Observations Counterspy magazine, which rose to prominence recently when intelligence officials charged that its disclosures of operatives in foreign nations resulted in the death of a CIA man in Greece, has attacked the posse comitatus movement. In a full page analysis, the leftist publication described the movement as "emerging as an organization to unite rightist paramilitary . . . around the U.S." and admits an "upsurge in vigilante activities." Also, in the disapproving report Counterspy notes that posse comitatus "has already equalled the size of the Minutemen organization at its zenith." Noting that the posse has interfered with the strongly left wing United Farm Workers recruitment efforts, Counterspy says it is watching the movement and urged readers to transmit information on it to them. . . . WO 217 said that "The Israeli sinking of the U.S.S. Liberty is about to get back in the news." Of course, it was an "attempted sinking." Though 34 Americans were killed, the Liberty was not sunk. Since then, as predicted, Penthouse magazine has run two amazingly revealing articles on the atrocity and The Spotlight claims that the secret Court of Naval Inquiry report calls the attack "deliberate." But WO regrets the careless wording.

The U.S. Census Bureau has been asked to include a question on religious affiliation in the 1980 census by 15 directors of the Religious Research Association. The question about religious affiliation was dropped from the 1960 and 1970 census due to the demand of Jewish groups. Revelation of the true number of Jews in the U.S. would undermine the myth that the Nazis killed six million Jews. The truth is, there are six million more Jews in the U.S. than Jewish organizations admit. . . . The Immigration Service reports that there are 8 million illegal immigrants in the U.S. Actually, there are at least 14 million.

Columnist Jack Anderson, a loyal camp follower of the Anti-Defamation League (which can and does put pressure on newspaper publishers to carry or not carry his column) says that he knows but will not reveal who the "Deep Throat" was who snitched all that inside information to Washington Post reporters Woodward and Bernstein in regard to Watergate. However, says Jack, he knows that "Deep Throat" has to be a source inside the FBI's Washington Field Office." What Jack knows but won't tell was revealed in the Nov. 1, 1974 issue of WO: "Deep Throat" was W. Mark Felt, J. Edgar Hoover's long-time Jewish assistant who served as his liaison with the ADL and who was passed over for promotion by Richard Nixon when he instead appointed L. Patrick Gray to succeed Hoover. . . . Perhaps one reason why Jack is reluctant to finger Felt is because Felt was his own chief snitch in the FBI. Evidence is that for years Felt illegally passed on FBI secrets not only to the ADL and to the Washington Post but also to sanctimonious Jack. . . . According to Newsweek (April 5, 1976, p. 25), "Kissinger regarded Nixon as a dangerous anti-Semite."

Surprise unveiling of international banker/silver salesman/money changer Nicholas Deak as a CIA agent (WO 217) should make some of his fleeced customers note his obvious conflict of interest. While taking their money through a platoon of commission agents for "silver claim accounts," and promising rewards because of alleged future price appreciation, he was actually working with the U.S. government to depress the price of the metal. This could be the basis for fraud suits by some of his customers. . . . As aftermath to exposure of the CIA connection, Deak has come under investigation by customs officials for possible illegal currency dealings. . . . If you have any money in Deak's Foreign Commerce Bank of Zurich, you may as well reconcile yourself to the knowledge that what Deak knows the CIA also knows. WO warned you years ago.
