My first reaction: Arnold's 'Total Recall' meets Dayworld (by Philip José Farmer).

This movie has the pace and scifi feel of the best Arnold Schwarzenegger movies of the 90's. It's a Dystopian World movie where the streets are clean and the government is evil.

Noomi Rapace is marvelous as seven very different sisters. I loved her in the original, subtitled 'Girl with the Dragon Tattoo,' and I loved her just as much in this movie. (She's not a native English speaking actress, but nevertheless, has NO ACCENT at all.) Granted, as other reviewers have said, nothing is mindblowingly different from other futuristic, dystopian film worlds, but it's done very well.

And it's a Netflix movie! Kudos to them!
