After high school, I began working for the Asheville Fire Department on January 2, 1984. During my years with Asheville Fire & Rescue, I worked my way from rookie firefighter eventually obtaining the rank of Fire Captain. In 1997, I obtained my Bachelors of Science in Business Administration and Management from UNC-Asheville. I was accepted and made the difficult decision to leave the City of Asheville to attend the Wake Forest University School of Law. In the summer of 2000, I graduated from Wake Forest Law and passed the North Carolina bar. Since 2000, I have practiced law in Asheville. I have served as an employee representative on the Civil Service Board since 2010. I currently serve as the Chair of the Civil Service Board.
