Jams off work now until Monday so a weekend of rest is just what the doctor ordered. I'm also having to speak to my GP tomorrow as my consultant doesn't really want me going to hospital to get my prescription or bloods done... I have also agreed to try steroids until they can get a camera sorted (once coronavirus is under control). However, steroids and being in a nasty flare now increases my risk of becoming severely ill if I catch coronavirus - so I'm going to have to see about getting our food delivered going forward and stay as safe as possible (which we are already doing). So that's us - we aren't the best right now but we've got each other and that's all that matters. □

Singani is only available from one place that I have seen. They seem to get good reviews, but I dont know anybody that has used singani. Being winstrol you should know pretty fast how good it is. once you try it let us know what guage pin your using. I would pick a few up to try if it will flow through a 25g. Training done... think I'll go to town buy a nice new tight t shirt in extra Shmedium, have a Costa, Nando's, then get ready and go to a club tonight... oh wait ☺
