| If I were a Blackbird   |                     |              | D-A-D      |           |
|---|---------------------|--------------|------------|-----------|
| Em  | G                   | Em E         | 3m         |           |
| I am a young maiden, my story is sad                            |                     |              |            |           |
| I followed him gladly to Donnybrook Faire                       |                     |              |            |           |
| My parents t  | hey chide m         | e, and will  | not agre   | е         |
| He sailed o'e   | er the ocean        | , his fortun | e to seel  | <         |
| G   | Bm                  | E            | m          | Bm        |
| For once I w  | as carefree         | and in love  | with a la  | ad        |
| He bought me fine ribbons to tie in my hair                     |                     |              |            |           |
| saying me ai  | nd my true lo       | ove never i  | married s  | should be |
| I missed his  | caresses ar         | nd his kiss  | on my ch   | neek      |
| Em  | Bm                  | Em           |            | Bm        |
| He courted me sweetly by night and by day                       |                     |              |            |           |
| He offered to marry and stay by my side                         |                     |              |            |           |
| but let me de   | efy them, let       | me do wha    | at I will  |           |
| He returned   | and I told hi       | m my love    | was still  | warm      |
| G   | Em                  | G            | Em         |           |
| But now he h  | nas left me a       | and gone fa  | ar away    |           |
| but then in the morning he sailed with the tide                 |                     |              |            |           |
| While there's life in my spirit, he's the one that I love still |                     |              |            |           |
| He turned av  | vay lightly a       | nd great wa  | as his sc  | orn       |
|   |                     |              |            |           |
| Chorus:   |                     |              |            |           |
|   | G                   | Em           |            | Bm        |
| if I were a bla   | ackbird, the        | wind neath   | n my wing  | gs        |
| G   | Bm                  |              | Em         | Bm        |
| I would follow  | w the vessel        | my true lo   | ve sails i | n         |
|   | Bm· · · · · · · | Em           | Bm         |           |
| in the top rig  | •                   | there build  | d my nes   |           |
| G   | Em              |              | G          | Em        |
| I'd flutter my Janene Millen                                    | wings o'er h        | ns broad g   | olden ch   | est       |
| VouTube Channel laner   | ne M                |              |            |           |

YouTube Channel Janene M FOTMD Forum Janene