(My name's Harry I'm a Brighton City College student, I do acting)

I'm just an ordinary housewife

(When was the first time you danced?)

When I was 6 years old, my father was a beautiful dancer. He taught me how to do the waltz and the quickstep and everything my father was in the forces. The afghan war, you know? He was super, won medals and everything. And he taught me how to do the waltz and all the other dances

(What sort of dance do you specialise in?)

Ballroom dancing.

(Where was it in Brighton you first danced or in London)

Oh, no. I'd been in India, and my father got demobbed during the war. Because my father was in the forces and had all the different medals we got to come to England
