How Does Nooro NMES Whole Body Massager Electric Massager Work?

Get ready to feel like you're getting a deep tissue massage from a professional therapist as the Nooro NMES Whole Body Massager uses electrical impulses to stimulate your muscles and provide relief. This electric massager works by utilizing muscle stimulation through Electrical Stimulation Therapy (EST) to target specific areas of pain or tension. It sends low-level electrical currents through the skin, which causes your muscles to contract and relax in an involuntary manner.

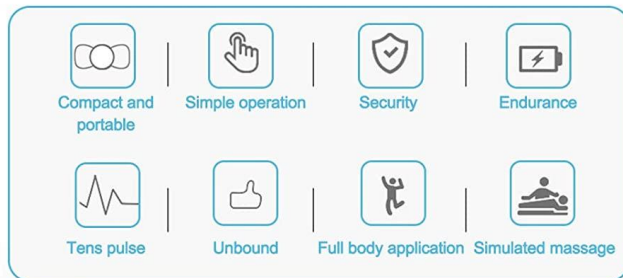

The Nooro NMES Whole Body Massager is designed with various relaxation techniques, such as muscle kneading, tapping, rolling, and scraping. These techniques help to increase blood flow throughout your body while easing any tightness or soreness in your muscles. Additionally, this electric massager has multiple intensity levels that allow you to customize the massage according to your preferences.
