

Interview Questions

1. What are some economic influences that have had a positive and/or negative affect on your career?
2. How is technology incorporated in your career?
3. What is expected of you in the area of continuing education?
4. Could you give a brief rundown of your daily schedule?
5. What is the average starting pay for new employees?
6. How do deadlines affect your workflow?
7. What are some general skills would one need for this profession?
8. What kind of challenges would one expect in this profession?
9. How often does business traveling occur for you?
10. How would you and your company deal with a product that wasn't produced to the expectations of the customers?
11. Could you describe the typical work one would do for this profession?
12. How does your company deal with people who pirate your software you develop?
13. How is teamwork incorporated into your profession?
14. What classes do you recommend for a highschooler to take for the best chances to get hired in this profession?
15. Why did you pick this profession?
16. How would you describe the design process you would take when creating a new application?
17. How often do you start new projects?
18. What programming languages do you personally prefer when creating projects?
19. Could you describe an application you developed, and what you like and dislike about that project?
20. How do you test builds of your projects?