I Wish a Great Succes for The New King Rama X., of The Thailand !

I King Peter Gottwald Imperium of Diamond's congratulations to the newly voted King Rama X., at the election of the Parliament and state functions Kingdom of Thailand.

Congratulations for discipleship of His Father Rama IX., Thereby maintaining family line and confirmation of the accession to the throne.

It's a big step in the history of the Thai people and the country, and I therefore believe that Your coronation is celebrated and welcomed with respect Thai people and also greatfully welcome from other Thai states.

My congratulations for Your coronation is also evidence of a recognition of my interest about our friendship and growth of common respect between our countries.

I King of Imperium of Diamond's like offer to You Dear Rama X, our friendship and achieve common capabilities extend to joint multilateral and bilateral relations.

Together we can ensure significant growth of our armies, economic, civilizational scale and stability of our countries.

One of my interests is to offer You the opportunity to build our common planetary civilization and the development of our common area as proof of the friendship between our parties. Our new civilization can be significant, and the level of economic value that surpasses the size of the entire world.

In the subsequent interest I want to support also Your Thai country for the possibility of membership in the World Diamond International Alliance, as a form of joint sovereignty of all states around the world together over the territories beyond the dimensions of more than five galaxies as well as to the growth of global power security cooperation, meaning steps to remove terrorism European countries and thus achieve success extension of the common sovereignty on the territory of European terrorist organizations which, under International law, have lost all kinds of legitimacy and claim of sovereignty.

It is certain that it is in my interests to establish a much more common amicable contracts, as well as additional options to our mutual cooperation.

Today, however, I as a political entity under terrorist blocking of European terrorist organizations, and therefore in isolation is by my inability to expand at its own national policy, and that I give my offer of a deposit, the possibility of our cooperation immediately in the period of stable security.

However, if Your party Thai country's of His Rama X, can own interest in the use of these options immediately, so I ask You about the foundation of our common Consulates and thus support for mobilizing International military in law UNGA Conventions as well as the natural right of all States for their freedom and development in the peace world.

I wish You great success Dear Rama X, and good Lordship to the Thai Throne, appreciation and enjoyment nation law endorsed by Parliament and the government, and the good results of The Royal of The Kingdom.
