Evers Receives Award At ABCD Annual Community Awards Dinner

Over 1,200 people attended Action for Boston Community Development's (ABCD) 15th annual Community Awards Dinner on Oct. 27 at the Sheraton-Boston Hotel. U.S. Senator J. Robert Kerrey of Nebraska delivered the keynote address to an audience of community and business leaders, elected officials and residents from all of Boston's neighborhoods. Sharing the honors as masters of ceremonies for the banquet were the ever-popular Liz Walker and Jack Williams, co-anchors for WBZ-TV Channel 4 News.

Receiving the award from Charlestown was Judy Evers, who was nominated by the John F. Kennedy Family Service Center. In selecting Evers for this year's award, the Kennedy Center recognized her professional and personal contributions to the community.

Evers, who serves as the Charlestown neighborhood coordinator for the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, helps to facilitate the delivery of basic services to the neighborhood residents. In addition, Evers is involved with many civic organizations including Camp Bunker Hill, St. Catherine's Fund-Raising Committee, Bunker Hill Health Center Cardiac Advisory Board, the Charlestown Community Schools and the Bunker Hill Day Parade Committee.

On a personal level, Evers has been a mother to over 50 foster children while raising a large family of her own. Her husband Bernie and children Bernie Jr., Billy, Judy, Kathleen and Jennifer were present at the banquet to cheer on their special award recipient.

That cheer was echoed by members of the Kennedy Center Board of Directors and Executive Director

Kate McDonough, members of the Charlestown Neighborhood Council and Chairman Dennis McLaughlin, along with a myriad of relatives and friends of Evers who were on hand for the evening's festivities.

RECEIVES AWARD: Judy Evers, Charlestown resident and community liaison from the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, was presented with a Community Service Award from Action for Boston Community Development (ABCD) at its annual dinner held Oct. 27 at the Sheraton-Boston Hotel. Shown (l. to r.) Robert M. Coard, executive director of ABCD, U.S. Senator J. Robert Kerrey of Nebraska and Evers.

MAYOR Raymond L. Flynn was on hand to congratulate Judy Evers on receiving the Community Service Award from the Charlestown neighborhood at Action for Boston Community Development's annual Awards Banquet on Oct. 27. Evers serves as Charlestown liaison for the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services.

By Joseph P. Gannon III
Silva Realty Associates

UNDERSTANDING THE SALES CONTRACT

The agreement between a buyer and seller for the purchase of a home is one of the more complicated business arrangements most of us encounter. The print may be large or small, but there is a lot of it. This contract covers not only the price of the property, but has many paragraphs governing the terms under which it will be conveyed to the new owners.

When you list your home for sale, or when you begin your search for a new one, ask the Realtor with whom you are looking for a copy of the standard agreement. Familiarize yourself with it ahead of time, and make certain you understand both parties' responsibilities for what must happen between the initial meeting of the minds and the settlement date. Who orders the termite inspection? What are the deadlines for applying to obtain financing? What contingencies must be met, and by when? If you are fully informed you greatly increase the chances of having a smooth transaction.

For professional advice on all aspects of buying or selling a home, talk to the professionals at Silva Realty Associates. Come by our offices at 142 Main St., Charlestown, or call us at 242-7470.

Life Behind The Wall

by Ronan FitzPatrick

When the outdoor play area behind the Ironsides building is finalized, it will be welcomed by the staff of the day-care center. Equipped with a clubhouse perched above the slide and plastic barrels, the unit will get a daily workout from the projected day-care enrollment. The annual Superstars Competition from Marathon, Fla., and the stars events at Pepperdine College in California come to mind when viewing the barrel tunnel. What more appropriate time is it to condition the toddler of today for the games of tomorrow?

Energy and the most innovative landscaping tools are being utilized by the National Park Service to combat the current invasion. This invading horde didn't arrive by sea, but from above. All grounds have a common denominator, the ubiquitous leaves. Armed with automatic leaf machines, the personnel is making a valiant effort to gather its bothersome fall product. Rotating on the machines, the balance of the crew was raking the leaves into canvas tarp for disposal. This is a chore that is long and arduous and whose finalization can't occur fast enough for the arm-weary contingent.

Whether they were purchased from the Wholesale Club, Woolworth's or from the First Avenue Commissary, the seasonal decorations along Thirteenth Street were delightful. Mobiles were displayed from exterior balconies, and the traditional paper window scenes all brought Halloween to a fuller meaning. To all the dedicated decorators, continue your projects as the various holidays unfold.

Following the admonition from the National Fire Protection Association, master chimney sweepers have blanketed the Yard with their informative brochure. Citing the prevailing philosophy of the profession that "chimneys should be inspected and/or cleaned once a year," M.C.S. has a special program that expires on Nov. 30. A broad range of services are made available. For those interested in preventing chimney fires, carbon monoxide poisoning, roof blow-backs and energy loss, dial the M.C.S. toll-free number, 1-800-696-2446.

When built in its entirety, the Yard will yield 560 housing units, 2,407 permanent jobs and an overall development cost of $332.3 million. Released in The Boston Sunday Globe on Oct. 29, these figures demonstrated the activity that will become a reality. I have in the past called for studies and the eventual placing of a public safety facility in the Yard. My quest continues. On Oct. 17, I was in receipt of correspondence from Fire Commissioner Leo D. Stapleton, a most distinguished firefighter who passed through the ranks to become the leading figure in the Boston Fire Department. He has demonstrated professional leadership and is the ultimate role model for his organization. I was encouraged by his four-paragraph reply to my earlier correspondence. I quote Commissioner Stapleton: "Thank you for your letter and your legitimate concerns, and please be assured that we are flexible enough to alter our present status when we are convinced of the need for additional protection." I appreciate his rapid response in light of the recent major conflagration in Chinatown and the myriad of other administrative duties he must address. Positive dialogue, I am sure, will result in added protection for the community.

Volunteering once again to collect the largest number of food products for St. Catherine's Food Pantry are Dot and Bill Binford. Paramount are items that can be readily consumed upon opening, such as stews, soups, tuna fish and Spam. Keep in mind that the pantry is open to all Charlestown residents, with the ecumenical support of all religions. A receptacle will be at Dot and Bill's door in the Anchorage Apartments, number 217. Please pitch in to help a needy person. For further particulars, contact Dot or Bill at 241-8512.

As the treasurer of the Bunker Hill Associates, I was proud to be involved with our first big-band function on Oct. 28 at the Knights of Columbus Hall. Coordinated by Peter Looney, who engendered another in a string of superbly run benefits for his lifelong town, the evening was a grand success. Proceeds of the event will be directed to the Chief Marshal of the 1990 Bunker Hill Day Parade, Massachusetts Public Safety Commissioner William McCabe, who will determine the method of distribution. For President Jerry Sheehan, Vice President Jackie Pierce and Secretary Tom Cunha, we all thank you for honoring Billy, and look forward to our second annual big-band night, naturally, with Peter's direction.

Mary Ann is a graduate of St. Rose High School and Bunker Hill Community College. She is currently employed as a terminal representative for Evergreen International Corp.

Michael is the son of Robert and Ruth Sweeney of Danvers. He is a graduate of Boston College and recently received his master's in business administration from Salem State. He is currently employed as the director of marketing and Sales for Am-Pro Mailing List Co.

Charlestown Meeting Slated For Input On Spending

Charlestown residents, organization advocates and representatives, and service providers are invited to participate in a Mayor's Office of Jobs and Community Services neighborhood meeting to discuss local service priorities and funding opportunities. Charlestown's meeting will be held Wednesday, Nov. 8 at 7 p.m. at Charlestown High School, 254 Medford St.

JCS representatives will present information about a wide variety of programs and inform community people about available services and funds. Approximately $6 million in federal and state money will be available for citywide distribution in areas such as human services, job training and youth programs for the upcoming fiscal year.

The annual neighborhood meetings are designed to provide JCS program managers with information about goals and priorities for Boston's communities. If you are concerned about child care, youth services, drug abuse, health care, senior services, adult literacy or jobs in Charlestown, you are encouraged to attend the Nov. 8 meeting with JCS representatives. Child care will be provided.

RE-ELECT ROSARIA. SHE'S PROVED SHE CARES.

City Councilor Rosaria Salerno is getting cops back out on neighborhood beats and seeing to it that elderly housing is safer to live in. She's fighting to make sure that life-long Boston residents can afford to live and work in the City. In just 18 months on the Council, she's sponsored more than 150 orders, ordinances and resolutions—and she's never missed a Council meeting. That's why leaders like Mayor Ray Flynn support City Councilor Salerno for re-election.

Bunker Hill Associates Honor 1990 Chief Marshal Bill McCabe At Gala Dance

The Bunker Hill Associates paid tribute to 1990 Bunker Hill Day Chief Marshal William "Bill" McCabe on Oct. 28 at the Knights of Columbus Hall with a parade kickoff event that featured the big-band sounds of Angie Bergamini and his 11-piece orchestra.

The dance floor was crowded throughout the evening as the band played old and new favorites. The sold-out event brought rave reviews and requests that Chairman Peter Looney begin preparations for a similar event next year.

McCabe, who was accompanied by his wife Peggy and mother Rose, expressed his appreciation to those who attended the event, and stated that he is looking forward to June 17 and a great Bunker Hill Day Parade. The proceeds from this dance and the evening's raffle will be presented to McCabe from the Associates, and earmarked for the parade.

Prizes for the raffle were donated by Rep. Richard Voke, Local 218 of the Carpenters Union and Bunker Hill Council 62, Knights of Columbus, each of whom gave $100; the Bunker Hill Associates donated two $50 gift certificates, one to Barrett's and one to the Front Page; and Boston City Councillor Robert Travaglini donated a pair of Boston Bruins tickets.

In addition, the raffle tickets were donated by Dave Dow and the Knights of Columbus donated the hall for the evening.

Looney, on behalf of the Associates, extended his thanks to all who attended and supported the event.

BILL MCCABE, commissioner of public safety for the commonwealth, will lead the 1990 Bunker Hill Day Parade. Joining McCabe at the Bunker Hill Associates dance, featuring the Angie Bergamini orchestra, were his wife Peggy and his mother Rose.

Let me start off by thanking the voters of Boston for the wonderful vote that I received in the recent Primary. God love you all.

Now, let's get right into it. When you pay for these ads, you can say anything you want, and I intend to do just that. I want to do this ad by numbers and you will see why:

1. Do you remember when Nikita Khrushchev said, "We shall destroy the United States without firing one shot." I do, and it is actually happening to this great country. Look at the education the kids are getting — NOTHING. Look at the drug problems we are having. They are all caused by the social planning do-gooders.
2. In 1973, I was one of three councillors at large who voted against the Sewer and Water Commission because I predicted that your water bills would increase five times. It happened.
3. Now we have the Massachusetts Water Resources Authority, and it too is going to raise the state water and sewer rates another five times. Get ready for the increase. They are giving out 2,000 more jobs, and that is why Mr. Paul Levy is getting away with what he is doing. When will it all stop? God only knows.
4. I know that you don't want to vote, and I can honestly say that I don't blame you for not wanting to vote. But I ask you in all honesty to PLEASE vote.
5. I have been a full-time councillor at large, and have NEVER had another income. I attend all the hearings before the Zoning Board of Appeal, the Boston Licensing Board, the Consumer Affairs Commission, the Boston Redevelopment Authority, and most of all the various community meetings. As for the committee hearings, forget it. One or two of us show up because that is what we are being paid for. The attendance is disgraceful.
6. I get a big kick out of the phony literature that the other candidates put out saying, "I did this, and I did that." Well, for their information, nothing is done here without the consent and vote of the other councillors.
7. We had an appropriation of $221,000 for the Gay Rights Commission here in City Hall, and I was the only councillor that voted NO because it was the taxpayer's money. If somebody wants to be gay, or somebody wants to be a lesbian, they have that right, but I am not going to spend the taxpayer's money on that.
8. I voted against the School Department budget, and was the only one who did because: In 1974, we had 93,000 youngsters in our school system, and the budget was $107 million. Forced busing came along, and we dropped to 40,000 youngsters. Now they want over $400 million. For what? The kids are the victims. We closed 87 schools, we laid off thousands of teachers, but they hung on to 400 non-certified teachers. Last year, 500 seniors could not graduate because they could not read or write. Fifth-, sixth- and seventh-grade kids were not promoted because they could not read or write. How did they get to be seniors, if they could not read or write? We have 557 administrators, which is unheard of. In one class of the Boston Police Department training classes, it was discovered that 22 of them could not read or write, but NO, they were sent to Northeastern University to learn how to read and write. How did they pass the exam to become police officers? They were at Northeastern for three months, and came back to be police officers. What the hell are we doing in this city?
9. We had 65 public hearings on the city budget, and I voted against that also because I had some serious cuts to be made, and was out-voted 12-1. Imagine a $1.3 billion budget. Folks, you should be here to see what goes on — you would be in a state of shock.
10. People have asked me what I think of Affirmative Action, and my answer is this: If I sat down with any minority to take any kind of an examination, and the minority got a better mark than me, then I say that is his or her job, and I would be the first to shake their hand. But if I got the higher mark, that job is mine. This is first-class discrimination and I don't think it is right. What the hell do we take exams for, if that stuff is going to be pulled on the person with the highest mark?
11. This is the greatest country in the world, and the sooner we start taking care of our own and stop playing Santa Claus for the whole world, the better off we will be.

RE-ELECT

O'NEIL

CITY COUNCILLOR

12. I am against the handouts that are given all over this country for people who can work, but won't work. All nationalities came to this great country from their various homelands, and they worked with their hands and never had them out for handouts. They raised good families and overcame the language barrier, and made this country what it is. I am sick of it all, and maybe we can elect the right people and get back to basics and morals.

13. The senior citizens of this country are the forgotten ones, and they made the country, but NO, they come last. Our senior citizens are barely making it, and in many cases are not making it. If we are going to build more housing, it should be for our own senior citizens.

14. Crime on the streets. Nobody is safe, especially our senior citizens who are getting ripped off day in and day out. The criminals that are doing it to decent hard-working people have all the rights in the world, and we have none. The courts are too damned lenient, and the criminals are out on the streets the same day. The court gives them lawyers for their defense, but not for us. When are we going to wake up? I don't know. I do know, that if the people could only see the voting records of elected officials, they would be quick to throw them out. I am convinced that people just don't care anymore. Can't say I blame you.

15. I have suddenly found out that I am the ONLY VETERAN running citywide, and I ask all my fellow veterans to give me one of the four votes you can cast on Nov. 7. I appeal to the Gold Star Mothers and the Ladies Auxiliaries of all posts to give me one of your four votes. God knows, when the veterans needed me, I was there, and now I need you.

16. I am also asking the voters, the police, the firefighters, middle management, city workers and people who believe and trust me, to go out on Nov. 7, and give me one of the four votes you can cast. I know my good pals, the senior citizens, will never let me down.

17. I have been endorsed by the Greater Boston Labor Council because I have a 100% voting record on labor. I have been endorsed by the Boston Police Patrolman's Association, the Ring #4 Boxing Association, Gun Owners Action League, National Rifle Association and many other labor unions. I ask the veterans to vote, the firefighters and any others who I might have left out who trust and believe in me. Please take your families with you and let me top the ticket again. The press would like to see me go down the tubes, but with all of you, that will never happen.

18. If you could only see the no-bid contracts that the School Committee gives out, it would make you sick. Can you imagine giving a no-bid contract to a Vietnamese bookstore for $450,000? To colleges all over the country in the thousands? There are too many to list.

19. You know folks, the old expression, "What goes around comes around," well, maybe someday it will come around to that — I sure hope so. Let's take this great and wonderful country back. Charity begins at home.

20. People ask me many times where I was educated: Hugh O'Brien School in Roxbury and Roxbury Memorial High (and I walked). I attended Suffolk University Law School, left to go into the service, came back and graduated from Staly College.

My affiliations: Emerald Society, Boston Police Department; 101st Infantry Veterans Association; National Rifle Association; Gun Owners Action League; Fraternal Order of Eagles; Cedar Grove Civic Association; National Right to Life; South Boston Irish American Society; Veteran Boxers Association Inc.; Ring #4, International Boxing Association Inc.; American Legion Post #78; AMVETS Post #1 as a life member; Silver Star D.A.V. #3; Veterans of Foreign Wars Post #2831 Doyle Post; National Conference of Shomrim Societies; Home Soon as a life member; Irish Social Club in West Roxbury; Boston Lodge of Elks #10; Guido Petrillo Sons of Italy as a life member; World War II — 7 Battle Stars, Bronze Arrowhead for assault landings, Presidential Citation from the late President Harry S. Truman, and I went from North Africa, Sicily, Italy, Southern France, right into Germany (European Theatre).

Let me conclude by saying this: I am #4 on the ballot on Nov. 7. I am asking you for one of your four votes. I know that a lot of my fellow councillors would like me to go away because I am forever checking on everything here in the council, and they don't like it. I could care less. I shall always be on your side while I am here, and please come out and vote on Election Day. I know how you feel, but maybe someday, we will get back the city, state and the country. We won't if you stay at home. Let's top the ticket again, and make them sick. I never ask for anything but the right to represent you here in the council on a full-time basis. God bless all of you, and once again,

PLEASE COME OUT AND VOTE NOVEMBER 7, 1989

Sincerely,

A MESSAGE TO THE PEOPLE OF CHARLESTOWN

When you first elected me to be your City Councillor I promised to be there when you needed me, to be responsive to your concerns and to do my best to deliver on your requests —

I HAVE KEPT MY WORD.

As your City Councillor I have worked with various individuals and community groups to ensure that city government is indeed responsive to issues which affect the quality of life in Charlestown.

Elderly services have been expanded, funding for Community Schools increased, the Community Gardens preserved, library services restored, parks and playgrounds renovated, streets and sidewalks paved, affordable housing constructed and open space protected. In short, by working together we have made a difference.

On Tuesday, November 7 your vote can make a difference. I ask you for your continued support on behalf of a better Charlestown.

Sincerely,

Does Your Mail Come Later Than It Used To?

City Councillor Robert E. Travaglini has been receiving complaints that mail delivery has been occurring at later and later times over the past few months on certain streets in Charlestown. In order to determine the extent of the problem, Travaglini requests that those residents who have been receiving late mail call his Aide, Charlie Clabaugh, at 725-3200.

Once the Councillor determines the extent of the problem, he will be able to plan the appropriate course of action. If you are having a problem, please call.

CHIROPRACTICS AND YOU

By Dr. Kevin J. Loughlin
North End Chiropractic

SAVING YOUR NECK

In our intensely litigious society, whiplash has come to refer less to a type of injury and more to questionable legal practices. This is unfortunate for several reasons. First, because "whiplash" has been the subject of so much bad humor, people regard it as a minor problem and fail to get adequate care when injured. Secondly, we tend to associate it almost exclusively with automobile accidents. But in fact, whiplash occurs whenever there is a sudden impact that thrusts the body forward and the neck backward. It is a frequent injury in contact sports, for example, and because it can have serious consequences, it should be treated seriously.

When the body is subjected to intense jarring, the cervical area is forced to absorb thousands of pounds of pressure which tears ligaments and compresses discs. Because ligamentous tissue has no nerve endings, pain may not be immediately apparent, but major soft tissue damage has been sustained, and disc degeneration and exostoses may appear months or even years later.

It is important to remember that whiplash is a very real injury and not just a trumped-up opportunity to go to court, and that chiropractic examination is in order whenever there is trauma to the neck area.

Regular chiropractic care is a wise way to maintain good health. For an appointment with Dr. Kevin Loughlin call North End Chiropractic at 742-5797. My practice is located at 350 Hanover St. in Boston.

Girls Ball Hockey Debut

Last Thursday night opened the girls ball hockey 1989-90 season, which promises to be competitive and exciting. Seven teams, the largest number in league history will vie for the playoff position and a chance to compete for the coveted Teen Connection Cup.

The inaugural contest of the young season was won hands down by the explosive Charlestown Chiefs. Melissa Doherty's four goals earned her the early league lead in scoring and gave her teammates the spark to begin the season. Patty Riley added two goals of her own. Single goals by Nancy Kane and Linda Howell completed the scoring, as goalies Laura Blaikie and Shannon McLaughlin combined to shut out an ever-improving Eden Street Club.

The second game proved to be the match of the night as the Barbies pulled a "W" from the Newtowne team. Anne Hanson and Leslie Borden scored a goal a piece to give the Barbies an early lead. Michelle Macomber cut the deficit to one for Newtowne with a tally of her own, but Christine Sorentino put the final nails in the coffin for the Barbies, with two answered goals.

The defending champion Silver Box squad picked up where it left off last season with a victory over the revamped Main Street crew. Kim Campbell started the scoring with her first of two goals for the night, Tarsha Lyman accounted for a hat trick, and Corey Gallagher had a single score as Silver Box begins its attempt to remain as champs. Jennifer Swales netted a lone score for her Main Street teammates.

Schedule — Tonight, Thursday, Nov. 2

- 6 p.m. — Eden Street vs. Parkies
- 6:45 p.m. — Main Street vs. Barbies
- 7:30 p.m. — Newtowne vs. Silver Box Chiefs, Bye

Andreotti Paintings To Be Exhibited At Newbury Street Gallery

The paintings of Pat Andreotti, formerly of Belmont Street, Charlestown, will be on exhibit at the Francesca Anderson Gallery, 8 Newbury St., Boston from Nov. 3 through Nov. 26.

Andreotti graduated from the Mass. College of Art majoring in Fine Arts, and has exhibited internationally, including England where she studied for a year. Her work is in numerous private and corporate collections such as Boise Cascade, People's Heritage Bank and Peat Marwick & Main.

She has received many awards, including the Artist Magazine's award for landscape painting in a competition in which over 5,000 works were submitted.

Andreotti lived in Charlestown for 15 years where she designed the sets and graphics for the Charlestown Working Theater. She received the Grand Bostonian Award for her contributions to the cultural life of the community while at the local theater. She also shows annually at the Charlestown Preservation Society exhibit in the Navy Yard.

Andreotti presently lives and has a studio in York, Maine.

New Tot Lot Opened At Eden Street Playground

photos by Lynn Peters

The children of Charlestown certainly enjoyed the results of an improvement plan for city parks and public places as they slid down, swung from, climbed around and hung from the new equipment at the Eden Street Park.

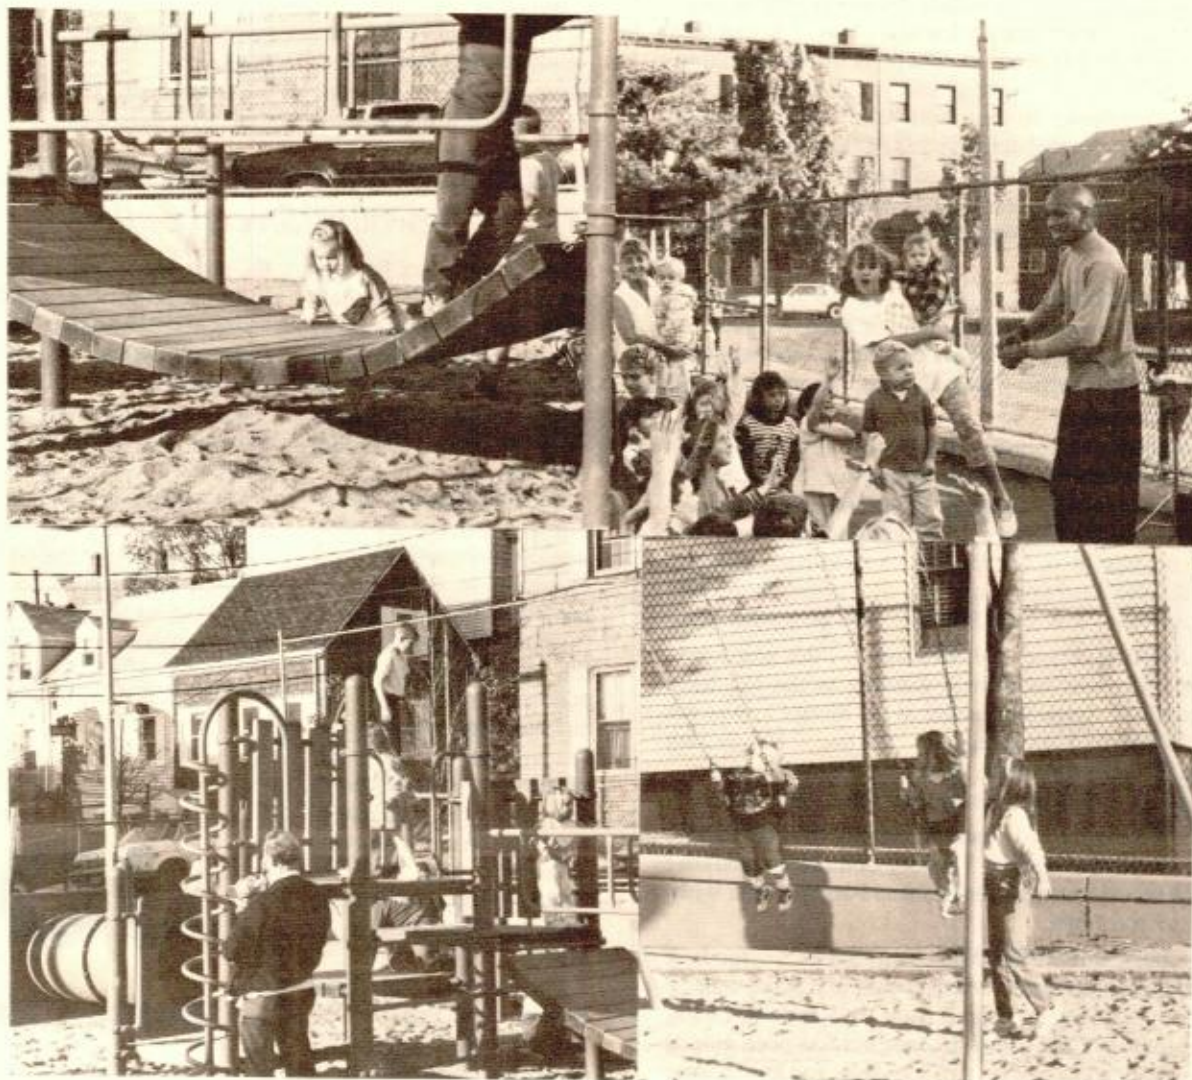

An official ribbon-cutting ceremony was held Oct. 25 in celebration of the brand new Edwards Tot Lot with residents and James "Stretch" Walsh, Boston Parks and Recreation Department regional administrator, City Councillor Robert Travaglini and Judy Evers, Charlestown liaison for the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services.

Neighborhood children joined lifelong Charlestown resident John Groatorex in cutting the ribbon. Groatorex was recognized for his benevolent citizenship for helping keep the park clean and safe for local youngsters. He was awarded the scissors from the ceremony.

The $60,000 tot lot was designed by the Boston design firm Moriece & Gray and features metal climbing structures, toddler swings, a slide and a sandy play area.

Children were treated to a magic show by Bonaparte the Magician, sponsored by the Parks and Recreation Department, following the formal ceremony, while others opted to take advantage of the strangely warm weather to get a head start on the new tot lot equipment.

Sheriffs' Association Distributes Trick Or Treat Bags

SUFFOLK COUNTY Deputy Sheriffs' Association Member Michelle O'Brien presented Halloween Trick or Treat bags to students in grades one through three at her alma mater, St. Francis de Sales School. The bags, designed to promote a happy and safe Halloween, featured McGruff, the Crime Dog, and displayed safety tips for trick or treating fun. Pictured here are first grade teacher Mrs. Bergstrom and her students Charlene O'Brien, Sean Noonan and Dan Devlin, along with O'Brien.

It Did Happen

by Althea Garrison

You probably don't know that I was a staunch supporter of my good friend Councillor Albert "Dapper" O'Neil when he ran for sheriff in the 1986 election. I campaigned for my friend, had a political sign on my house and wore an "O'Neil for Sheriff" button.

Prior to my getting involved and supporting Councillor O'Neil's campaign for sheriff, I was employed with the Office of the State Comptroller. As a result of my wearing the "O'Neil for Sheriff" button, I was harassed by the Dukakis administration and told by one of his managers in the Comptroller's office not to wear the button in the building where I worked at One Ashburton Place. Later on, I was forced to end five years of employment by managers of the Dukakis administration. At this time, I am fighting this action in federal court.

I now need your help, support and vote. I have been very loyal to the Irish-American people and other ethnic groups. I will continue to be loyal if elected, and will work with and support Councillor Albert "Dapper" O'Neil's legislation. Like O'Neil, I will be a full-time councillor. I am asking you for one of your votes when you vote for Councillor O'Neil.

I pledge and promise to not let the people down who vote for me and help me get elected to the City Council. Thanks to those who voted for me in the Primary. I ask for your vote again in the general election and ask you to ask your friends to vote for me.

A Slide Show About The Great Boston Fire

In 1872 Boston had just completed an urban renewal plan that was the pride of New England. Brand-new white granite blocks covered most of the downtown, yet on Nov. 9 and 10 of that year a massive fire destroyed over 60 acres of the heart of the city.

Erik Anderson will present a slide show depicting the causes, effects and the best stories of The Great Boston Fire at the Charlestown Preservation Society meeting on Sunday, Nov. 5, at the Baptist Church, 5 Monument Square in Charlestown at 7 p.m.

REMEMBER OUR SHUT-INS AT CHRISTMAS

The "Townie Santa" Committee is seeking the names of needy, elderly Charlestown shut-ins who may benefit from a visit from Townie Santa at Christmas.

The committee asks that individuals and organizations submit names by Wednesday, Nov. 8 to allow the selection committee to begin their arduous task. Time is also needed to purchase the items to fill the baskets, and to make plans for delivery.

The committee requests that the names of eligible recipients who received a basket last year be re-submitted as well as the names of any elderly, needy shut-in of whom you may be aware.

Don't assume that someone else will take care of this person — the committee needs the help of everyone.

Ministers Against Deadly Drink. We are thankful that a group of mothers who are mad about drunken driving have raised their voices. But, we believe they should go further than simply being against the results of drinking. We believe they should be against BOOZE period. When was the last time your minister preached against booze? Did you know that one qualification for a minister is that he must be "Not Given To Wine?" (I Tim. 3:3) Any minister who drinks booze should get out of the ministry. Now, we know that we cannot simply outlaw sin. But we do know Someone who can save you from the awful curse of Booze. And when you repent of your sin, whatever it may be, He will forgive you and deliver you from its hold on your life (I Cor. 5:17). You can become a Christian and be eternally saved if you would only call upon the name of the Lord. Jesus died for you. You must repent and ask Him to save you now. Why not be saved now? Is it true that Jack Sheehan has left the Kennedy Center after 24½ years?

He has always been devoted to the youth of Charlestown and there are probably not many families in the town that haven't been affected by Jack.

Ironside Nautilus — A Great Place To Visit

To the Editor,

As more and more new businesses open in Charlestown, it seems important to let people know about them and encourage their patronage. I'd like your readers to know about Ironside Nautilus.

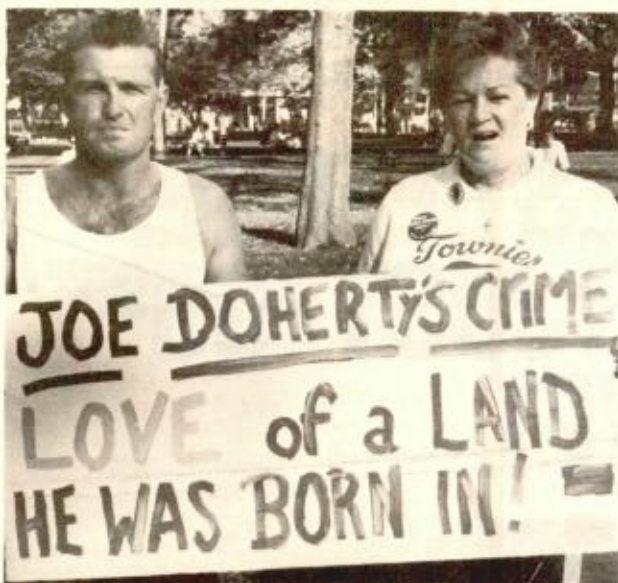

The facilities are great. The club has a complete array of the expected equipment and full weights. It's spacious, clean, and located in a really beautiful light-filled building behind Blossom's Cafe inside Gate 4 of the Navy Yard. The staff is excellent. Within days they know a new member's name and are helpful in responding to personal fitness needs. The aerobics classes are great and never overcrowded. And best of all, it's a very friendly place with regular people as members, not muscle-bound snobs.

I'd encourage stay-at-home mothers and seniors to check it out during the day. There's plenty of room for strollers, and the pace is right for someone just starting to get back in shape.

This probably sounds like a paid endorsement, but it's not. I just want to see our local businesses do well. And Ironside Nautilus deserves it.

Jules Pieri

At Rally For Joe Doherty

CHARLESTOWN RESIDENTS Robert Powers and Terry Ring were among those who gathered on Boston Common Saturday for a rally for Joe Doherty, an Irish political prisoner held in a New York jail for the past six and a half years without bail or charges. Powers read an original poem at the rally about the trials and tribulations of the Irish people coming to this country.

Beauty Is In The Eye Of The Beholder

If the road to hell is paved with good intentions, what did Massport pave under the bridge on Chelsea Street with? Hey, what the heck, this is part of a new beautification project that the old steel and asphalt authority is planning. Beauty is in the eye of the beholder, but really! Well, they laughed at van Gogh, too.

Looking at this piece of work objectively, Massport took a useless piece of property and turned it into a useless piece of paved property. Attila the Hun with a severe hangover could have designed something more pleasing to look at. And the cost, hold on to your ankles — $200,000. Talk about frivolous spending!

Fortunately, they are not through yet. There is more yet to come — 14 trees. The area is approximately 200,000 square feet, so, that's one tree for every 14,286 square feet. They must be very big trees!

It is high time that Massport owned up to its responsibility to our community and march with us not over us. Thirty years ago the Tobin Bridge took a big piece of two of our parks and, to date, Charlestown has not been compensated, and it is high time that we were.

Dan O'Neil

Is It True?

If it is true Jack is leaving the Kennedy Center, we should hear from some of the young adults he helped who are role models now. They should be asking the question as to why Jack Sheehan is leaving.

Matching Whys To Why Notes

In response to Sal Giarratani's letter in last week's Charlestown Patriot about why he endorses Robert Travaglini, I can match his whys to my why notes.

The main issue is not merely a geographic reason as to why Brian Callahan won the primary in Charlestown by a 3 to 1 margin over Travaglini. It was a case of issues and what Callahan believes in and is dedicated to. Native son Travaglini beat Brian by an 11 to 1 margin in East Boston. It's O.K. for East Boston to back the native son, but when Charlestown backs their choice, it is called favoritism.

Charlestown has always been the underdog. Therefore, Callahan has the incentive to fight not only for the people of Charlestown but for the Waterfront, North End and East Boston.

At the police community meeting held at the Kent School where Boston Police Commissioner Mickey Roache addressed our concerns, it was Callahan who was there voicing his concern to bring our police station back into our community.

It was Callahan who came to my door asking me for support with my vote. I haven't seen the incumbent personally.

Callahan has not yet been elected, but he has been there for us. Imagine what he can do when he is elected.

If Mr. Giarratani has to stress the fact that he does not back Travaglini because of his Italian descent may I quote, "Thou doth protest too much." Travaglini may have been there for you but he's never been there for me. I stood alone until Callahan entered the picture. I may now return the favor by casting my vote for Brian Callahan.

Very truly yours,
Dennis M. Isbart
