Birmingham To Head Education Committee

Sen. Tom Birmingham has been named to Chair the prestigious Education Committee for the State Senate. The assignment is seen as an extraordinary accomplishment for a freshman senator.

"I am enormously excited by this appointment," said Birmingham. "I cannot think of an issue that is of more central importance to our District — and the Commonwealth generally — than education. What oil is to Texas, education is to Massachusetts. Indeed, our educated work force is our greatest natural resource. I look forward with enthusiasm to building on this foundation to make Massachusetts the education center of the world."

Aside from his chairmanship, Birmingham was appointed to serve on the Transportation, Judiciary, Taxation, Human Services and Elderly Affairs committees. "This combination of assignments uniquely positions me to serve the interests of all the people of our district — from children to seniors — and I am excited about dealing with the difficult challenges that lie ahead of us," Birmingham commented.

Voke Named Majority Leader

State Representative Richard A. Voke has been elevated by newly elected Speaker of the Massachusetts House of Representatives Charles Flaherty to the position of Majority Leader. Speaker Flaherty's appointment of Voke to the number two position in the House was unanimously confirmed by their Democratic colleagues.

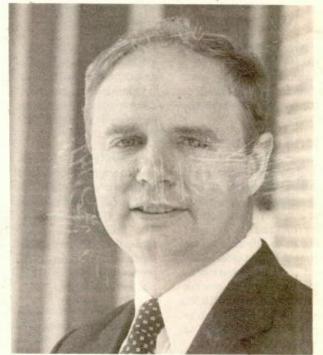

"I am excited about the chance to work with Speaker Flaherty and the newly sworn-in members of the House. Speaker Flaherty and I share a common vision for the return of fiscal order to Massachusetts and the continued creation of opportunities in areas like employment, education and health and welfare for all our state's residents. While there are sure to be challenging times, I do believe we can achieve these objectives," said Voke.

Neighborhood Council Seats Members And Elects Officers

(continued from page one) was read from Ken Stone resigning as NATF representative and submitting the name of Darling for the CNC seat. Whelan was ill, Darling had a previous commitment and Mansfield was in sunny Florida.

Other CNC members present were: Moe Gillen, Matty O'Neil; Ed O'Connell, Ellen D'Ambrosio, Bob Scalli, Tom Cunha, Dennis McLaughlin, Peter Looney, Nancy Keyes, Bud Coleman, Mel Stillman, Bob Wallace, Marty O'Brien and Kevin Roche.

McLaughlin was re-elected chairman of the CNC, Looney is the new vice chairman, Mansfield will serve as secretary and Keyes is the treasurer.

Public Safety Mel Stillman, chairman

Stillman reported on this month's Police Community Relations/Public Safety meeting. He said that Maryellen Connors, director of the Head Start program, related that the Old Kent School in Hayes Square has been plagued with vandalism. Stillman said it is apparently a drinking spot covered with broken bottles plus doors have been pried and windows damaged. He said Community Relations Officer Joe McNulty was bringing this problem to the attention of the Deputy Superintendent. Connors had asked that residents assist them by reporting incidents in the area to police.

Donna Wallace, co-chairperson of the Charlestown High School Parents Council was invited to update the members on problems at the school.

She said that when the parents and residents met with Acting-Superintendent John McDonough in December, he recommended that the parents try to attain a more balanced council, representative of the school population. All present at that meeting were white. She said the next parents meeting is slated for Jan. 22

Wallace reported on what was termed an informal meeting with the parent and student councils which, after several postponements, was held on Jan. 8. She said the students were asked if they were afraid in school and they reportedly said no but later admitted there were weapons in the school. One student approached the parents as they were leaving the meeting, telling them she was afraid but couldn't admit it. Wallace stated that the students were opposed to metal detectors in the school and refused to remove their long coats, citing the fear they would be stolen.

According to Wallace, certain teachers and members of the Citywide Parents Council were critical of the local council for not encouraging the participation of blacks and minorities. Wallace explained that one black parent volunteered to co-chair the council and four Spanish parents signed up, adding that they have not attended meetings. The Citywide representative wanted the local parents to call parents from other areas of the city but telephone numbers are only available during school hours. Wallace said that the local parents work and it was the Citywide council's responsibility to do the calling.

The letter for the Jan. 22 meeting will be translated into Chinese and Spanish. Wallace said she asked CHS Assistant Headmaster Marilyn Corsini how long it would take for the translation and was told that teachers expect to be paid to do that. Wallace said a Spanish parent and a Chinese teacher volunteered to do the translations.

Looney said that the biggest problem with the local group at School Department headquarters was that they were all white. He said this is not a race issue. The problem arises when a youngster goes to school and is intimidated, he said, adding, this shouldn't happen no matter what color he or she is.

Bob Wallace brought up an issue raised at the December Public Safety Committee meeting that focused on the school problems being carryied out into the streets. He pointed out that problems at the school weren't new and a group of residents and agency representatives had been meeting since June in an attempt to deal with these issues. He noted parents want two things - discipline and a dress code, both commonsense things that would quiet the school. He said that the CNC should continue to act as a facilitator and allow the parents to be heard.

McLaughlin spoke of another meeting held recently on a totally different matter where a person had the perception that he was a racist because he came from Charlestown. He said he knows this carries over but somehow all the parents have to sit down on the issues. He added that this is not a black-white issue this perception has to be overcome because these parents are only concerned about their children.

The suggestion to move the parents meeting site to Bunker Hill Community College was dismissed by Gillen. He said he thought it would be a mistake to move the meetings away from the school. McLaughlin stated that it was not the prerogative of the CNC to recommend a meeting site.

Kovacevic said he didn't know how the CNC could tell the school how to do its job, but added that when delinquency starts to spill out into the streets, something has got to be done and it should be our position to demand that the principal answer for the actions of those students. He said he gets very angry when he sees a school system of the magnitude of Boston unable to deal with these problems. Kovacevic added that if a principal or a teacher is not guiding or teaching, they should be called on it, but when it comes out on the streets it becomes the residents' problem.

Looney said the CNC members have provided moral support for the parents. He added that if five ministers from Roxbury were allowed to stay at the last Parents Council meeting and will be there on Jan. 22, then he thought CNC members also had a right to be there.

It was voted by the CNC that a letter be sent to all School Committee members, the Acting Superintendent and the Zone Superintendent, as well as to the Mayor's Office, expressing the CNC's concern with issues at the school.

GUIDELINES FOR HOUSEHUNTERS

Finding the perfect house for your family is just the first step toward moving you into a new home. The second is negotiating the sales agreement with the sellers - both the price and the terms. To find out if the asking price is in line with the neighborhood, you can ask the realtor to provide you with "comparables" — selling prices for similar homes located nearby. Your agent can also tell you how these houses may differ from the one you're considering buying. Use this information to help decide whether a particular property is a good value. If the price seems too high, perhaps the sellers are willing to negotiate. They may lower the price, agree to provide owner financing, or pay some of the closing costs. Your agent can't tell you what to offer or what the sellers will accept - the sellers probably won't know what they'll accept until they are presented with a written offer - but the information provided can help you decide how much you want to

The Race Is On For Mayor Of Charlestown

If you've always wanted to dabble in politics, now's the time! The race for the coveted office of Mayor of Charlestown is now underway and those wishing to declare themselves can pick up nomination papers by calling Arthur Hurley at 242-2724 or from any member of the Charlestown-To-Charlestown Committee. To qualify you need only be 21 years of age or older.

The office of honorary Mayor of Charlestown was initiated in 1983 by the Charlestown-To-Charlestown Committee as a way of raising funds to send a local girl to the Irish Rose competition in Charlestown, County Mayo, Ireland.

Current Mayor Florence Johnson says of her year's reign: "It was very exciting . . . an experience I wouldn't have missed for the world. I particularly enjoyed bringing the greetings from the people of Charlestown, Mass. to Charlestown, County Mayo, Ireland. I'm sorry to have to give up the title so soon, but it's time for someone else to take over."

The good-natured political race begins when candidates hit the campaign trail after picking up ballots. It will end in March when all ballots are turned in and tallied by the committee. The candidate who sells the most votes will be declared Mayor of Charlestown at a special reception at the Knights of Columbus Hall. Details on the "election night" reception will

by Charlie McGonagle

Something happened to me in 1954, something I will never forget. I was taking part in the fun of a Group 2 swim when I performed a very clumsy somersault from the old wooden diving board. The swim instructor and swimming team coach, Dick Lucas, watched my awkward attempt and asked if I would be interested in becoming a member of the swimming team as a diver. "He must be desperate," I thought.

Shortly after that discussion with Mr. Lucas, I became addicted to the diving board and to the swimming pool. Each afternoon after school I would head to the club to practice, and each evening after supper I would return to continue. Carefully picking my spots between the endless number of practicing swimmers, I would repeat the same dive over and over again under the careful guidance of the coach.

Finally the competitive season began, and a whole new world began to open up for me. Although many of our meets were held at the club's pool, we traveled quite frequently to do battle with rival boys clubs. Those Saturday bus trips to Worcester, Ludlow, Pawtucket, Olneyville and other places were as exciting to me and my teammates as a trip to Disneyland is for today's youngsters. Air travel was an unaffordable luxury for any of us back then, and not all families owned an automobile. It was the Boys Club swimming team which provided this opportunity for us.

As the year progressed, I did not. My diving talents did not seem to be expanding, and losing each Saturday afternoon became routine. However, between being caught up in the excitement of the weekly bus trips, and the encouragement of Dick Lucas, I continued my daily practice sessions.

At the end of each competitive season, the New England Boys Club Championships would would be held. This was an opportunity to compete against the best swimmers and divers in the six-state area. Because I had been defeated by most of the rival clubs' divers during the regular season, it was no surprise when I finished last or, at best, near last.

A week or two after the New England Championships, the coach would select six members each from the midget, junior and senior teams to compete in the Boys Club National Championships. The number was limited because only one bus was provided for the three units of the Boys Clubs of Boston. The event was a three-day affair, and for reasons of economics, swimmers and divers from Charlestown, South Boston and Roxbury shared a bus.

In this, my first year of competition, the championship meet was to be held at New York University. The bus was to leave on a Thursday and return the following Sunday. The Boys Club would provide meal money and lodging for the swimmers selected to represent the club.

Although I would go to bed at night with secret dreams of a dazzling performance at N.Y.U., one that would result in my being crowned the National Champion, I knew there was not even the remotest possibility of my making the trip. I had won absolutely nothing during the course of the regular season, and it was clearly obvious even to me that my talents were far inferior to those of my many teammates.

It was here where I learned something which I carry with me to this day, a lesson I hope I never forget. When the list of those to compete in the Nationals was posted, my name was on it. "There has to be a mistake here," I thought. Each time I read the list, I expected to see my name disappear, for I was sure my eyes were deceiving me. When my name did not disappear, I went to Dick Lucas truly expecting him to own up to an error. Instead, I confronted a man with a wide smile whose hand was extended in congratulatory fashion.

"My name is on the list." "I know. I put it there."

"Why?"

Dick turned toward the pool and pointed to the diving board.

"Do you know how many dives you've made from that board over the last six

"Hundreds, maybe even thousands, I guess, but not too many good ones.'

"First of all, let me tell you that you are getting better, and the reason you are getting better is because of those hundreds or maybe even thousands of dives you have practiced since last fall. Secondly, I am not going to lie to you and tell you that you are better than these other guys, because you are not, at least not yet, but you have shown me that you are willing to work hard, and that is why you are going to New York."

Mr. Lucas was telling me that winning was not the most important thing in the world. He was telling me that kids who probably do not possess the talents of their peers should be rewarded for their willingness to work. He was telling me that a person could succeed where others fail by making a concerted effort.

I went to New York University that year and, as expected, finished last, but because of Dick Lucas and the Charlestown Boys Club, I know I won something that would outlive any first place trophy. I will be forever grateful.

The students of St. Francis de Sales School closed their school year for 1990 with an Advent Prayer Service at the school.

Father John Stagnaro, principal, led the students in the opening prayer, followed by three readings by members of the eighth-grade class - Mark Lind, Kelley Wedge and Marc Sawyer. The readings were followed by a brief reflection by Father Daniel Mahoney, pastor, and then Father Stagnaro led the students in the final prayer.

The Prayer Service concluded with the students singing one of the songs from the Christmas Concert, "Happy Birthday, Jesus," led by the first-grade class. Father William Mc-Connell and a number of parents also attended the service.

Judy Evers, Charlestown liaison from the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, escorted the Student Council and their Faculty Advisor, Mr. Harrington, on a tour of City Hall. Mayor Raymond Flynn was scheduled to meet with the students but was called out to a fire. Evers accepted the Student Council's gift of a St. Francis de Sales T-shirt on behalf of the mayor. The students were then escorted to the City Council chambers where City Councillor Robert Travaglini met with them, explained the responsibilities of a city councillor and presented the students and their faculty advisor with a pin from the city.

Historical Commission has held so-called public meetings with the BRA involved and not let the entire CNC or the local newspaper know about them. Mc-Laughlin said he was called and informed about the meetings. Kovacevic stated that he believed the invitations to the meetings came from the list of previous attendees. Conway added that if the BRA and others know of such meetings in advance, they should pass the information on. He spoke of the importance of the Navy Yard as to jobs, housing, etc. The CNC voted to send a letter to MHC asking that the CNC, the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services and the local newspaper be notified of any public meeting concerning Charlestown.

Cunha reported that the BRA is prepared to present an amended Request For Proposal on Parcel R-107, located at Main Street and Lawnwood Place and will bring it forward at a public meeting. Cunha added that he would like to have a meeting on this and Parcel R-87 on Tremont Street before the end of January. He said the development of R-87 is in question at the moment due to present econo-

He noted that as of this date the developer reports that financing has been secured for construction on Parcel P-2 at the intersection of Main and Bunker Hill streets. Some discussion ensued as to the final design of the P-2 development. Cunha noted that the developer obtained final designation from the BRA Board some one-and-a-half years ago which is subject to design review by the BRA. Kovacevic said that he had serious questions about what was going to be built there, adding that it is a big piece of Charlestown. He asked that the BRA update the CNC and provide plans on the development.

Cunha reported construction department changes and a question of federal funding has put the MBTA garage proposed for Sullivan Square on hold. He said he informed the MBTA that they should meet with Sullivan Square residents and businesses before they came back to the CNC with any plans.

Conway referred to a request by D'Ambrosio in November asking the BRA come before the CNC on plans for Building 104 in the Navy Yard. McLaughlin said he looked into the plans for the structure and noted that suggestions have been made for its use as elderly housing or a mix of residential and commercial. He said that there has been no meetings on 104. He guaranteed that no one is doing anything on the building and he has a commitment from the BRA that nothing is going to happen with 104. McLaughlin added that the BRA told him that its use was not that certain and presently there were no funds for elderly housing. Cunha said that it was his understanding that when the BRA has concrete information on what is feasible for the site, the chairman will be notified to set up a meeting.

McDonough questioned the status of the former municipal building at the corner of Bunker Hill and Lexington streets, adding that she understood the city's Public Facilities Department does not have the money to renovate it. Mc-Laughlin said he heard that HUD no longer favors congregate housing for the elderly as originally planned for that site in that models of such housing have not proven to be too successful. He added that residents tend to remain in congregate housing for a long period of time even when they require additional care, thus postponing a transfer to a nursing home and the turnover of congregate units. McDonough suggested a letter be sent to PFD Commissioner Lisa Chapnick requesting an update on the building's status.

Community Appreciation Tom Cunha, chairman

Cunha reviewed the categories and criteria for the seven community appreciation awards to be given out at a banquet on March 30, which were ratified by the CNC. He noted that membership on the committee was now closed and invited CNC members and residents to submit names for consideration by the Feb. 8 deadline. Cunha issued the reminder that present CNC and committee members were not eligible for consideration this year.

The criteria and a nomination form may be found on page 9 of this week's Patriot.

Mitigation Committee Bill Galvin, chairman

Galvin issued his final report to the CNC as chairman of the committee on a Dec. 10 meeting with Massport concerning the leasing of the authority's latest acquisition, the Somerville Lumber property on Medford Street, to Bay State Express. He opened with what he said was an "interesting comment" from Massport Maritime Director Ann Alyward at that meeting in which she said that Massport was supportive of the proposed haul road parallel to Medford Street for commercial trucking purposes, not as a residential by-pass road to the Navy Yard. Galvin outlined the lease between Massport and Bay State which had been distributed to members of the committee. He said Massport paid $1.4 million for the 3.2 acre site and was leasing it to Bay State for approximately $100,000 per year for five years with two two-year options along with the provision that Bay State raze all the buildings on the site within the first five

THANKSGIVING NOVENA TO ST. JUDE

Oh Holy St. Jude. Apostle and Martyr, great in virtue, and rich in miracles, near kinsman of Jesus Christ, faithful inter-cessor of all who invoke your special patronage in time of need, for you I have recourse from the depth of my heart and humbly beg to whom God has given such great power to come to my assistance. Help me in my present and urgent petition, in return I promise to make your name known and cause you to be invoked.

Say three Our Fathers, three Hail Marys and Glorias. Publi-cation must be promised. St. Jude pray for us all who invoke your aid. Amen. This Novena has never been known to fail. I have had my request granted. Publication Promised. K.C. lease has been signed, the only leverage the community has is with Massport. Galvin added that a number of concerns were raised by committee members including proper notification of the community.

Galvin said that the final vote of the committee at the December meeting was for the chairman to draft a letter to Massport and bring it before the CNC for approval. The opening paragraph dealt strongly with a protest on the lack of community input before the signing of the lease. Other issues included the creation of a landscaped green buffer zone between Medford Street or the haul road and the railroad tracks; CNC and neighborhood approval before any additional external lighting was installed; the limiting of truck traffic to Monday through Friday from 6:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.; the limiting of the height of stacked containers as agreed upon by the CNC; job opportunities advertised in the local newspaper and ILA contracts honored; the notification of area residents and the newspaper of any hazardous materials on site; and the approval by the CNC as well as Massport of any alterations to the site.

Conway questioned the strong language critical of Massport in the opening paragraph of the letter. He noted that when Alyward presented the proposed lease with Bay State in November, no one questioned it or asked Massport to hold off on the lease. He added that Massport seemed to want to be cooperative at the committee meeting.

O'Neil, who concurred with Galvin on Alyward's attitude, expresses the sentiment that she would tell the community what Massport is going to do. Looney added that he "basically agreed with" Galvin and the CNC should let Massport know that what happened shouldn't happen again.

A discussion ensued on whether letters should have CNC approval before being sent out. Gillen said that the CNC has never been asked to review a letter when a chairman is requested to send one out. Cunha said that he agreed with Gillen that letters can't be written by a committee but added that most of the CNC's letters are written after a motion from the body that contains the "flavor" of what will go into the letter.

Conway noted that although he had disagreements on some aspects of the letter, he did agree on the community issues. He said as maker of the motion at the committee meeting,

Incidents At Charlestown High Spilling Out Into The Community

by Kathy Giordano

A group of 15 to 20 students from Charlestown High School were waiting at a Bunker Hill bus stop on Monday, Jan. 14 when a Tayters Potato Chip truck driver attempted to make a delivery to a local pizza shop. The driver was reportedly attacked by the youths while he was trying to enter Jopa's Pizza at 156 Bunker Hill St. Two of the youths reportedly pushed a tray of chips out of the man's hands and tried to search his pockets for cash. Other youths reportedly attempted to gain access to the truck while the delivery man was fighting off his attackers. Workers in the pizza shop were alerted to the incident when the driver yelled for help while trying to enter the store. Boston Police were summoned, but the students fled the area before they arrived. Assistant Headmaster Majorie Corsini and the school's discipline officer Val Shelly were also summoned to the store. They arrived with members of the School Police who are stationed at the school.

The delivery man was able to give the police a description of the two youths, both black males. A salesperson from the pizza shop went to the school on Tuesday, Jan. 15 and identified one of the students as being involved in the incident.

According to workers at the store, another incident occured on Jan. 15 outside the store. Two students wearing ROTC uniforms were caught defacing the building. They also ran off before the police arrived.

Incidents outside the store have been occuring continually since September, stated one of the store's workers. Requests have been made to move the bus stop away from that area in an attempt to eliminate the problems that have, according to the shop's owner, resulted in patrons being afraid to enter the shop while the students are hanging outside.

A call to Deputy William Murray of the Boston School Police seeking information on the incident was not returned by press

Residents have reported complaints of car vandalism and a house break to the school's administration during the past few weeks. Meetings have been taking place between parents, teachers, the school administration and officials of the Boston School Department resulting in little satisfaction, according to the par-

Bunker Hill Associates Support Local Programs

by Charlie McGonagle

When first formed some five years ago, the major goal of the Bunker Hill Associates was to lend financial support to local programs. In pursuit of that goal, the Associates' outgoing president, Jack Pierce, recently presented checks to three local organizations.

Benefiting from the donations were the Bunker Hill Knights of Columbus, Council 62; St. Catherine's Catholic Youth Organization, headed by Father Ron Coyne; and the Community Schools' Program for the Elderly, headed by Beverly Gibbons.

After careful consideration, the Associates' membership voted its support to these groups based on several different factors.

According to Pierce, the Knights of Columbus has provided the Associates with a place to conduct its business meetings and a function hall in which to al fall fund raiser, for our many meetings and for our annual Bunker Hill Day Breakfast, among other things," said Pierce.

For its generous cooperation with the Bunker Hill Associates, the Knights of Columbus received the $1,500 necessary to update its speaker system. The Associates reasoned that not only would the Knights of of the entire Charlestown community and because of this, the Bunker Hill Associates donated $1,000 to Faciates since the group's inception, Jack Pierce officially passed the presidency on to Tom Cunha immedi-

Keeping Watch . . .

Let Us Also Keep Watch . .

Our troops in the Persian Gulf have been keeping watch for us over the past six months - let us also keep watch for them. Why not place a single, clearbulbed Christmas candle in your window . . . not in support of war, but in support of our many family members and friends who are in the desert of Saudi Arabia. Light your candle each night at dusk and let it burn until dawn as a symbol of the hope for peace and homecoming.

PRAYER SERVICE FOR SERVICEMEN THIS SUNDAY

St. Mary's Church, Warren Street, will host a Community Prayer Service on Sunday, Jan. 20 at 2 p.m. for peace in the Persian Gulf and for the safety of all servicemen and women in the area, especially for those who come from this community.

The service is co-sponsored by St. Catherine of Siena, St. Francis de Sales and St. Mary's parishes. The community is welcome and urged to attend.

Thanks For Thinking Of Us

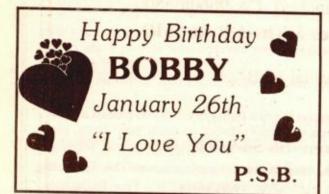

I must confess that you received my Saudi address before we actually left, but the box was a Godsend to a lot of soldiers in my work section. It meant a lot to me to know that after 20 years away from Charlestown the people are still the same.

We left Germany on Christmas Eve and arrived on Christmas Day. I want all of the vets from WW II, Korea and Vietnam to know that I don't feel as though we have had it as hard as they did.

I have orders to report to Redstone Arsenal in Alabama on 30 June 1991 so I hope to try to be in Charlestown for a visit to personally thank as many people as I can. I will also try to send a few pictures of our section and other interesting things.

Thanks again for thinking of us over here and for the card and thoughts of the items that you sent.

A Very Proud Townie! Bob Borden (Also signed by members of his unit)

We. the Officers and Members of Bunker Hill Post 26. The American Legion pledge our total support to our service men and women stationed in the Persian Gulf and around the world. We pray for world peace and your safe return.

"For God and Country"

Community Unites In Support Of Servicemen Serving In The Persian Gulf

by Kathy Giordiano

Charlestown continues to rally behind its servicemen stationed in the Persian Gulf. A totally non-political movement has evolved throughout the community starting with news of the first man from Charlestown to be assigned to the region as early as last August.

Yellow ribbons began to appear on the homes of relatives with servicemen stationed in the Gulf, an act that spread throughout the town. After a call for suitable items to be included in a holiday package to each serviceman, gifts began arriving. The generous donations were supplemented by items purchased with funds provided by Bunker Hill Post 26, The American Legion and 18 boxes, weighing between 25 and 32 pounds each were filled by willing volunteers. These carefully packed cartons were mailed by the local Legion post in time to be received by most of the men before Christmas.

As the holiday season approached, yellow ribbons replaced the traditional red decorations on wreaths and house displays. The town Christmas tree in Thompson Square saw bright yellow ribbons, one for each serviceman from this community, prominently displayed among the brightly colored lights.

Local florists, Kerrigan's on Main Street and Bunker Hill Florist in Thompson Square, report a steady call for yellow ribbons. Each florist carries a supply to meet the demand. The Charlestown Patriot carries weekly news to and from the Gulf. The paper is delivered free to each of the 18 servicemen with Charlestown roots on a weekly basis compliments of Post No. 26, A.L. Letters from the men, some including photos, have been printed so that the community can hear their words of appreciation and comfort.

The most poignant display of appreciation and respect for the sacrifices being made by these servicemen and their families will take place this weekend. On Sunday, Jan. 20 at 2 p.m., St. Mary's Church on Warren Street will host a Holy Hour of Prayer for Peace and for the servicemen from Charlestown stationed in the region. The community Prayer Service, cosponsored by St. Catherine of Siena, St. Francis de Sales and St. Mary's parishes, will include the joint participation of clergy members from each of the churches.

The community is invited to join local veterans groups and political leaders in prayer in the lower church of St. Mary's. Further information on the service can be obtained by contacting Rev. Robert Burns at St. Mary's Rectory at 242-4664.

A call to the community continues. Words of support should continue to be sent to those serving their country in the Persian Gulf. The names and addresses of each serviceman from Charlestown is included in the Warren Tavern advertisement on the opposite

The Boston City Council has passed an ordinance requesting that all motorists keep their headlights on during the day from Thursday, Jan. 17 to Saturday, Jan. 19 while driving in Boston, to show support for the servicemen in the Persian Gulf.

My Thanks

To The People Of Charlestown,

Best wishes for a safe and happy holiday season from Saudi Arabia! Gy. Sgt. Steve "Deno" Driscoll

FROM HIS POST in Saudi Arabia, Gy. Sgt. Steve "Deno" Driscoll thanks the people of Charlestown for the packages, cards and letters.

Thinking Of You In The Persian Gulf

Dear Steve "Deno" Driscoll:

It's 7:20 a.m. on Jan. 15 and I'm sitting in traffic on the Southeast Expressway thinking about what everyone else is thinking about - the situation int eh Middle East, midnight tonight and the course of action the U.S. will follow once the clock strikes 12. As I sit here I also think about you and memories of you growing up in Charlestown.

I remember you lived on Mystic Street as a kid and some of us from the project didn't get along too well with you guys. Then in the early to mid 70s you ventured down to the projects and you and I "hung out" together on "Dope Corner" with a number of other kids of all ages. I remember how we did a number of things that kids our age did then, such as drink beers and harass the older folks, unintentionally of course. The gang drifted apart and everyone went their separate ways. I learned you had entered the Marines and had become a career man. I remember thinking when I heard that you had enlisted I felt sorry for the DI who would have to be responsible for "keeping you in line."

Deno . . . you "escaped" the problems which can often overwhelm kids who grow up in an urban environment and you have done well in your chosen career. I'm proud that our paths crossed, however briefly. As I sit here in traffic, I know that I join your family and friends in hoping and praying that you'll return home safely.

Good Luck, David Flanagan

It Was A Wonderful Success!

To the Editor.

The Christmas Toy Drive for Charlestown's girls and boys was a wonderful success again this year due to the spirit of generosity and cooperation of so many people.

We would like to thank all those Charlestown residents who donated toys along with the Neworld Bank, Schrafft Center, Charlestown Co-op Bank, Golden Age Center, Miss Porter's Limited, Kennedy Center Senior Lounge, Anchorage Apartments and Prudential Gibson Realty who participated by donating toys and acting as toy drop-off sites. Special thanks go out to Sherry O'Brien, Jan Kiely, Lynn Peters and the elves from the Charlestown Healthy Aging Program who wrapped all the gifts. We can't forget Major Gaetgens and his cadets from the Charlestown High School ROTC program who helped with pick-up at the various sites and coordinated the donation effort at the high school.

Your support and Christmas spirit really made a difference for Charlestown's youngsters.

Along The Christmas Walk

Dear Editor,

I want to thank both the McCullough, Steiveter & Polvere and the Bagley & Bagley law firms for their hospitality during the Christmas Walk. All the establishments but one had open house. These two firms were very generous as usual with their refreshments.

In the brochure for the Christmas Walk, Olives was listed for the first time. When I stopped near there with my friend I discovered they were charging for barbecued subs. I was very surprised to see this since all the other businesses offered free refreshments. I have never been to Olives, but have noticed long waiting lines. I'm sure they are not hurting business-wise.

I enjoyed the Christmas Walk, but this left a bad taste with me.

Mrs. Conway,

I have been out of the town now for over 20 years, but manage to keep in touch by reading your newspaper which my son drops of to me each week. I had to drop you a note to say, "Thanks for the memories."

I used to live on Washington Street and remember the State Prison very well. Your story brought back things that I lived through. I did enjoy it so much! Thanks!

January 8, 1991

Mr. James Oates, C.E.O. and President Neworld Bank 55 Summer Street

Boston, Mass. 02110

Dear Mr. Oates:

On behalf of the Massachusetts Water Resources Authority, I would like to thank you for the assistance the Austin Street, Charlestown, office of the Neworld Bank gave the MWRA with our 1990 Globe Santa penny-donation drive.

It was the Authority's best year; we achieved a grand total of $2,116.50, well over last year's $1,358.

The Charlestown office staff was most helpful in counting a multitude of jars and bottles filled with a variety of coins. In particular, Karen M. Cawley, assistant manager; Michael D. Clark, customer service representative; and Elius Carbajal, teller, were extremely giving of their time. This is the third consecutive year that your Charlestown Branch has assisted us.

We can all take pride in knowing that our efforts helped the less fortunate children of Boston have a Merry Christmas.

We've already started collecting for 1991. This year's goal is $3,000. Thank you once again for the cooperation and generosity of your kind and friendly staff.

Columbus High Is Still Alive

Now that I have caught your attention, I want to take this opportunity to wish each of you the very best in 1991.

To the Columbus students who are now attending other schools . . . I wish you continued success as you pursue the goals you began at Columbus. You have certainly not been forgotten.

This is the first year that I've been out of school, and while at Christopher Columbus High School this time of year, the holiday season, was always very special. Columbus High was a very special place because there was always love and caring there.

The doors may be closed now, but the love and caring we had for each other can never be taken away. I look through the year books a lot and I see all the good things we did, all the happy times we had, and the many smiles say quite clearly that Christopher Columbus was a good place to be.

As long as we have these happy memories, and as long as we continue to share them Columbus High will remain alive. To each of you — parents, teachers, staff and students who made these memories — thank you.

Columbus High was not brick and mortar, Columbus High was, and always will be people, people with a heart.

You might have guessed by now that I think a lot about Columbus High — the people — and you have guessed right. I've found since I've "been out of school" that many of you have the same thoughts.

These feelings were quite evident when the Class of 1985 held their fifth reunion, which I was proud to attend.

Since many of your addresses have changed, I must use the local newspaper to once again contact you and reopen the great communication that we had over the years. I think we need it now more than ever. Please drop me a line with your address. My mailing address is 44 Fleet St., Boston, Mass. 02109.

Our old Varsity Club should be the foundation for a very new active Columbus High School Alumni Association, an association of all those who made the many happy memories.

There are many people and projects who can use our love and caring. To borrow a line from the great musical "Camelot," it's time to bring back our "one brief shining moment."

Bob DeCristoforo

A Note Of Thanks

I wish to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to my friends and neighbors for their kind expressions of sympathy, floral tributes and spiritual bouquets extended in the sudden death of my brother Buddy.

Sincerely,

Mary Barry

Neighborhood Council Seats Members And Elects Officers

(continued from page 8) the letter was to ask for the cooperation of Massport to work for these issues not to beat the authority over the head.

Galvin said he knew the letter would be controversial and he didn't think the chairman should send out a letter critical of Massport without approval of the CNC. He added that the Massport Board should know about the failure of the process.

McLaughlin suggested there should be another meeting to include some negotiation on the contents of the letter. He added that the CNC wants to keep Massport talking to the members about its property and he wouldn't want to see it end with a letter that doesn't get answered.

Dorothy Steele, community liaison for Massport, told the CNC that Bay State could not do anything on the property without Massport approval. She stated that Alyward had said that nothing mentioned on the list of community concerns was impossible. She added that at Massport, everything is done in writing and some things on the list. such as the buffer zone, require money and must go through the budget process, and this must be in writing.

Cunha suggested that the committee, under its new chairman, agree on the letter and send it on. Conway asked Galvin to make the draft available to the new chairman. McLaughlin, who said chairmen would be appointed at the February meeting, asked Gillen to be temporary chairman.

McLaughlin praised Galvin for his thorough work on the committee and suggested that he remain active although not a CNC member. Conway added that committee membership, according to the bylaws, is open to anyone with the only stipulation being that a committee must be chaired by a CNC member.

The legal advertisement in Jan. 9 and 10 newspapers by the Massachusetts Water Resources Authority seeking Chapter 91 approval was brought to the floor. Steele said that MWRA does not have a signed change of lease with Massport, adding that the authority's maritime people didn't know the advertisement was being placed.

When the chairman opened the floor for public discussion, Steele reported that deleading is currently underway at the Old Kent School. She said they are deleading the soil, repairing drainage and making a public park, similar to the one at Mt. Vernon Street and Lowney Way, next to the old school. She said a fence at the site is heavily layered with lead paint. According to Steele, the fence is beautiful and may be old, but it would have to be removed and deleaded and it may not be able to be re-installed because of its age. She asked for suggestions as to where it might be moved in the community, adding that their options are to take the fence out or install an interior fence so the youngsters couldn't get to the leaded fence.

Wallace related the enormous expense involved with the fence from the Thompson Square elevated station that was installed at the Mary Colbert Apartments. McLaughlin suggested that a meeting be held with Massport, McDonough and the Kennedy Center and preservationists. Cunha, changing from his CNC to his Knights of Columbus hat, asked for the support of the CNC in amending the Land Disposition Agreement for its West School Street property. This amendment would make the building under construction on the property legal for the use by the telephone company. The CNC voted its support.

It was voted that letters of congratulations be sent to the appointing authorities and persons recently promoted including Martin Pierce Jr. as Boston Fire Commissioner and Chief of Department; Gerald Hart as Boston Fire Department Chief of Operations; and Boston Police Sergeant Dan Harrington as head of the Capitol Police.

A letter will also be sent to Neworld Bank expressing the dismay of the CNC on the removal of David Carr and Roberta Byington from their positions at the local branch. The CNC will also praise the two for their work in the community.

Wallace asked for a vote of thanks to Galvin and Ken Stone for their service on the CNC.

Charlestown Youth Hockey Notes

by Peter Golden

The wings of victory took the weekend off as far as the Charlestown Youth Hockey Association sextets were concerned. Most of the weekend games were tied, lost or snowed out.

Bantam Report

The Bantams are slowly returning to form after their high school tryout break. Sunday's action saw the undermanned Bantams tie a powerful Canton club 3-3. Coaches Paul Myers and Henry Mansfield were proud of the total team effort as their skaters rose to the occasion and skated hard until the final buzzer.

Pee Wee Report

The Pee Wees faced off against Hyde Park on Saturday night and built an early 2-1 lead in the first period. Unfortunately the speedy Hyde Parkers rose to the occasion in the remaining two periods to skate off the ice with a 9-3 win. Jason Smith with two goals and Paul Allen with one were the "Townie" goal scorers. Despite the loss, Coach Moe Gillen is confident that his Pee Wees will return to their winning style in upcoming games.

Squirt Report

Saturday's Squirt games fell victim to the snowstorm. However, the Squirt II team of Jim Kane scrimmaged a strong Billerica squad Thursday night. Despite losing 6-1, Coach Kane felt it was a good game and that the lessons learned will pay off in the future. Coach Kane lauded the fine passing of Robbie Celata, the hustle of Ben Burnett and Assistant Coach Paul Wrenn's work with the de-

Mighty Mite Report GBL Mites

The GBL Mites fell to Parkway 5-2 on Sunday. Coach Dave Bryson's passing wizards went AWOL for this game. Jeff Fidler and Matt Stein were the only Townie goal scorers. Assists were made by Brian Mc-Crary, Mike Kelly and Ryan Tucker. Jim Garvey, despite the score, played a strong game in goal.

Woburn Mites

Woburn Mite action saw the club coached by Ed Lynch skating in a higher division for the first time. These youngsters, despite the stronger opposition, rose to the occasion and earned a hard-fought 3-3 tie with Waltham. Early action saw the young Townies fall behind 2-0 before they turned the game around. Teamwork and passing fueled the comeback as the local lads built a 3-2 lead. A late Waltham goal created the tie. Corey Hollien, Ryan Mainey and Joe Wilkins were the goal scorers.

This week's "Tip of the Hat" goes to those hearty souls who braved the elements Friday night to attend the CYHA Dance and to the donors of the door prizes. Thanks to all!

In-House Teams

This week's In-House action produced two big stories. The undefeated Wings are no longer undefeated and the winless Hawks are no longer winless.

The Hawks, in recording its first win, took no prisoners. A powerful Hawk offense scored 13 times. Joe Tallent, four goals, Jamesy Greatorex, three goals, and Ryan Tucker, three goals, led the Hawk attack. Ray Ortiz, two goals, and Dan Noonan, one goal, finished the scoring. The Sabres were led by Rick Lawrence, three goals, Jason Duncan, two goals, Dave O'Brien, two goals, and Paul Hennessey, one goal.

8PM LIVE

11:30PM Replay

The New Kids on the Block in the CYHA (also known as the Whalers) pulled the big upset in defeating the Wings 9-5. A balanced Whaler attack was the key to the victory. Whaler goals came from Chuck Hollien and Mike Mac-Pherson with two goals each, and single tallies by Matt Stein, Brian McGonagle, Nick Wilson, Pat Walsh and Liam Lynch. The Wings did not give up without a fight. Bill Burke with two goals, and Dan Garceau, Chad Titcomb, Dave Bryson and Tim Warren with one goal each, lit the lamp for the Wings.

The night's closest contest was between the Flyers and the Bruins. The Flyers emerged victorious in the hard-fought contest by the score of 5-4. The Flyer snipers were Jim Kane with two goals, and Dan Considine, Ed Kelly and Chris Breen with one goal each. The Bruins marksmen were Fred Arroyo with two goals, and Jeff Ryan and John Lynch with one goal

Junior Bowling League Update

by Judie Dunphy

Fresh from the Christmas break, the young bowlers of the Charlestown Junior Bowling League returned to the lanes rested and ready for second half-action.

Vinnie Sassone of Erins must have spent his entire vacation eating his Wheaties. He bowled with a vengeance . . topping the field of junior bowlers with an astonishing 119 string.

The first place title for the week is held jointly by Sean's Elevator, Erins and Mama Maria's. Certainly looks like a sit-on-the-edgeof-your-seat season is in the offing.

Charlestown Pride Hosts Dorchester All-Stars Wednesday

by Bob DeCristoforo

The Charlestown Pride Basketball Team will be playing the Dorchester Youth Basketball League All-Star Team on Wednesday, Jan. 23 at 8:30 p.m. at Charlestown High School, 255 Medford St.

Making stronger relationships throughout the city is one of the main purposes of the Andy Puopolo Club of Boston, which sponsors Charlestown Pride, and a game like this presents a perfect opportunity for the fine young people of Dorchester and Charlestown to come together.

The Dorchester Youth Basketball League is sponsored by Senate President Bill Bulger and league representatives from Charlestown are Jonathan Owens and Joey Kacvinsky. Both these young men have already brought Charlestown Pride to Dorchester.

The All-Star team will be coached by League Director Tommy Egan.

An MVP from each team will be selected at the conclusion of the game.

The panelists will discuss the purpose of organized community sports, the coaches' responsibilities, the coach-athlete relationship and how parents can help to make sports a positive and valuable learning experience for their youngsters. They will also comment on how some young players' desire for money and fame affects the educational benefit of team sports.

Father Ron Coyne

 St. Catherine's Cheerleaders — When the basketball season began and the local teen-age girls realized that we would be sponsoring teams up to 19 years of age, they asked if we would be willing to sponsor cheerleaders for the oldest two boys' teams. We had so much interest that we now have two cheerleadering squads. One group cheers at our intermediate boys (under 20) games on Sundays at 5 p.m. and the other group cheers at our junior boys (under 18) games on Monday nights at 9 p.m. The boys and the parish are deeply grateful to our cheerleading coaches Carolyn Shannon, Suzanne Wrenn, Laura Blaikie and Kerry Woods. The girls do their cheers wearing Charlestown CYO sweatshirts and practice two days a week. They are hoping to enter the CYO cheerleading contest in March.

The cheerleaders are: Shawna Pelton, Stephanie Walsh, Shannon Blaikie, Allison Kane, Jessica Sweeney, Shannon Murray, Kerri Pierce, Jennifer Burns, Shannon McLaughlin, Alexis Finneran, Colleen Hayes. Maureen Wedge, Shannon Lawler, Colleen Hanlon, Kelli Doherty, Suzanne Melanson, Sheila Kelly, Jodi Neff, Bridget Centola, Melissa Doherty, Caitrin Houlihan, Cori Mirdik, Lori Burke, Helen Scales, Christina Boutlier, Kelly Whalen, Elenor Paris, Aileen Gorman, Brittany Wilkins and Courtney Con-

. St. Catherine's Sponsors Eighth-Grade Boys Olympics - On Tuesday, Feb. 19 (vacation week) St. Catherine's will sponsor an eighth-grade boys olympics at West Roxbury High School. We have invited over 30 parishes to participate, but we will accept only 14 teams. Father Covne has run this event for many years but this will be the first time that St. Catherine's has sponsored it. Each participating parish can bring a team of 15 boys (eighth graders) who will compete beginning at 10 a.m. in basketball, volleyball, gym hockey, relays, water basketball and a superstars contest. We will leave by bus at 8:30 a.m. and the day will conclude at 6 p.m. A lunch of subs and tonic will be provided for all participants. Trophies will be presented at the end of the day. Any eighth-grade boy from public or parochial school who would like to play on St. Catherine's team should call Father Coyne at 242-1750.

Because we are sponsoring the event, all refereeing and scorekeeping will be done by high school students from Charlestown. Any boy who would like to serve as a referee is asked to call Father Coyne.

Any boy who goes to participate or referee will enjoy every minute of the day and will be representing St. Catherine's and Charlestown. An eighth-grade girls olympics will be held during April vacation.

- CYO Day Ski Trip St. Catherine's CYO will sponsor a one-day ski trip on Saturday, Feb. 16. This trip is open to all Charlestown teen-agers. The trip is run by Youth Enrichment Services (YES) and is open to 35 teen-agers. The cost is $30 and includes a lift ticket; skis, boots and poles; a lesson; and transportation. Participants must attend a fitting on Tuesday, Feb. 12 at YES Headquarters at 412 Massachusetts Ave. A bus will leave St. Catherine's Church at 4 p.m. and return about 7 p.m. You should leave your name and $30 at the rectory, 49 Vine St., as soon as possible and pick up a permission slip. Chaperones should call the rectory.
- Special Thank You The young people who participate in CYO activities, sports programs, color guard and trips sponsored by the CYO would like to thank all those local people and organizations who have generously contributed to the programs offered through St. Catherine's. We would never be able to afford offering these opportunities without you. Dreams are actually becoming reality as we are able to touch the lives of more and more of the young people of Charlestown. We believe that CYO can have a strong impact on a young person's life and it is now happening thanks to you. The Catholic churches in Charlestown are grateful.
- Wrestling Matches At The Garden We have 40 tickets for the WWF wrestling matches which will be held on Saturday, Feb. 2 at 8 p.m. at the Boston Garden featuring The Ultimate Warrior and Macho Man Randy Savage and Rowdy Roddy Piper vs. Mr. Perfect. Tickets will be on sale at St. Catherine's Rectory, 49 Vine St. on Wednesday, Jan. 23. The cost is $9 per person and anyone may purchase tickets.
- Scavenger Hunt For Teen-Agers St. Catherine's CYO invites all Charlestown teen-agers to take part in a Scavenger Hunt. Teens 13 and older are asked to form teams of five. All teens will meet at St. Catherine's School Hall at 1 p.m. on Saturday, Feb. 2. They will be given a list of 100 items and will have two hours to get as many of the items as possible. The teams will travel only by foot. Please call Father Coyne at 242-1750 if you would like to form a team.

Woods Stars In St. Catherine's Junior Basketball Victory

by Bob DeCristoforo

The long road trip ended and so did the losing streak as St. Catherine's Junior Basketball Team soundly defeated St. Mary's of Milton 73-53 before a highly partisan crowd at the Charlestown Community School in the second game of the home and home series.

All systems were go, despite the numerous fouls which relatively handcuffed St. Catherine's in the first half and put most of the starting five on the points, followed closely by Joe Kacvinsky with 13, Jim Burke with 12 and Jonathan Owens with 11.

Keying the win was the very impressive play of Pat Woods who had nine points, led the team in assists and dominated the boards at both ends of the floor. The Don Bosco sophomore is definitely a very talented player to watch and a fast-rising Charlestown

High School Athlete Honor Roll

by Bob DeCristoforo

Over the years I have been very fortunate to be involved with high school athletics and athletes. The many fine young men and women who take part in high school athletics are very special people because they have taken advantage of what the Mass. Interscholastic Athletic Association (MIAA) calls the "other half of education."

Indeed, many of these athletes go unnoticed because they are the good kids we don't hear too much about. This was the main reason I began my hobby, and it is just that, of writing articles for the local newspapers many years ago.

My pay for these articles has been the satisfaction of seeing the good kids get the credit they deserve.

With this in mind, I begin the High School Athlete Honor Roll. Throughout the school year I hope to present an accurate list of who is playing high school sports in our town.

Like all of us I'm not perfect, so if I miss anyone over the course of the year, let me know who they are, where they go to school and what sport they are playing.

While this honor roll stresses the high school athlete, it in no way downplays the importance of all those who take part in any extracurricular activity at their school, whether it be the music club, student government, art club, drama club, school newspaper or any of the other fine and important school activities. You, too, are the GOOD KIDS we are very proud of . .

Members of the high school athletes honor roll are: James Andrea, Latin Academy, hockey

Mike Tibbetts, Paul Tibbetts and Todd Fisher, Don Bosco,

Billy Hayes and Joe DeRoeve, Malden Catholic, hockey Jason Gallagher and Jamie Smith, Boston Latin, basket-

Thanks to all your volunteers and stores that donated the goodies. The afghan was beautiful for over my bed for my feet at night and the flashlight was just what I needed. The stamps were great, too.

God bless you all again and may St. Anthony guide all your steps and watch over you.

From a Shut-In Senior Citizen of 10 Years

To The Friends Of 'Townie Santa'

I just want to say "Thank You" to each and every one of you lovely people for the grand groceries you sent me for Christmas. I want you to know, each and every one of you who worked on this project, how much I appreciated it.

I am a shut-in and find it so hard to get all things I'd like to have, but thanks to you people I am set for a good long time. Thank you all again.

Thanks To Those Who Helped With The Lap Robes

Dear Gloria,

I would like to express my sincere thanks to all the ladies who helped in making the lap robes for Townie Santa recipients. Many of them made and donated the robes, others got together as a social gathering to make them. We used donated yarn as well as yarn purchased by the Townie Santa Committee. All in all, this was a great experience as we, the lap robe ladies, made many new friends and we had a great time doing something nice for our fellow Townies.

I want to also thank all the ladies who gave their time to wrap and tie the lap robes for delivery, and the men who transported the robes to Townie Santa in time for delivery.

Most of the lap robes were made by the senior ladies of Charlestown. All were made with a lot of love and caring for those who received them and they wanted the Townie Santa recipients to enjoy them and to always remember that this type of spirit is what Charlestown is all about and that spirit will always be here to bring happiness, and to say "Hi" at Christmas.

The robe response was so great that we had some left over after the Townie Santa deliveries were completed. We took 18 of them to the Children With AIDS Program at the Pediatric Ward at Boston City Hospital. The nurse in charge was overjoyed at receiving them and said they were really needed there.

The remaining 66 robes were delivered to the Soldiers Home in Chelsea where they also were very pleased to receive such an unexpected gift, each one individually wrapped. It was a real gift for these sometimes forgotten patients and residents.

Again, I want to say "Thank You" to all for making this

An Expression Of Thanks

To All Townie Santas,

It was very thoughtful of you! Words can't express my thanks. Have a Healthy and Happy New Year.

All my love to everyone. A Townie Santa Recipient

Your Gifts Showed Me People Do Care

To Townie Santa,

I would like to thank each and everyone who helped to make my Christmas more pleasant. I was more than surprised when I received the phone call that I was a recipient.

Needless to say, you will never know my feelings when the elves came to my door on Sunday, Dec. 23rd with a delicious, piping hot turkey dinner and all the lovely gifts. I kept saying, "I can't believe this," and it took me a couple of hours to realized all the good food and gifts that were in the boxes and bags.

I know now all the loving and hard-working people who give their time and money to make someone else happy. I had just come from the hospital the Wednesday before, a little down to think my normal activities were to be curtailed for a while, but your gifts showed me people do care and cheered me up some. May God willing, next year I will be more myself and be able to help others even in some small way.

Once again, may I thank each and everyone of you, especially whoever gave my name. I certainly have no idea who it was. May you all have a very Health and Happy New year and God reward you for your kindness. I really can't say more than a big "Thank You" and God bless you all. Words can never express my feelings. Sincerely,

A Townie Santa Recipient

Scouts And Cubs Plan For The New Year

by Peter Jones

The leadership of Charlestown's Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts met on Thursday to plan events for 1991.

The Boy Scouts will continue to have monthly outings, with the next one scheduled for this weekend at Camp Sayre in Milton. The derby features scout skill contests and a sled race using sleds the boys have built themselves.

Upcoming Cub events planned include arts and crafts activities and swimming opportunities. The Cubs will also join the Boy Scouts in February for an official awards ceremony recognizing Cub and Boy Scout achievements over the past three months.

New members are always welcome in the Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts and special recruiting events will be taking place over the next few weeks to introduce parents and boys to the adventure of scouting.

If you would like to find out more information about the scouts, please call Peter Jones at 241-0425.
