

The Sport Awards 2022: Each Outcome, Winner, World Premiere, Trailers And Extra

The sport Awards are over for another 12 months. Yes, Gaming's grandest stage of all, the Tremendous Bowl of video recreation awards reveals, the showcase of the digital immortals - whatever you wish to name it -- has come and gone. There was not a single attendee this year, with the 30 Angels handed out online throughout a 3-hour event broadcasting from Los Angeles, London and Tokyo. The awards had been great! But we all know the true motive to tune in is for all the "World Premieres," showcasing new video video games and future releases for the first time.

We've the complete checklist of winners simply under, so get able to recreation on, players!

The sport Awards are typically extra The game Adverts with an award show combined in, however we had an important time final yr bringing you all of the winners, among the losers, reactions online, surprises and every single trailer that dropped through the present... so we're doing it once more. Final year, the Xbox Series X was unveiled with an eye-watering look at the subsequent Hellblade sport. Within the 12 months since, there's been a pandemic and the subsequent generation of consoles have made their approach into players' arms. We had been given a take a look at what's in retailer for these consoles in 2021 and there is so much right here.

You may discover the listing of winners down below and all of the trailers and world premieres from the night time. We even have a play-by-play of the night time and the underside of the web page. Seize a Monster* or a coffee and settle in, did I mention there's quite a bit right here? Let's go.

The sport Awards play-by-play and reactions

Immediately could be very busy if you're in any respect concerned about content material.

There's a giant Disney Investor Day stream taking place proper now, the place the monolithic Mouse is revealing a ton of latest Television series and movies. Value testing if you're involved in content material, which... you surely are!

Alright. Right here we go.

The game Awards 2020!

If you need to find out what happened in the pre-show... just scroll a little further down.

LET'S KICK THIS Factor INTO Excessive GEAR.

First up, it is a super Smash Bros. Ultimate DLC character reveal. A short cinematic reveals the new character to be Sephiroth from Remaining Fantasy VII. I did not expect that. Twitch chat goes foolish. We thought Mario was useless... but he is okay. Phew.

Brie Larson is right here to present the primary award. It's for one of the best Performance and it goes to Laura Bailey for her efficiency as Abby within the Last of Us Half 2. It additionally seems her phone is dinging, which is a pleasant little touch and a reminder everyone's doing this factor from house this year.

Not to mess with Geoff but I feel like this swimsuit is a bit of bland. Carn, huge G.

Here's One other WORLD PREMIERE. This one is coming from The Initiative, one of the studios underneath Xbox Game Studios. The trailer begins with a beautifully-rendered Earth and house station. We're flying by way of a futuristic world and then... out of nowhere we hear the title Agent Darkish. This can be a trailer for Excellent Dark. WOW.

Another WORLD PREMIERE. This one is all zombies... and it looks like we is likely to be getting a brand new Left 4 Useless... it's actually Back 4 Blood. "We wanted to do more and bigger," says Chris Ashton from Turtle Rock. He throws straight into gameplay for Again 4 Blood... be aware: Pre-Alpha. We'll post it down the bottom of the web page when it's ready. It's coming in June 2021.

So, uh, anyone know when we would get one other award? Ha! Just kidding, awards, aschmords. Give me the hype trailers.

Hood Outlaws & Legends will get a trailer, then Nintendo drops an Indies showcase which ...look. I am unable to sustain with that guys. I am solely human. I am but one man. At this point, I am extra RSI than man. My wrist is bouncing all over the place. I need carrot cake.

AWARD TIME. We're again with some real awards and there's an excellent little moment with Sean Murray, head on No Man's Sky. It is absolutely gorgeous how far that game has come. There was such an uproar at its launch and now have a look at it, winning a Game Award for Finest Ongoing Recreation beating the likes of Fortnite ... Cool.

Another WORLD PREMIERE. I'm simply copy-pasting world premiere now. I will dream of world premieres after i sleep tonight. However right here we go along with The Callisto Protocol? It seems like a sci-fi title and likewise maybe a horror title? There's a two-mouthed monster. It has one mouth after which another mouth below. How would you kiss it? The top mouth first? Lots of questions right here. Type of received Dead House vibes from it... We deserve a new Dead House.

Wait. Placing Distance studios CEO Glen Schofield is a survival horror set on Jupiter's moon Callisto. Sure. Give it to me. Callisto is considered one of Jupiter's forgotten moons. We all the time hear about bloody Io, Europa and Ganymede. Get out.

QUICKFIRE AWARDS TIME. Here we go with four awards. Greatest VR/AR, Best Sports activities/Racing, Best Motion, Best Artwork Course.

Elden Ring grabs... not likely an award but probably the most Anticipated Game. That's the George R. R. Martian recreation, from the creators of Dark Souls. Needs to be goooooood.

WORLD PREMIERE, Once more. This one seems delightful. It's called Open Roads. Verify the trailer as a result of my palms are sore however that is from the Gone Residence workforce. Shall be legit.

Disco Elysium: The ultimate Reduce is coming in March 2021, a free improve for all players.

Can I name this a World Premiere? I assume so. It is a WORLD PREMIERE. Can't wait to depend up these World Premieres later and absolutely flip out. This is all going so fast. It's insanity.

WORLD PREMIERE TIME. A big one. It's for Dragon Age. I am unable to even inform you what any of this implies because I do not play each single sport on the planet and Dragon Age has never been a giant one for me.

WORLD PREMIERE TIME. I haven't caught up. I'm up to now behind. I do not even know the place to look. I am sorry. Go on with out me. Tell my dad and mom I liked them. This one is named Countless Dungeon.

WORLD PREMIERE TIME. It's Crimson Desert -- Geoff tells everyone it features actual gameplay footage and it is beautiful. It's an MMO with a robust single player and we have identified about it for some time but right here comes some big gameplay. It appears completely immaculate. Geoff was not mendacity. The MOUNTAINS. I need to run along them and dip my face in the chilly streams and bring the water to my face. It seems... real? SNOW. Let me lay in it. Mud. Ew. Dangerous.

We are Back TO AWARDS Right here Individuals. John David Washington, who plays a personality referred to as Narrative in the film Tenet, is giving out the award for Finest Narrative. We're by means of the wanting glass here, individuals. That is VIDEO Games. Alright, he proclaims the winner as the Last of Us Part 2. That is the third? award... for TLOU2? I believe so.

MUPPETS TIME. We are now in the Muppets part of the present, which has change into a normal a part of the sport Awards, following the success of Beaker and Goose last year. He is right here for a WORLD PREMIERE. It is... Overcooked is including the Swedish Chef. Okay, sure, that passes as a World Premiere I suppose!

Is anyone reading this? Please help me. I am trapped within the video games gross sales and advert machine. Reggie, is that you just? Are you able to assist me? Anyone? Is someone there? [countless screaming]

Whoa, sorry about that. It has been a bizarre 10 minutes. We had an advert that can assist you stop vaping, a Name of Responsibility trailer and now we're going into a short music session to have fun Mario turning 35 years previous. Oh man, the drummer was killing it! I'm back. This makes me comfortable. I'm okay. Thanks on your concern.

AWARDS TIME. Wow, it is Gal Gadot! Wonder Lady herself. She's right here to present the Video games for Influence awards, which fits to inform Me Why. That's a cracking game.

STRAIGHT INTO WORLD PREMIERE. And it is Vin Diesel. Vin DIESEL. He is here with none kind of quick automotive or a shirt. He's fighting some dudes and subsequent minute a freaking dinosaur seems out of the forest. AND EATS A person. What the hell, that is the best Quick & Furious yet. IT HAS FEATHERS. It's ARK II, starring Vin Diesel. Not sure if the "starring Vin Diesel" Needs to be within the title or not, but I might say so. The staff additionally announce an Ark animated collection. A Dinosaur Anime. Dinosaurs are back. 2021, 2022. I'm calling it.

The Vin Diesel recreation has memes going in every single place. It is stunning.

TRAILER TIME. It is for Fall Guys: Final Knockout. A lot of dissonance for me with this one. It is exhibiting a winter wonderland and down right here in Australia it's FREAKING Scorching. It was 120 levels Fahrenheit. I need summer clothes. Shorts please!

GAMEPLAY REVEAL. Odyssey: Elite Dangerous lets you explore on foot for the primary time. The tune is Space Oddity by David Bowie since you simply cannot do sci-fi with out Main Tom or Ground Management. It makes sense. Arrives in Early 2021.

A short trailer for Checkpoint which brings psychological well being sources to the gaming group. Nice.

TRAILERSssssssssssssssssssssssssssssssss. They are going to be at the bottom of the page, no world premieres in here but take a look anyway.

AWARDS TIME. We are back with Nolan North, the man of 1,000 totally different video recreation voices. He's presenting the perfect Multiplayer Recreation and it goes to the Amongst Us staff. That is wonderful. A fantastic second. This is the game that people like AOC have been absolutely hammering lately. The winners are emotional! I like it. Lovely!

WORLD PREMIERE. A trailer about a cabin in the woods... they discovered the Book of the Dead. Wait, is it ... yes, it is . Evil Dead, The sport. Dropping in 2021.

WORLD PREMIERE. A reboot, and it is from Capcom. It is Ghosts 'n Goblins! Sure, Sure! Underpants. But there's additionally Capcom Arcade Stadium coming to the Switch too -- you can play the classics on the Change.

AWARDS. GEOFF goes BANG, with quickfire awards but once more just dropping 5 in fast succession. Would not Greatest Unbiased Game goes to Hades, Greatest Audio Design to The Final of Us Half 2, Finest Position Playing Sport goes to Ultimate Fantasy VII Remake, Best Sim/Strategy sport (bizarre category, come on) goes to Microsoft Flight Simulator and the Player's Voice goes to Ghost of Tsushima, which was announced pre-show on Twitter.

AWARD TIME. Now we are into the best Fighting Sport which is sneakily the award for the sport with the perfect use of a colon, :, because only Mortal Kombat doesn't include one. Would you imagine it although... the colon has let video games down yet once more. Colons are banned. Mortal Kombat eleven Final takes it home.

WORLD PREMIERE TIME. Right here we go once more folks. This one is fast-paced.

Coming 2021, it is Returnal.

I am going to the rest room now. Sorry if I miss many things. WAIT NO REGGIE IS ABOUT To affix US.

Josef Fares is right here now for a WORLD "Unique" he calls it... It's a WORLD PREMIERE but we do not mind because he is a bundle of joy. Just loves messing round. You may remember him from that time he swore at the game Awards and was immediately a star. He's revealing gameplay from It Takes Two, which seems to be quite playful. Gal Gadot would in all probability say it was "enjoyable," you'll think. Geoff throws in that he is buddies with Josef and saw the game last time he was in Stockholm... what does Geoff do all 12 months moreover play video games.

REGGIE TIME. Digital camera AND AUDIO IS Common Identical to I would Want AND Anticipate. He is right here to announce an AWARD which is the Innovation in Accessibility award. He says gaming is for everyone and gosh darn it, Reggie you're right. The award goes to The Final of Us Part 2.

WORLD PREMIERE. This one is for The Elder Scrolls Online, which is getting a brand new enlargement in 2021. The enlargement is named Elder Scrolls Online: Gates of Oblivion. The trailer is purely cinematic and doesn't give rather a lot away.

AWARDS TIME. It's the award for Finest Mobile Sport and it goes to Among Us. It's their second award of the evening. They're overwhelmed and so completely satisfied. It was released in 2018, but I assume it is a thing this yr so... you possibly can win at any time when. Looking forward to Pong's inevitable comeback.

It's Another WORLD PREMIERE FOR YOU AND FOR ME. This one is Monster Hunter Rise. An enormous franchise that I do not actually perceive but individuals adore it so, let's go for all you Monster Hunter fans. Enjoy.

We're again with Eddie Vedder, Pearl Jam lead singer and he says he actually appreciates how Future Days was used within the Last of Us Part 2. I like that he seems real about video video games as a medium and that was a really nice little rendition. Hoped he'd belt out Jeremy, if I am being completely trustworthy.

I can't get over Geoff's footwear and suit combination. I simply cannot. It is dangerous.

WORLD PREMIERE. We're out in the Wild West, I think? All the pieces goes darkish. This is some guns. A man walking. Monsters being shot. That is VIDEO Video games, individuals. There's nothing quite like video video games. Shoot a factor, hit a thing, kill a thing. You gotta like it. It's referred to as EVIL WEST and it is... I imply, the title is sufficient proper? Haha. I actually do love video video games, guys, I swear.

Slightly Among Us announcement now -- it is getting a brand new map referred to as "The Airship" that will probably be prepared in "Early 2021." There can be a Geoff Keighley mask in Amongst Us now... he is laughing about it however inside, Geoff, I can inform. This is a moment for him. The mask.

AWARDS TIME. It is Content Creator of the Year time. "They unified us all with our shared passion for play," says Jacksepticeye. Valkyrae takes home this award. Someone will have to clarify this one to me. I'm the science editor so I, uh... I am nonetheless caught up on the Ark 2 dinosaur feathers and the freakin' recreation about CALLISTO. Like, hi there!

WORLD PREMIERE TIME. It is Fortnite... and HALO? Master Chief is becoming a member of Fortnite. There you go. He's out there tonight and there's more Halo coming as well. Ninja exhibits up in another trailer featuring the Crimson vs. Blue characters Sarge and Griff. There's a new map: Halo's Blood Gulch is in inventive mode and you'll play Seize the Flag, tonight! And another factor... Strolling Dead characters Michonne and Daryl Dixon are also in Fortnite. Okay? Look, we all basically stay in Fortnite now. It is the Matrix.

This all seems like a fever dream to me. I haven't any idea of time or actuality. Do I live in Fortnite... or has Fortnite lived within me all alongside? And the buddies I made along the best way? They're gone... they've disappeared into the ether. They've dissolved away; our bodies of pure hype rise of their place. But they cannot speak. They only play video game trailers. If you are reading this, turn again now. You can't go any deeper. Your bones will flip to dust, your teeth will fall out... the hair in your head will slide off your skull. There's nothing here but video recreation. Video recreation is all the things.

Everyone going okay? Great! We're in the home stretch I feel, there should be like half-hour left at most? I hope so. Each now an once more we flick back to a Pokemon GO! advert known as Wooper Watch.

We nonetheless have Keanu Reeves and Christopher Nolan to return... yet one way or the other we are 400 hours into the present? That is such an insane event. In a many years time will we still be doing this? I'm so fascinated by this whole occasion.

ALRIGHT ITS WORLD PREMIERE TIME, Because WE Haven't HAD Sufficient OF These HAVE WE? I imply, surely we have not. This one known as Ruined King: A League of Legends Story which shall be coming to console and Computer in 2021.

AWARD TIME: It's Keanu. I'm awake and ready for this. Let's go. This award is for Best Game Route and it goes to The Final of Us Part 2, which is completely cleansing up at this present. I believe that's number four or 5? Wait, nope. It is number SIX. Neil Druckmann is right here to just accept the award. He thanks the awards and all of the followers. However there's one last award Geoff tells me. It's going to end. This is the end. Thanks.

ONE. Last. WORLD. PREMIERE. MEANS. ITS. Virtually. OVER. We are going through area and i really feel like this could possibly be Starfield no? The latest from Bethesda? I'm, definitively, carried out with video games eternally after this but... this may bring me back. It's bringing me again. Nope. It's Mass Impact. No details, nevertheless it simply says Mass Effect will continue... Pretty large!

It's the Last AWARD. The sport OF THE Year. If there's any indication from the rest of the night we're going to get a last of Us Half 2 win. Christopher Nolan is right here to bring some gravitas to the award and he introduces the London Philharmonic for a musical quantity showcasing the nominees. This medley guidelines!

The game of the 12 months goes to The Final of Us Half 2. It is over people. You made it. Thanks for becoming a member of me.

The pre-present!

WOW. Straight into it. The primary award goes to Remaining Fantasy VII Remake -- for Greatest Rating and Music. It's that easy. Solely 29 to go!

The pre-show had a huge Zoom wall where there were many cameras switched off. Here we go.

Devolver Digital announces Loop Hero in the everyday Loop Hero type method for the first World Premiere. Then we are right into a second World Premiere with Tchia, by Kowloon Nights and awaceb. It's like Breath of the Wild crossed with Moana? And you may invade the our bodies of things like birds and... coconuts? You could be a coconut. That is nice. I love coconut.

The best Motion/Adventure game in the final three years has received the general Sport of the 12 months -- will it happen once more? Webarchive That award goes to The Last of Us Part 2. There's an actual probability that gets GOTY, too, of course.

TRAILER TIME. Connie, the CEO of Jo-Mei, from Lovely Berlin is here to announce Sea of Solitude can be coming to Nintendo Switch in Winter. It's a Director's Lower as a result of its a "version that truly represents what I wished to convey about the topics which can be particularly important in today's tough occasions."

TRAILER TIME. Shady Part of Me will get slightly cute, trailer. I kind of missed it because I was getting a espresso. But apparently, it's out right now! Which is great. You may get it on Pc, Swap, PS4 and Xbox One. The trailer is at the underside of the web page.

Fast-Fire AWARDS TIME! We are doing three in a row right here. Let's bang them out:

Best Family Recreation goes to Animal Crossing: New Horizons.

Finest Community Support goes to Fall Guys: Final Knockout.

Best Debut Recreation goes to Phasmophobia.

Cool. We're now five awards down, so this factor must be completed in the subsequent hour, proper? No?

Oh sick, we'll Tokyo for Last Shock ~Scramble~ by Lyn feat. the Persona Music Band. I may do a full hour of Persona 5 music, if we had to. Just checklist the winners and let Lyn kill it for an hour.

One other WORLD PREMIERE. This one from Square Enix. Fast-paced action, big swords, operating, bullet hell, white hair... it has to be Nier. It's Nier Replicant.

One other WORLD PREMIERE. Please slow down. Can I've break? Are any of my editors studying this? Please assist. Now there is a digital band singing some autotune tune about following and unfollowing individuals and cancelling individuals. Apparently, it's uh.. ofk?

We're just below three minutes till the actual show kicks off... but first there's 5 Esports awards going down. The winners are all listed at the top of the Winners part however it was topped by a cameo from Stephen A. Smith... he is clearly havin' a time.

One final trailer for the actual factor... It is a game known as Century: Age of Ashes the place you ride dragons and dogfight and spit hearth and all that. Coming from Playwing in February 2021.
