

CATAPHILES

Bandbio

Cataphiles started in the fall of 2021 as a trio with a drum machine, which they soon replaced with a real drummer and longtime friend. The four musicians from Bremen and Berlin play their own style of post-punk, which combines dark melancholic wave influences and uptempo death rock parts. Key is their reference to punk, also reflected in the lyrics. They "will spread chaos in your bourgeois living rooms". In october 2022 they released their debut album on Sabotage Records.
