I'd heard this story but never read or saw the eyewitness details. When DM's Daddy came to Flag latter '76 or early '77 he was "scouting things out" for his "Wunderkind" to see what kind of a deal he could get for his kids joining the SO and, the CMO, in particular. I had some interaction with him and the way he told the story about his "Ace Auditor" son, the clear impression was given that he had recently been at St. Hill.

I've written about that encounter and my other encounters with Daddy DM previously on ESMB.

Face 😊

Thank you Face.
I read up on almost everything you post.

I have another story of Ron Miscavige senior.
I had totally absolutely forgotten it, but Ron M. himself jogged my memory.
It was Int Base in the late 80s.
I was being held against will, the world was BLACK, I was in misery to say the least.
I ran into Ron M. outside Del Sol. He saw the look on my face. I had lost 25lbs in 3 months and had a haunted look.
"Karen," he said "All is not lost, cheer up."

He gave me some comforting words. (We knew each other from St. Hill) "Remember how you helped me at the Flag Land Base in 1976 ?"

"No, I don't recall" I said sullenly. My mood was in the depths of depression.

"I told you how I was all fucked up, my life was done, I had royally fucked up" ~~ he described how he had lost it and raped a girl in Philadelphia.

And you said "come on Ron, come on, all is not lost, cheer up ! Are you trying to tell me your life is over over one outrageous incident ?"

He was trying to say my life was not over because of one outrageous incarceration at INT base.

The tables had turned.

In 1976 I was trying to cheer him up and make him see long range.

In 1988 he was trying to cheer me up and make me see long range.

There was a lot more said back and forth but that's the essence of it.

Miscavige later had the Philadelphia records tampered with and expunged so the rape record was deleted.

Not an easy feat but done with Miscavige megabucks.

He did not want to be a "world leader" and son of a father who had raped a woman. Ron M. was ordered to join the Sea Org at Int base.

Ron M. played in the Gold musician band for decades til he fled INT Base some 2 years ago.

Ron M said he planned his blow with Becky his wife with military precision for 6 months prior to blow (Like a Delta force or Navy Seal)
Not that easy to flee that hell called "Int base".
