Central Artery Landscape Improvements To Be Discussed At Community Meeting

As the start of construction of the North Area/Central Artery highway reconstruction project draws near, details concerning tation of some of the project elements will be made at the upcoming community meeting on November 18.

serpentine pedestrian ramp leading to the Paul Revere Landing Park; addition of the stairs at the North Washington Street Bridge; the architecture of the tunnel ventilation buildings; and the types of trees to be planted, will be discussed at the next North Area community meeting. The meeting will be held on Tuesday, November 18 at 7:00 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 75 West School Street.

An update of outstanding issues in the project will also be given.

Although the major construction work in the City Square area, digging the tunnels and realigning the North Washington Street Bridge and Rutherford Avenue, will not begin until late 1987, plans for the area after the highway improvements must be established now, according to the consultants to the Massachusetts Department of Public Works.

Main Street Reconstruction Update

by Kathy Giordano

The reconstruction work is proceeding along Main Street with the placement of dense graded crushed stone on the roadway and sidewalks between Mishawum Street and Albion Place. Curbing will be placed along the sidewalks on the right hand side of the roadway on Main Street from the Sullivan Square area behind the Jersey barriers.

This work, along the right hand side of Main Street, is expected to be finished within one week, weather permitting. Upon completion, that stretch of the roadway will be opened to traffic and work will commence at Mishawum Street on the opposite side of Main Street. This change will affect the parking ban and residents are advised to watch for the 'no parking' sign changes. Cars will be towed if illegally parked.

THE EASY WAY TO HOUSEHUNT

If you've been househunting on your own, you've probably been relying on the classified ads or driving through your favorite neighborhoods in search of "For Sale" signs. A good Realtor can save you time and gasoline, making your search easy and efficient.

Agents learn about homes as they go on the market, and the best values may sell before they're ever advertised! Good agents often beat the sign installation crews to the scene! Since the agent has seen so many of the available homes, he will be able to rule out many of the ones that don't fit your tastes or needs, saving you the trouble of having to go through them. With the increased use of the Multiple Listing Service, an agent can show you listings of colleagues from other firms, as well as those listed by his own company. He can also give you any information you need about nearby public transportation, schools, shopping and recreational facilities.

The professionals at Century 21, Silva Realty Associates, are ready to serve all of your real estate needs. Please call us at 242-7470 or stop by our offices at 142 Main Street, Charlestown.

Five Hour Bridge Face-lift Scheduled For November 16th

Massport has announced that the upper deck of the Tobin Memorial Bridge will be closed for five hours on Sunday, November 16, 1986 from 7:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon while a section of the bridge's supporting structural steel is repaired.

As part of Massport's ongoing preventive maintenance program for the Tobin Bridge, repair steel is being installed on cross girders on a portion of the bridge on the upper level across from the Charlestown Navy Yard. The torquing of high strength bolts which fasten the new steel to the cross girders must be done without traffic on the bridge; therefore vehicles will be restricted from entering Boston via the Tobin Bridge from Route 1 south during the prescribed hours. One lane of traffic will also be closed on the lower level during the same time period.

Because the repair work requires a full closure on the upper level, Massport and its consulting engineers have developed an action plan to condense the work period into just five hours. Because work crews will be using large air impact wrenches run by air compressors, which are quite loud, Charlestown residents — who reside in neighborhoods close to the Tobin Bridge — will, unfortunately, experience an increase in noise during this particular repair procedure.

"Massport has worked closely with Boston Bridge and Iron and our Consulting Engineers A.G. Lichtenstein to minimize the inconvenience to both the traveling public and to the Tobin's neighbors," said Bridge Director Joseph Greene. "This repair work is absolutely necessary and we intend to complete the procedure as quickly and as efficiently as possible," Greene added.

The placement of closure signs and other traffic control devices will begin around 5:00 a.m. in one closed lane in preparation for the subsequent closure of all three lanes on the upper level. Commencing promptly at 7:00 a.m., the upper level will be closed to all traffic and work will begin immediately. The torquing process is required by contract to take no longer than four hours and an additional hour of closure has been scheduled to provide for a margin of safety; the upper deck will be reopened at 12:00 noon.

In case of inclement weather, the shutdown will be postponed to the following Sunday, November 23rd. This is the only closure required during this particular phase of structural repairs on the Tobin Bridge. A similar situation will occur next spring when work resumes on the lower deck.

Nine candidates were elected to the Bunker Hill Tenants Task Force Board of Directors held on November 3 and 4. The voter turnout was 333.

Re-elected to the Board were Mary MacInnes (240 votes), Monica Auch (145 votes), Nellie Gilgunn (143 votes), and Eileen Larson (90 votes). Also elected to the Board were Margaret O'Halloran (205 votes), Mary Fisher (137 votes), George Reeder (113 votes), Linda Alvarado Reid (91 votes), and Deborah Rushing (82 votes). All candidates were elected for two year terms.

The Task Force ballot also included three non-binding questions pertaining to Boston Housing Authority maintenance and management services, access to local health services, and potential uses for the lots beneath the Tobin Bridge. More detailed results will be published in a forthcoming Task Force newsletter.

The winner of a $25 Foodmaster gift certificate in the voter-eligible raffle was Peter Barry of Walford Way.

The Task Force Board of Directors is composed of 18 members, nine of whom are elected in even-numbered years and nine of whom are elected in odd-numbered years. New Task Force officers were elected at the November 12th Board meeting. Task Force Board meetings are open to all residents of the Bunker Hill Development and are customarily held at 6:00 p.m. on the first Tuesday of each month at the Task Force Office, 76 Monument Street.

Central Artery Landscape Improvements
To Be Discussed At Community Meeting

ed on the long-range planning issues involved with the disposition of the parcels that will be created after the highway ramps are removed and the roadways replaced in tunnels under City Square.

State officials from the Executive Office of Transportation and Construction and the Department of Public Works described the process for developing the six parcels that will be undertaken by the State and other agencies. These parcels represent over eight acres of land.

It was emphasized that the State will remain active in the process, but that the Boston Redevelopment Authority and other agencies should be involved and would likely make the decision on specific developers after development guidelines have been established. These specific guidelines will be created through a tripartite process involving the City, State, and the community, officials said.

City Square Aesthetics

In the meantime, before the six parcels of land are developed, the FHWA and the State will restore the streetscape of the City Square area.

"Streetscape," the landscape design that integrates the functional elements and amenities along urban streets, includes the street furniture, such as benches and trash receptacles, and types of planting and paving.

Consultants from CBT/Childs Bertman Tseckares & Casendino Inc., urban designers for Section 2, will describe how the City Square area will look after the highway and landscape improvements are done.

Loop Ramp Landscaping

The loop ramp area, Section 1 of the project area, located near the Boston Sand & Gravel, west of Rutherford Avenue, will be landscaped after the new ramps are built. Landscape architects from Wallace, Floyd Associates will present the latest plans for the area and will describe the goals of the landscaping in that area.

This is the last scheduled meeting of the year. Members of the community are encouraged to attend this meeting as construction draws near.

THE ABOVE PLAN shows some of the proposed landscape improvements for the City Square area. These and other streetscape elements will be discussed at the November 18th North Area/Central Artery community meeting at 7:00 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Basic City Services: What Do We Need That We Aren't Getting?

The Charlestown Neighborhood Council is asking for your input:

What basic City services should we be receiving in Charlestown that we aren't?

Yes, the Neighborhood Council wants to know, the Mayor wants to know, and he wants his Department Heads to know.

The Neighborhood Council is conducting this survey as part of their effort to catalog needs and identify priorities for the delivery of basic City services in Charlestown. What you tell the Council will be included in what the Council tells the Mayor and those he's placed in charge of delivering these basic City services.

And to let everyone know how well the process is working, the Council will present a report card from time to time to the Mayor and to the Charlestown community.

So don't hold back. Complete the survey below (additional notes and details would help greatly) and mail it to:

27 kids who will go far without ever leaving Boston.

The Boston Globe Foundation's new college scholarship program. This year we're giving 27 Boston public high school students full four-year scholarships to the University of Massachusetts/Boston. In fact, in the past four years The Boston Globe Foundation has distributed more than $6.8 million through 1,600 grants for community and educational programs.

The recipients of this year's scholarship are all students who worked hard all through high school—students who deserve the chance to keep on working hard and further their education.

All 27 were nominated by the principals or headmasters of their schools. We asked for nominees from each school. Only Boston's 17 public schools were eligible. And there's a reason for that. We want people to believe, as we do, that Boston's public school system is alive and well.

The Boston Globe Foundation

That's also why we're sending these kids to UMass/Boston, one of the finest public urban universities in the country. In fact, Time Magazine recently chose it as one of the country's nine "nifty" colleges, public or private.

For more information on The Boston Globe Foundation scholarship program, see your high school principal.

Annual Halloween Party Benefits Charlestown Boys And Girls Club

by Jocelyn Heye

The annual Charlestown Boys and Girls Club Costume Party Fundraiser was held on Saturday evening, November 1st. The special "treat" this year was the party's lovely location at the newly renovated Building 149 in the Charlestown Navy Yard.

In the multi-tiered atmosphere of the inner Atrium, colorfully costumed attendees danced to the record selections of the Polyvinyls, a local, light, and lively group of ladies, attired in shimmering silver space age dress, who played solid beat selections all evening.

Among the guests was the Mayor of Waterford, Ireland.

Also, included at this benefit was a raffle — the main prize being a bright red canoe, donated by Coca-Cola, which was won by Dan Polvere. Other raffle winners included: Dennis Borden, S. Brown, John Dillon, Bill Galvin and Dick Higgins.

In addition, the winners of the costume contest were: first place - Sofia Ivanoff as a jewel bespeckled old lady; second place - Don McGuire as a tremendous tennis player; and third - Karen Foley as a gorgeous green-faced witch.

The hot coffee and delicate petit-fours were a delicious, colorful closure to an evening finely facilitated at the bar by the Jolly Green Giant and his assistant.

A big thank you to all who helped, to all who attended this annual benefit — which helps support the Clubhouse's numerous activities for over twelve hundred boys and girls locally in educational, physical, and social development.

Christmas Baskets will be delivered to approximately 150 elderly Charlestown residents just in time for Christmas. These elderly to be remembered are 60 years or older, needy, shut-ins that have little or no family contact. Winner of Broadway's 1985 Tony Award for Best Play, "Biloxi Blues" is the second chapter in the autobiographical trilogy by Neil Simon. First Church In Charlestown Joins In Celebration Of The 350th Birthday Of Harvard University

by Rebecca Nevers

Three hundred fifty years ago, in 1636, the Massachusetts state legislature voted to provide 400 pounds, or $800 to establish a college that would later become Harvard University.

On Tuesday, October 28th, Harvard students and members and clergy and parishioners of the First Church in Charlestown gathered to commemorate that vote by exchanging praise and gifts in front of John Harvard's monument in the Phipps Street Cemetery.

"Three hundred fifty years ago Harvard College was established," said Minister Victor Ford. "It is the technical birthday of the college."

John Harvard died in 1638 and left money and books for the college, Ford said. The college was then moved from Newton to newly-established Cambridge and renamed after Harvard.

The university has been celebrating its birthday since July. The church members participated in the celebration because John Harvard was the third minister of the church, Ford said.

Although Harvard is buried on Town Hill, his monument was erected in the cemetery because later ministers from the church were buried there, Ford noted.

The monument was erected in 1828 by Harvard graduates, he added. That effort was led by Edward Everett, who later became president of the college and governor of the state.

The students attending the ceremony, members of the Harvard 350th Birthday steering committee, presented Norman Shaw, a member of the church's Diaconate Board, then presented the students with plaques depicting the church.

"We appreciate the fact that you came here today to help celebrate," Shaw told the students.

A wreath was placed on the monument by the students.

Ford said church members have been placing a wreath on Harvard's monument since 1982, when the church celebrated its 350th Birthday.

Drug Testing — Everyone's Business

I am sick and tired of the "Drug Testing: Whose Business Is It?" attitude. I say it's everyone's business. We are all involved.

When someone we know, someone we love, or someone we work with is abusing drugs — it is our business to know.

Are we so "hung up" on a person's right to privacy that we allow ourselves to overlook the devastating effects a drug-addicted human can inflict on himself, family, friends and work associates? I say a person who addicts himself to drugs relinquishes his own right to privacy.

When are we going to wake up and deal with this problem?

I say if drug testing can help single them out — then on with it!

It's time our drug addicts came "out of the closet." The time has come to spend money on this preservation of human life.

Privacy should not be the issue at all. Love, support and professional assistance should be the only factors involved. The misuse of drugs would never have reached such overwhelming tolls if people in time past had made it their business.

If drug testing could help save even one human being, I say that privacy is a mere price to pay.

The next time you are asked if Drug Testing should be mandatory, I pray for human sake your answer is — YES.

(This opinion comes to you from the wife of a highly respected, well-loved, wonderful father of two children recently released from a hospital that treats alcoholism and drug abuse.)

More than 300 interior design students of 17 colleges in the Northeast, including 92 from Chamberlayne Junior College in Boston, attended Career Day 1986 held at the new Boston Design Center.

Amy Carole Englehardt of 5409 Eighth Street, and Jacquelin Whelan of 84 Washington Street, both of Charlestown, attended.

Titled "A Day with the Pros," the annual event was sponsored by the American Society of Interior Designers (ASID) and National Home Fashions League (NHFL).

The keynote speaker was Beverly Russell, editor of "Interiors" magazine.

The annual career day provides students with a better understanding of the vast and complex field of interior design.

Tours of the new Center and a variety of workshops were scheduled during the day.

At the luncheon, the students were seated with professional designers at each table.

With the Esso Bayonne approaching its destination this past weekend, a couples of "Townies" were taking their daily constitutional. Whether Jackson McGrath was investigating a future site for the Half Ball Championship or enjoying the hub bub of development, one never knows. At any rate, it was nice to see an old friend.

Walking the piers and adjoining area was Bob Quinn and his constant companion. Erin appeared satisfied, but the four-legged pal was trailing his master. I am sure, with a little road work, Erin will be in top condition.

Recently, Paul DiNatale, spokesman for the Massachusetts Water Resources Authority, gave the following information to the Boston Globe regarding progress. The Authority is spending $60 million to upgrade the present sewage treatment plant on Deer Island. Groundbreaking for a new primary treatment facility is scheduled for 1990 with completion in 1994. Groundbreaking for a secondary treatment plant is scheduled for 1995, with 1999 as the target for completion. Additionally, DiNatale stated that the Authority is governed by an 11 member board of unpaid directors. The composition of the board is made up of three appointments by the Governor, three by the Mayor of Boston, one from Quincy and one from Winthrop. Three remaining members are appointed by the advisory board.

Preparation stages are approaching reality for the first financial center on First Avenue. Shortly to become a tenant in Building 34, the Parrish Building, is Bank of Boston. Bank of Boston will satisfy a need for personal and business transactions. Within its office, a paramount feature will be its Automatic Teller Machines. Automatic Teller Machines have revolutionized the banking industry over the past five years. Efficient, streamlined and around-the-clock availability has made the service ubiquitous. Whether you will need a check cashed, or information on new or existing accounts, come on down to Bank of Boston and accomplish your business without the downtown journey headache. To Chairman Brown and his organization, welcome to Charlestown!

Bunker Hill Council 62, Knights of Columbus Past Grand Knight, Tom Cunha, was visiting the Yard recently. He inquired about a good deli, similar to the one that stood on the corner of Pleasant and Main Streets for many years — an institution for many a "Townie." Snappers was a unique store, offering basic and wholesome food at a reasonable price. Where else could you get its scrumptious cold cuts? I advised Tom to entertain a local restaurant; and he thanked me to the tip. Shortly, Tom surfaced at Second Avenue with a quizzical countenance. "How was it?" I asked. "What was it?" was Tom's reply. "For $35 American, I had a lunch which was exotic to me," he said. I told him, "Tom, you have experienced Yuppie gourmet dining."

At this point, Tom was desirous of purchasing one of his famous large imported cigars. "Where can I purchase same?" he entoned. "How about David Ehrlich and Company at 32 Tremont Street, Boston," I suggested. "I support local merchants," he stated, "besides, I would have to use my T-pass — no way." I recommended that he go to the best Tobacconist we have, James Duffy, at 500 Main Street, Charlestown, who has been serving and supporting the community for years. Tom took my suggestion, returned his T-Pass to his wallet, and steamed off to Duffy's for a treat. Turning back, he shouted, "Is that near Sullivan Square?" "Right by the Neck, Tom, right by the Neck."

Hollywood has arrived at our cherished community. Channel 7 was on location adjacent to USS Constitution shooting "Entertainment Tonight." Much excitement was generated by the presence of glamorous Mary Hart and handsome John Tisch. I didn't observe any talent scouts, but I am sure no one went away unhappy.

Swim Team News

The Charlestown Boys and Girls Club/Community Schools Swim Team is well on their way to what looks like a very successful season.

The "Townies" started their 1986/87 season against two of the toughest teams in the league, Southie and Waltham. Both meets proved to be highly competitive and evenly matched. After losing the first two meets, the "Townies" showed their determination and positive attitude by bouncing back and beating Arlington in the third meet, 131-117. Age group results were:

	Charlestown	Arlington
8 and Unders:	22	14
10 and Unders:	11	57
12 and Unders:	48	20
17 and Unders:	50	26
Total:	131	117

The 8 and Under age group is the major strength of the team which means Charlestown definitely has a swimming future. The 12 and Under age group contains 38 of the 62 swimmers. The 17 and Under age group is small in quantity but awesome in quality. The team has an unbelievable potential factor that could be devastating to future opponents.

The "Townies" are a good team with good kids that work hard. Sacrifices are starting to pay off and progress is being made.

The next meet is at the Charlestown High School pool on Medford Street on Thursday, November 13th at 5:30 p.m. Come see an amazing group of athletes.

Chicopee Stars Avoid Shutout By The C-Town O'Neil Junior 'A' Club

by Bernie "Scoop" Kelly

The Matt O'Neil Junior "A" Club showed too much speed and power for the visiting Chicopee Stars at the Emmons-Horrigan-O'Neil Rink on Wednesday evening, as they coasted to an 11-1 victory! This was another show of the tremendous talent that propels this club of well matched players from Boston and the surrounding suburbs.

They continue to impress their opponents and their coaches as they face some of the best Junior "A" talent around, and they beat them impressively and with great fervor each time.

The O'Neil Club reflects good discipline while on the ice and their coaches, Tibbetts and Kelly, constantly encourage them and guide them before emotions carry them beyond logic and into trouble. Every championship team got to the top because of their leaders, not in spite of them and I believe this O'Neil Club is championship caliber.

Some of the top scorers on the O'Neil Club are Mike Messier and Brad Jenkins, as they compliment each other with such fine playmaking (give and go) that Brad Jenkins had the "Hat Trick" and Mike Messier had the assists on all three goals.

Other scorers are Brian Twoomey and Chip Bradbury, who contributed two goals apiece, and Dennis McCarthy, who had two goals and one assist to help.

C-Town's own Richie Griffin had a goal, along with John Campbell's goal at 12:41 of the third period.

The only goal by the Chicopee Stars came off the stick of Mike Phillips, who happens to be the son of Chicopee Coach, Bill Phillips.

Crusaders Top Terriers 8 - 4 Huskies Tie Eagles 11 - 11

by Bernie "Scoop" Kelly

"HUN"-SKIES FIZZLE, BUT RECOVER TO TIE EAGLES 11 to 11!

"Too close to call," that's what the hockey buffs Leo Byrnes (Mike and Gerry's Dad), and George Locke (Darryl's Dad), were saying from behind the glass as the first game of the evening double-header between the hustling "Hun"-skies and the soaring "Eaglets" was about to get underway!

Jackie "P.O." Woods was acting head referee in the absence of Eddie "Slammer" Lynch, who was on fire watch, and Mr. "A.H.A." himself, Steve "Pistol Pete" Sullivan, were ready to call the off-sides in what was about to be the scoring contest of the year!

The odds-makers were slow to call a winner on this contest! Both teams came to battle and all the heavy brass was present on both teams.

N.B.C. Sports (TV) has "Jimmy the Greek," the football handicapper — we have John "Softie" McNamara, world traveler, sportsman, softball extemporaneous, who gets his tips from an aging candidate for the hall of fame, who sometimes answers to the alias "Max Smart", who taxis in from Malden to C-Town on Monday nights, reeking from the smell of Ben-Gay and carrying extra ace bandages. McNamara refused to be quoted on who would win, took the fifth, and said, "No Comment!" That's not like "Softie," who usually calls them as he sees them, but taking the fifth . . . Hmm . . . I never knew he drank . . . Hmm . . . Yea . . . he is getting old, and chasing young girls!

Steve "Pistol Pete" Sullivan dropped the puck at 8:05 p.m. and the gladiators began the contest.

The Huskies struck for four fast goals in the first period and it looked like a repeat of the pasting they gave the Terriers the week before, but the Eagles were not about to take it sitting down, and before the period ended, Darryl Locke and Jackie Sullivan combined and alternated with two goals and two assists each, and along with Paul Wrenn, Richie Doherty (Hunso), Chris Thornton with one goal each, took the lead 7-5 as the period ended!

Darryl Locke continued his scoring spree with two more goals, and with Jackie Sullivan on both assists at 10:20, made it 9-5 Eagles!

D.J. Harrington, alias "The Comet," had two goals in the first period and had three shots off the post for what should have been a typical high scoring night for him, but goalie John Gray turned aside 38 shots for a very hot night in nets! That had to be the best performance of John Gray's career, as he was peppered with three or four shots at a time and each shot labeled in frustration by the older, aging Huskies! J. Gray 1987, M.V.P.????

Bill Kelly, John Sodergren and Joe Burton all had two goals each for the Huskies!

Mr. "X", Pudgy, Tim O'ld Boy, still gloating over his easy conquest of cheap "limp wrist shot" open net goals last week against the Terriers, continued his easy/cheap streak as he assisted on two goals, to pick up two more cheap points to keep his name on the top ten scorers list! Shame on you, Pudgy! By the way, the Rink Manager, George Lahage asked if your older group would clean up the "Geritol" bottles when you leave the locker room after your games. Hope the younger players don't get hooked on "Geritol" . . . State rests it's case!!!

The aging dinosaur, Max Hart, or Richard Smart, I always get them names mixed up, who had one goal and two assists for three points, is having a slow start this year . . . maybe the eyes are fading . . . but usually the legs go first. Tim, better get two bottles of "Geritol" next game!

Huskie Goalie Tom Bryson also had 38 saves for the evening, and played one whale of a game, despite the score. A goalie is only as good, they say, as the team in front of him, or his last chance to take group pictures at a wedding . . . sound familiar, Tommy . . . say Cheese!!!

Final score — Huskies 11, Eagles 11 . . . Tie!!

CRUSADERS' ARMOR STYMIES TERRIERS 8-4

It looks like the Terriers will have to call in the "Canadian Connection," "Softie" (Sinden) McNamara for some "free agent" players to fill their roster if they expect to regain their 1985-86 status as "League Champions" for the 1986-87 season.

"Softie" has been alleged to have loaded softball rosters with players he claimed were "Townies," but spoke with foreign accents, so he could be just what the Terriers need to get them back on the right track . . . as champions!

Their roster now looks like the "Ancient and Honorable Past Retirees," or "Hall of Fame" (Past or Forgotten)!

Paul Wilkins (Class of '78) Northeastern University, one of the Over the Hill gang; Chipper Godding (Class of '79), who still wears Bauer Skates and plays with a KoHo Stick, which tells you how long ago he played; Steve Smith (Class of '78) Bosco, who still uses a hook to lace his skates . . . shows it's only the "tip of the iceberg," as you go through their roster of names before you come to some players of the 1980's. Boy, do they need Softie!

The Crusaders added young Dan Considine to their roster, which should give them some offensive punch and help replace the missing "Awesome Line" of M. Anthony, M. Mahoney, and S. Geezil, which unfortunately returns only Scott Geezil to the Crusaders, this year.

Dan Considine, Scott Geezil, and Paul Cotter are seen by former Crusader Captain, Eddie Kelly, "as the scoring punch, if we are to become contenders."

Pat Cotter (Class of '81) Matignon, will be a great replacement for Mike Anthony as Pat plays a hustling game and can put the numbers on the board once he gets his legs back! Should his brother, Billy, get in the mood to play, Crusader stock would go sky high, making them contenders for the Man-ly Cup this year! By the way, Bill, your old Boston University Number 8 is still available!

Scott Geezil got the "Hat Trick" plus one assist for the evening; Mike Yandle, starting to find the mark, had one goal and two assists; and Chris Connolly had one goal and two assists! Eddie Kelly, who has been the playmaker, is now getting in on the top ten scorers with one goal and one assist, and finally Pat Cotter got his second wind and found the upper corner for one goal to finish off the Crusader scoring.

TERRIER SCORING

The Terriers are still getting some of the kinks out of their offense, but there is still some spark in those former greats who still know how to score!

Chip Godding had two goals and one assist for a great comeback after eight years off the ice. Paul Wilkins had one goal and one assist after coming off the injured list. Paul McNelley continues to help the Terrier cause, along with Joe Fleming, who picked up an assist in the losing cause.

Charlestown Youth Hockey News

The Charlestown Youth Hockey Association House Program started this past Sunday evening. It was the first time in many years that youngsters in Youth Hockey have played in front of such a large audience. Parents, grandparents and friends were treated to two good hockey games.

The House Program consists of five teams and all the results will be posted in the Patriot each week. Each team will be given a name this week, but for present the results were as follows:

GAME ONE

Team 3 - 5
Team 1 - 3

GAME TWO

Team 2 - 4
Team 4 - 2

Team 5 had a bye

If you have time, come down to the Rink on Sunday evenings between 6:00 and 8:00 p.m. and watch some good hockey being played by kids five years old to 13 years old — it will bring back memories!

There are still openings on the Squirt and Pee Wee levels.

There is going to be a benefit hockey game between the Matt O'Neil Club and the Senior League All-Stars with all proceeds going to Charlestown Youth Hockey. Look for details in the next issue of the Charlestown Patriot.

A special note of thanks to all who have been spending their free time to help our kids. This is the most help C.Y.H.A. has received in a number of years and it is not going unnoticed by both parents and kids.

The "Help Wanted" Column

by Charlie McGonagle

Not many of us know, early on, where our paths may lead, but for most it is an adventurous trek which takes us from place to place, from experience to experience, and from job to job.

Perhaps we take a small piece of each place, experience, and job, mold it all together, and decide upon our life's work — perhaps not. Think about your own job experiences, and decide for yourself. My own portfolio might run through the following highways and byways.

I think the first time I was ever paid for services rendered was back in the late forties when I would take my place in a long line of red wagons in front of the First National Store on Bunker Hill Street awaiting my turn to "carry bundles." Most families did not own a car in those days, and grocery shopping was done at the neighborhood "Firsty" or A & P. In retrospect, it seems the line of "Bundle Carriers" was always quite orderly, and when you moved to the front of the line, the next customer would be yours. Bundles of groceries would now grace your wagon, and for five, ten, and on rare occasions fifteen cents, you would tote the packages to your customer's home. Why did they always seem to live on the third floor? Upon returning to the "Firsty," you would take your place at the rear of the line, and once again await your turn.

At the Boys Club, I worked the coat room and the game room for twenty cents an hour, and on snowy days there were always sidewalks to be shoveled. Once, when in high school, a March snow storm closed the schools for a few days, and even cancelled the Saint Patrick's Day Parade in South Boston. The M.B.T.A., then known as the M.T.A., hired shovelers to keep the tracks clean.

I left early one day on my assignment. The agreed upon salary was seventy-five cents per hour, and because of the severity of the storm, we worked through the entire night. I can never remember being more tired than I was the next day.

A week or so later, the checks came in. Mine was for twenty-two dollars. I cashed the check and came running home to display my newfound wealth. Ma was very happy for me, so happy, in fact, that she took twenty and gave me two. "You'll appreciate this later in life," she said. Ma, it is now later in life! I do! I think!

We spent our summers in Wilmington, at my Uncle's camp. It was here where I held two of my all time favorite jobs. The first was weeding gardens for thirty-five cents per hour. The farmer would pick a group of us up in his truck and drive us out to his place. Beds of flowers seemed to stretch forever. They were just sprouts, actually, and the weeds were growing wildly among them. Our job was to pluck the weeds by pinching them between the thumb and forefinger and pulling them from the dark, rich soil.

Starting from the far end of my assigned bed, I began plucking away. Not until I had cleaned a good ten feet of the bed did the farmer notice that I had been pulling the flowers and leaving the weeds. I was quickly moved to the squash field, where the weeds were much bigger and easier to identify. They were also much more difficult to pull.

My other country job was a barn on the top of what we called Pop's Hill. The barn's owner kept cows. I really don't know if he kept them for their milk, but I can attest to the fact that he kept them for the fertilizer they could provide.

Each stall had a trap door. To clean the stall, the trap was opened, and all things, big and small were swept into the hole. Below was where the real work began.

After many days of sweeping things through the trap door, "fertilizer" would begin to fill the lower bins. Trucks would back up to the window to be filled, and for fifty cents per hour, we would do the filling. Our uniforms consisted of rubber hip boots and gloves. We were paid in cash at the end of the day, and would often go to the drug store across from Tattersall's to sip a Coke or a milk shake. We always drank alone!

There were many more stops along the way. Delivering stationery for a Congress Street firm at one dollar per hour. I was let go after asking for a raise. I had been there for ten months before making the request.

There was a brief stint as a Clubhouse Boy at Fenway Park where the hours and hard work soon outweighed the glamour of rubbing shoulders with the likes of Rocky Colavito, Roger Maris, Vic Wertz, Eddie Stanky, and other visiting players, and walking in the same room with Ted Williams, Jimmy Piersall, Frank Malzone, and so many more.

There were many summers of being a lifeguard, and winters of coaching one hundred pound basketball teams at the Boys Club. There were short stops as a bookkeeper and accountant at candy companies, college cafeterias, and a real estate outfit. There was a summer of handling expensive china for an importing firm and chasing coffee each morning and afternoon for the other workers.

And there was the fifty cent piece my Grandmother used to give me for fetching her Friday afternoon groceries from Pop's on Main Street, and other items from Jim Lalley's on Russell Street.

There were many happy and rewarding moments as a Swimming and Junior Varsity Baseball Coach.

I suppose if I dug deeper, I might find more. My hope is that each experience has allowed me to take something of value and put it to good use.

For example, it's a damn good thing I knew how to swim when I was knee deep in "fertilizer" at that old barn on Pop's Hill.

November 13, 1986. While many stores carry some fitness clothes suitable for aerobics, The Boston Look Company is the first to specialize in this area.

"While aerobic exercise is a nationwide sensation, aerobic fashions are a national disgrace. 'The Boston Look' will change all that," says company founder and President, Sheila Clark-Estridge. David O'Daniel, Boston store manager and purchaser adds, "Just look around any aerobics class and you'll see rolling waves of rag-tag duds, classy bodies in classless clothes. Nothing ever matches. The Boston Look Company will swathe the supple body in stretchy sensuality."

The Boston Look Company features matching or coordinated high fashion aerobics-ware, such as leotards, unitards, tops, leg warmers, shoes, aerobic weights, and many more accessories. "It's the way you dress for any occasion, why should exercise be any different?" says O'Daniel.

One of the most sparkling features of the salon is the use of in-store models dressed in the "Boston Look" of dazzling fashions. A battery of color t.v. monitors will beam their workouts all over the salon. "Customers will be able to see first-hand, just how glamorous exercise can be," adds Clark-Estridge.

The Boston born marketing veteran got the idea for the Boston Look Company while at a California aerobics class. "Everyone looked so beautiful," recalls Clark-Estridge, "and then I realized why, they were dressed beautifully!" The company president is a firm devotee of aerobics, who lost more than 90 pounds in a year, largely due to exercise.

The Boston Look Company is located at Faneuil Hall Marketplace, North Building, second floor.

ment of Revenue shortly.

Upon State certification, and in conjunction with the acceptance of classification and the residential exemption by the City Council, the City will then issue the first half Fiscal 1987 Property Tax Bills.

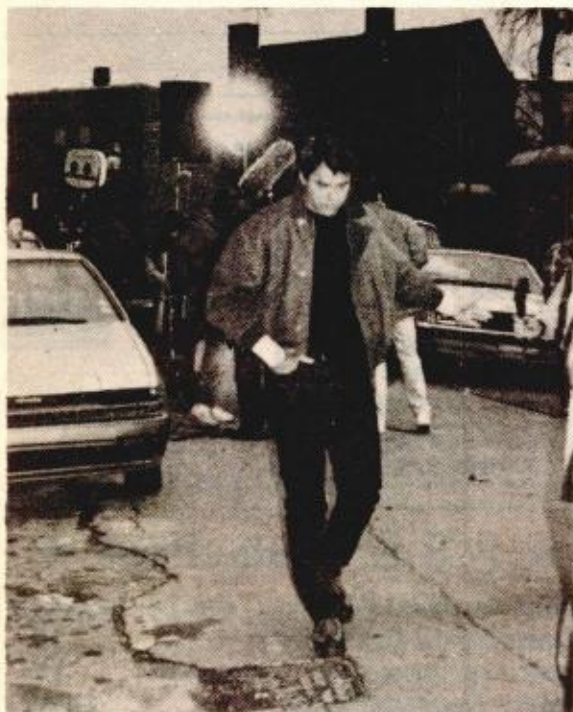

Assessing Commissioner William Coughlin indicates, "Boston property owners should expect the Fiscal 1987 tax bill to be issued during the second half of November."

Not For Nothin' . . . But Did You Hear That . . .

• "Spenser: For Hire" spent a few days in Charlestown this past week filming what appears to be its Christmas episode. Harvard and Main Streets were beautifully decorated, complete with wreaths, garlands and lights. Houses along Harvard Street were decked with ornaments and store fronts along Main Street were lit in like fashion.

ROBERT URICH, star of the "Spenser: For Hire" series, completes a scene from a Christmas episode in the area of the Harvard Mall.

- Robert Ulrich and Avery Brooks, stars of "Spenser," were most congenial in giving out autographs to Charlestown's youngsters. One 12 year old girl was embarrassed when Ulrich spotted a "Miami Vice" button on her jacket!
- And speaking about "Spenser," Charlestown resident Pat Johnson made her encore appearance in the above mentioned series. She will be seen in scenes shot this past week in the Warren Tavern. A little warmer locale than last year's episode — weren't you out in a boat in the freezing cold, Pat!?
- We all know that Charlestown residents have a history for being politically active and demand to know the candidates and issues, but don't you think it's about time that those political signs seen around town were taken down?
- The Coffee Shop at One Thompson Square has some of the best homemade soup in town.
- Lorraine Connolly of The Coffee Shop just celebrated her 39th birthday (again?! Happy Birthday, Lorraine!
- The best fried fish dinners can be found at Christy's Place on Main Street!
- The brief snow storm we had this past Tuesday made some youngsters very happy. They could be seen coasting down the "slopes" of the Monument!
- We've heard complaints . . . By a City Ordinance, trash should not be put out for pickup before 5:00 p.m. on the evening before the scheduled pick up. Some new residents either don't know this or don't care to abide by this law! So far, your neighbors have been patient with you . . . they are getting impatient, however. Heed the warning, a steep fine can be levied on your household for non compliance!
- An unexpected gift was delivered to First Avenue in the Charlestown Navy Yard on Wednesday. A bath tub was left in the middle of the Avenue in response to an announcement made by the Massachusetts Water Resource Authority. At least the tub was sans occupant!

GSX Corporation of Greater Boston has recently relocated their maintenance facility from South Boston to 66 Cambridge Street, Charlestown. GSX is a complete solid waste handling system for industrial, institutional, commercial and residential waste removal.

Division Manager Robert George, stated that no storage of rubbish will take place at the Charlestown facility. "It is strictly a maintenance facility for the repair of our trucks and container works," he stated. "GSX is concerned about the people we're neighbors to, and has a record of great concern about the environment," he said.

George further stated that "GSX has an open door policy" and invites anyone interested in visiting their facility to "come on down!"

Or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece,
If so, we saw it there.

Just thought of us that day.

Little Brothers To Celebrate Thanksgiving With The Elderly

The Little Brothers — Friends of the Elderly will once again provide meals and companionship to over 300 isolated elderly people in the Greater Boston area this Thanksgiving. Volunteers for the Little Brothers Holiday Visiting Program, now in its seventh year, will bring turkey dinners to the homes of elderly people who would otherwise spend the holiday alone.

"For many, Thanksgiving is a time for enjoying the company of family and friends. For the isolated elderly, however, it can be a time of loneliness," remarked Bob Marshall, Executive Director of the Boston House of the Little Brothers. "The volunteers for our Holiday Visiting Program ease this loneliness by visiting these people and sharing holiday food and cheer." Marshall added that Little Brothers also has similar holiday visiting programs on Christmas and Easter.

Food for the holiday programs is donated by individuals, fraternal organizations, schools, and corporations and is prepared and packaged by Little Brothers volunteers. On Thanksgiving morning from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. volunteers will pick up the dinners at the Little Brothers office at 530 Columbus Avenue and are given directions to the homes they are to visit.

"Volunteering a few hours during the holidays is a wonderful way to give a part of yourself," Marshall continued. "Many of our holiday volunteers enjoy the visits so much they make it part of their holiday tradition."

Anyone wishing to serve as a Holiday Visiting Volunteer can contact the Little Brothers at 536-2404.

Our early-October column ("A Hot Item in Washington, D.C."), which questioned the possibility of the Smithsonian Institution's display of a radioactively "hot" fighter plane at its National Air and Space Museum, stirred much reader interest — judging from the amount of mail received — and voluminous reports (with an abundance of photos) from the offices of Massachusetts' Representative Brian Donnelly, Senator Alan Cranston of California, Lieutenant Colonel (Retired) Boley H. Caldwell (newly elected National President of the National Association of Atomic Veterans - NAAV), and the Smithsonian itself.

The aircraft involved is a Grumman F6F-3K Hellcat (Navy Aircraft Fighter), BuNo. 41834, which was used as an unmanned drone for atomic testing purposes (OPERATION CROSSROADS, 1946), and subsequently flown by a succession of Navy pilots in the normal performance of their assigned duties. The Hellcats were originally assigned to the Pacific Fleet in January 1943, replacing the Wildcats on Navy carriers, and became the standard fighter for the remainder of the Pacific War. Although supplemented by the harder-hitting Corsairs, U.S. Navy and Marine Pilots of the Hellcats are, nonetheless, credited with destroying "5,155" enemy aircraft ... so it is most fitting that one of their number should be on display at the Smithsonian's facility.

"41834" joined the fleet in February 1944 with its initial assignment to NAS, San Diego, and was subsequently placed in the USS Hornet for duty. Duty at NAS, Kaneohe, Hawaii, followed but was short-lived due to a wheels-up landing necessitating major repairs. Tours at Norfolk, Virginia and Johnsville, Pennsylvania preceded her redesignation as a drone in 1945, and its mission was changed to

In This Corner

"Operation Crossroads for the atomic bomb tests at Bikini ... designed to obtain precise data on the effects of atomic explosions." For these purposes, she was painted red, with a shocking pink tail carrying the number "14" ... and the rest is history.

The story, as regards concern from many quarters about the possibility of her contamination, has a happy ending. Radiological surveys conducted by an appropriate group from the Department of Energy in May 1982, and again in May of this year (at the request of NAAV), concluded that "the only continuing source of radiation in the aircraft is the luminous dial material in the cockpit," and all involved are now on record as in agreement that "it poses no threat to the general public."

The removal of mechanical motors and other equipment located near intake valves, several sandblastings of the skin of the aircraft, and many repaintings, added immeasurably in its decontamination, according to portions of the reports provided. All that being so, however, we're still left with one nagging question ... Why isn't the general public informed of the meaningful and illustrious history of this particular aircraft, assured of its safety from a radiological standpoint, and given the knowledge of the names of the many pilots involved in its piloting both as a drone and regular aircraft of the U.S. Navy — in the form of a permanently affixed plaque?

TAKE HEED

At the request of Surgeon General C. Everett Koop, M.D., we join others in again advising the public of the inherent dangers to young children, and those well into their teens, of Reye Syndrome ... a life-threatening disease which often strikes recovering victims of flu or chickenpox. Symptoms include violent headache, persistent vomiting, lethargy and sleepiness, belligerence, disorientation and delirium, and the immediate counsel of a doctor or other emergency medical personnel should be sought whenever they are evidenced.

Causes are unknown, but studies suggest there is a link between the use of aspirin in treating flu and chickenpox and the Syndrome. A physician should be consulted before administering medicine to children; most especially those in these circumstances.

And teenagers reading this vignette are entitled to now hear - and remember - one adult's past words of medical wisdom ... "He who treats himself has a fool for a Doctor!"

Thank You — The Sign Is Gone

I would like to thank the Staff of the Charlestown Patriot, especially Cookie Giordano, for all the time and effort she contributed to help resolve the confusion with regard to the removal of the 'One Way' sign at the top of Salem Street at High Street.

Thanks for a job well done.
