive Committee are still held during the Month of April - The present Officers are John J. Crowley, President, Edward A. McGuinness, V. President, Edward F. Connelly, Treasurer, James P. Carr, Secretary.

On May 9, 1979, the 66th Annual Reunion will take place at the K. of C. Hall in Charlestown, commencing at 6 p.m. guest of honor will be Governor Edward J. King. Reunions have been held at only three places since 1913 - Namely, the Boston City Club, Charlestown Boys' Club and the Charlestown K. of C. Hall. There are 1000 members living throughout the United States; and, membership consists of men from all walks of life and of many different religious beliefs, but all have one common objective: To meet and to perpetuate the memories and associations of our early school days here in Charlestown, Mass. - Whether they were Pointers, Neckers, Stacey Field, Hair Pasture, Navy Yard Gaters, Happy Valleyites, Nanny Goat Hillers, Monument Silk Stocking Kids, Mill Pond Roosters, Canal Typos or Training Field Champs.

For further information contact James P. Carr at 14 Austin Street (242-2449).

Song And Prayer Mark Good Friday Procession In Charlestown

Boys' Club News

by Charlie McGonagle

Physical Education Director, Joe McGonagle, is just coming off a month of Jury Duty. Whether he may be the perfect jurist or not, depends upon your own beliefs. Following are excerpts from tapes taken at the Courthouse during the last month.

The first piece of tape comes from Joe's initial encounter with the Judge.

Judge: Do you harbor any prejudices?

Joe: (Looking around and sniffing the air) You cookin' Spaghetti, Your Honor?

Judge: And what does

Spaghetti have to do with your prejudices?

Joe: I don't like Italian food.
Judge: Does that mean you don't like Italians?

Joe: Oh no, Your Honor, long as they eat corned beef and cabbage, they're okay in my book.

The second piece of tape comes from the room in which the jury members are attempting to reach agreement as to the guilt or innocence of a man who has been charged with Armed Robbery.

It seems the man had entered a bank with an explosive device strapped around his waist, threatening to blow up the bank and himself if all the money in the bank was not placed in the satchel which was strapped over his shoulder.

The bank's cameras had captured several very vivid pictures of the suspect, right down to his two missing arms and a tattoo of a unicorn on his right cheek. The pictures showed the man entering the bank, the teller placing the money in the satchel, and the police struggling with the man as he attempted to leave.

It seemed to be a cut and dry case. The vote was taken.

Foreman: Eleven Guilty, one Not Guilty. My God! How can anybody submit a Not Guilty vote.

Joe: I voted Not Guilty, and for good reason.

Foreman: Look Joe, we have pictures of the man being apprehended right in the bank. How can you doubt the charges.

Joe: That's exactly it. Look at the pictures and think of the charges. I believe the man is Guilty. But I think the charges should be changed to Unarmed Robbery.

The last excerpt was taken from a conversation in the Judge's Chambers during Joe's final day of Jury Duty.

Judge: I'm sorry Joe, but I've requested that your name never again be put on the list of prospective Jurors.

Joe: Why is that, Your Honor? I consider myself an honest person.

Judge: It's not your honesty that I question, it's your sanity.

Calls For Cleaner Dog Laws

Boston City Councillor, Rosemarie E. Sansone filed an order before the City Council last week requiring a public hearing to discuss the problems of canine waste on city streets and sidewalks.

The order, would require the Council's Committee on Laws and Ordinances to investigate the city law which prohibits dogs from fouling city sidewalks. According to Sansone, "Animal waste negligence in certain sections of the city has become so bad that residents can't walk safely down some city streets. This is a serious health hazard and it must be stopped."

Citing the existing ordinance on the books, Councillor Sansone said, "It is obvious that the law just isn't enforced. There was no penalty or means of enforcement when the law was written. What I hope the hearings will show us is a way of enforcing the law, as well as discussing potential impacted areas of the city for enforcement."

Councillor Sansone, whose office is now in the process of compiling research on the issue had requested residents concerned with the problem to contact her office (725-3115). "I am urging," concluded the City Councillor, "those people who are concerned with the problem to voice their concerns with its impact on their individual section of the city. This is a neighborhood issue and I would like the input of neighborhood people."

C.H.S. Blood Donor's Drive

On Monday, May 7, 1979 the students of the New Charlestown High School, in conjunction with the American Red Cross, will hold their Second Annual Blood Donor's Drive. Because of our small school enrollment and eligibility requirements, we strongly urge community donors to take part.

The drive will be held at the new school at 240 Medford Street within the first floor foyer area between the hours of 8:45 a.m. to 1:45 p.m.

For more information, please contact the school co-ordinator, Mr. Steve Grace at 242-1450 or 242-1444.

Accepted At Baseball Camp

Two Charlestown residents have been accepted for enrollment at the Ted Williams Baseball Camp in Lakeville, Mass. from June 17 to June 23, 1979.

The campers are Edward Dyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dyer of 12 Cook Street, Charlestown who is a student at St. Francis de Sales School and Paul Wrenn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wrenn of 8 Mystic Place, Charlestown who is a student at St. Ann's School, Somerville.

Charlestown Artisans

Professor Daniel Dailey of Mass. College of Art will examine both past and present artisans of Charlestown as the next feature in the "Charlestown and Its Residents" Series being sponsored by the Charlestown Community Center. This program will be held on Monday evening, May 7, 1979 at 7:30 p.m. at the Community Center, 14 Green Street.

Jazz At The Girls' Division

The Girls' Division of the Charlestown Boys' Club has been offering Disco dance lessons through the winter and this spring. Something new is being offered this spring to women and teens in the community. This time around G.O. will be offering Modern Jazz dance lessons. The class is free, but membership in G.O. is required. For information call Carolyn Fleming or Mrs. Cowin at 241-7855.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Aubrey on the Birth of their son. Dan and Patty (Mortimer) celebrated the Christening of their new child in the Council's Function Hall last Sunday evening. About one hundred friends and relatives attended the lively affair.

In a true gesture of friendship, a goodly number of concerned friends and relatives attended a get together last Friday evening in the Council Chambers. The affair had a two-fold purpose. John and Eileen (Henry) Ward recently became parents, and their friends were there to celebrate the blessed event. However, the couple was the victim of a very damaging fire a couple of weeks back which completely destroyed all of their belongings. In true "Townie" fashion, their friends gathered together to help them begin anew.

It is at times like these that the true value of friendship is realized.

When I was in high school a couple of years back (or was it longer than that? oftentimes I get confused along these lines) I "hung" around at the Doherty Playground, better known as "The Park". For several years thereafter, I worked as a lifeguard at the pool on the top of the hill.

Those years provided me with an opportunity to meet, and get to know many wonderful people whose homes lined the Playground's perimeter.

I guess Mrs. Mary Suprey was the unofficial watchman (person?) at "The Park", as she oversaw the growing up of her children from her kitchen window which abutted the upper edge of the area. "Nipper" Harrigan and his wife, Peg, lived across the street, on Bunker Hill, and a warm night was not complete without their sharing a bench and warm conversation with the neighbors.

Along St. Martin St., the families of Mike Walsh, Mrs. Helen Lawler, the Martins, the Cedorchuks, the Henriess, the Fitzgeralds, and oh so many more, lined the way.

From these families came Nuns, Priests, and members of the nobelist profession of all, parenthood.

More years than I like to admit have gone by since my high school days, and many changes have taken place in our town, but a trip to "The Park" can still be something special. Not because it has been dressed up with fancy playground equipment and decorated with grassy lawns. Not because the benches have been newly painted and the basketball court is well-kept, but because of the people.

Although Mrs. Mary Suprey is a grandmother now, her youngest daughter, Peggy, still bears watching from the kitchen window. "Nipper" and Peg Harrigan still live in the same house across the street, and still pass the summer evenings on the park's benches. Along St. Martin St. the Walshes, the Lawlers, the Martins, and all the others still make their homes. And the Smalls are still just around the corner on Bunker Hill.

In many cases their children and their children's children share food in the same kitchens with their parents and grandparents. There is a cohesiveness around "The Park" that is unique, not just to the area, but to several areas around the town. I use "The Park" as an example, only because it is the area with which I am most familiar.

There are Supreys, Lawlers, Martins, and Harrigans all over Charlestown. They live in Sullivan Square, they live in NewTown, they live on Eden St., they live in the Housing Project, they live in Hayes Square, Thompson Square, Mishawum, around the Monument, the Training Field. Oh, for sure, they go by other names, but they exist in every nook and cranny of our fine Town.

It is too bad that a single piece of journalism, if it may be called journalism, can stereotype each and ever member of a proud community. I refer, of course, to the article which appeared in the A.M. edition of The Boston Herald on Sunday morning, April 22.

It has been the good, hard-working, honest people who have suffered from this indictment of an entire community. Too much has been said of the negative, too little of the positive.

Why doesn't The Boston Herald take time to reflect on our good points? Possibly because there would not be enough space in the entire Sunday Edition to do so! What about our Boys' Club, our Community Schools, Parents and Friends of the Exceptional Children, our Youth Activities Commission, our Senior Citizens' Organization, our Pop Warner, Little League, and Youth Hockey Programs. What of our American Legion, our Historical Society, our Parish activities, our Teen Center, our Girls' Club, our G.O. Division. What of our Fraternal Organizations and our Social Clubs, our Minstrel Shows, our Community Service Center, and on and on could go the list.

A whole page in The Boston Herald would not be large enough to tell of the great pride possessed by the members of the Charlestown Old Schoolboys Association, a group of more than a thousand men who attended Charlestown Schools prior to the early forties, a group whose membership travels from all corners of this country once a year to meet with former school friends.

The Boston Herald has done irreparable harm to our community with this single piece of reporting, and that harm cannot be undone. However, the very large majority of this town will continue to go to work each day, do their best to provide for their families and still find time to donate their time and efforts to all the aforementioned community programs and activities.

It seems to me that, even the people at The Boston Herald would have to agree that programs designed to benefit youngsters, the elderly, exceptional children, veterans, and right on down the line, are run and staffed by good, hard-working unselfish individuals. In this case, Charlestown People.

The Parents' Discussion Group of the Charlestown Branch Library will present a program entitled "Talk To Me; Language Development in Pre-school Children" on Friday morning, May 4, 1979 at 10:00 a.m. The speaker will be Peggy Schadelbauer, Speech and Language Pathologist at the Massachusetts General Hospital Bunker Hill Health Center Speech and Language Unit. Pre-school story hour is held for children over three also at 10 a.m.

The Adult Film Program of the Charlestown Branch Library will present a double feature on Monday afternoon, May 7, 1979 at 2 p.m. Films will be "Atlantis", a fascinating survey of the lost Atlantis of Plato's legend which has been filmed on the island of Santorini in the Southern Aegean sea, and the second film is "Senior Power -- and How To Use It", which is a brief film demonstrating how senior citizens can fight back against crime.

Observing Preservation Week

The USS Constitution Museum will be observing National Historic Preservation Week, May 6 through the 12 with an exhibit of ships in bottles and an illustrated talk by Carol Bratley and Bob Sloane of the Central Transportation Planning Staff. They will present a slide discussion on the past, present and future of the City Square area of Charlestown on Sunday, May 13 at 7:30 p.m. in the Museum. For further information, call 426-1812.

BONANZA

On Thursday, May 3rd, the Kent Council and Staff are having a 50 prize Bonanza and Cake Sale to raise funds in order to sponsor a band for this year's Bunker Hill Day Parade. Come on down and have a night of fun and help make it a big success by attending. IT'S OUR PARADE!!

COMING NEXT WEEK

Tea Time at the Kent. Details will be in next week's Patriot.

SPECIAL NOTE OF THANKS

The Coordinator and Staff at the Kent would like to take this opportunity to thank the Cast and Crew of this year's "Another Opening". As usual they put on another great performance. Enough can never be said about these dedicated people who worked many long hours for four nights of great entertainment. We are indeed fortunate to have such a "sincere" organization as Powder Keg. Once again our heartfelt thanks.

Junior League Decorators Show House

Boston designers are well represented in this year's Decorators' Show House and Garden Tour/ 1979, sponsored by the Junior League of Boston, Inc. This year's Show House is the Ralph Emerson Forbes Estate located at 328 Adams Street, Milton.

Charlestown resident Tom Kenney of Saffron House will transform the entry vestibule using malochite greens, customized installation of mirrors and brass and fine accessories that suggest the fine house beyond. Henry Savage of Creative Images will beautify the front hall with a lovely apricot and white fleur-de-lis wallcovering. The library, by Todd Stevenson, will have walls covered with a wallpaper from Paris of faux swags and a large draped table will center the room with accessories from the China Trade Museum in Milton.

The Morning Room, done by Hal Langell of Paine Furniture, will be in different shades of coral and old chintz prints. The spirit of the living room will be romantic-pretty-a blend of the past and the present - designed for the ease and sophistication of today's mood by Judy Ross and Gene Lawrence of Trade Winds, Inc.

Richard Fitzgerald has created the reflection of an 18th century Dining Room, but in the contemporary manner, with silver leaf walls and ceiling. The master bedroom suite, by Dana Noble of Dana Noble Associates, once again achieves a very original interior with excellent use of color blending many styles keeping abreast of existing trends.

for privacy. A hallway becomes a private gallery by the George Lewis Gallery. Exhibited is a collection of acrylic paintings and pastels by Boston artist, George Lewis. The works - succeed in translating the French Impressionists' love of color and light into a contemporary abstract idiom - fresh, vital, exuberant.

Decorators' Show House has been drawing crowds for eight years and is the main fund raising event of the Junior League. All proceeds go into the League's Community Program Trust and monies are returned to the communities through its various projects.

Among the many League community service programs which is funded by this trust is Women's Information Referral and Education Service (WIRE), which involves league volunteers traveling in a van to different communities in the Boston area to carry information to women to help them to know of the many services available to them, and to help agencies extend the outreach and promotion of their services.

The house will be open to the public from now to May 20 on Monday through Saturday from 10:00 to 3:00 p.m. from Tuesday, Wednesday, & Thursday evngs. 6:00 to 8:30 p.m. and Sundays from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m.

Admission is $5.00 at the door. No infants or children under 8 please.

The Cafe Pineapple will be open for Luncheon and Refreshments as well as a Boutique with items from over 160 consigners.

How To Avoid Home Improvement Rip-Offs

Home owners, now is the time to beware. The home repair rip-off season is getting into full swing. Fly-by-night characters are ready to do everything for your home at "bargain prices".

They'll be glad to inspect or fix your chimney or furnace, do a quick siding job, get rid of termites and vermin, black-top your driveway, or take care of anything else that could possibly be wrong.

Unfortunately their ability is greatly exceeded by the larceny in their hearts. They will promise you everything and deliver the minimum. They'll cheat you with a handshake, a smile, and a very good "line".

Don't be surprised if you hear a chimney "inspector" tell you that there are "mortar mice" in the bricks and that he'll get rid of them. There are no such animals.

Be wary, too, of someone who comes to the door with a piece of brick in his hand and says it fell from your chimney or if someone tells you your home will be used as a model for the work done and that you will receive a commission. Some termite inspectors have even been known to bring their own termites.

So, you've got to protect yourself. Not only from con artists but from contractors who do not finish the work or who do a shoddy job. The Boston Consumers' Council offers information on ways to get legitimate home repairs. Included in the package are a model home improvement contract and a list of things to do before hiring someone such as:

1. Get the name, address, and telephone number of the contractor.
2. Ask for references.
3. Make sure the contractor specifies in writing exactly what is to be done and what the itemized list of costs are.
4. Get three (3) written estimates of work to be done.
5. And be sure that you get an express warranty and that it is signed by both you and him.

The Boston Consumers' Council handles thousands of cases annually. If you have a problem with a contractor and are either a resident of Boston or are doing business with a company in Boston, call the Council at 725-3320. If you are planning to have work done on your home, call the Council for our home repair package and you will be better equipped to do business with a contractor. Prevent problems before they happen.

The Charlestown Patriot

Charlestown, Mass. 02129

Attn: Mrs. J.W. Conway, Editor
On April 22, 1979 I read an article in the Boston Herald American regarding Charlestown, which needless to say infuriated me. The writer, Peter Carlson, stated that Charlestown was the "BANK ROBBERY CAPITAL OF THE U.S.A."

Mr. Carlson devoted six paragraphs to the bank robbers and two lines to the good people of the town. If that wasn't enough, the statements made by the Law Enforcement officers and lawyers were even worse. Bobbie Delaney was the only person who stood up for our town and refused to degrade it. I think that this reporter and other people who were interviewed should be informed that many good people from this town have risen to very high and important positions in every walk of life. Too bad they didn't get these statistics.

In conclusion the police say they are very concerned with the town's negative attitude toward them. Could statements like this to the press be one of the reasons?

Sincerely yours,
Edna M. Kelly

Boys, remember that this column appearing in the Patriot is written five days before it appears in print. As of Sunday, April 29th there are only several spots open on the teams. They will be filled on a first come first served basis. We have seen some of the teams in scrub games and even "Jimmy the Greek" couldn't handicap our league.

All players especially the 13 year olds should consider the new Babe Ruth ID cards. League President George Locke will verify your birthdate, send the card to Babe Ruth Headquarters for recording and plastic coating and it will then be yours. The $1.50 charge will cover cost of the card, plastic coating, and mailing.

Attention High School Students

Charlestown students, who are Geo-Coded for Charlestown High School and plan to attend the High School this fall and are now attending private or parochial schools, must fill out a Student Assignment Application.

To do this, you must bring two (2) proofs of address, such as, a rent receipt, telephone or utility bill, a license or a medicaid card, etc., to the Department of Implementation on the 9th floor at 26 Court St., Boston (726-6555) or the District VII Office in the Quincy School, 885 Washington St., Boston (426-5552)

It is very important you do this right away, you will have a much better chance of being assigned to Charlestown High School, if it is your Geo-Coded school, if you act now.

If you have any questions or want to know your Geo-Coded school, you can call any of the above telephone numbers.

Charlestown, Ma.
Dear Editor,

I too, would like to voice my opposition to the article in the Boston Herald American referring to Charlestown as the Bank Robbery Capital of the U.S.A. and to the opinions of the people polled.

I have lived in the Project for over thirty years and have brought up eight of the greatest kids. Must my children and others be punished for the actions of a few?

No mention was made of kids who have gone on to become priests, nuns, nurses, teachers, firemen and police officers or just plain decent adults.

Let us never forget our PROJECT boys who have lost their lives defending their country in war.

Leave the Projects alone and let our kids start out without a strike against them. I grew up in the Projects and am proud of my family and friends.

Mary MacInnes
P.S. I am forwarding this letter to the Editor of the Boston Herald American.

the Officers Club. The purpose of this function was to raise money for our Special Olympics, to be run in June. This function was jointly sponsored by the Exceptional Childrens' Program, the Kent Community School and the Charlestown Youth Policy Council.

The application was denied out of hand by Mr. Franklin Montfort, the ranger in charge, because we "did not have sufficient points". This is the only response I was able to elicit from Mr. Montfort.

After consulting with other groups from the town, it becomes readily apparent that no Charlestown organization has "sufficient points". It seems probable that no organization from our community has been allowed to use this facility in the past six months, possibly in the past year. In fact, it seems an organization loses considerable points with Mr. Montfort by simply being from Charlestown.

Without any consideration for this community, Massport turned over one piece of the Yard to the Yacht Club. I don't know many members of said club that come from Charlestown, but I don't think the idea was to serve the community.

Another sizable portion of the yard has gone over to the Park Service. In this instance assurances of community involvement were given and believed. Mr. Montfort's vague point system is a result of that trust, and the apparently successful means of excluding Charlestown from that portion of the yard.

We are running out of Navy Yard. This town has lived with the Yard, is part of the history of the Yard, and is entitled to access to the Yard, and all the Yard is or will become.

I remind Mr. Montfort that the facility he caretakes is the Charlestown Naval Shipyard. Not the Wellesley Hills Shipyard, Mr. Montfort, not yet.

Sincerely,
Jack Millerick

To Talk Of Many Things.....

by Sal Giarratani

The New Boston Tea Party

It all started last June in California when Howard Jarvis rode Proposition 13 to victory in California which placed a cap on property taxes of 1 percent of the fair market value.

Since then government, at all levels, is being opened up to further and further scrutiny with questions like, "To what extent should government services be offered?", "What is the definition of government spending?", and "What are the limits of government spending?"

Here in Charlestown, our senior citizens on fixed incomes, our middle class families and our younger people, are crying out for tax relief and encouragement to work, produce and save. However, with our present tax burden we get nothing but taxes and discouragement.

Government must be sensitive to both the needs and ideals of the people it serves and nowhere can this better be accomplished than at the local level.

That is why I am in favor of cutting taxes under any circumstances, for whatever excuse, for whatever reason because every step we take to strengthen the tax system fosters a higher level of spending.

Government exists to serve the people, not impoverish them. It should at all levels learn to live within reasonable bounds, offering significant tax relief without cutting into essential services.

For all these reasonings, I reiterate my support for Governor Edward J. King's Zero Tax Cap and for Edward F. King's Tax Limitation Amendment which will most likely be on the 1980 State Ballot. This proposal would limit both state taxes and spending to a fixed percentage of the total personal income of all Massachusetts residents.

Only Four More

Last week while the US Senate voted down a balanced budget amendment, the New Hampshire Legislature joined the list of states calling for a Constitutional Convention to draft a balanced federal budget amendment.

New Hampshire makes the 30th State Legislature to urge a Convention. Only four more states are needed to bring about a Convention. The US Congress is having it's hand forced whether it likes it or not!

The People are the Church

It has been said that the Church is not a building but the people and if that is so, then St. Mary's Parish was rebuilt last Saturday. Kudos to the new Lay Eucharistic Ministers and Lectors. The new Lay Eucharistic Ministers are Dot Collins and John O'Brien. Lectors are Joan Mansfield, Helen Myers, Allen Jarasitis, Kevin Roche and Bob Rooney.

FOR CHARLESTOWN RESIDENT John Geezil, of Walford Way, wallpapering is just one part of his job. As a Boston public service employee, Geezil provides the labor for everything from painting to weatherstripping, to help neighborhood and community agencies, including the Charlestown Boys' Club, complete interior renovations. Now that warmer weather has arrived, Geezil will be working outside, painting houses for eligible homeowners in the Housing Improvement Program. The City's Employment and Economic Policy Administration (EEPA) pays their salaries through the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA). Said Geezil, about his CETA job, "I've learned some things--plaster-boarding, panelling, and other things that I've never done before."

House Tour Set For Saturday

The Charlestown Preservation Society's House Tour is set for this Saturday, May 5th between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. According to Co-Chairman Maggie Moss-Tucker of Monument Square, the tour can take just as long as person wishes. She advises planning a minimum of three hours and urges walkers to wear comfortable shoes.

Starting point for the House Tour is One Thompson Square (the Old Charlestown Savings Bank Building) where illustrated guide books will be available. The Tour can commence at any one of the homes on the Tour and the route can be up to the individual.

Maggie, who is most enthusiastic about the day's activities, states that there will be houses to interest everyone -- one family, multiple unit houses, large and small houses, renovated as well as restored houses and some beautiful gardens. The day will end with a champagne reception from 4 to 6 in a Monument Square garden.

Maggie and her committee feel that this can be a banner day for Charlestown -- a festive day with so many activities going on and urges residents to fly their flags in front of their homes so each can share in this day.

Tickets are still available at $4.00 in advance, $3.00 for Senior Citizens and $5.00 on Saturday, at The Card Shop at One Thompson Square.

Museum Celebrates Anniversary

MAKES PRESENTATION: In addition to celebrating its third anniversary on Sunday, April 8, the USS Constitution Museum saw the 250,000 visitor enter its portals. The Richard Ruh family of Derry, New Hampshire pushed the attendance figures to 250,000 during an afternoon in which hundreds of visitors and Museum members were enjoying a demonstration of building ships in bottles by William Schryver of Somerville. To present the Ruh family with a souvenir gift was Eric Johnson, of Bunker Hill Street, Charlestown, the young man who three years ago assisted Admiral Morison in cutting the rope which opened the Museum to visitors.

Films For Children

The Children's Film Program at the Charlestown Branch Library will present a double feature on Tuesday, May 8 at 10:30 a.m. for pre-school children and at 3:30 p.m. for school-aged children.

The films will be "Morris the Midget Moose", in which Morris and a friend learn that what size you are is not important, and "Tikki Tikki Tembo", a Chinese fairy tale about a little boy who drowns because his name is too long.

Book displays will accompany these films and storytelling follows the 3:00 p.m. showing.

Garden Plots Filled

Thirty seven residents, ranging in age from 9 to 80 have taken plots for gardens in the Sullivan Square Community Garden, according to Nina Gomez-Ibanez, Garden Coordinator. Though there is already a waiting line for more gardens, no expansion of the growing space is planned until next spring.

A demonstration of soil preparation and planting will take place at the Garden, corner of Main and Bunker Hill Streets, on Saturday, May 5 at 10 a.m. All gardeners are expected to attend, others are welcome.
