

Best Comments for Girls Pic on Instagram

It depends on the person for whom you are commenting. Of course it can be the first impression if you want to start a conversation.

Remember never be flirty if you dont know her, that will definitely have a negative impact and she may form a wrong image of you. Try to be as polite as possible and dont be very straight forward.

If you are familiar with her then being a little flirty can keep you at the safe zone. Remember dont get vulgar as the comments are public appreciations and getting vulgar may irritate her.

If she is your best friend then you are free to comment your views but make sure you maintain a certain limit since they can be seen by others. You have the advantage of teasing her since she is your bestie and wont mind it but dont get carried away.

If you guys are in a relationship then you must show that you are proud to have her and that will be reflected in your comments. Try to brag a little with comments such as mine, bae, etc
