THINKING ABOUT SELLING YOUR HOME?

RISING INTEREST RATES MEAN YOU SHOULD LIST NOW

When mortgage rates go up, there is a short flurry of buying. Then sales eventually slow down.

This, plus the current spring market makes now the best time for this year to list your home.

$4 Million Secured For Establishment Of Park At City Square

by Kathy Giordano

At an award ceremony held last Monday morning in City Square, Representative Richard A. Voke, Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, announced his success in obtaining a $4 million grant for the construction of a park in Charlestown's City Square as part of recently enacted legislation.

"Some time ago, I made a commitment to a group of community advocates involved in the North Area Task Force to join them in their efforts to return City Square to the majestic significance it once held," Voke stated. "The potential lack of funding for a park somewhat clouded our visions for the future of this square," he continued, "but with the persistence of the Task Force, we have been able to secure the money which will make our dreams for the betterment of City Square become a reality." The process of construc-

Kenney Development Company — "A Good Neighbor"

by Kathy Giordano

When the Boston Redevelopment Authority (BRA) approached Bob Kenney, president of the Kenney Development Company and former Director of the BRA, to contribute to the Charlestown Headstart Program Fire Fund, a check for $1,000 was sent right out. But after hearing more about the overwhelming problems and total devastation that the December blaze caused to the program's building in Hayes Square, Kenney decided that his company could and would do a lot more to help set the school back on its feet.

A call was made to Kate McDonough, executive director of the John F. Kennedy Family Service Center, and an offer of the services and experience of Kenney Development Company was made to oversee the total reconstruction of the burnt out building that once housed and provided care for over 160 children on a daily basis. The BRA supplied a $20,000 grant for architect David Kelly of The Architectural Team (TAT) to design the renovations that would be needed, and the coordination of the development began.

Macomber Construction Company was hired as the general contractor and labor unions were contacted for carpenters, plumbers, painters and electricians. Local trades people have expressed their desire to donate their time and expertise to the reconstruction project.

The total cost to refurbish the building is estimated at a whopping $1,011,000 which will include demolition of burnt out floors, asbestos removal, masonry work, plumbing, electrical work and, in some areas, total reconstruction of windows, floors, doors, the roof, plus other needed work. The total contribution that will be donated by the Kenney Development Company will amount to approximately $80,000 when the reconstruction is completed.

The Kenney Development Company is currently developing four historic buildings in the Charlestown Navy Yard. Their experience in historic restoration comes from their work in and around the metropolitan Boston area that has included work on buildings listed on the National Register of Historic Buildings. They have worked closely with the National Park Service and various preservation societies at each site.

They are the developer of Buildings 33, 34, 38 and 39, between First and Third Avenues, in the Navy Yard. Buildings 33 and 34 are completed and house the offices of the Massachusetts Water Resources Authority, the Boston Redevelopment Authority and National Life of Vermont as their major tenants and lease space to the Constitution Commissary, Blossoms Cafe, the Bank of Boston and Boston Waterfront Realty.

Building 39 will be ready for occupancy by mid-summer to accommodate both commercial and retail spaces. By January of 1989, Building 38 will also be ready for new tenants. A mixture of offices, stores and restaurants, with even the possibility that a child care facility will be included, are the development plans of what will be called "Navy Yard Plaza." Future plans for a Faneuil Hall type of atmosphere are under discussion for the area.

Fulton Properties, a management subsidiary of the Kenney Development Company, manages the everyday operation and upkeep of the buildings. Through this company, 65 percent of the employees that service the buildings are Charlestown residents, a point of pride with Property Manager Robert Kenney. "We make every effort to hire our people from the community because they have shown us that they are people who

THOSE RADON BLUES

Radon gas can be a worry for homeowners. This naturally occurring substance has been found in homes throughout the country. It is odorless, colorless and undetectable without sophisticated testing. Radon has been linked to lung cancer, and environmental experts caution that it should not be taken lightly. Remember, however, that once detected, radon gas can be removed, often at a relatively low cost with simple ventilation systems.

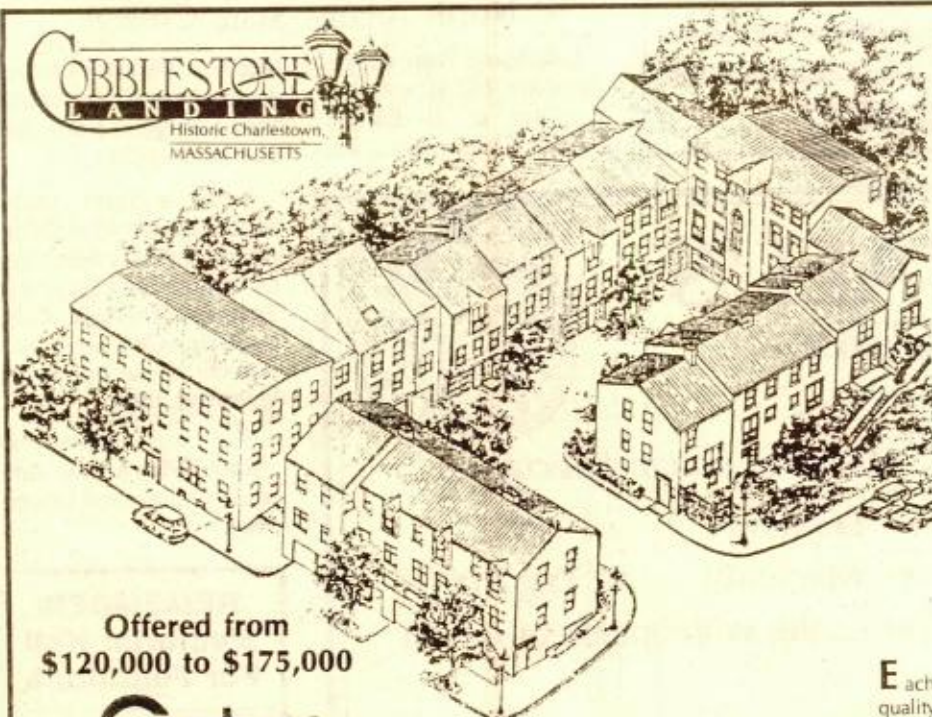

If you're concerned about radon in your home, you can have it tested. You can contact your nearest branch of the Environmental Protection Agency for information about how to find a reputable company qualified to perform the tests. If you're buying a new home in an area where radon has been a problem, you might consider including a radon test as part of the structural contingency clause. If you're planning to sell, you can test your home before placing it on the market. If there's no problem, your fears will be put to rest. Even if radon is detected, you will be able to deal with it before it becomes an issue in a purchase negotiation.

For professional advice on all aspects of buying or selling a home, talk to the professionals at Century 21, Silva Realty Associates. Come by our offices at 142 Main Street, Charlestown or call us at 242-7470.

Detailed directions for the detour necessitated by the CANA project has been promulgated in the daily and weekly papers. For the new resident or for the existing one who has misplaced directions, please cut out the below for your visitors.

Traffic from the north should take Exit 28 off Route 93, this is Sullivan Square. Proceed up the ramp, observing the Schrafft's landmark building on the left. Continue on past Bunker Hill Community College on your right and follow the sign to City Square. Just past Carr's Shell station on the left, take a hard right at the rotary and take a left under the bridge onto Water Street. Follow Water Street past Constitution Plaza and continue on the loop, arriving at Gate Four. Entering Fifth Street, take the first left onto First Avenue until arriving at your desired location.

Commuters coming from the south, take Exit 25, Causeway Street, from the Southeast Expressway north, proceeding to your right onto Causeway Street. At the intersection of Causeway and North Washington (Polcari's Restaurant) take a left onto the Charlestown High Bridge and continue on the bridge. At City Square, follow the signs to Water Street. Water Street will bring you past Gate One. At Gate Four, take a right onto Fifth Street and then the next left to First Avenue and continue on to your desired destination.

Consider the positive side of potential late visitors as the numerous restaurants with complete take-out menus will make for a carefree evening.

A local resident who found his way back from the south, experiencing no radical road conditions but weather woes, was Bob Conti. Arriving at his Shipway residence, Bob thought long and hard over the superlative weather he left behind in Florida. Donning his lined Barracuda, Bob was preparing his evening meal over the grill on his patio. With a soon-to-be filled marina as a backdrop, Bob withstood the rain and wind casually. His gourmet meal was brought to satisfaction using mesquite. Prompted by his halcyon southern holiday, Bob was determined to recreate his tropical dining regardless of the outdoor elements. Welcome back to Bob and his family. Don't fret Bob, the eggplant will once again be bountiful for your cosmopolitan meals.

A sundry of miniature plastic flags dotted the boundaries of the Shipways. Many ideas of their significance have been bandied about. Maybe a miniature golf course? Afraid not, these are markers that will allow for the installation of the sprinkler system for the surrounding locale. As the adage states, "The grass is always greener in the other fella's yard." After several seasons of unacceptable lawn treatment, the sprinkler should remedy the situation.

Receptions that run the gamut from social to political have called Boston's Pier Four to host the event. Another player has arrived on the scene. Notwithstanding the news offered by Pier Four, The Raymond Group's Building 149 on Ninth Street is becoming the local major reception facility. With the May 14th Charlestown Preservation Society black tie gala benefiting the Kent School restoration and the beautification of Thompson Square, and the forthcoming Captain's Ball on June 10th, Building 149 is constantly in demand. It's atrium allows for great pedestrian traffic flow. All that have had the pleasure of enjoying the amenities available are in agreement that it will be a fixture on everyone's social calendar. Treasurer Dan O'Neil has selected its spaciousness for the Captain's Ball with benefits directed to the Charlestown Town Team, members of the Eastern Football League. Dan sites the adjoining parking garage at Building 199 as a great event companion. Depending on your ball, contact The Raymond Group for a great big ball.

What a future trilogy — from your housing room, to the hotel room and, unfortunately, to the nursing room. As detailed recently by Boston Redevelopment Authority Director Stephen Coyle, all of the above have the possibility of calling the Yard's End their home. Projections of future Yard development warrant this unique mix. One thing that is guaranteed, a lottery won't be necessary for the nursing home. If the nursing home becomes a reality, it will be a match made in heaven. With the existing Massachusetts General Hospital East housed in Building 149, its management system staff will provide expert selection input for the home's eventual administration. This nautical setting would provide a great opportunity to bring its inhabitants the elixir that will make their visit of short duration.

New Charlestown Single People's Group Off And Running

A brand new organization of people in Charlestown, who describe themselves in such terms as "unattached," "single," "currently involved," or possibly "available," has met and held its first meeting. This event took place on Thursday evening, May 12, in space generously made available by Saint John's Episcopal Church, 27 Devens Street.

Some 25 Charlestown residents from the Navy Yard to the Neck, from lifelong residents to some people who just arrived, and many of in-between status, got together in an informal setting to explore how such a group could be successfully set up and kept going. Ages ranged from the upper 20s to 60.

The purpose of forming such a group is to enable Charlestown's booming population of single people to meet each other in comfortable surroundings and through participation in a wide variety of activities. Anticipated activities include backyard barbecues, a gourmet club and other food-related get-togethers; evenings out to theaters, clubs, movies, museums, etc.; sports-related activities, both as spectator and participant; community service efforts; and whatever else the group's members choose to get involved in.

sake of holding meetings, a second organizational meeting is planned for Thursday, May 26 at 7 p.m. at the library of Saint John's Episcopal Church, 27 Devens Street. Saint John's is located not far from the Warren Tavern, just beyond the intersection of Main, Harvard, Pleasant, Prescott, and Devens Street. It is intended that this meeting take on something of a party atmosphere by mixing business with ordering food from some local establishments.

Please plan to attend if you'd enjoy meeting many of your neighbors whom you may be passing daily on the street or in the supermarket and have been thinking "Hmm, I'd like to meet him/her." And plan to take an active role in US.

For further information, call US co-coordinators Barbara Sammon at 241-7659 or Mark Dullea at 242-9657.

A name was agreed upon — US — short for Urban Singles. It was agreed that the status of a non-profit corporation should be achieved in order to provide a strong identity as well as to resolve legal issues such as liability.

Preservation Society Moves Closer To Realization Of Thompson Square Park

The Charlestown Preservation Society moved closer to having their plans for a park in Thompson Square become a reality this week with two separate announcements, one from the Boston Redevelopment Authority (BRA) and the second from the Boston Water and Sewer Commission.

In action taken on May 12, the BRA Board voted to appropriate $10,000 from the Community Fund for the Permanent Maintenance Fund for Thompson Square Park. The Society had requested this contribution in order that the fund reach $20,000 before the construction project began. Some $10,000 has been raised by the Society for the Maintenance Fund.

Also, the Boston Water and Sewer Commission has granted permission to the Preservation Society to provide water for the decorative and drinking fountain in the Thompson Square Park. The water usage will be metered and paid for by the Preservation Society.

David L. Conlin, acting director of the Commission said that he was pleased to respond favorably to the Preservation Society's request.

According to Commission spokesman Ron Cantena, the usual procedure in connecting a fountain is to recirculate the water. He said that since this proposed fountain will be both ornamental as well as a source of drinking water, an exception has been made in this case as the water has to be potable. He said the fountain will automatically discharge water ten minutes per hour.

Cantena said that Annette Tecce, trustee of the Preservation Society, told the Commission that the members of the Society were very excited regarding the decision that drinking water be available for this site. She said that a fountain with drinking water is an integral part of their plans for Thompson Square and they are delighted the Commission agreed with their proposal.

Tecce said that the Thompson Square Park, which has been in the planning stages for four years, is being developed with a $175,000 grant from the Browne Fund, a $45,000 NDEA grant and $55,000 in monies from the BRA allocated from the Main Street reconstruction project for the Thompson Square Park.

The first draft of the construction drawings should be in the hands of the committee this week, said Tecce. If approved, the contract for the construction should go out to bid next week with completion of the Park planned within this construction season.

Massachusetts Water Resources Authority Employees "Lend A Hand"

THE PLAYGROUND of the Charlestown Headstart Program's temporary facility at The Schrafft Center was the site of a presentation of a check in the amount of $200 from the Charlestown employees of the Massachusetts Water Resources Authority (MWRA) for the Charlestown Headstart Fire Fund. The donation was from a benefit raffle conducted by MWRA employees Donna Shaw and John got a much needed start last December when Representative Voke secured a state commitment to fund the plan and design process for this project. While he has been working on obtaining the needed capital for construction, local community figures have been working with the Department of Environmental Management on the details of the study.

"The success we have enjoyed to date on this project is largely the result of the great community interest and support that has been channeled through the North Area Task Force," stated Voke. "Our joint efforts have certainly borne positive results, as evidenced by our funding announcement here today."

North Area Task Force co-chairman Rich Johnston stated, "Today is a great day for Charlestown, especially for City Square. The state's commitment finally assures that a magnificent park will be built in City Square, restoring the Square to its nineteenth century grandeur. We owe this day to the persistence of Charlestown residents in convincing the State Department of Public Works, DPW's consultants, and city officials that steps should be taken to create a park during construction of the CANA project, rather than waiting until after the highway project is over to decide the fate of City Square.

"But, we also owe the park to the tireless efforts of Representative Voke. His vision for City Square has been exemplary, his support unwavering. Once again, Voke has demonstrated his effectiveness in making the state responsive to the needs of our community and translating our hopes into realities. We cannot say enough about his support," concluded Johnston.

Although happy to have delivered on this issue, Voke notes that his work, and the work of community activists, must continue. "While we have accomplished much together, there is still much more to be accomplished to better provide for local needs," Voke said. Johnston reiterated Voke's statement by saying, "The North Area Task Force, along with other interested Charlestown residents, will now begin to coordinate the planning and design process for the park with the state, city and other relevant agencies. We ask all residents to join the Task Force in this most exciting project, the establishing of a park at the most important entrance into Charlestown from Boston. We look forward to a joint venture between residents who have known and enjoyed this area of Charlestown for many, many years and new residents who have made Charlestown their new home," stated Johnston.

Interested residents who would like to become part of the committee planning the new park at City Square should call Ken Stone at 242-2837.

THE SITE of the new City Square Park is indicated in this artist's rendition of the area. Representative Richard A. Voke has secured $4 million in funding to make the dream of a park at this entrance to Charlestown from Boston a reality.

Hero Square Dedicated In Honor Of Former Charlestown Resident

The Boston Chinatown Post 328 of The American Legion and the City of Boston dedicated a Hero Square in honor of Private First Class George Oi on May 15 at the corner of Beech and Hudson Streets in the Chinatown section of Boston.

Oi died in Germany on March 11, 1945 during the Battle of Remagen Bridge. This dedication marked the first time a Chinese-American received such an honor in the New England area.

Oi was born in Charlestown and lived with his family at 11 Austin Street in a house which has since been torn down. He attended the Harvard Elementary School. His family subsequently moved to Chinatown where he spent most of his youth. He joined the United States Army at the age of 18 and was sent to Europe in November, 1944.

Oi volunteered to serve as the "Point Man" to scout for his unit during the Battle of Remagen Bridge. He was killed instantly by the direct hit of a German mortar shell.

A Bronze Star and a Purple Heart were presented to Oi's family for his show of bravery.

Members of the Oi family were on hand for Sunday's dedication including his brother Henry Oi of Canton and his sister Rhonda Wong Lee of New York City.

Taking part in the ceremony were Mayor Raymond L. Flynn, Boston City Councillors Albert "Dapper" O'Neil and James Kelly, and representatives of The American Legion including Past National Historian and Past Department Commander James W. Conway of Charlestown.

It's A Boy . . .

A bundle of joy was delivered to John and Jackie Romano. Seven and one-half pound, 21-inch long Evan was born on May 10.

The paternal grandmother is Dot Romano of Old Ironsides Way, Charlestown.

The maternal grandmother is Dianne Moccia and the maternal grandfather is Nick Moccia of New Hampshire.

The proud great-grandmother is Ann McCoy of West Roxbury.

Charlestown Teen Connection First Annual Sports Banquet

photos by Lynn Peters

More than 200 youngsters participating in five Charlestown Teen Connection sports leagues were honored on May 12 with team and individual trophies at their First Annual Sports Banquet. Former Boston Bruin Gerry Cheevers flew in from Florida to help hand out the trophies and congratulate the players, and Youth Outreach Program Director of Boston Community Schools Charles Rose also took part in the ceremony at the Knights of Columbus.

FORMER BRUIN GOALIE Gerry Cheevers (rear) received a standing ovation from more than 300 players, parents and coaches at the Charlestown Teen Connection's First Annual Sports Banquet last Thursday at the Knights of Columbus. ## "A Good Neighbor"

(continued from page 3) display their concern and knowledge of the area and this carries over to their work. As the next two buildings are completed, we plan to hire more Charlestown people to fill the positions that will come available," Kenney stated. Kenney also stated that they "are here for the long run," referring to their long-term lease in the Navy Yard. They have shown their commitment to the area by contributing to such local charities as "Townie Santa," Youth Hockey and the Town Team, to name just a few. When asked about their interest in becoming such an integral part of the restoration of the Headstart building, Kenney stated that "we had the ability, a concern for the area and the knowledge and know-how and wanted to get involved. No, we felt we should get involved! Once the BRA informed us of the great need, the Company was more than willing to get to work on the project." Not only have they volunteered their services, but they have been able to reach out to other companies to contribute as well. To date, the list of services that will be donated include those of Massachusetts Electric Construction Company, Fallon and Williams Plumbing and Heating Contractors, Shea Roofing and Pilgrim Fire Protection.

Kenney hopes that others will step forward and contribute to the fire fund either financially, in services rendered or with construction materials. He advises those seeking further information on how to contribute to call Kate McDonough at 241-8866.

Birmingham Announces Candidacy For State Senate Seat

On Monday, May 16, Tom Birmingham announced his candidacy for the State Senate seat in the Suffolk, Essex and Middlesex District. In making his formal announcement, Birmingham brought his message to each city and town of this district throughout the day.

The District includes Revere, Everett, Chelsea, Charlestown, the West End, part of the North End of Boston and part of Saugus.

In Charlestown, Birmingham met with a gathering of friends and supporters at 86 Elm Street. He stated that this was his family's home and his grandfather, also named Tom Birmingham, lived and died there.

Birmingham stated, "My father, Jackie, was raised here on Elm Street and I spent the early years of my life here. Although my family moved to Chelsea, I felt my earliest and deepest roots in Charlestown."

He continued, "Charlestown is known for its traditions and pride, and despite outside pressures, it still has a vital sense of community."

"For years," said Birmingham, "Charlestown has had no home-grown representative in government. As someone who comes from Charlestown, I'll always have a special relationship with the people here. I am running for this position because I want to make you as proud of your State Senator as you are of Charlestown."

Birmingham grew up in Chelsea and attended local schools. He is a graduate of Harvard College, a Rhodes Scholar and a 1978 graduate of Harvard Law School.

Since leaving law school, Birmingham has worked defending the interests of working people as a labor lawyer.

Birmingham calls his a "People's Campaign" and pledges to knock on 10,000 doors in the District between now and the election on September 15 to speak to the residents on such issues as affordable housing, auto insurance rates and the environment as well as issues raised by the people of the District as he campaigns over the next four months.

Birmingham and his wife Selma, who teaches at Holy Cross, are the parents of two daughters, Erica age 5 and Megan age 3.

Birmingham stated, "I am running because I want to be the very best State Senator you have ever voted for. I ask for your support on September 15. And when I am elected, I will work to be a State Senator of whom you can be proud."

(political announcement)

Not For Nothin' . . . But Have You Heard . . .

• Saturday's the Big Day . . . for all those waiting to see just what was placed in the time capsule taken from the cornerstone of the old Y.M.C.A. building while it was being demolished in City Square. Word has it that a lot of old friends from the "Y" will be gathering for the occasion as well as the many Charlestown residents who have fond memories of happy times at the "Y." This is going to be quite a gala event. The event will start at 10 a.m. and will include patriotic music, the opening of the sealed copper box, and a cannon salute — not to mention entertainment by the Bunker Hillbillies! The youngsters in the audience will be treated to balloons, flags and much more. Refreshments will be served as well. So, come on down to the Navy Yard. Festivities will take place in Shipyard Park, just inside Gate 4, or in case of inclement weather, in Building 149 on 13th Street. See you there!!!!

• Complaints, complaints . . . Street cleaning tickets were given out on Bunker Hill Street last week — that's not unusual, but the stretch of road between Lexington Street and Hayes Square was not posted and residents didn't know when it was scheduled to be cleaned. The proper City department was notified and signs are being installed as of today on both Bunker Hill and Main Streets so as there won't be any more misunderstandings. Word to the wise — watch those signs!

• And more complaints . . . from residents upset with the "barrel brigade" still claiming a parking space with a trash barrel long after the last snowflake melted. Granted, it is illegal to save those precious parking spaces even in winter, even though hours of shoveling make you feel as though you own the space, but during good weather there is no excuse for barrels. Green Street was the target of these residents' ire, but that is certainly not the only street at fault. Come on, folks, we all have a vested interest in this town. Let's use the barrels for trash, not for decorating the streets.

• Many Happy Returns . . . go out to Peggy Ings who'll celebrate being another year younger on May 20th and belated wishes go out to Ken Stone and Fran Maher. Our best wishes to each of you.

• Celebrating Anniversaries . . . were Jim and Gloria Conway and Bob and Carol Scalli who share May 15th as their special date. Many more years together to both the Conways and the Scallis.

• Question of the Week . . . Now put your thinking hats on! Do you know where WALDO STREET is in Charlestown? Answer in next week's paper.

• Good Neighbor of the Week Award . . . goes out to barrister Kevin Roche who found a stolen "Dexter Row" street sign in the High Street area and is now trying to have the City re-install it back in Thompson Square where it belongs. Thank you, Kevin.

• NOTICE . . . The Charlestown Post Office has new hours on Saturday. Starting this weekend, the office will be open between 9 a.m. and noon. Make note of it.

• Remember When . . . 20 years ago this month . . . John M. Kelley of Elm Street was named Chief Marshal of the Bunker Hill Day Parade . . . The BRA office was located in a small building at 38 Cross Street (their furniture was vintage WW II at the time, too) . . . The Old Charlestown Schoolboys met for the 55th time and Walter Fields turned the presidency over to Wylie Van Wart . . . Five years ago . . . the Charlestown-To-Charlestown Committee held their first Charlestown Rose Contest in which ten local young women competed for the honor . . . and Neighborhood Council member Jim Doherty starred in "Awake and Sing" at the Charlestown Working Theater . . .

• Tid Bits . . . Has anyone seen Anna Martin's $45 bathing suit? A reward is being offered . . . Caps from the USS Bunker Hill can only be found at the Bunker Hill Museum on Monument Square. They just opened for the season and are only open on the weekends until the tourist season picks up. Stop by on Saturday or Sunday between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. Allow some time for a little tour — you'd be very surprised at what you've been missing about your home town . . . We saw families move into the large potholes on Main Street outside the new housing being built by the E.D.C. These potholes are big enough to house a family of four comfortably. Come on guys — these are our new roadways that we waited for so long! Will this happen whenever a developer builds along Main Street or Warren Street? We realize that services must be installed, but the contractor should be held accountable for leaving the roadway in as good condition as he found it . . . Hang out those flags, folks, because Saturday is

"Ralph"
Happy 22nd

$10,000 is needed to put the Bunker Hill Day Parade on the streets, Sunday, June 19, 1988. With the fiscal constraints on the City of Boston, only a limited amount of money is being allocated to the celebration by the City, thus the success of the Celebration depends on you — the residents, merchants, and organizations. Donations of $25 and over will be publicly acknowledged.

Special Meeting On Parcel R-87

Other rumors suggest that the plans for the parcel to be presented will include two four-bedroom units of special needs (689) housing to be developed by the BHA as well as the proposed construction of 20 townhouses on that site, 10 of which would be affordable.

Those concerned about young people looking for their first housing opportunities in Charlestown should be present to have impact on final redevelopment decisions for the parcel.

Also at this meeting, the Housing and Development Committee will consider the two submitted proposals for Parcel R-107,253-261A Main Street and 3 Lawnwood Place.

The public is welcome to attend.

Pre-Registration For The Annual Doll Carriage Parade

The Annual Bunker Hill Day Doll Carriage Parade will be held on Saturday, June 18 at 10 a.m. in the Training Field at Winthrop Square. This event is open to all Charlestown children between the ages of two and seven. Prizes will be awarded in various categories — most original, prettiest, etc.

In case of rain, the Doll Carriage Parade will be held in the lower hall of the Knights of Columbus, 75 West School Street.

There will be pre-registration for this year's contest. Parents should complete the entry form below and submit it to Chairperson Edna Kelly by Monday, June 13.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

It Only Costs A Few Dollars To Buy A Pooper Scooper

Dear Editor:

I am appalled that people in this town let their dogs mess on the grass at the Monument and Training Field. It only costs a few dollars to buy a pooper scooper.

The next time I see a dog messing in these parks I am tempted to do the same on their owner's door step with my infant's diaper.

These are our historic parks and should be for the use of the people. It is the owners' responsibility to clean up after their dogs.

Please consider others when you are walking your dogs. Bring along a pooper scooper and clean up after them.

Help Them Learn A New Way To Live

Dear Editor,

I am writing in response to Lynn Peters' article in the May 12 edition of the Charlestown Patriot about the excellent drug abuse prevention done by the SPECDA Program. Programs like SPECDA and the work of individuals like Officer Dashner cannot be appreciated too much.

My concern is with quotes attributed to Officer Dashner that I believe could be taken out of context. These were, "Rehabilitation and additional drug units are high cost programs. And they tend to be somewhat inefficient in dealing with the problem." It is true that prevention of illness is the most cost effective way to deal with any disease. Prevention is certainly preferable to waiting until an illness is in full swing and requiring treatment. Unfortunately, the City of Boston has a major health problem with abuse/dependency. Drug dependence is a treatable disease requiring treatment. This means that rehabilitation and additional drug units are needed along with prevention curricula if we are to have a significant impact on this problem.

The costs of addicted parents to their children is immeasurable. The terror felt by parents whose children are drug dependent and/or dealers is also costly. We will all be somewhat richer and better off if we help them to learn a new way to live. A comprehensive substance abuse treatment and prevention system in each community can go a long way toward that goal.

Sincerely,

Hilding Ohrstrom, Program Director
Substance Abuse Program

GAMES ROOM COOKOUT

On Saturday, May 28, Carole Marks and her Games Room staff, friends and the Torch Club will be hosting a cookout at the Club at noon. Because of the fantastic year of fun and excitement that has happened with Carole, the cookout should be a nice day to talk about all of the things that have happened this year and plan some fun for next year. All members are invited and there is no cost to attend. So come on up and have a hotdog or a hamburger and relax with us!

RED SOX GAMES

Roger "The Rocket" Clemens has made a generous donation to the Club. Red Sox tickets to several upcoming games are available. The tickets will be given out on a game-to-game basis and Joe Jackson is the person to see. So let's support those Sox. The next set of tickets are for this weekend's game versus California.

GARDENING CLUB

It's the time of year to start planting those delicious vegetables that will be ripe for the picking during the summer. With some help from Rudy "Rebound" Doenges, the kids should become great little gardeners and grow some of the juiciest tomatoes, biggest cukes and crispest string beans this side of Sullivan Square. The club will meet on Wednesdays in the afternoon and the garden is right out in the back of the Clubhouse. Anyone interested should sign up with Eileen at 242-1775, extension 217.

CONGRATULATIONS

Each year three staff members from each of the Charlestown, Southie and Roxbury Clubs are recognized for their dedication, creativeness, talents and enthusiasm in providing a positive atmosphere to expand the knowledge and interests of our kids. Shelley Montgomery, head of our Physical Education Department; Carole Marks, our Games Room/Special Events Coordinator and Susan Newell, our After School Day Care Director, have been selected as this year's recipients. They will be formally recognized at an upcoming luncheon with the Downtown Board of Directors. Congratulations Shelley, Carole and Susan — keep up the good work!

INTERNATIONAL KEYSTONE CONFERENCE

Kristi Kane has been selected to represent the Boys and Girls Club of Boston in Brisbane, Australia at this year's International Keystone Conference. The trip to Australia should be lots of fun and quite an experience. So have fun, Kristi. We're all sure you will represent us well in Australia. Wonder if they have ever met a "Townie" down under?

The Raymond Group Is Major Sponsor Of Charlestown Clubhouse Road Race

The Raymond Group, located in Building 149 in the Charlestown Navy Yard, is the corporate sponsor for the Annual Charlestown Boys and Girls Club Battle of Bunker Hill Road Race. The race will be held on Sunday, June 19.

According to David Francis, president of The Raymond Group, "We are a corporation concerned with community welfare and as part of our commitment to Charlestown, we're pleased to do our share for the youth of Charlestown by tying in with a well-organized, well-managed event promoting fitness and health."

Linda Smith, community liaison for The Raymond Group, said, "The Clubhouse Road Race is enthusiastically supported by our employees. Some will be running the course and others have volunteered to man the finish area to supply refreshments and encouragement to the runners."

With some minor changes in the route, the course will be the same as last year. In order to accommodate the increased number of runners, the start and finish lines will be moved to The Raymond Group headquarters at Building 149 in the Navy Yard.

If you love the thrill of competition, now is the time to start training for the Clubhouse race. All that's needed is a pair of sneakers, a competitive spirit and the motivation to try. A registration form is necessary to run, but to watch you can just show up anywhere along the route and cheer on the runners.

Two races are planned again this year. For the runner of modest athletic ability, the chance to compete will be the two-mile novice race starting at 9 a.m. The registration fee for the novice race is $5.00 and entrants will assemble at the Boys and Girls Club on Green Street at 8:30 a.m.

For the more seasoned runner, a 10K T.A.C. Certified race will begin at 10 a.m. Named "The Battle of Bunker Hill" to reflect the difficult course through the streets of Charlestown, this race has been designated by running professionals to be the most challenging 10K in Boston. Registration fee for the 10K race is $6.00 in advance, $8.00 on the day of the race, and all registrants will receive a T-shirt. Entrants will assemble at Building 149 on 13th Street in the Navy Yard at 9:30 a.m. At the sound of the starting gun, runners follow a course that will traverse the streets of historic Charlestown and end in the Navy Yard.

Post-race ceremonies for both races at The Raymond Group headquarters in Building 149 in the Navy Yard will begin when all runners have crossed the finish line. Trophies and cash prizes will be awarded in several categories.

Volunteers are needed the day of the race. If you have a few hours to spare, or need an entry form, call Linda Smith or Tammy January at The Raymond Group, 241-7700.

Central Artery Signs To Be Replaced

A contract was awarded to replace signs on the Central Artery from the Dewey Square Tunnel to I-93/Route 1 fork with new sign panels, according to Massachusetts Department of Public Works Commissioner Jane F. Garvey. L & C Flashing Barricades of Canton was awarded the $242,962 contract for the sign replacement work slated for completion by early fall of 1988.

The new aluminum sign panels will feature larger lettering and route markers to help direct motorists to Central Artery exits," said Commissioner Garvey. "When this project begins in early summer," she added, "all sign replacements will be done at night to avoid disrupting heavy volumes of daytime traffic."

Erection of sign panels will take place between 11 p.m. and 5 a.m., Monday through Saturday and from midnight to 9 a.m. on Sunday. On and off ramps from the Callahan Tunnel to Lev-erett Circle northbound and Haymarket Square to Purchase Street southbound will be closed alternating one ramp at a time, to permit workers to install the new sign panels.

Extra police details will be on site throughout the work period.

Thinking Out Loud . . .

By Sal Giarratani

END BUSING NOW . . .

As someone active in the anti-forced busing movement of the mid-1970s, I say end Boston's school busing program as its continued use is now without any value because Boston's schools have seen the white students shrink from 52 percent in 1974 to 26 percent today. Minority students are now being bused past public schools in their own neighborhoods to predominantly minority schools miles away in white neighborhoods. School integration is now a demographic impossibility given the numbers showing non-white students representing 74 percent of the student body. In 1974, that number was only 48 percent.

It is time to let kids go back to schools nearer home and the monies spent on transportation put back into the classrooms where it's really needed.

GET INVOLVED . . .

A small crew of political activists and office-seekers are continually able to exercise an exorbitant amount of political influence because most people deem themselves above politics. As long as this kind of rationale remains a fact of life, we will continue to get the pols we deserve. As more men and women get politically active within their communities, political power will be expanded to a larger share of We, the People. Government is our business and if we don't do our jobs, who will?

Look at issues like the depressed Central Artery or the conversion of affordable rental housing into high priced condominiums, what are we doing as citizens to influence the political process? Are we letting our elected officials know our opinions? Are we running for legislative seats to directly change government policies? Are we supporting those elected folks who are representing us well? And are we opposing those who have shown themselves to be marginally competent to hold office? We, the People can make a difference. It isn't easy and never has been, but it's not impossible!

SPEAKING OF THE PEOPLE . . .

The North End Civic League, celebrating its 30th anniversary, has recently endorsed State Senator Fran Doris for re-election to his senate district. The district now includes most of the North End (Precincts 1, 2 and 4). His record of achievement as a State Senator over the past decade has been outstanding. When I lived in Charlestown, I could always count on Doris to do what was right for my community and the North End community is getting quite a good senator out of the re-districting process.

Children's Films

The Film Program for Children will be presented at the Charlestown Branch Library, 179 Main Street on Tuesday, May 24 at 10:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

The features will be "Leo The Hunter," in which a sly rabbit attempts to escape a group of hunters; an ingenious cricket tries to stop a polluting porcupine in "The Cricket And The Engine;" and in "Curious George Goes To The Hospital," a piece of puzzle lands George in the hospital.

"The Astronauts," the story of a boiler that becomes a spaceship and sends a neighborhood gang into orbit, will be shown only at 3:30 p.m.

Charlestown Police Line

From the desk of Deputy Superintendent Ronald X. Conway
Area A, Boston Police Department

Monday, May 9

Officers Hennessey and Hogan arrested a 16-year-old resident on Medford Street who was wanted on an outstanding default warrant.

Detective Donahue and Officer DaCorta recovered a revolver that was stolen in a housebreak earlier in the week.

An automobile that was parked in the Thirteenth Street garage was broken into and the stereo was taken.

An automobile that was parked on Medford Street was vandalized during the night with dents and scratches on the side.

Tuesday, May 10

An automobile stolen from Malden was recovered on Carney Court by Officer Whiffin.

Officer Connolly responded to a Polk Street apartment where he met the tenant who reported that her boyfriend had just beaten her up, causing bruises to her head and arms. The suspect was placed under arrest and taken to Area A.

At approximately 9:15 p.m., a female resident was walking along Monument Square when a young male came up from behind, knocked her to the ground and attempted to pull her pocketbook away. She held onto the purse and the suspect fled the scene on foot.

Wednesday, May 11

An automobile stolen from Somerville was recovered at 529 Main Street by Officer Hurley.

An automobile that was parked on Medford Street was broken into during the night.

Thursday, May 12

An attempt was made to break into an apartment at 195 Bunker Hill Street during the early evening hours by forcing open the front door.

Friday, May 13

Officer Buckley responded to a motor vehicle accident on Rutherford Avenue at which time it was determined that one of the operators, a Cambridge resident, was intoxicated. He was placed under arrest and taken to Area A.

Saturday, May 14

Officer Charbonnier responded to a call to an apartment on O'Meara Court where he met a female resident who informed him that her boyfriend had just assaulted her and threatened her with a knife. The suspect was placed under arrest and taken to Area A.

An automobile that was parked on First Avenue was broken into and a stereo was taken.

A resident was driving her motor vehicle by 169 Bunker Hill Street at approximately 6:30 p.m. when an unknown individual threw a rock which smashed the side window.

Two young males entered the Bunker Hill Liquor Store at approximately 9 p.m. They took a case of beer and ran out the front door. One of the individuals smashed the front window while fleeing.

A resident reported that he was walking along Main Street at about 2 a.m. when he was approached by five males who assaulted him and then fled the scene.

An automobile that was parked on O'Reilly Way was broken into and damage was done to the outside.

A stolen automobile was recovered on Walford Way by Officer Mitchell.
